11 pent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to 12 them that ask him? All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide [a]is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in thereby.
14 [b]For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few be they that find it.
15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.
16 By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men 17 gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but 18 the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that 19 bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and 20 cast into the fire. Therefore by their fruits ye shall 21 know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in 22 heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out [c]devils, and by thy name do many 23 [d]mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work 24 iniquity. Every one therefore which heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, which built his house upon the 25 rock: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and 26 it fell not: for it was founded upon the rock. And every one that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, 27 which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus ended these words, the multitudes were astonished at his teach-29 ing: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

CHAPTER VIII.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother in law, 16 and many other diseased: 18 sheweth how he is to be followed: 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 [1] And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, [2] See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that [3] Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ [4] And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, [5] I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but [6] speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That [7] many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But [8] the children of the kingdom [9] shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ [10] And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw [11] his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ [12] When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, [13] Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 [14] And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

8 And when he was come down from the mountain,
2 great multitudes followed him. And behold, there came to him a leper and worshipped him, saying, 3 Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway 4 his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 And when he was entered into Capernaum, there 6 came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, and saying, Lord, my [a] servant lieth in the house sick of 7 the palsy, grievously tormented. And he saith unto 8 him, I will come and heal him. And the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not [b] worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but only say [c] the 9 word, and my [a] servant shall be healed. For I also am a man [d] under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my [e] servant, 10 Do this, and he doeth it. And when Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily
I say unto you, [f] I have not found so great faith, no, 11 not in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall [g] sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the 12 kingdom of heaven: but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there 13 shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And the [a] servant was healed in that hour.

14 And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he 15 saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and sessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me ; and let the dead bury their dead.
23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.
24 [17] And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves : but he was asleep.
25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us : we perish.
26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith ? Then [18] he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea ; and there was a great calm.
27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him !
28 ¶ [19] And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.
29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God ? art thou come hither to torment us before the time ?
30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.
31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.
32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine : and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.
33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.
34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus : and when they saw him, [20] they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER IX.

2 Christ curing one sick of the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 10 eateth with publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus' daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man possessed of a devil, 36 and hath compassion of the multitude.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, [1] and came into his own city.
2 [2] And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed : [3] and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy ; Son, be of good cheer ; thy sins be forgiven thee.
3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.
4 And Jesus [4] knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts ?
5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee ; or to say, Arise, and walk ?
6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.
7 And he arose, and departed to his house.
8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.
9 ¶ [5] And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw

21 Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And another of the disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ [6] And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with [7] publicans and [8] sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, [9] I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, [10] but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, [11] Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can [12] the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and [13] then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ [14] While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ [15] And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; [16] thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 [17] And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw [18] the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, [19] Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, [20] Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, 5 giveth them their charge, teacheth them, 16 comforteth them against persecutions: 40 and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

AND [1] when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.
2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, [2] who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;
3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbæus, whose surname was Thaddæus;
4 [3] Simon the Canaanite, and Judas [4] Iscariot, who also betrayed him.
5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, [5] Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of [6] the Samaritans enter ye not:
6 [7] But go rather to the [8] lost sheep of the house of Israel.
7 [9] And as ye go, preach, saying, [10] The kingdom of heaven is at hand.
8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: [11] freely ye have received, freely give.
9 [12] Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor [13] brass in your purses, 10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: [14] for the workman is worthy of his meat.
11 [15] And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.
12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.
13 [16] And if the house be worthy, let your peace

30 your faith be it done unto you. And their eyes were opened. And Jesus [m] strictly charged them, 31 saying, See that no man know it. But they went forth, and spread abroad his fame in all that land.
32 And as they went forth, behold, there was brought 33 to him a dumb man possessed with a [n] devil. And when the [n] devil was cast out, the dumb man spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never 34 so seen in Israel. But the Pharisees said, [o] By the prince of the [p] devils casteth he out [p] devils.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner
36 of disease and all manner of sickness. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and 37 scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is 38 plenteous, but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth 10 labourers into his harvest. And he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew
3 his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus,
4 and Thaddæus; Simon the [a] Cananæan, and Judas
5 Iscariot, who also [b] betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying,

Go not into any way of the Gentiles, and enter 6 not into any city of the Samaritans: but go rather 7 to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at 8 hand. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out [c] devils: freely ye received, freely 9 give. Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your 10 [d] purses; no wallet for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the labourer is wor-
11 thy of his food. And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy;

14 [18] And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, [19] shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, [20] It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ [21] Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves : [22] be ye therefore wise as serpents, and [23] harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men : for [24] they will deliver you up to the councils, and [25] they will scourge you in their synagogues ;

18 And [26] ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 [27] But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak : for [28] it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 [29] For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 [30] And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child : and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

CHAPTER XI.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people, both concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and unrepentance of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Father's wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple, 28 he calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sins.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.
2 [1]Now when John had heard [2]in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,
3 And said unto him, Art thou [3]he that should come, or do we look for another?
4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:
5 [4]The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and [5]the poor have the gospel preached to them.
6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not [6]be offended in me.
7 ¶ [7]And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? [8]A reed shaken with the wind?
8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.
9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, [9]and more than a prophet.
10 For this is he, of whom it is written, [10]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

34 Think not that I came to [m]send peace on the earth: I came not to [m]send peace, but a sword.
35 For I came to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the 36 daughter in law against her mother in law: and a 37 man's foes shall be they of his own household. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter
38 more than me is not worthy of me. And he that doth not take his cross and follow after me, is not 39 worthy of me. He that [n]findeth his [o]life shall lose it; and he that [p]loseth his [o]life for my sake shall find it.

40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that 41 receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall 42 receive a righteous man's reward. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

11 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and preach in their cities.
2 Now when John heard in the prison the works of 3 the Christ, he sent by his disciples, and said unto him, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for 4 another? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go your way and tell John the things which ye do
5 hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have
6 [a]good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he, whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in 7 me. And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken
8 with the wind? But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that 9 wear soft raiment are in kings' houses. [b]But wherefore went ye out? to see a prophet? Yea, I say 10 unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he, of whom it is written,

Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is [13] Elias, which was for to come.

15 [14] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ [15] But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, [16] a friend of publicans and sinners. [17] But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ [18] Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago [19] in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, [20] It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, [21] which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, [22] That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ [23] At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because [24] thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, [25] and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 [26] All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; [27] neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

25 At that season Jesus answered and said, I [l] thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and under-26 standing, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father, [m] for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight.
27 All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Father; neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal 28 him. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are 29 heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your 30 souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

12 At that season Jesus went on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck ears of corn, and to

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read [2] what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat [3] the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, [4] but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the [5] law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is [6] one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, [7] I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 [8] And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, [9] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and [10] if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then [11] the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, [12] he withdrew himself from thence: [13] and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And [14] charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 [15] Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, [16] in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ [17] Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 [18] But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

3 lawful to do upon the sabbath. But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he
4 was an hungred, and they that were with him; how he entered into the house of God, and [a] did eat the shewbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him, but only for 5 the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple
6 profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? But I say unto you, that [b] one greater than the temple is here.
7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have con-
8 demned the guiltless. For the Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

9 And he departed thence, and went into their syna-10 gogue: and behold, a man having a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on 11 the sabbath day? that they might accuse him. And he said unto them, What man shall there be of you, that shall have one sheep, and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and 12 lift it out? How much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do 13 good on the sabbath day. Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it 14 forth; and it was restored whole, as the other. But the Pharisees went out, and took counsel against 15 him, how they might destroy him. And Jesus perceiving it withdrew from thence: and many fol-
16 lowed him; and he healed them all, and charged
17 them that they should not make him known: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [c] by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;
My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:
I will put my Spirit upon him,
And he shall declare judgement to the Gentiles.

Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets.

And smoking flax shall he not quench,
Till he send forth judgement unto victory.

25 And Jesus [19] knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:
26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?
27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.
28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then [20] the kingdom of God is come unto you.
29 [21] Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.
30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.
31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, [22] All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: [23] but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.
32 And whosoever [24] speaketh a word against the Son of man, [25] it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.
33 Either make the tree good, and [26] his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.
34 O [27] generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? [28] for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.
35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.
36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.
37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.
38 ¶ [29] Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.
39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and [30] adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:
40 [31] For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
41 [32] The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and [33] shall condemn it: [34] because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.
42 [35] The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

27 dom stand? And if I [f] by Beelzebub cast out [g] devils, [f] by whom do your sons cast them out?

33 that which is to come. Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit.
34 Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart

CHAPTER XIII.

3 The parable of the sower and the seed: 18 the exposition of it. 24 The parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl, 47 of the drawnet cast into the sea: 53 and how Christ is contemned of his own countrymen.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, [1] and sat by the sea side.

2 [2] And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that [3] he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, [4] Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some [5] an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 [6] Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because [7] it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 [8] For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, [9] By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears [10] are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have

44 it not. Then [n] he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when [n] he is come, [n] he find-45 eth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth [n] he, and taketh with [o] himself seven other spirits more evil than [o] himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

46 While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without,
47 seeking to speak to him. [p] And one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without,
48 seeking to speak to thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and 49 who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my 50 mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 On that day went Jesus out of the house, and sat
2 by the sea side. And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so that he entered into a boat, and 3 sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. And he spake to them many things in parables, saying,
4 Behold, the sower went forth to sow; and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds
5 came and devoured them: and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no
6 deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they 7 withered away. And others fell upon the thorns;
8 and the thorns grew up, and choked them: and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, 9 some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. He that hath ears,[a] let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why
11 speakest thou unto them in parables? And he answered and said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but 12 to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away
13 even that which he hath. Therefore speak I to them in parables; because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.
14 And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith,

> By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;
> And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:
15 For this people's heart is waxed gross,
> And their ears are dull of hearing,
> And their eyes they have closed;
> Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes, closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But [11] blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, [12] That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ [13] Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word [14] of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon [15] with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by [16] he is offended.

22 [17] He also that received seed [18] among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but [19] gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, [20] The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ [21] Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 [22] All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

[11] ch. 16. 17. Luke 10. 23, 24. John 20. 29.

That hearing they may hear, and not understand;
And seeing they may see, and not perceive:
For this people's heart is waxed gross,
And their ears are dull of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed;
Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And should turn again,
And I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your 17 ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear
18 the things which ye hear, and heard them not. Hear 19 then ye the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he 20 that was sown by the way side. And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiveth it;
21 yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway he stumbleth.
22 And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of the [b] world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and 23 he becometh unfruitful. And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that 25 sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed [c] tares also among the 26 wheat, and went away. But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares
27 also. And the [d] servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed
28 in thy field? whence then hath it tares? And he said unto them, [e] An enemy hath done this. And the [d] servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go 29 and gather them up? But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the 30 wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:
32 which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three [f] measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and without a parable spake he nothing

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, [23] I will open my mouth in parables; [24] I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 [25] The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are [26] the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; [27] the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, [28] and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 [29] And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: [30] there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 [31] Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. [32] Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and [33] selleth all that he hath, and [34] buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found [35] one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and [36] gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and [37] sever the wicked from among the just,

50 [38] And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure [39] things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 [40] And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 [41] Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and [42] his brethren, [43] James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

35 unto them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [g] by the prophet, saying,
I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden from the foundation [h] of the world.

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 And he answered and said, He that soweth the good 38 seed is the Son of man; and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one;
39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is [i] the end of the world; and the 40 reapers are angels. As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in [i] the 41 end of the world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do 42 iniquity, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.
43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears, let him hear.

44 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and [j] in his joy he goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man
46 that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a [k] net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every 48 kind: which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the

50 righteous, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

57 And they [44]were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, [45]A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 3 Wherefore John Baptist was beheaded. 13 Jesus departeth into a desert place: 15 where he feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes: 22 he walketh on the sea to his disciples: 34 and landing at Gennesaret, healeth the sick by the touch of the hem of his garment.

AT that time [1]Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ [2]For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, [3]It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, [4]because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ [5]When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and [6]was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ [7]And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, [8]he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples

57 hath this man all these things? And they were [m]offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many [n]mighty works there because of their unbelief.

14 At that season Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, and said unto his servants,
2 This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do these powers work in him.
3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his 4 brother Philip's wife. For John said unto him, It
5 is not lawful for thee to have her. And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multi-
6 tude, because they counted him as a prophet. But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod.
7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her
8 whatsoever she should ask. And she, being put forward by her mother, saith, Give me here in a 9 charger the head of John the Baptist. And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them which sat at meat with him, he commanded 10 it to be given; and he sent, and beheaded John in 11 the prison. And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her 12 mother. And his disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.

13 Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart: and when the multitudes heard thereof, they followed him [a]on 14 foot from the cities. And he came forth, and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, 15 and healed their sick. And when even was come, the disciples came to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and 16 buy themselves food. But Jesus said unto them, They have no need to go away; give ye them to 17 eat. And they say unto him, We have here but 18 five loaves, and two fishes. And he said, Bring 19 them hither to me. And he commanded the multitudes to [b]sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.
20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, 21 twelve baskets full. And they that did eat were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 And straightway he constrained the disciples to 24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him [11] walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth [12] thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ [13] And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and [14] as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER XV.

3 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees for transgressing God's commandments through their own traditions: 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth doth not defile a man. 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 and with seven loaves and a few little fishes feedeth four thousand men, beside women and children.

THEN [1] came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 [2] Why do thy disciples transgress [3] the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, [4] Honour thy father and mother: and, [5] He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, [6] It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away.
23 And after he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain apart to pray: and when even 24 was come, he was there alone. But the boat [c] was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the 25 waves; for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night he came unto them, walk-26 ing upon the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is 27 an apparition; and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of 28 good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me 29 come unto thee upon the waters. And he said, Come. And Peter went down from the boat, and 30 walked upon the waters, [d] to come to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, [e] he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me.
31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith unto him, O thou of 32 little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they were gone up into the boat, the wind ceased.

36 sick; and they besought him that they might only touch the border of his garment: and as many as touched were made whole.

15 Then there come to Jesus from Jerusalem Phari-
2 sees and scribes, saying, Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not
3 their hands when they eat bread. And he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition?
4 For God said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let 5 him [a] die the death. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is given to God;
6 he shall not honour his father. [b] And ye have made void the [c] word of God because of your tradition.

7 Ye [7] hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,
8 [8] This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain they do worship me, [9] teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
10 ¶ [10] And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:
11 [11] Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.
12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?
13 But he answered and said, [12] Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.
14 Let them alone: [13] they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.
15 [14] Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.
16 And Jesus said, [15] Are ye also yet without understanding?
17 Do not ye yet understand, that [16] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?
18 But [17] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.
19 [18] For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:
20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.
21 ¶ [19] Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.
22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.
23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.
24 But he answered and said, [20] I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.
26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [21] dogs.
27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.
28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.
29 [22] And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh [23] unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.
30 [24] And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed,

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,
8 This people honoureth me with their lips;
But their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain do they worship me,
Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.
10 And he called to him the multitude, and said unto 11 them, Hear, and understand: Not that which entereth into the mouth defileth the man; but that which proceedeth out of the mouth, this defileth the man.
12 Then came the disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were [d] offended, when they 13 heard this saying? But he answered and said, Every [e] plant which my heavenly Father planted 14 not, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: they are blind guides. And if the blind guide the blind, both 15 shall fall into a pit. And Peter answered and said
16 unto him, Declare unto us the parable. And he said, Are ye also even yet without understanding?
17 Perceive ye not, that whatsoever goeth into the mouth passeth into the belly, and is cast out into the 18 draught? But the things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and they defile
19 the man. For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, 20 false witness, railings: these are the things which defile the man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the man.

21 And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the 22 parts of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David;
23 my daughter is grievously vexed with a [f] devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she

29 And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the moun-30 tain, and sat there. And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ [25] Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 [26] And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [27] he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [28] gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 [29] And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 The people's opinion of Christ, 16 and Peter's confession of him. 21 Jesus foresheweth his death, 23 reproving Peter for dissuading him from it: 24 and admonisheth those that will follow him, to bear the cross.

THE [1] Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 [2] A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And [3] when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jesus said unto them, [4] Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 [5] Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 [6] Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

maimed, and many others, and they cast them down
31 at his feet; and he healed them: insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest 33 haply they faint in the way. And the disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in 34 a desert place, as to fill so great a multitude? And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye?
35 And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the 36 ground; and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the dis-37 ciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven 38 baskets full. And they that did eat were four thou-
39 sand men, beside women and children. And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

16 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and tempting him asked him to shew them a sign from heaven.
2 But he answered and said unto them, [a] When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the
3 heaven is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowring. Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but 4 ye cannot discern the signs of the times. An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

5 And the disciples came to the other side and for-6 got to take [b] bread. And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and 7 Sadducees. And they reasoned among themselves,
8 saying, [c] We took no [b] bread. And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among 9 yourselves, because ye have no [b] bread? Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many [d] baskets ye took up?
10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and 11 how many [d] baskets ye took up? How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning [b] bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, [7] Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, [8] Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, [9] Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: [10] for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but [11] my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That [12] thou art Peter, and [13] upon this rock I will build my church; and [14] the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 [15] And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 [16] Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus [17] to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, [18] Satan: [19] thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ [20] Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For [21] whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or [22] what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For [23] the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father [24] with his angels; [25] and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, [26] There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ. 14 He healeth the lunatick, 22 foretelleth his own passion, 24 and payeth tribute.

AND [1] after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, 12 and Sadducees. Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men
14 say [e] that the Son of man is? And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah: and others, 15 Jeremiah, or one of the prophets. He saith unto 16 them, But who say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of 17 the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my 18 Father which is in heaven. And I also say unto thee, that thou art [g] Peter, and upon this [h] rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall 19 not prevail against it. I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be 20 loosed in heaven. Then charged he the disciples that they should tell no man that he was the Christ.

21 From that time began [i] Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.
22 And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, [j] Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be 23 unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art a stumblingblock unto me: for thou mindest not the things of God, 24 but the things of men. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
25 For whosoever would save his [k] life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his [k] life for my sake shall find 26 it. For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his [k] life? or what shall 28 cording to his [l] deeds. Verily I say unto you, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 [2] While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, [3] This is my beloved Son, [4] in whom I am well pleased; [5] hear ye him.

6 [6] And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and [7] touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, [8] Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, [9] Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and [10] restore all things.

12 [11] But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but [12] have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise [13] shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 [14] Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ [15] And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, [16] If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ [17] And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And [18] when they were come to Capernaum,

11 And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, 12 and shall restore all things: but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they listed. Even so shall 13 the Son of man also suffer of them. Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, and saying,
15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is epileptic, and suffereth grievously: for oft-times he falleth
16 into the fire, and oft-times into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure 17 him. And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him hither to 26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Christ warneth his disciples to be humble and harmless: 7 to avoid offences, and not to despise the little ones: 15 teacheth how we are to deal with our brethren, when they offend us: 21 and how oft to forgive them: 23 which he setteth forth by a parable of the king, that took account of his servants, 32 and punished him, who shewed no mercy to his fellow.

AT [1] the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, [2] Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 [3] Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And [4] whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 [5] But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for [6] it must needs be that offences come; but [7] woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 [8] Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven [9] their angels do always [10] behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 [11] For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 [12] How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover [13] if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, [14] thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in [15] the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an [16] heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, [17] Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 [18] Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, [19] it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [20] till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: [21] but, Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him [22] to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 [23] So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

15 And if thy brother sin [g] against thee, go, shew him his fault between thee and him alone: if he
16 hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word
17 may be established. And if he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the [h] church: and if he refuse to hear the [h] church also, let him be unto thee as the Gen-
18 tile and the publican. Verily I say unto you, What things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and what things soever ye shall loose on 19 earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.
20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him?
22 until seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until [i] seventy 23 times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would make a 24 reckoning with his [j] servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which 25 owed him ten thousand [k] talents. But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all
26 that he had, and payment to be made. The [l] servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay 27 thee all. And the lord of that [l] servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the 28 [m] debt. But that [l] servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred [n] pence: and he laid hold on him, and took him by 29 the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying,
30 Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison,
31 till he should pay that which was due. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all 32 that was done. Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked [l] servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me:
33 shouldest not thou also have had mercy on thy fel-
34 low-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tor-
35 mentors, till he should pay all that was due. So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

CHAPTER XIX.

2 Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorcement: 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth the young man how to attain eternal life, 20 and how to be perfect: 23 telleth his disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God, 27 and promiseth reward to those that forsake any thing to follow him.

AND it came to pass, [1] that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judæa beyond Jordan;

2 [2] And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, [3] that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, [4] For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and [5] they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, [6] Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 [7] And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, [8] If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, [9] All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and [10] there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ [11] Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for [12] of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ [13] And, behold, one came and said unto him, [14] Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, [15] Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness,

19 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came
2 into the borders of Judæa beyond Jordan; and great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.
3 And there came unto him [a] Pharisees, tempting him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away
4 his wife for every cause? And he answered and said, Have ye not read, that he which [b] made them from the beginning made them male and female,
5 and said, For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the 6 twain shall become one flesh? So that they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God
7 hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorcement, and to put her away?
8 He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but 9 from the beginning it hath not been so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, [c] except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: [d] and he that marrieth her 10 when she is put away committeth adultery. The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so 11 with his wife, it is not expedient to marry. But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying,
12 but they to whom it is given. For there are eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, which were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, which made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and 14 the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.
15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 And behold, one came to him and said, [e] [f] Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal
17 life? And he said unto him, [g] Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the 18 commandments. He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not 20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, [18] go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That [19] a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but [20] with God all things are possible.

29 [24] And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Christ, by the similitude of the labourers in the vineyard, sheweth that God is debtor unto no man: 17 foretelleth his passion: 20 by answering the mother of Zebedee's children teacheth his disciples to be lowly: 30 and giveth two blind men their sight.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

19 bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as 20 thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these 21 things have I observed: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go, sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.
22 But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.
11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, 12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?
14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
15 [1]Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? [2]Is thine eye evil, because I am good?
16 [3]So the last shall be first, and the first last: [4]for many be called, but few chosen.
17 ¶ [5]And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,
18 [6]Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,
19 [7]And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.
20 ¶ [8]Then came to him the mother of [9]Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.
21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons [10]may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.
22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of [11]the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with [12]the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.
23 And he saith unto them, [13]Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to [14]give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.
24 [15]And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.
25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.
26 But [16]it shall not be so among you: but [17]whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;
27 [18]And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:
28 [19]Even as the [20]Son of man came not to be ministered unto, [21]but to minister, and [22]to give his life a ransom [23]for many.
29 [24]And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.
30 ¶ And, behold, [25]two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.
31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they

10 hour, they received every man a [b]penny. And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a 11 [b]penny. And when they received it, they mur-12 mured against the householder, saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden of the 13 day and the [c]scorching heat. But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong:
14 didst not thou agree with me for a [b]penny? Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my 15 will to give unto this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own?
16 or is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last.

17 And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart, and in the way he said
18 unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, 19 and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and the third day he shall be raised up.
20 Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshipping him, and asking 21 a certain thing of him. And he said unto her, What wouldest thou? She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, 22 and one on thy left hand, in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to 23 drink? They say unto him, We are able. He saith unto them, My cup indeed ye shall drink: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it is for them for whom it hath been 24 prepared of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation concerning the 25 two brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority 26 over them. Not so shall it be among you: but whosoever would become great among you shall be your 27 [d]minister; and whosoever would be first among you
28 shall be your [e]servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 17 curseth the fig tree, 23 putteth to silence the priests and elders, 28 and rebuketh them by the similitude of the two sons, 33 and the husbandmen, who slew such as were sent unto them.

AND [1] when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto [2] the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 [3] Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 [4] And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and [5] put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; [6] others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, [7] Hosanna to the son of David: [8] Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

10 [9] And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus [10] the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ [11] And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the [12] moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, [13] My house shall be called the house of prayer; [14] but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, [15] Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into [16] Bethany; and he lodged there.

buked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy 32 on us, thou son of David. And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I
33 should do unto you? They say unto him, Lord, 34 that our eyes may be opened. And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes: and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

21 And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives,
2 then Jesus sent two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her:
3 loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.
4 Now this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [a] by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Zion,
Behold, thy King cometh unto thee,
Meek, and riding upon an ass,
And upon a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus ap-
7 pointed them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon.
8 And the most part of the multitude spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from 9 the trees, and spread them in the way. And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna
10 in the highest. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this?
11 And the multitudes said, This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.

12 And Jesus entered into the temple [b] of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and 13 the seats of them that sold the doves; and he saith unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer: but ye make it a den of robbers.
14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the tem-
15 ple: and he healed them. But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the son of David;
16 they were moved with indignation, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast per-17 fected praise? And he left them, and went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.

18 [17] Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.
19 [18] And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.
20 [19] And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!
21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [20] If ye have faith, and [21] doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, [22] but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The parable of the marriage of the king's son. 9 The vocation of the Gentiles. 12 The punishment of him that wanted the wedding garment. 15 Tribute ought to be paid to Cæsar. 23 Christ confuteth the Sadducees for the resurrection: 34 answereth the lawyer, which is the first and great commandment: 41 and poseth the Pharisees about the Messias.

AND Jesus answered [1] and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: [2] my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth [3] his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not [4] worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and [5] gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man [6] which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand

42 render him the fruits in their seasons. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures,

And it is marvellous in our eyes?

45 ter him as dust. And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived 46 that he spake of them. And when they sought to lay hold on him, they feared the multitudes, because they took him for a prophet.

22 And Jesus answered and spake again in parables
2 unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, which made a marriage feast for 6 chandise: and the rest laid hold on his [a] servants, and entreated them shamefully, and killed them.

7 But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their 8 city. Then saith he to his [a] servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not worthy.
9 Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage
10 feast. And those [a] servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was

23 ¶ [11] The same day came to him the Sadducees, [12] which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [14] not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

40 [22] On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ [23] While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 [24] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 [25] And no man was able to answer him a word, [26] neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Christ admonisheth the people to follow the good doctrine, not the evil examples, of the scribes and Pharisees. 5 His disciples must beware of their ambition. 13 He denounceth eight woes against their hypocrisy and blindness: 34 and prophesieth of the destruction of Jerusalem.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, [1] The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for [2] they say, and do not.

4 [3] For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But [4] all their works they do for to be seen of men: [5] they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 [6] And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 [7] But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: [8] for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But [9] he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 [10] And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ But [11] woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [12] for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

40 bour as thyself. On these two commandments hangeth the whole law, and the prophets.
41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, 42 Jesus asked them a question, saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto 43 him, The son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord said unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet?
45 If David then calleth him Lord, how is he his son?
46 And no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

23 Then spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his dis-
2 ciples, saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit on 3 Moses' seat: all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, these do and observe: but do not ye after 4 their works; for they say, and do not. Yea, they bind heavy burdens [a] and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves 5 will not move them with their finger. But all their works they do for to be seen of men: for they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of 6 their garments, and love the chief place at feasts, and 7 the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called of men, 8 Rabbi. But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your 9 teacher, and all ye are brethren. And call no man your father on the earth: for one is your Father, 10 [b] which is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters:
11 for one is your master, even the Christ. But he that is [c] greatest among you shall be your [d] servant.
12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye shut the kingdom of heaven
[e] against men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter.[f]

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte;
and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more a son of [g] hell than yourselves.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 3 what and how great calamities shall be before it: 29 the signs of his coming to judgment. 36 And because that day and hour is unknown, 42 we ought to watch like good servants, expecting every moment our master's coming.

AND [1] Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [2] There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, [3] the disciples came unto him privately, saying, [4] Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [5] Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For [6] many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; [7] and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For [8] nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 [9] Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many [10] be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And [11] many false prophets shall rise, and [12] shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 [13] But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this [14] gospel of the kingdom [15] shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 [16] When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by [17] Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, ([18] whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Judæa flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And [19] woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: [21] but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 [22] Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For [23] there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, [24] if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 [25] For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 [26] For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ [27] Immediately after the tribulation of those days [28] shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 [29] And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: [30] and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, [31] and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 [32] And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn [33] a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know [34] that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, [35] This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 [36] Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ [37] But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, [38] but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 [39] For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 [40] Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

25 so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Be-26 hold, I have told you beforehand. If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers;
27 believe [h] it not. For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so 28 shall be the [i] coming of the Son of man. Wheresoever the carcase is, there will the [j] eagles be gathered together.

29 But immediately, after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be

32 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth
33 its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; even so ye also, when ye see all these things, know ye 34 that [m] he is nigh, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till 35 all these things be accomplished. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass 36 away. But of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, [n] neither the Son, but 37 the Father only. And as were the days of Noah, so 38 shall be the [i] coming of the Son of man. For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, 39 and they knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall be the [i] coming of the Son 40 of man. Then shall two men be in the field;
41 one is taken, and one is left: two women shall be grinding at the mill; one is taken, and one is left.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents. 31 Also the description of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet [1] the bridegroom.

2 [2] And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, [3] they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight [4] there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and [5] trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and [6] the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, [7] Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [8] I know you not.

13 [9] Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ [10] For the kingdom of heaven is [11] as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; [12] to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

ter of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be [p] broken through.
44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye 45 think not the Son of man cometh. Who then is the faithful and wise [q] servant, whom his lord hath set over his household, to give them their food in due 46 season? Blessed is that [q] servant, whom his lord
47 when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, that he will set him over all that he hath.
48 But if that evil [q] servant shall say in his heart, My 49 lord tarrieth; and shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and shall eat and drink with the drunken;
50 the lord of that [q] servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth
51 not, and shall [r] cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their [a] lamps, and went forth
2 to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were 3 foolish, and five were wise. For the foolish, when 4 they took their [a] lamps, took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their [a] lamps.
5 Now while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered
6 and slept. But at midnight there is a cry, Behold,
7 the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their [a] lamps.
8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your 9 oil; for our [a] lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye rather to them that

11 and the door was shut. Afterward come also the 12 other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know 13 you not. Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour.

14 For it is as when a man, going into another country, called his own [b] servants, and delivered unto them
15 his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his 16 several ability; and he went on his journey. Straightway he that received the five talents went and traded

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.
18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.
19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.
20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.
21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, [13] I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into [14] the joy of thy lord.
22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.
23 His lord said unto him, [15] Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.
24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:
25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.
26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:
27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.
28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.
29 [16] For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.
30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant [17] into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
31 ¶ [18] When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:
32 And [19] before him shall be gathered all nations: and [20] he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:
33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.
34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, [21] inherit the kingdom [22] prepared for you from the foundation of the world:
35 [23] For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: [24] I was a stranger, and ye took me in:
36 [25] Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: [26] I was in prison, and ye came unto me.
37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

17 with them, and made other five talents. In like manner he also that received the two gained other two.
18 But he that received the one went away and digged
19 in the earth, and hid his lord's money. Now after a long time the lord of those [c] servants cometh, and 20 maketh a reckoning with them. And he that received the five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five 21 talents: lo, I have gained other five talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful [d] servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things: enter thou into the 22 joy of thy lord. And he also that received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, I have gained other two talents.
23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful [d] servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things: enter thou
24 into the joy of thy lord. And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not 25 scatter: and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine own.
26 But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful [d] servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not 27 scatter; thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should 28 have received back mine own with interest. Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it 29 unto him that hath the ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, even that which 30 he hath shall be taken away. And cast ye out the unprofitable [d] servant into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 The rulers conspire against Christ. 6 The woman anointeth his head. 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover: 26 instituteth his holy supper: 36 prayeth in the garden: 47 and being betrayed with a kiss, 57 is carried to Caiaphas, 69 and denied of Peter.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 [1] Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 [2] Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ [3] Now when Jesus was in [4] Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 [5] But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 [6] For ye have the poor always with you; but [7] me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ [8] Then one of the twelve, called [9] Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, [10] What will ye give me, and 39 clothed thee? And when saw we thee sick, or in 40 prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, 41 even these least, ye did it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, f Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared 42 for the devil and his angels: for I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave 43 me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in 46 did it not unto me. And these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all
2 these words, he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days the passover cometh, and the Son of 3 man is delivered up to be crucified. Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who 4 was called Caiaphas; and they took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill 5 him. But they said, Not during the feast, lest a tumult arise among the people.

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of 7 Simon the leper, there came unto him a woman having [a] an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, as he sat at 8 meat. But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?
9 For this ointment might have been sold for much,
10 and given to the poor. But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath

12 For in that she [b] poured this ointment upon my

14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas

17 ¶ [11] Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 [12] Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, [13] He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth [14] as it is written of him: but [15] woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ [16] And as they were eating, [17] Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; [18] this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, [19] Drink ye all of it;

28 For [20] this is my blood [21] of the new testament, which is shed [22] for many for the remission of sins.

29 But [23] I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, [24] until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 [25] And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, [26] All ye shall [27] be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [28] I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, [29] I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, [30] Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ [31] Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and [32] the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

25 been born. And Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, 26 Thou hast said. And as they were eating, Jesus took [g] bread, and blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my 27 body. And he took [h] a cup, and gave thanks, and 28 gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of [i] the [j] covenant, which is shed for many 29 unto remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be [k] offended in me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall 32 be scattered abroad. But after I am raised up, I
33 will go before you into Galilee. But Peter answered and said unto him, If all shall be [k] offended in thee, 34 I will never be [k] offended. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, before the 35 cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto [l] a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, 39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and [34] prayed, saying, [35] O my Father, if it be possible, [36] let this cup pass from me: nevertheless [37] not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 [38] Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And [39] while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; [40] and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, [41] Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, [42] one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: [43] for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me [44] more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, [45] that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the [46] scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then [47] all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ [48] And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

66 What think ye ? They answered and said, [58] He is guilty of death.

67 [59] Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him ; and [60] others smote him with the palms of their hands, innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

68 Saying, [61] Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee ?

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, [4] and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, [5] The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, [6] And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: [7] and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, [8] Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, [9] he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, [10] Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 [11] Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 [12] But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he [13] took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, [14] His blood be on us, and on our children.

cent blood. But they said, What is that to us? see 5 thou to it. And he cast down the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, and departed; and he went away
6 and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them
7 into the [b] treasury, since it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's 8 field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was 9 called, The field of blood, unto this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken [c] by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And [d] they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, [e] whom 10 certain of the children of Israel did price; and [f] they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the 12 Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, 13 he answered nothing. Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness
14 against thee? And he gave him no answer, not even to one word: insomuch that the governor marvelled 15 greatly. Now at [g] the feast the governor was wont to release unto the multitude one prisoner, whom they 16 would. And they had then a notable prisoner, 17 called Barabbas. When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which 18 is called Christ? For he knew that for envy they had 19 delivered him up. And while he was sitting on the judgement-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because 20 of him. Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for 21 Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? And they said, 22 Barabbas. Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? They all 23 say, Let him be crucified. And he said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly,
24 saying, Let him be crucified. So when Pilate saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent [h] of the 25 blood of this righteous man: see ye to it. And all the people answered and said, His blood be on us, 26 and on our children. Then released he unto them Barabbas: but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be crucified.

27 [16]Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and [17] put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ [18]And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And [19] they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, [20] and led him away to crucify him.

32 [21] And as they came out, [22] they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 [23] And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 ¶ [24] They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 [25] And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, [26] They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 [27] And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And [28] set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 [29] Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And [30] they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, [31] Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. [32] If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 [33] He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 [34] The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 [35] Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour [36] Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, [37] My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, [38] and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ [39] Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

28 And they [k] stripped him, and put on him a scarlet
29 robe. And they plaited a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, say-30 ing, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spat upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head.
31 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they [l] compelled to go with 33 them, that he might bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to 34 say, The place of a skull, they gave him wine to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted
35 it, he would not drink. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments among them, 36 casting lots: and they sat and watched him there.
37 And they set up over his head his accusation writ-38 ten, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the 39 right hand, and one on the left. And they that 40 passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the [m] temple, and build-est it in three days, save thyself: if thou art the Son 41 of God, come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes 42 and elders, said, He saved others; [n] himself he cannot save. He is the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on 43 him. He trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: for he said, I am the Son 44 of God. And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over 46 all the [o] land until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my 47 God, [p] why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This 48 man calleth Elijah. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, 49 and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah 50 cometh to save him.[q] And Jesus cried again with

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.
54 [41] Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.
55 And many women were there beholding afar off, [42] which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:
56 [43] Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.
57 [44] When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:
58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.
59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And [45] laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.
61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.
62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, [46] After three days I will rise again.
64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.
65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.
66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [47] sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by an angel to the women. 9 He himself appeareth unto them. 11 The high priests give the soldiers money to say that he was stolen out of his sepulchre. 16 Christ appeareth to his disciples, 19 and sendeth them to baptize and teach all nations.

IN the [1] end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene [2] and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.
2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for [3] the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.
3 [4] His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:
4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.
5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

51 a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. And behold, the veil of the [r] temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake; and 52 the rocks were rent; and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep
53 were raised; and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into the holy city
54 and appeared unto many. Now the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was [s] the Son

58 was Jesus' disciple: this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate com-59 manded it to be given up. And Joseph took the 60 body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of 61 the tomb, and departed. And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now on the morrow, which is the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were

65 Pilate said unto them, [t] Ye have a guard: go your 66 way, [u] make it as sure as ye can. So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

28 Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, [7] Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.
10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid : go tell [8] my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 [3]The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 [4]John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 [5]And there went out unto him all the land of Judæa, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was [6]clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat [7]locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, [8]There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 [9]I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you [10]with the Holy Ghost.

9 [11]And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 [12]And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, [13]Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 [14]And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; [15]and the angels ministered unto him.

14 [16]Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, [17]preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, [18]The time is fulfilled, and [19]the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 [20]Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway [21]they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 [22]And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 [23]And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 [24]And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 [25]And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; [26]what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
Who shall prepare thy way;
3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight;
4 John came, who baptized in the wilderness and preached the baptism of repentance unto remission
5 of sins. And there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing
6 their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did
7 eat locusts and wild honey. And he preached, saying, There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not [c]worthy to 8 stoop down and unloose. I baptized you [d]with water; but he shall baptize you [d]with the [e]Holy Ghost.
9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of 10 John [f]in the Jordan. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, 11 and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: and a voice came out of the heavens, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.
12 And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into 13 the wilderness. And he was in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus
15 came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the gospel.

16 And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a 17 net in the sea: for they were fishers. And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make 18 you to become fishers of men. And straightway
19 they left the nets, and followed him. And going on a little further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat 20 mending the nets. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue 22 and taught. And they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and 23 not as the scribes. And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and 25 And Jesus [27] rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit [28] had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.
27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.
28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.
29 [29] And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.
31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.
32 [30] And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.
33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.
34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and [31] suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.
35 And [32] in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.
36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.
37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.
38 And he said unto them, [33] Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for [34] therefore came I forth.
39 [35] And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.
40 [36] And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.
42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.
43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;
44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things [37] which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.
45 [38] But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: [39] and they came to him from every quarter.

25 God. And Jesus rebuked [g] him, saying, Hold thy 26 peace, and come out of him. And the unclean spirit, [h] tearing him and crying with a loud voice, 27 came out of him. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they 28 obey him. And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.

29 And straightway, [i] when they were come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon
30 and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway 31 they tell him of her: and he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were 33 [j] possessed with devils. And all the city was gath-

35 And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert 36 place, and there prayed. And Simon and they that 37 were with him followed after him; and they found 38 him, and say unto him, All are seeking thee. And he saith unto them, Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to 39 this end came I forth. And he went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out [k] devils.

40 And there cometh to him a leper, beseeching him, [m] and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If 41 thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And being moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be 42 thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy de-43 parted from him, and he was made clean. And he [n] strictly charged him, and straightway sent 44 him out, and saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which 45 Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the [o] matter, insomuch that [p] Jesus could no more openly enter into [q] a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER II.

1 Christ healeth one sick of the palsy, 14 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 15 eateth with publicans and sinners, 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, 23 and for plucking the ears of corn on the sabbath day.

AND again [1] he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [2] who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately [3] when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 [4] Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 [5] And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 [6] And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 [7] And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, [8] They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 [9] And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

2 And when he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was noised that he was [a] in the house.
2 And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not even about the 3 door: and he spake the word unto them. And they come, bringing unto him a man sick of the palsy,
4 borne of four. And when they could not [b] come nigh unto him for the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereon the sick of the 5 palsy lay. And Jesus seeing their faith saith unto the sick of the palsy, [c] Son, thy sins are forgiven.
6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there,
7 and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak? he blasphemeth: who can forgive sins
8 but one, even God? And straightway Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, saith unto them, Why reason ye these 9 things in your hearts? Whether is easier, to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven; or 10 to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath [d] power on earth to forgive sins (he saith to the sick of the 11 palsy), I say unto thee, Arise, take up thy bed, and 12 go unto thy house. And he arose, and straightway took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught
14 them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the place of toll, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed
15 him. And it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many [e] publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there 16 were many, and they followed him. And the scribes [f] of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and publicans, said unto his disciples, [g] He eateth [h] and drinketh with publicans and 17 sinners. And when Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are [i] whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

18 And John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees
19 fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

23 [10] And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, [11] to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read [12] what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

20 And the multitude cometh together again, [10] so that they could not so much as eat bread.

28 [15] Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 ¶ [16] There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

held him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, 12 Thou art the Son of God. And he charged them much that they should not make him known.

13 And he goeth up into the mountain, and calleth unto him whom he himself would: and they went unto 14 him. And he appointed twelve,[e] that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to 15 preach, and to have authority to cast out [f] devils:
16 17 [g] and Simon he surnamed Peter; and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons
18 of thunder: and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus, and Simon the [h] Cana-19 næan, and Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him.

20 And he cometh [i] into a house. And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so 21 much as eat bread. And when his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He

CHAPTER IV.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the seed growing secretly, 30 and of the mustard seed. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea.

AND [1] he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, [2] and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, [3] and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 [4] And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto [5] them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 [6] That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ [7] The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, [8] and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ [9] And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

4 And again he began to teach by the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land.
2 And he taught them many things in parables, and 3 said unto them in his teaching, Hearken: Behold,
4 the sower went forth to sow: and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the 5 birds came and devoured it. And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deep-
6 ness of earth: and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered
7 away. And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no
8 fruit. And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.
9 And he said, Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him
11 with the twelve asked of him the parables. And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are with-
12 out, all things are done in parables: that seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should 13 turn again, and it should be forgiven them. And he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how 14 shall ye know all the parables? The sower soweth
15 the word. And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh Satan, and taketh away the 16 word which hath been sown in them. And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straight-
17 way receive it with joy; and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the 18 word, straightway they stumble. And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they 19 that have heard the word, and the cares of the [a] world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it 20 becometh unfruitful. And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.

21 And he said unto them, Is the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be

22 [10] For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 [11] If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: [12] with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 [13] For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, [14] So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately [15] he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, [16] Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 [17] And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 [18] And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ delivering the possessed of the legion of devils, 13 they enter into the swine. 25 He healeth the woman of the bloody issue, 35 and raiseth from death Jairus his daughter.

AND [1] they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

22 put on the stand? For there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything
23 made secret, but that it should come to light. If 24 any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you: and 25 more shall be given unto you. For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a 27 man should cast seed upon the earth; and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should 28 spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. The earth [b] beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the 29 ear, then the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit [c] is ripe, straightway he [d] putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 And he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of 31 God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? [e] It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the 32 seeds that are upon the earth, yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word
34 unto them, as they were able to hear it: and without a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

35 And on that day, when even was come, he saith 36 unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, in the boat. And other boats were 37 with him. And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the 38 boat was now filling. And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, [f] Master, carest thou not that we 39 perish? And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind
40 ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet 41 faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 And they came to the other side of the sea, into the 2 country of the Gerasenes. And when he was come out of the boat, straightway there met him out of 3 the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And [2]they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, [3]he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 [4]And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 [5]And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, [6]which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

6 himself with stones. And when he saw Jesus from 7 afar, he ran and worshipped him; and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I ad-

12 feeding. And they besought him, saying, Send us

14 thousand; and they were choked in the sea. And they that fed them fled, and told it in the city, and 15 in the country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. And they come to Jesus, and behold [a]him that was possessed with devils sitting, clothed and in his right mind, even him that had 16 the legion: and they were afraid. And they that saw it declared unto them how it befell [a]him that was possessed with devils, and concerning the 17 swine. And they began to beseech him to depart
18 from their borders. And as he was entering into the boat, he that had been possessed with [b]devils
19 besought him that he might be with him. And he suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house unto thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how he had

21 And when Jesus had crossed over again in the boat unto the other side, a great multitude was 22 gathered unto him: and he was by the sea. And there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jaïrus by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his 23 feet, and beseecheth him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.
28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.
29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.
30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that [7] virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?
31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?
32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.
33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.
34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [8] thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.
35 [9] While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?
36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.
37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.
38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.
39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but [10] sleepeth.
40 And they laughed him to scorn. [11] But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.
41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.
42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.
43 And [12] he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

AND [1] he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.
2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, [2] From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?
3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, [3] the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon?

the things concerning Jesus, came in the crowd be-

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of 30 her [e] plague. And straightway Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power proceeding from him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, and said, they laughed him to scorn. But he, having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her

4 But Jesus said unto them, [5] A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 [6] And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And [7] he marvelled because of their unbelief. [8] And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ [9] And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 But [10] be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 [11] And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 [12] And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, [13] shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, [14] and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 [15] And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 [16] Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 [17] But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, [18] It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod [19] feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 [20] And when a convenient day was come, that Herod [21] on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, [22] Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

12 a testimony unto them. And they went out, and 13 preached that men should repent. And they cast out many [g] devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard thereof; for his name had become known: and [h] he said, John [i] the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers 15 work in him. But others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, even as one of the prophets.
16 But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom 17 I beheaded, he is risen. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's 18 wife: for he had married her. For John said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy bro-19 ther's wife. And Herodias set herself against him, 20 and desired to kill him; and she could not; for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous man and a holy, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he [j] was much perplexed; and he heard him 21 gladly. And when a convenient day was come, that

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 [23] And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 [24] And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 [25] And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for [26] there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 [27] And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 [28] And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and [29] he began to teach them many things.

35 [30] And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, [31] Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, [32] Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, [33] and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 [34] And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 [35] And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

25 of John [n] the Baptist. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me in a charger the head of 26 John [n] the Baptist. And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that 27 sat at meat, he would not reject her. And straightway the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head: and he went and be-28 headed him in the prison, and brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel 29 gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard thereof, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles gather themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they 31 had done, and whatsoever they had taught. And he saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much 32 as to eat. And they went away in the boat to a 33 desert place apart. And the people saw them going, and many knew them, and they ran there together 34 [o] on foot from all the cities, and outwent them. And he came forth and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them 35 many things. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, The place is 36 desert, and the day is now far spent: send them away, that they may go into the country and villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat.
37 But he answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred [p] pennyworth of bread, and give them 38 to eat? And he saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they 39 say, Five, and two fishes. And he commanded them that all should [q] sit down by companies upon the 40 green grass. And they sat down in ranks, by hun-41 dreds, and by fifties. And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes 42 divided he among them all. And they did all eat, 43 and were filled. And they took up broken pieces, 44 twelve basketfuls, and also of the fishes. And they that ate the loaves were five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the 46 multitude away. And after he had taken leave of 47 them, he departed into the mountain to pray. And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of 50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For [37] they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their [38] heart was hardened.

53 [39] And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that [40] they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The Pharisees find fault at the disciples for eating with unwashen hands. 8 They break the commandment of God by the traditions of men. 14 Meat defileth not the man. 24 He healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter of an unclean spirit, 31 and one that was deaf, and stammered in his speech.

THEN [1] came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.

5 [2] Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, [3] This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, [4] Honour thy father and thy mother; and, [5] Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or

48 the sea, and he alone on the land. And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have
49 passed by them: but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was an appari-
50 tion, and cried out: for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not 51 afraid. And he went up unto them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in 52 themselves; for they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had [r] crossed over, they came to the land unto Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.
54 And when they were come out of the boat, straight-
55 way the people knew him, and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about on their beds
56 those that were sick, where they heard he was. And wheresoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the market-places, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched [s] him were made whole.

7 And there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which had
2 come from Jerusalem, and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with [a] defiled, that is, un-
3 washen, hands. For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [b] diligently, eat not,
4 holding the tradition of the elders: and when they come from the marketplace, except they [c] wash themselves, they eat not: and many other things there be, which they have received to hold, [d] washings of
5 cups, and pots, and brasen vessels.[e] And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but 6 eat their bread with [a] defiled hands? And he said unto them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

> This people honoureth me with their lips,
> But their heart is far from me.
7 But in vain do they worship me,
> Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.

8 Ye leave the commandment of God, and hold fast
9 the tradition of men. And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of God, that ye
10 may keep your tradition. For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, He that speaketh 11 evil of father or mother, let him [f] die the death: but

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother ;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered : and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ [7]And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand :

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him : but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 [8]If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 [9]And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also ? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him ;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats ?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 [10]For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness :

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ [11]And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it : but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet :

26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation ; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled : for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord : yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way ; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ [12]And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And [13]they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech ; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and [14]he spit, and touched his tongue ;

34 And [15]looking up to heaven, [16]he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited 12 by me is Corban, that is to say, Given to God ; ye no longer suffer him to do aught for his father or his 13 mother ; making void the word of God by your tradition, which ye have delivered : and many such like 14 things ye do. And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, Hear me all of you, and 15 understand : there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him : but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile
17 the man.[g] And when he was entered into the house from the multitude, his disciples asked of him the 18 parable. And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also ? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, it
19 cannot defile him ; because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught ? This he said, making all meats clean.
20 And he said, That which proceedeth out of the man,
21 that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, [h]evil thoughts proceed, fornications, 22 thefts, murders, adulteries, covetings, wickednesses, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, railing, pride, foolishness : all these evil things proceed from within,
23 and defile the man.

24 And from thence he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre [i]and Sidon. And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it : and he
25 could not be hid. But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard 26 of him, came and fell down at his feet. Now the woman was a [j]Greek, a Syrophœnician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the 27 [k]devil out of her daughter. And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled : for it is not meet to take the children's [l]bread and cast it to the dogs.
28 But she answered and saith unto him, Yea, Lord : even the dogs under the table eat of the children's 29 crumbs. And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way ; the [k]devil is gone out of thy daughter.
30 And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the [k]devil gone out.

31 And again he went out from the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon unto the sea of Galilee, 32 through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech ; and they beseech him to 33 lay his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his 34 ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue ; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him,

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously: 10 refuseth to give a sign to the Pharisees: 14 admonisheth his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod: 22 giveth a blind man his sight: 27 acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again: 34 and exhorteth to patience in persecution for the profession of the gospel.

IN those days [1] the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 [2] And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and [3] he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And [4] straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 [5] And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ [6] Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 [7] And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is [8] because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? [9] perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

35 Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and 36 he spake plain. And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it.
37 And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

8 In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, he called unto
2 him his disciples, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with 3 me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are come from 4 far. And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with [a] bread here in a
5 desert place? And he asked them, How many 6 loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the mul-
7 titude. And they had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also 8 before them. And they did eat, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over,
9 seven baskets. And they were about four thou-
10 sand: and he sent them away. And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, 12 tempting him. And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given

14 And they forgot to take bread; and they had not 15 in the boat with them more than one loaf. And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the lea-
16 ven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod. And they reasoned one with another, [b] saying, [c] We have 17 no bread. And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your 22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when [13]he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, [14]nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ [15]And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæsarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, [16]John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, [17] Thou art the Christ.

30 [18]And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And [19]he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, [20]Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For [21]whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 [22]Whosoever therefore [23]shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

19 When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many [d] baskets full of broken pieces took 20 ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. And when the seven among the four thousand, how many [d] basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up? And 21 they say unto him, Seven. And he said unto them, Do ye not yet understand?

22 And they come unto Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch him.
23 And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he 24 asked him, Seest thou aught? And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, 25 walking. Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, 26 and saw all things clearly. And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.

27 And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men 28 say that I am? And they told him, saying, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah; but others, One of 29 the prophets. And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, 30 Thou art the Christ. And he charged them that

CHAPTER IX.

2 Jesus is transfigured. 11 He instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elias: 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit: 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility: 38 bidding them not to prohibit such as be not against them, nor to give offence to any of the faithful.

AND he said unto them, [1] Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen [2] the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ [3] And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [4] white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 [5] And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes [6] that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and [7] how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and [8] be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That [9] Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ [10] And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And [11] one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

9 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There be some here of them that stand by, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God come with power.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, [13] If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 [14] And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 [15] For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

33 ¶ [16] And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

CHAPTER X.

2 Christ disputeth with the Pharisees touching divorcement: 13 blesseth the children that are brought unto him: 17 resolveth a rich man how he may inherit life everlasting: 23 telleth his disciples of the danger of riches: 28 promiseth rewards to them that forsake any thing for the gospel: 32 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 35 biddeth the two ambitious suitors to think rather of suffering with him: 46 and restoreth to Bartimæus his sight.

AND [1]he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judæa by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ [2]And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, [3]Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation [4]God made them male and female.

7 [5]For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, [6]Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

10 And he arose from thence, and cometh into the borders of Judæa and beyond Jordan: and multitudes come together unto him again; and, as he was

3 to put away his wife? tempting him. And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses com-

13 And they brought unto him little children, that he

he should touch them : and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not : for [8] of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, [9] Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ [10] And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life ?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good ? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, [11] Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest : go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have [12] treasure in heaven : and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved : for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ [13] And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God !

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them [14] that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God !

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved ?

27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God : for [15] with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ [16] Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 [17] But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions ; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 [18] But many that are first shall be last ; and the last first.

32 ¶ [19] And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem ; and Jesus went before them : and they were amazed ; and as they followed, they were afraid. [20] And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem ; and the 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me ; forbid them not : for of such is the 15 kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little

17 And as he was going forth [b] into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good [c] Master, what shall I do that I may inherit 18 eternal life ? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good ? none is good save one, even God.

And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest : go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come, follow me. But his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful : for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches
24 enter into the kingdom of God ! And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it [d] for them that trust in riches to enter into the king-
25 dom of God ! It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the 26 kingdom of God. And they were astonished exceedingly, saying [e] unto him, Then who can be saved ?

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you ?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask : can ye drink of the cup that I drink of ? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with ?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of ; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized :

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give ; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 [22] And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, [23] Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them ; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 [24] But so shall it not be among you : but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister :

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even [25] the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and [26] to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ [27] And they came to Jericho : and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, the son of Timæus, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace : but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise ; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee ? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way ; [28] thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

39 And they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ye shall drink ; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall 40 ye be baptized : but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give : but it is for them for 41 whom it hath been prepared. And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation
42 concerning James and John. And Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them ; and their great ones exercise 43 authority over them. But it is not so among you : but whosoever would become great among you, shall 44 be your [i] minister : and whosoever would be first
45 among you, shall be [j] servant of all. For verily the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 And they come to Jericho : and as he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timæus, Bartimæus, a blind beg-
47 gar, was sitting by the way side. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have 48 mercy on me. And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace : but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.
49 And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good
50 cheer : rise, he calleth thee. And he, casting away
51 his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered him, and said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee ? And the blind man said unto him, [k] Rabboni, that I may receive my sight.
52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way ; thy faith hath [l] made thee whole. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him in the way.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ rideth with triumph into Jerusalem: 12 curseth the fruitless leafy tree: 15 purgeth the temple: 20 exhorteth his disciples to stedfastness of faith, and to forgive their enemies: 27 and defendeth the lawfulness of his actions, by the witness of John, who was a man sent of God.

AND [1] when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 [2] And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, [3] Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: [4] Hosanna in the highest.

11 [5] And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 ¶ [6] And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 [7] And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ [8] And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, [9] My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but [10] ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And [11] the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because [12] all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ [13] And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him,

11 And when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he
2 sendeth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat; loose
3 him, and bring him. And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him; and straightway he [a] will send him [b] back
4 hither. And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without in the open street; and they
5 loose him. And certain of them that stood there
6 said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? And they said unto them even as Jesus had said: and 7 they let them go. And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat
8 upon him. And many spread their garments upon the way; and others [c] branches, which they had cut 9 from the fields. And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, Hosanna; Blessed is he 10 that cometh in the name of the Lord: Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the kingdom of our father David: Hosanna in the highest.

11 And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 And on the morrow, when they were come out from 13 Bethany, he hungered. And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs.
14 And he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of 16 them that sold the doves; and he would not suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the 17 temple. And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but ye have made it a 18 den of robbers. And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

19 And [d] every evening [e] he went forth out of the city.
20 And as they passed by in the morning, they saw 21 the fig tree withered away from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Rabbi,

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For [14] verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

26 But [17] if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem: [18] and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for [19] all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER XII.

1 In a parable of the vineyard let out to unthankful husbandmen, Christ foretelleth the reprobation of the Jews, and the calling of the Gentiles. 13 He avoideth the snare of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Cæsar: 18 convinceth the error of the Sadducees, who denied the resurrection: 28 resolveth the scribe, who questioned of the first commandment: 35 refuteth the opinion that the scribes held of Christ: 38 bidding the people to beware of their ambition and hypocrisy: 41 and commendeth the poor widow for her two mites, above all.

AND [1] he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; [2]The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 [3]And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ [4]And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ [5]Then come unto him the Sadducees, [6]which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, [7]Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but [8]are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, [9]I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, [12] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; [13] and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [14] is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And [19] he said unto them in his doctrine, [20] Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and [21] love salutations in the marketplaces,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 [22] Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ [23] And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money [24] into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That [25] this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, [26] even all her living.

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, [4]Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: [5]these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ But [6]take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And [7]the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 [8]But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, [9]but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now [10]the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 [11]And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but [12]he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ [13]But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, [14]spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then [15]let them that be in Judæa flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 [16]But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 [17]For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 [18]And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But [19]take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

33 [24] Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 [25] For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 [26] Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 Precious ointment is poured on his head by a woman. 10 Judas selleth his Master for money. 12 Christ himself foretelleth how he shall be betrayed of one of his disciples: 22 after the passover prepared, and eaten, instituteth his supper: 26 declareth aforehand the flight of all his disciples, and Peter's denial. 43 Judas betrayeth him with a kiss. 46 He is apprehended in the garden, 53 falsely accused, and impiously condemned of the Jews' council: 65 shamefully abused by them: 66 and thrice denied of Peter.

AFTER [1] two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ [2] And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For [3] ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her 25 light, and the stars shall be falling from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens shall be 27 coming in clouds with great power and glory. And then shall he send forth the angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its 29 leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know 30 ye that [d] he is nigh, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until 31 all these things be accomplished. Heaven and earth
32 shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.
But of that day or that hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.
33 Take ye heed, watch [e] and pray: for ye know not 34 when the time is. It is as when a man, sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his [f] servants, to each one his work, 35 commanded also the porter to watch. Watch therefore: for ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether at even, or at midnight, or at cock-36 crowing, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly 37 he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

14 Now after two days was the feast of the passover and the unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him 2 with subtilty, and kill him: for they said, Not during the feast, lest haply there shall be a tumult of the people.

3 And while he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having [g] an alabaster cruse of ointment of [h] spikenard very costly; and she brake the cruse, 4 and poured it over his head. But there were some that had indignation among themselves, saying, To what purpose hath this waste of the ointment been 5 made? For this ointment might have been sold for above three hundred [c] pence, and given to the poor.
6 And they murmured against her. But Jesus said,
Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath 7 wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor

10 ¶ [4] And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.
11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.
12 ¶ [5] And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?
13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.
14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?
15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.
16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.
17 [6] And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.
18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.
19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?
20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.
21 [7] The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.
22 ¶ [8] And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.
23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.
24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.
25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.
26 ¶ [9] And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.
27 [10] And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [11] I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.
28 But [12] after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.
29 [13] But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

14 pitcher of water: follow him; and wheresoever he shall enter in, say to the goodman of the house, The [e] Master saith, Where is my guest-chamber, where I
15 shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will himself shew you a large upper room furnished
16 and ready: and there make ready for us. And the disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 [14] And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, [15] My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, [16] Abba, Father, [17] all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: [18] nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. [19] The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, [20] the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 [21] Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ [22] And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 [23] And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but [24] the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 [25] And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ [26] And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not 54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, [28] I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 [29] And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But [30] he held his peace, and answered nothing. [31] Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: [32] and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ [33] And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 [34] And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. [35] And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: [36] for thou art a Galilæan, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 [37] And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Jesus brought bound, and accused before Pilate. 15 Upon the clamour of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified. 17 He is crowned with thorns, 19 spit on, and mocked: 21 faineth in bearing his cross: 27 hangeth between two thieves: 29 suffereth the triumphing reproaches of the Jews: 39 but confessed by the centurion to be the Son of God: 43 and is honourably buried by Joseph.

AND [1] straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

54 the elders and the scribes. And Peter had followed him afar off, even within, into the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers, and 55 warming himself in the light of the fire. Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found it 56 not. For many bare false witness against him, and 57 their witness agreed not together. And there stood up certain, and bare false witness against him, say-58 ing, We heard him say, I will destroy this [p] temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will 59 build another made without hands. And not even 60 so did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which 61 these witness against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and saith unto him, Art thou the Christ, 62 the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of 63 heaven. And the high priest rent his clothes, and 64 saith, What further need have we of witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be [q] worthy of death.
65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the officers received him with [r] blows of their hands.

66 And as Peter was beneath in the court, there com-
67 eth one of the maids of the high priest; and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, Thou also wast with the Nazarene, even Jesus.
68 But he denied, saying, [s] I neither know, nor understand what thou sayest: and he went out into the 69 [t] porch; [u] and the cock crew. And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by,
70 This is one of them. But he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, Of a truth thou art one of them; for thou art
71 a Galilæan. But he began to curse, and to swear, I
72 know not this man of whom ye speak. And straightway the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. [v] And when he thought thereon, he wept.

15 And straightway in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, hold a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.
4 [3] And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.
5 [4] But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.
6 Now [5] at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.
7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.
8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?
10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.
11 But [6] the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.
12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?
13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.
15 ¶ [7] And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 [8] And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Prætorium; and they call together the whole band.
17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!
19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.
20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

4 chief priests accused him of many things. And Pilate again asked him, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse thee of.
5 But Jesus no more answered anything; insomuch that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at [a] the feast he used to release unto them
7 one prisoner, whom they asked of him. And there was one called Barabbas, lying bound with them that had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection
8 had committed murder. And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to 9 do unto them. And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the 10 Jews? For he perceived that for envy the chief 11 priests had delivered him up. But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should rather 12 release Barabbas unto them. And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And [19] they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And [20] when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, [21] Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 [4]And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 [5]And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, [6]as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: [7]neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

14 ¶ [13]Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 [14]And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, [15]and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 [16]He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; [17]but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; [18]In my name shall they cast out devils; [19]they shall speak with new tongues;

18 [20]They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; [21]they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then [22]after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was [23]received up into heaven, and [24]sat on the right hand of God.

2 him. And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen.
3 And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?
4 and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled 5 back: for it was exceeding great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were 6 amazed. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed:
ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place 7 where they laid him! But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall 8 ye see him, as he said unto you. And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonto any one; for they were afraid.

9 [a]Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from 10 whom he had cast out seven [b]devils. She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned alive, and had been seen of her, disbelieved.

12 And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, on 13 their way into the country. And they went away and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.
14 And afterward he was manifested unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

ST. LUKE.

CHAPTER I.

1 The preface of Luke to his whole gospel. 5 The conception of John the Baptist, 26 and of Christ. 39 The prophecy of Elisabeth, and of Mary, concerning Christ. 57 The nativity and circumcision of John. 67 The prophecy of Zacharias, both of Christ, 76 and of John.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 [1]Even as they delivered them unto us, which [2]from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 [3]It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee [4]in order, [5]most excellent Theophilus,

4 [6]That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was [7]in the days of Herod, the king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, [8]of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both [9]righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God [10]in the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was [11]to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 [12]And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of [13]the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, [14]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and [15]thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and [16]many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and [17]shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, [18]even from his mother's womb.

16 [19]And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 [20]And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the

1 FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have
2 been [a]fulfilled among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-
3 witnesses and ministers of the word, it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee
4 in order, most excellent Theophilus; that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the [b]things [c]wherein thou wast instructed.

5 THERE was in the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of 6 Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blame-
7 less. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now [d]well stricken in years.

8 Now it came to pass, while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,
9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the [e]temple of the Lord and burn
10 incense. And the whole multitude of the people
11 were praying without at the hour of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord stand-
12 ing on the right side of the altar of incense. And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear 13 fell upon him. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and 14 thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his 15 birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor [f]strong drink; and he shall be filled with the [g]Holy Ghost, even 16 from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God.
17 And he shall [h]go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, [21]Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [22]Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, [23]thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as [24]the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to [25]take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin [26]espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, [27]Hail, thou that art highly favoured, [28]the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, [29]she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 [30]And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and [31]shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, [32]and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and [33]the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 [34]And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, [35]The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called [36]the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this [t]is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For [37]with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a 18 people prepared for him. And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an 19 old man, and my wife [i]well stricken in years. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good 20 tidings. And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words,

21 which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they mar-
22 velled [j]while he tarried in the [k]temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the [k]temple: and he continued making signs unto them, 23 and remained dumb. And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

24 And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived;
25 and she hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Naza-
27 reth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's

30 Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found [n]favour with 36 called holy, the Son of God. And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her that 37 [s]was called barren. For no word from God shall 38 be void of power. And Mary said, Behold, the 39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, [38] into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, [39] Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

60 And his mother answered and said, [54] Not so; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, [55] His name is John. And they marvelled all.

CHAPTER II.

1 Augustus taxeth all the Roman empire. 6 The nativity of Christ. 8 One angel relateth it to the shepherds: 13 many sing praises to God for it. 21 Christ is circumcised. 22 Mary purified. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesy of Christ: 40 who increaseth in wisdom. 46 questioneth in the temple with the doctors, 51 and is obedient to his parents.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 ([1] And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, unto [2] the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; ([3] because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with Mary [4] his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And [5] she brought forth her firstborn son, and 65 loosed, and he spake, blessing God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill 66 country of Judæa. And all that heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then shall this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

For he hath visited and wrought redemption for his people,

In the house of his servant David 70 (As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began),

of the Most High:
For thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing

2 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all [a] the world
2 should be enrolled. This was the first enrolment 3 made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered.

wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: [6]and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, [7] which shall be to all people.

11 [8]For unto you is born this day in the city of David [9]a Saviour, [10]which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 [11]And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 [12]Glory to God in the highest, and on earth [13]peace, [14]good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 [15]But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 [16]And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called [17]JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when [18]the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, [19]Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to [20]that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, [21]waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not [22]see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came [23]by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping [b]watch by night
9 over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round
10 about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be 11 to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is [c]Christ the 12 Lord. And this is the sign unto you; Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a 13 manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth [d]peace among [e]men in whom he is well pleased.

15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this [f]thing that is come to pass, which the Lord 16 hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the 17 babe lying in the manger. And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was 18 spoken to them about this child. And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto 19 them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these 20 [g]sayings, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

21 And when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him
23 up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord),
24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves,
25 or two young pigeons. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon 26 him. And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he 27 had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do con-

CHAPTER III.

1 The preaching and baptism of John: 15 his testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ baptized, receiveth testimony from heaven. 23 The age, and genealogy of Christ from Joseph upwards.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituræa and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 [1] Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 [2] And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance [3] for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, [4] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And [5] all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, [6] O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: [7] every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, [8] What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, [9] He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then [10] came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, [11] Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, [12] neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;

16 John answered, saying unto them all, [13] I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and [14] will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and his mother kept all these [p] sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus advanced in wisdom and [q] stature, and in [r] favour with God and men.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituræa and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, in the high-
2 priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilder-
3 ness. And he came into all the region round about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance unto 4 remission of sins; as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled,
And every mountain and hill shall be brought low;
And the crooked shall become straight,
And the rough ways smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 He said therefore to the multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who
8 warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of [a] repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abra-
9 ham. And even now is the axe also laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the 10 fire. And the multitudes asked him, saying, What 11 then must we do? And he answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him 12 do likewise. And there came also [b] publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, [c] Master, what 13 must we do? And he said unto them, Extort no
14 more than that which is appointed you. And [d] soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither [e] exact anything wrongfully; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John,
16 whether haply he were the Christ; John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but there cometh he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not [f] worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you [g] with the Holy Ghost
17 and with fire: whose fan is in his hand, throughly to cleanse his threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

19 [15] But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, [16] it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

18 With many other exhortations therefore preached 19 he [h] good tidings unto the people; but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which 20 Herod had done, added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The temptation and fasting of Christ. 13 He overcometh the devil: 14 beginneth to preach. 16 The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words. 33 He cureth one possessed of a devil, 38 Peter's mother in law, 40 and divers other sick persons. 41 The devils acknowledge Christ, and are reproved for it. 43 He preacheth through the cities.

AND [1] Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and [2] was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And [3] in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, [4] It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for [5] that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for [6] it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 [7] And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

18 [16] The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

27 [23] And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet ; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [24] passing through the midst of them went his way, 31 And [25] came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine : [26] for his word was with power.

33 ¶ [27] And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, Let us alone ; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth ? art thou come to destroy us ? [28] I know thee who thou art ; [29] the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this ! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ [30] And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever ; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever ; and it left her : and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ [31] Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him ; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 [32] And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And [33] he rebuking them suffered them not to speak : for they knew that he was Christ.

1 Christ teacheth the people out of Peter's ship: 4 in a miraculous taking of fishes, sheweth how he will make him and his partners fishers of men: 12 cleanseth the leper: 16 prayeth in the wilderness: 18 healeth one sick of the palsy: 27 calleth Matthew the publican: 29 eateth with sinners, as being the physician of souls: 34 foretelleth the fastings and afflictions of the apostles after his ascension: 36 and likeneth fainthearted and weak disciples to old bottles and worn garments.

AND [1] it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, [2] Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, [3] Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; [4] from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, [5] they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ [6] And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 [7] And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, [8] according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: [9] and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ [10] And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was him, and came unto him, and would have stayed 43 him, that he should not go from them. But he said unto them, I must preach the [o] good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent.

44 And he was preaching in the synagogues of [p] Galilee.

5 Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him and heard the word of God, that he was

3 And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes
4 out of the boat. And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down
5 your nets for a draught. And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing:

7 titude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began
8 to sink. But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for 9 I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the 10 fishes which they had taken; and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not;

13 clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And 14 straightway the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: but go thy way, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto 15 them. But so much the more went abroad the report concerning him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmi-

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 [12] And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [13] Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ [14] And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 [15] And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and [16] there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 [17] I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, [18] Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ [19] And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees' blindness about the observation of the sabbath, by scripture, reason, and miracle: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased: 20 preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessings and curses: 27 how we must love our enemies: 46 and join the obedience of good works to the hearing of the word: lest in the evil day of temptation we fall like an house built upon the face of the earth, without any foundation.

AND [1]it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that [2]which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, [3]what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; [4]which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 [5]And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 [6]And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: [7]and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, ([8]whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas [9]the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, [10]and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

38 But new wine must be put into fresh wine-skins.
39 And no man having drunk old wine desireth new: for he saith, The old is [g]good.

6 Now it came to pass on a [a]sabbath, that he was going through the cornfields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them
2 in their hands. But certain of the Pharisees said, Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the 3 sabbath day? And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read even this, what David did, when he was an hungred, he, and they that were with 4 him; how he entered into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to 5 eat save for the priests alone? And he said unto them, The Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

6 And it came to pass on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered.
7 And the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they 8 might find how to accuse him. But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst.
9 And he arose and stood forth. And Jesus said unto them, I ask you, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to destroy 10 it? And he looked round about on them all, and said unto him, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did 11 so: and his hand was restored. But they were filled with [b]madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in these days, that he went out into the mountain to pray; and he continued all 13 night in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called his disciples: and he chose from them twelve, 14 whom also he named apostles; Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James 15 and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, and Matthew and Thomas, and James the son of Alphæus, 16 and Simon which was called the Zealot, and Judas the [c]son of James, and Judas Iscariot, which was the 17 traitor; and he came down with them, and stood on a level place, and a great multitude of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judæa and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their 18 diseases; and they that were troubled with unclean

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [13] Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 [14] Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. [15] Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 [16] Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they [17] shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 [18] Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for [19] in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 [20] But woe unto you [21] that are rich! for [22] ye have received your consolation.

25 [23] Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. [24] Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 [25] Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

35 But [34] love ye your enemies, and do good, and [35] lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and [36] ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, [45] cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

45 [48] A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for [49] of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ [50] And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 [51] Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ findeth a greater faith in the centurion a Gentile, than in any of the Jews: 10 healeth his servant being absent: 11 raiseth from death the widow's son at Nain: 19 answereth John's messengers with the declaration of his miracles: 24 testifieth to the people what opinion he held of John: 30 inveigheth against the Jews, who with neither the manners of John nor of Jesus could be won: 36 and sheweth by occasion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to sinners, not to maintain them in sins, but to forgive them their sins, upon their faith and repentance.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, [1] he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having der me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my ser-thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that 42 is in thine own eye? Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy 43 brother's eye. For there is no good tree that bringeth forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt 44 tree that bringeth forth good fruit. For each tree is known by its own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they 45 grapes. The good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the 47 things which I say? Every one that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will 48 shew you to whom he is like: he is like a man building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: [f] because it had been well
49 builded. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

7 After he had ended all his sayings in the ears of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's [a] servant, who was [b] dear
3 unto him, was sick and at the point of death. And when he heard concerning Jesus, he sent unto him elders of the Jews, asking him that he would come
4 and save his [a] servant. And they, when they came to Jesus, besought him earnestly, saying, He is
5 worthy that thou shouldest do this for him: for he loveth our nation, and himself built us our syna-
6 gogue. And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not [c] worthy that thou shouldest

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Naïn; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [2] Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 [3] And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, [4] That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, [5] That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judæa, and throughout all the region round about.

18 [6] And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 [7] Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; [8] how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, [9] to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ [10] And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, [11] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, [12] being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected [13] the 9 [f] servant, Do this, and he doeth it. And when Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I

10 say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the [f] servant whole.

11 And it came to pass [g] soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with 12 him, and a great multitude. Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of 13 the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep

17 us: and, God hath visited his people. And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judæa, and all the region round about.

19 things. And John calling unto him [h] two of his disciples sent them to the Lord, saying, Art thou he 20 that cometh, or look we for another? And when the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he 21 that cometh, or look we for another? In that hour he cured many of diseases and [i] plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he bestowed
22 sight. And he answered and said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have [j] good tidings
23 preached to them. And blessed is he, whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in me.

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to be-counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, [14] Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For [15] John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 [16] But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ [17] And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, [18] This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 [19] My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 [20] Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, [21] Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, [22] Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, [23] Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

rejected for themselves the counsel of God, [m] being 31 not baptized of him. Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they 32 like? They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; which say,
We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we 33 wailed, and ye did not weep. For John the Baptist is come eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye 34 say, He hath a [n] devil. The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans 35 and sinners! And wisdom [o] is justified of all her children.

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he entered into the Phar-37 isee's house, and sat down to meat. And behold, a woman which was in the city, a sinner; and when she knew that he was sitting at meat in the Pharisee's house, she brought [p] an alabaster cruse of oint-38 ment, and standing behind at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and [q] kissed his feet, and 39 anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were [r] a prophet, would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him, that she is a 40 sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon,
I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, 41 [s] Master, say on. A certain lender had two debtors:
the one owed five hundred [t] pence, and the other 42 fifty. When they had not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him 43 most? Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto 44 him, Thou hast rightly judged. And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman?
I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her 45 tears, and wiped them with her hair. Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I came in, hath 46 not ceased to [u] kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with 47 ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much:
but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth lit-48 tle. And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.
49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say
[v] within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth 50 sins? And he said unto the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAPTER VIII.

3 Women minister unto Christ of their substance. 4 Christ, after he had preached from place to place, attended with his apostles, propoundeth the parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle: 21 declareth who are his mother, and brethren: 22 rebuketh the winds: 26 casteth the legion of devils out of the man into the herd of swine: 37 is rejected of the Gadarenes: 43 healeth the woman of her bloody issue, 49 and raiseth from death Jairus' daughter.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And [1] certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, [2] out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ [3] And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 [4] And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; [5] that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 [6] Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ [7] No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 [8] For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: [9] for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

8 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the [a] good tidings of the kingdom of God,
2 and with him the twelve, and certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary that was called Magdalene, from whom seven [b] devils had gone out,
3 and Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto [c] them of their substance.

4 And when a great multitude came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a
5 parable: The sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven
6 devoured it. And other fell on the rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no
7 moisture. And other fell amidst the thorns; and 8 the thorns grew with it, and choked it. And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him what this parable
10 might be. And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see,
11 and hearing they may not understand. Now the 12 parable is this: The seed is the word of God. And those by the way side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved.
13 And those on the rock are they which, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time
14 of temptation fall away. And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to 15 perfection. And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 And no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they which enter in may 17 see the light. For nothing is hid, that shall not be made manifest; nor anything secret, that shall not 18 be known and come to light. Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he [d] thinketh he hath.

19 ¶ [10] Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ [11] Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ [12] And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out [13] into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ [14] Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about [15] besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ [17] And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ [18] And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that [19] virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ [20] While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, [21] but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, [22] arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but [23] he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? [9] And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ [10] And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. [11] And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

12 [12] And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

26 [20] For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 [21] But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ [22] And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him [23] were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, [24] This is my beloved Son: [25] hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. [26] And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ [27] And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 [28] Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 [29] But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his [e] life for 25 my sake, the same shall save it. For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose or for-26 feit his own self? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and 27 the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. But I tell you of a truth, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter and John and 29 James, and went up into the mountain to pray. And as he was praying, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became white and daz-30 zling. And behold, there talked with him two men, 31 which were Moses and Elijah; who appeared in glory, and spake of his [f] decease which he was about 32 to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: but [g] when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, 33 and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three [h] tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing 34 what he said. And while he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they 35 feared as they entered into the cloud. And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is [i] my Son, my 36 chosen: hear ye him. And when the voice [j] came,
Jesus was found alone. And they held their peace, and told no man in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great mul-38 titude met him. And behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, [k] Master, I beseech thee to 39 look upon my son; for he is mine only child: and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it [l] teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely.
40 And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and 41 they could not. And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy 42 son. And as he was yet a coming, the [m] devil [n] dashed him down, and [o] tare him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, 43 and gave him back to his father. And they were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marvelling at all the things 44 which he did, he said unto his disciples, Let these words sink into your ears: for the Son of man shall 45 be delivered up into the hands of men. But they understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it: and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

48 And said unto them, [31]Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: [32]for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ [33]And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for [34]he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that [35]he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And [36]they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as [37]Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For [38]the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ [39]And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 [40]And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, [41]I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER X.

1 Christ sendeth out at once seventy disciples to work miracles, and to preach: 17 admonisheth them to be humble, and wherein to rejoice: 21 thanketh his Father for his grace: 23 magnifieth the happy estate of his church: 25 teacheth the lawyer how to attain eternal life, and to take every one for his neighbour that needeth his mercy: 41 reprehendeth Martha, and commendeth Mary her sister.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and [1]sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, [2]The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: [3]pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

46 And there arose a reasoning among them, which 47 of them should be [p]greatest. But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, 48 and set him by his side, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is [q]least among you all, the same is great.

49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out [r]devils in thy name; and we forbade
50 him, because he followeth not with us. But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against you is for you.

51 And it came to pass, when the days [s]were well-nigh come that he should be received up, he sted-
52 fastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make 53 ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he were going to 54 Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to 55 come down from heaven, and consume them? [t] But 56 he turned, and rebuked them.[u] And they went to another village.

57 And as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, I will follow thee whithersoever thou 58 goest. And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have [v]nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And 59 he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, 60 suffer me first to go and bury my father. But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and publish abroad the kingdom
61 of God. And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but first suffer me to bid farewell to them
62 that are at my house. But Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

10 Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy [a] others, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself
2 was about to come. And he said unto them, The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he

5 [7]And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.
6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.
7 [8]And in the same house remain, [9]eating and drinking such things as they give: for [10]the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.
8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:
9 [11]And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, [12]The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,
11 [13]Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
12 But I say unto you, that [14]it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.
13 [15]Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! [16]for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.
15 [17]And thou, Capernaum, which art [18]exalted to heaven, [19]shalt be thrust down to hell.
16 [20]He that heareth you heareth me; and [21]he that despiseth you despiseth me; [22]and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.
17 ¶ And [23]the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.
18 And he said unto them, [24]I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.
19 Behold, [25]I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.
20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because [26]your names are written in heaven.
21 ¶ [27]In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.
22 [28]All things are delivered to me of my Father: and [29]no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.
23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, [30]Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

3 send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs in the 4 midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no wallet, no
5 shoes: and salute no man on the way. And into whatsoever house ye shall [b]enter, first say, Peace be

7 to you again. And in that same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to 8 house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:
9 and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
10 But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets thereof and 11 say, Even the dust from your city, that cleaveth to our feet, we do wipe off against you: howbeit know
12 this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh. I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable in that day for 13 Sodom, than for that city. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the [d]mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sit-14 ting in sackcloth and ashes. Howbeit it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgement, 15 than for you. And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt be brought down 16 unto Hades. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that rejecteth you rejecteth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me.

17 And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the [e]devils are subject unto us in thy name.

21 In that same hour he rejoiced [f]in the Holy Spirit, and said, I [g]thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; [h]for so it was well-22 pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the 23 Son willeth to reveal him. And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, [32] Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, [33] Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and [34] thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and [35] thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to [36] justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, [37] he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain [38] Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named [39] Martha received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, [40] which also [41] sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But [42] one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

24 see the things that ye see: for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, [i] Master, what shall I do to inherit eter-
26 nal life? And he said unto him, What is written in 27 the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God [j] with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thy-28 self. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered
29 right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my 30 neighbour? Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, which both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead.
31 And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the 32 other side. And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on 33 the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, 34 he was moved with compassion, and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought 35 him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow he took out two [k] pence, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, 36 will repay thee. Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbour unto him that fell among 37 the robbers? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Mar-

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, and that instantly: 11 assuring that God so will give us good things. 14 He, casting out a dumb devil, rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisees: 28 and sheweth who are blessed: 29 preacheth to the people, 37 and reprehendeth the outward shew of holiness in the Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, [1] Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, [2] Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 [3] And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 [4] If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ [5] And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, [6] He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, [7] sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 [8] But [9] he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I [10] with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

11 And it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also 2 taught his disciples. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, [a] Father, Hallowed be thy name. Thy 21 [11] When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace :

22 But [12] when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.
23 [13] He that is not with me is against me : and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.
24 [14] When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest ; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.
25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.
26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself ; and they enter in, and dwell there : and [15] the last state of that man is worse than the first.
27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [16] Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.
28 But he said, Yea [17] rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.
29 ¶ [18] And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation : they seek a sign ; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.
30 For as [19] Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.
31 [20] The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them : for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon ; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.
32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : for [21] they repented at the preaching of Jonas ; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.
33 [22] No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.
34 [23] The light of the body is the eye : therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light ; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.
35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.
36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.
37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him : and he went in, and sat down to meat.
38 And [24] when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.
39 [25] And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter ; but [26] your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.
40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also ?

21 kingdom of God come upon you. When the strong man fully armed guardeth his own court, his goods
22 are in peace : but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole armour wherein he trusted, and di-
23 videth his spoils. He that is not with me is against me ; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.
24 The unclean spirit when [l] he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest ; and finding none, [l] he saith, I will turn back unto my 25 house whence I came out. And when [l] he is come,
26 [l] he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth [l] he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than [m] himself ; and they enter in and dwell there : and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck.
28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.
29 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation : it seeketh after a sign ; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of 30 Jonah. For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this 31 generation. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them : for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon ; and 32 behold, [n] a greater than Solomon is here. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it : for they repented at the preaching of Jonah ; and behold, [n] a greater than Jonah is here.
33 No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light.
34 The lamp of thy body is thine eye : when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light ; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.
35 Look therefore whether the light that is in thee be 36 not darkness. If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining doth give thee light.

42 [28] But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 [29] Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 [30] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [31] for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! [32] for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 [33] Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, [34] I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 [35] From the blood of Abel unto [36] the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 [37] Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and [38] seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisy, and fearfulness in publishing his doctrine: 13 warneth the people to beware of covetousness, by the parable of the rich man who set up greater barns. 22 We must not be over careful of earthly things, 31 but seek the kingdom of God, 33 give alms, 36 be ready at a knock to open to our Lord whensoever he cometh. 41 Christ's ministers are to see to their charge, 49 and look for persecution. 54 The people must take this time of grace, 58 because it is a fearful thing to die without reconciliation.

IN [1] the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, [2] Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 [3] For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 [4] And I say unto you [5] my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

41 side also? Howbeit give for alms those things which [p] are within; and behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But woe unto you Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgement and the love of God: but these ought ye to have 43 done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces.

44 Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

45 And one of the lawyers answering saith unto him, [q] Master, in saying this thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you lawyers also! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your

47 fingers. Woe unto you! for ye build the tombs of 48 the prophets, and your fathers killed them. So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their

49 tombs. Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send unto them prophets and apostles; and

50 some of them they shall kill and persecute; that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this

51 generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the [r] sanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be re-

52 quired of this generation. Woe unto you lawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And when he was come out from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to [s] press upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of [t] many 54 things; laying wait for him, to catch something out of his mouth.

12 In the mean time, when [a] the many thousands of the multitude were gathered together, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to [b] say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of

2 the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. But there is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed: and

3 hid, that shall not be known. Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 [6] Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And [7] whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 [8] And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, [9] Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, [10] Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, [11] Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night [12] thy soul shall be required of thee: [13] then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, [14] and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, [15] Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and [16] God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

5 that they can do. But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath [c] power to cast into [d] hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear
6 him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and not one of them is forgotten in the sight of God.
7 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not: ye are of more value than many sparrows.
8 And I say unto you, Every one who shall confess [e] me before men, [f] him shall the Son of man also 9 confess before the angels of God: but he that denieth me in the presence of men shall be denied in 10 the presence of the angels of God. And every one who shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven.
11 And when they bring you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not anxious how or what ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:
12 for the Holy Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one out of the multitude said unto him, [g] Master, bid my brother divide the inheritance with 14 me. But he said unto him, Man, who made me a 15 judge or a divider over you? And he said unto them, Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: [h] for a man's life consisteth not in the abun-

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?
29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.
30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.
31 ¶ [17] But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.
32 Fear not, little flock; for [18] it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
33 [19] Sell that ye have, and give alms; [20] provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.
34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35 [21] Let your loins be girded about, and [22] your lights burning;
36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.
37 [23] Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.
38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.
39 ☞ And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.
40 [25] Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.
41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?
42 And the Lord said, [26] Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?
43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.
44 [27] Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.
45 [28] But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;
46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.
47 And [29] that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

27 rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even 28 Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more shall he clothe you, O ye of little 29 faith? And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what 30 ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: but your Father knoweth that ye have need of 31 these things. Howbeit seek ye [m] his kingdom, and 32 these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give 33 you the kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give alms; make for yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief 34 draweth near, neither moth destroyeth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps
36 burning; and be ye yourselves like unto men looking for their lord, when he shall return from the marriage feast; that, when he cometh and knocketh, 37 they may straightway open unto him. Blessed are those [n] servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them sit down to meat, 38 and shall come and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, and if in the third, and 39 find them so, blessed are those servants. [o] But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have left his house to be [p] broken 40 through. Be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh.

41 And Peter said, Lord, speakest thou this parable
42 unto us, or even unto all? And the Lord said, Who then is [q] the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their 43 portion of food in due season? Blessed is that [r] servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find 44 so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will 45 set him over all that he hath. But if that [r] servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be 46 drunken; the lord of that [r] servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall [s] cut him asunder, and ap-47 point his portion with the unfaithful. And that [r] servant, which knew his lord's will, and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be beaten

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ preacheth repentance upon the punishment of the Galilæans, and others. 6 The fruitless fig tree may not stand. 11 He healeth the crooked woman: 18 sheweth the powerful working of the word in the hearts of his chosen, by the parable of the grain of mustard seed, and of leaven: 24 exhorteth to enter in at the strait gate, 31 and reproveth Herod and Jerusalem.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; [1] A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

54 And he said to the multitudes also, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There 55 cometh a shower; and so it cometh to pass. And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a [t] scorching heat; and it cometh to pass.

57 know not how to [u] interpret this time? And why 58 even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? For as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he hale thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the [v] officer, and the

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 [2] And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, [3] There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and [4] not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, [5] doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, [6] being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ [7] Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 [8] And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ¶ [9] Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for [10] many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 [11] When once the master of the house is risen up, and [12] hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [13] Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, [14] I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 [15] But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; [16] depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 [17] There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, [18] when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

9 and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 [21] O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

CHAPTER XIV.

2 Christ healeth the dropsy on the sabbath: 7 teacheth humility: 12 to feast the poor: 15 under the parable of the great supper, sheweth how worldly minded men, who contemn the word of God, shall be shut out of heaven. 25 Those who will be his disciples, to bear their cross must make their accounts aforehand, lest with shame they revolt from him afterward, 34 and become altogether unprofitable, like salt that hath lost his savour.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [1] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, [2] Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 [3] But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 [4] For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

30 of God. And behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.
31 In that very hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Get thee out, and go hence: for 32 Herod would fain kill thee. And he said unto them, Go and say to that fox, Behold, I cast out f devils and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and the 33 third day I am perfected. Howbeit I must go on my way to-day and to-morrow and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of 34 Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her own brood 35 under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath 2 to eat bread, that they were watching him. And behold, there was before him a certain man which 3 had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal

And he took him, and healed him, and let him go, 5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straight-6 way draw him up on a sabbath day? And they could not answer again unto these things.

7 And he spake a parable unto those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief 8 seats; saying unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, b sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honourable man than down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go 11 ence of all that sit at meat with thee. For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [6] Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
16 [7] Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many :

other said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go 20 to prove them : I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I 21 cannot come. And the [c] servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his [c] servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame.
22 And the [c] servant said, Lord, what thou didst com-23 mand is done, and yet there is room. And the lord said unto the [c] servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house 24 may be filled. For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went with him great multitudes : and 26 he turned, and said unto them, If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, 27 and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Whosoever doth not bear his own cross, and come after me, 28 cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the 29 cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it ? Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, 30 saying, This man began to build, and was not able to 31 finish. Or what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand ?
32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh conditions of peace.
33 So therefore whosoever he be of you that renounceth 34 not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt therefore is good : but if even the salt have lost its 35 savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned ? It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill : men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

THEN [1]drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, [2]and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 [3]What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep [4]which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, [5]more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them [6]his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But [7]when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, [8]and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

15 Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing
2 near unto him for to hear him. And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.
3 And he spake unto them this parable, saying,
4 What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which
5 is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found
6 it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which 7 was lost. I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, which need no repentance.
8 Or what woman having ten [a]pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it?
9 And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbours, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost.
10 Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 12 And he said, A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of [b]thy substance that falleth to me.
13 And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living.
14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want.

19 and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.
20 And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his 21 neck, and [d]kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son.[e]
22 But the father said to his [f]servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a 26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than [1] the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, [2] Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 [3] He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

24 merry: for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they be-
25 gan to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, 26 he heard music and dancing. And he called to him one of the [g] servants, and inquired what these things
27 might be. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf,

16 And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his

3 longer steward. And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to 4 dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they
5 may receive me into their houses. And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the 6 first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, A hundred [a] measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy [b] bond, and sit down quickly and

13 ¶ [4] No servant can serve two masters: for either e will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will old to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve od and mammon.
14 And the Pharisees also, [5] who were covetous, heard ll these things: and they derided him.
15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [6] jus-ify yourselves before men; but [7] God knoweth your earts: for [8] that which is highly esteemed among men abomination in the sight of God.
16 [9] The law and the prophets were until John: since at time the kingdom of God is preached, and every an presseth into it.
17 [10] And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, an one tittle of the law to fail.
18 [11] Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth nother, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth er that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.
19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:
20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;
23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and [12] cool my tongue; for I [13] am tormented in this flame.
25 But Abraham said, Son, [14] remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.
27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:
28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
29 Abraham saith unto him, [15] They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.
30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.
31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, [16] neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

12 commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, 13 who will give you that which is [g] your own? No [h] servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
14 And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things; and they scoffed at him.
15 And he said unto them, Ye are they that justify yourselves in the sight of men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men 16 is an abomination in the sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John: from that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every 17 man entereth violently into it. But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of 18 the law to fall. Every one that putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery:
and he that marrieth one that is put away from a husband committeth adultery.

19 Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, [i] faring sumptuously ham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my

Abraham said, [j] Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, 26 and thou art in anguish. And [k] beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they which would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to 27 us. And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that 28 thou wouldest send him to my father's house; for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, 29 lest they also come into this place of torment. But Abraham saith, They have Moses and the prophets; 30 let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father

suaded, if one rise from the dead.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence. 3 One to forgive another. 6 The power of faith. 7 How we are bound to God, and not he to us. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man.

THEN said he unto the disciples, [1] It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: [2] If thy brother trespass against thee, [3] rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 [4] And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, [5] and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are [6] unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, [7] as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, [8] which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, [9] Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 [10] And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 [11] Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, [12] the kingdom of God is within you.

17 And he said unto his disciples, It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come: but woe 2 unto him, through whom they come! It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.
3 Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother sin, rebuke
4 him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he sin against thee seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our 6 faith. And the Lord said, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this syca-mine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in 7 the sea; and it would have obeyed you. But who is there of you, having a [a] servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to 8 meat; and will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward 9 thou shalt eat and drink? Doth he thank the
[a] servant because he did the things that were com-10 manded? Even so ye also, when ye shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable [b] servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, [c] as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that he was passing [d] through the midst 12 of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were 13 lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go and shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to 15 pass, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, 16 with a loud voice glorifying God; and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was 17 a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were not 18 the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? [e] Were there none found that returned to give glory to 19 God, save this [f] stranger? And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath [g] made thee whole.

20 And being asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said,
The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:
21 neither shall they say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is [h] within you.

23 [14] And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 [15] For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 [16] But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 [17] And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

28 [18] Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But [19] the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man [20] is revealed.

31 In that day, he [21] which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

33 [23] Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 [24] I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, [25] Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought [1] always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you [4]that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain [5]which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee [6]stood and prayed thus with himself, [7]God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: [8]for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 [9]And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [10]of such is the kingdom of God.

17 [11]Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 [12]And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, [13]Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, [14]Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: [15]sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, [16]How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, [17]The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 [18]Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [19]There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or which cry to him day and night, and he is longsuffering over them? I say unto you, that he will avenge them speedily. Howbeit when the Son of man cometh, shall he find [d]faith on the earth?

And he spake also this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and set [e]all others at nought: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his breast, saying, God, [f]be merciful to me [g]a sinner. I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

And they brought unto him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called them unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good [h]Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and mother. 9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as [4] he also is [5] a son of Abraham.

10 [6] For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because [7] they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 [8] He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 [9] But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been [10] faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 [11] For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, [12] Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. [13] Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, [14] That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, [15] he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 [16] And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

9 of any man, I restore fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, 10 forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God
12 was immediately to appear. He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive 13 for himself [a] a kingdom, and to return. And he called ten [a] servants of his, and gave them ten [b] pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till 14 I come. But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man
15 reign over us. And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these [a] servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might 16 know what they had gained by trading. And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath 17 made ten pounds more. And he said unto him, Well done, thou good [c] servant: because thou wast found faithful in a very little, have thou authority 18 over ten cities. And the second came, saying, Thy 19 pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. And he said
20 unto him also, Be thou also over five cities. And [d] another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy 21 pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest
22 that thou didst not sow. He saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked [c] servant. Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I
23 did not sow; then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and [e] I at my coming should 24 have required it with interest? And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds.
25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.
26 I say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him.
27 Howbeit these mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went on before, going up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he drew nigh unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called 30 the mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, Go your way into the village over against you; in the which as ye enter ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat: loose him, and bring 35 And they brought him to Jesus: [17] and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 [18] And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, [19] Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: [20] peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, [21] the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and [22] wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall [23] cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And [24] shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and [25] they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; [26] because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 [27] And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, [28] It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but [29] ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But [30] the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

AND [1] it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, [2] by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

31 him. And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say, The Lord hath need of him.
32 And they that were sent went away, and found even 33 as he had said unto them. And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, 34 Why loose ye the colt? And they said, The Lord 35 hath need of him. And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and 36 set Jesus thereon. And as he went, they spread 37 their garments in the way. And as he was now drawing nigh, even at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all

45 And he entered into the temple, and began to cast
46 out them that sold, saying unto them, It is written, And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.
47 And he was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of 48 the people sought to destroy him: and they could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

20 And it came to pass, on one of the days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, there came upon him the chief priests and 6 But and if we say, Of men ; all the people will stone us : [8] for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.
8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.
9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable ; [4] A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard : but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
11 And again he sent another servant : and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
12 And again he sent a third : and they wounded him also, and cast him out.
13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do ? I will send my beloved son : it may be they will reverence him when they see him.
14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.
15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them ?
16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.
17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, [5] The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner ?
18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken ; but [6] on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him ; and they feared the people : for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.
20 [7] And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.
21 And they asked him, saying, [8] Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly :
22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no ?
23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me ?
24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it ? They answered and said, Cæsar's.
25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.
26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people : and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.
27 ¶ [9] Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, [10] which deny that there is any resurrection : and they asked him,

6 not believe him ? But if we shall say, From men ; all the people will stone us : for they be persuaded 7 that John was a prophet. And they answered, that 8 they knew not whence it was. And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.
9 And he began to speak unto the people this parable : A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country for 10 a long time. And at the season he sent unto the husbandmen a [b] servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard : but the husbandmen 11 beat him, and sent him away empty. And he sent yet another [b] servant : and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
12 And he sent yet a third : and him also they 13 wounded, and cast him forth. And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do ? I will send my beloved son : it may be they will reverence him.
14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir : let us
15 kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard 16 do unto them ? He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. And when they heard it, they said, [c] God forbid.
17 But he looked upon them, and said, What then is this that is written,

The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made the head of the corner ?

18 Every one that falleth on that stone shall be broken to pieces ; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust.

19 And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that very hour ; and they feared the people : for they perceived that he spake this par-
20 able against them. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which feigned themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver him up to the rule and to the authority 21 of the governor. And they asked him, saying, [d] Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and acceptest not the person of any, but of 22 a truth teachest the way of God : Is it lawful for us

24 ceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Shew me a [e] penny. Whose image and superscription hath it ?
25 And they said, Cæsar's. And he said unto them, Then render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, 26 and unto God the things that are God's. And they were not able to take hold of the saying before the people : and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

28 Saying, Master, [11] Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for [12] they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, [13] being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, [14] even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for [15] all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, [16] How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, [17] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ [18] Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 [19] Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and [20] love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 [21] Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

28 they asked him, saying, f Master, Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, 29 and raise up seed unto his brother. There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, 30 31 and died childless; and the second; and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no chil-32 dren, and died. Afterward the woman also died.
33 In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them
34 shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. And Jesus said unto them, The sons of this g world 35 marry, and are given in marriage: but they that are accounted worthy to attain to that g world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor 36 are given in marriage: for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are 37 sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. But that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed, in the place concerning the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the 38 God of Jacob. Now he is not the God of the dead, 39 but of the living: for all live unto him. And certain of the scribes answering said, f Master, thou 40 hast well said. For they durst not any more ask him any question.

41 And he said unto them, How say they that the 42 Christ is David's son? For David himself saith in the book of Psalms,
The Lord said unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
43 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.
44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?
45 And in the hearing of all the people he said unto 46 his disciples, Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, 47 and chief places at feasts; which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers:
these shall receive greater condemnation.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, [2] that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

come, in the which [4]there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, [5]Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 [6]Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 [7]But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and [8]into prisons, [9]being brought before kings and rulers [10]for my name's sake.

13 And [11]it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 [12]Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, [13]which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 [14]And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and [15]some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

20 [18]And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judæa flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that [19]all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 [20]But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, [21]until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ [22]And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: [23]for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man [24]coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left here one stone upon 7 another, that shall not be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, [b]Master, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when 8 these things are about to come to pass? And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The 30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

37 [33] And in the day time he was teaching in the temple ; and [34] at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ. 3 Satan prepareth Judas to betray him. 7 The apostles prepare the passover. 19 Christ instituteth his holy supper, 21 covertly foretelleth of the traitor, 24 dehorteth the rest of his apostles from ambition, 31 assureth Peter his faith should not fail: 34 and yet he should deny him thrice. 39 He prayeth in the mount, and sweateth blood, 47 is betrayed with a kiss: 50 he healeth Malchus' ear, 54 he is thrice denied of Peter, 63 shamefully abused, 66 and confesseth himself to be the Son of God.

NOW [1] the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And [2] the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him ; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ [3] Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and [4] covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ [5] Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare ?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water ; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples ?

come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads ; because your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable : Behold the fig
30 tree, and all the trees : when they now shoot forth, ye see it and know of your own selves that the sum-31 mer is now nigh. Even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that the king-
32 dom of God is nigh. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be ac-
33 complished. Heaven and earth shall pass away : but my words shall not pass away.

34 But take heed to yourselves, lest haply your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunken-
35 ness, and cares of this life, and that day come on you suddenly as a snare : for so shall it come upon all them that dwell on the face of all the earth.
36 But watch ye at every season, making supplication, that ye may prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And every day he was teaching in the temple ; and every night he went out, and lodged in the 38 mount that is called the mount of Olives. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh,
2 which is called the Passover. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death ; for they feared the people.
3 And Satan entered into Judas who was called
4 Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might deliver him unto them.
5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him
6 money. And he consented, and sought opportunity to deliver him unto them [a] in the absence of the multitude.

7 And the day of unleavened bread came, on which 8 the passover must be sacrificed. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for us the 9 passover, that we may eat. And they said unto 10 him, Where wilt thou that we make ready ? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water ; follow him into the house where-11 into he goeth. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The [b] Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the 12 passover with my disciples ? And he will shew you a large upper room furnished : there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 [6]And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, [7]until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For [8]I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, [11]This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ [12]But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 [13]And truly the Son of man goeth, [14]as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 [15]And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ [16]And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 [17]And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 [18]But ye shall not be so: [19]but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 [20]For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but [21]I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in [22]my temptations.

29 And [23]I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That [24]ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, [25]and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, [26]Satan hath desired to have you, that he may [27]sift you as wheat:

32 But [28]I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: [29]and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 [30]And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

39 ¶ [33] And he came out, and [34] went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives ; and his disciples also followed him.

40 [35] And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 [36] And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me : nevertheless [37] not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared [38] an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 [39] And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly : and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and [40] pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, [41] behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss ?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword ?

50 ¶ And [42] one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 [43] Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves ?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me : [44] but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ [45] Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. [46] And Peter followed afar off.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

3 [5] And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, [6] I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto [7] Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

13 ¶ [12] And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,
14 Said unto them, [13] Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, [14] I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:
15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.
23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.
24 And [18] Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.
25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.
26 [19] And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.
27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.
28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.
29 [20] For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.
30 [21] Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.
31 [22] For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?
32 [23] And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
33 And [24] when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.
34 ¶ Then said Jesus, Father, [25] forgive them; for 10 nothing. And the chief priests and the scribes stood,

11 vehemently accusing him. And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and arraying him in gorgeous apparel sent him back to 12 Pilate. And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate called together the chief priests and 14 the rulers and the people, and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, found no fault in this man touching 15 those things whereof ye accuse him: no, nor yet Herod: for he sent him back unto us; and behold, 16 nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. I
18 will therefore chastise him, and release him.[c] But they cried out all together, saying, Away with this 19 man, and release unto us Barabbas: one who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for mur-20 der, was cast into prison. And Pilate spake unto 21 them again, desiring to release Jesus; but they 22 shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him:
23 I will therefore chastise him and release him. But they were instant with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. And their voices prevailed.
24 And Pilate gave sentence that what they asked for 25 should be done. And he released him that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

26 And when they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented
28 him. But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your-29 selves, and for your children. For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the 30 breasts that never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the 31 hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
33 And when they came unto the place which is called [d] The skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on 34 the left. [e] And Jesus said, Father, forgive them;

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels to the women that come to the sepulchre. 9 These report it to others. 13 Christ himself appeareth to the two disciples that went to Emmaus: 36 afterwards he appeareth to the apostles, and reproveth their unbelief: 47 giveth them a charge: 49 promiseth the Holy Ghost: 51 and so ascendeth into heaven.

NOW [1] upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, [2] bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 [3] And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 [4] And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, [5] behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: [6] remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And [7] they remembered his words,

9 [8] And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and [9] Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 [10] And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 [11] Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ [12] And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, [13] Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But [14] their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, [15] whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, [16] which was a prophet [17] mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 [18] And how the chief priests and our rulers deliv-

And on the sabbath they rested according to the 24 commandment. But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the 2 spices which they had prepared. And they found 3 the stone rolled away from the tomb. And they entered in, and found not the body [a] of the Lord 4 Jesus. And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them 5 in dazzling apparel: and as they were affrighted, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [b] the living among the 6 dead? [c] He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, 7 saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and 8 the third day rise again. And they remembered 9 his words, and returned [d] from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women 11 with them told these things unto the apostles. And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk; and 12 they disbelieved them. [e] But Peter arose, and ran unto the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves; and he [f] departed to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass.

13 And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was three-14 score furlongs from Jerusalem. And they communed with each other of all these things which 15 had happened. And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus him-16 self drew near, and went with them. But their eyes 17 were holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, [g] What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And 18 they stood still, looking sad. And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, [h] Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things 19 which are come to pass there in these days? And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word be-ered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted [19] that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and [20] certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And [21] certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 [22] Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 [23] And beginning at [24] Moses and [25] all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and [26] he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But [27] they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, [28] he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and [29] hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ [30] And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen [31] a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: [32] handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not [33] for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, [34] Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 [35] And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, [36] These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that priests and our rulers delivered him up to be con-21 demned to death, and crucified him. But we hoped that it was he which should redeem Israel. Yea and beside all this, it is now the third day since 22 these things came to pass. Moreover certain women of our company amazed us, having been early at the 23 tomb; and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, 24 which said that he was alive. And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw 25 not. And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe [i] in all that the prophets

26 have spoken! Behoved it not the Christ to suffer
27 these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things
28 concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and he made as 29 though he would go further. And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in 30 to abide with them. And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the [j] bread, 31 and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he 32 vanished out of their sight. And they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he opened to us the 33 scriptures? And they rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, say-
34 ing, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to 35 Simon. And they rehearsed the things that happened in the way, and how he was known of them in the breaking of the bread.

36 And as they spake these things, he himself stood in the midst of them, [k] and saith unto them, Peace
37 be unto you. But they were terrified and affrighted, 38 and supposed that they beheld a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do
39 reasonings arise in your heart? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold
40 me having. [l] And when he had said this, he shewed
41 them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, 42 Have ye here anything to eat? And they gave him
43 a piece of a broiled fish.[m] And he took it, and did eat before them.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 The divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 The testimony of John. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN the beginning [1] was the Word, and the Word was [2] with God, [3] and the Word was God.

2 [4] The same was in the beginning with God.

3 [5] All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 [6] In him was life; and [7] the life was the light of men.

5 And [8] the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ [9] There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 [10] The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 [11] That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and [12] the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word
2 was with God, and the Word was God. The same
3 was in the beginning with God. All things were made [a] by him; and without him [b] was not anything
4 made that hath been made. In him was life; and 5 the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness [c] apprehended it
6 not. There came a man, sent from God, whose 7 name was John. The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might 8 believe through him. He was not the light, but 9 came that he might bear witness of the light. [d] There was the true light, even the light which lighteth
10 [e] every man, coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made [a] by him, and the 11 [13] He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But [14] as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:
13 [15] Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 [16] And the Word [17] was made [18] flesh, and dwelt among us, (and [19] we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) [20] full of grace and truth.
15 ¶ [21] John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, [22] He that cometh after me is preferred before me: [23] for he was before me.
16 And of his [24] fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.
17 For [25] the law was given by Moses, but [26] grace and [27] truth came by Jesus Christ.
18 [28] No man hath seen God at any time; [29] the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.
19 ¶ And this is [30] the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him,
Who art thou?
20 And [31] he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou [32] Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou [33] that prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What say-est thou of thyself?
23 [34] He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as [35] said the prophet Esaias.
24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.
25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why bap-tizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?
26 John answered them, saying, [36] I baptize with water: [37] but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;
27 [38] He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to un-loose.
28 These things were done [39] in Bethabara beyond
Jordan, where John was baptizing.
29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold [40] the Lamb of God, [41] which taketh away the sin of the world.
30 [42] This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made

11 world knew him not. He came unto [f] his own, and 12 they that were his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become children of God, even to them that 13 believe on his name: which were [g] born, not of [h] blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will 14 of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh, and [i] dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of [j] the only begotten from the Father), 15 full of grace and truth. John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, [k] This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is become before 16 me: for he was [l] before me. For of his fulness we 17 all received, and grace for grace. For the law was given [m] by Moses; grace and truth came [m] by Jesus 18 Christ. No man hath seen God at any time; [n] the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent unto him from Jerusalem priests and Levites to 20 ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah?
And he saith, I am not. Art thou the prophet?
22 And he answered, No. They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?
23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said 24 Isaiah the prophet. [o] And they had been sent from 25 the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither the prophet?
26 John answered them, saying, I baptize [p] with water:
in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know 27 not, even he that cometh after me, the latchet of 28 whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in [q] Bethany beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God, which [r] taketh 30 away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is become be-31 fore me: for he was [l] before me. And I knew him manifest to Israel, [43] therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 [44] And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, [45] the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, [46] Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was [47] Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: [48] thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now [49] Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth [50] Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom [51] Moses in the law, and the [52] prophets, did write, Jesus [53] of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, [54] Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold [55] an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, [56] thou art the Son of God; thou art [57] the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [58] Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, 32 for this cause came I baptizing [s] with water. And John bare witness, saying, I have beheld the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven; and it abode

CHAPTER II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 12 departeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 where he purgeth the temple of buyers and sellers. 19 He foretelleth his death and resurrection. 23 Many believed because of his miracles, but he would not trust himself with them.

AND the third day there was a marriage in [1] Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:
2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.
3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.
4 Jesus saith unto her, [2] Woman, [3] what have I to do with thee? [4] mine hour is not yet come.
5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.
6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, [5] after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.
7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.
8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.
9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted [6] the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,
10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.
11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, [7] and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.
12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and [8] his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.
13 ¶ [9] And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, 14 [10] And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:
15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;
16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not [11] my Father's house an house of merchandise.
17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [12] The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.
18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, [13] What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
19 Jesus answered and said unto them, [14] Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.
20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?
21 But he spake [15] of the temple of his body.
22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [16] his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them;

angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

2 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of 2 Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and Jesus also was bidden, and his disciples, to the mar-3 riage. And when the wine failed, the mother of 4 Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. And Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do
5 with thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto 6 you, do it. Now there were six waterpots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, con-7 taining two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they 8 filled them up to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the [a] ruler of the 9 feast. And they bare it. And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water [b] now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast 10 calleth the bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou 11 hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and there they abode not many days.
13 And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and 14 Jesus went up to Jerusalem. And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, 15 and the changers of money sitting: and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the 16 changers' money, and overthrew their tables; and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of mer-17 chandise. His disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house shall eat me up.
18 The Jews therefore answered and said unto him,
What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou 19 doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this [c] temple, and in three days I will 20 raise it up. The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this [c] temple in building, and wilt thou 21 raise it up in three days? But he spake of the 22 [c] temple of his body. When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for [17] he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration. 14 Of faith in his death. 16 The great love of God towards the world, 18 condemnation for unbelief. 23 The baptism, witness, and doctrine of John concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 [1] The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for [2] no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except [3] God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [4] Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [5] Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 [6] The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, [7] How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 [8] Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and [9] ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And [10] no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ [11] And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so [12] must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but [13] have eternal life.

16 ¶ [14] For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 [15] For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

spake this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which he did. But Jesus did not trust
25 himself unto them, for that he knew all men, and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning [d] man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named
2 Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with 3 him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born [a] anew,
4 he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb,
5 and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that 7 which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not 8 that I said unto thee, Ye must be born [a] anew. [b] The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of 9 the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and said unto him,
10 How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and under-11 standest not these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and bear witness of that we have seen; and ye receive not our wit-
12 ness. If I told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly 13 things? And no man hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, even the Son of 14 man, [c] which is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son 15 of man be lifted up: that whosoever [d] believeth may in him have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him
17 should not perish, but have eternal life. For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world;

18 ¶ [16] He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, [17] that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For [18] every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, [19] and baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to [20] Salim, because there was much water there: [21] and they came, and were baptized.

24 For [22] John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, [23] to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, [24] A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

36 [38] He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself unto her. 27 His disciples marvel. 31 He declareth to them his zeal to God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son that lay sick at Capernaum.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and [1] baptized more disciples than John,

20 For every one that [e] doeth ill hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [4]living water.
11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Jesus on the sabbath day cureth him that was diseased eight and thirty years. 10 The Jews therefore cavil, and persecute him for it. 17 He answereth for himself, and reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who he is.

AFTER [1]this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem [2]by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, [3]Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and [4]on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: [5]it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [6]sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

lieved the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he 51 went his way. And as he was now going down, his 52 j servants met him, saying, that his son lived. So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the 53 seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, 54 and his whole house. This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judæa into Galilee.

5 After these things there was [a]a feast of the Jews;
and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew [b]Bethesda, having 3 five porches. In these lay a multitude of them that 5 were sick, blind, halt, withered.[c] And a certain man was there, which had been thirty and eight
6 years in his infirmity. When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made
7 whole? The sick man answered him, [d]Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth
8 down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Arise, take 9 up thy bed, and walk. And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked.

10 Now it was the sabbath on that day. So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and 11 it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed. But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same 12 said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, 13 Take up thy bed, and walk? But he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed him-

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, [7]My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews [8]sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, [9]making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [10]The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For [11]the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; [12]even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but [13]hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. [14]He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [15]He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; [16]but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when [17]the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And [18]hath given him authority to execute judgment also, [19]because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 [20]And shall come forth; [21]they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 [22]I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because [23]I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 [24]If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ [25]There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, [26]and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and [27]a shining light: and [28]ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But [29]I have greater witness than that of John: for [30]the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, [31]hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, [32]nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

17 Jesus, because he did these things on the sabbath. But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until 18 now, and I work. For this cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them,
Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the 20 Son also doeth in like manner. For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and greater works than these will 21 he shew him, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth the dead and quickeneth them, even 22 so the Son also quickeneth whom he will. For neither doth the Father judge any man, but he hath 23 given all judgement unto the Son; that all may honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the 24 Father which sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgement, but hath passed out of death into life.
25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of 26 the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself, even so gave he 27 to the Son also to have life in himself: and he gave him authority to execute judgement, because he is 28 [e]the Son of man. Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall 29 hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have [f]done ill, unto the resurrection of judgement.

30 I can of myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgement is righteous; because I seek not 31 mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. If 32 I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. It is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.
33 Ye have sent unto John, and he hath borne witness
34 unto the truth. But the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit I say these things, that ye
35 may be saved. He was the lamp that burneth and shineth: and ye were willing to rejoice for a season
36 in his light. But the witness which I have is greater than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent 37 me. And the Father which sent me, he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at 38 any time, nor seen his form. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he sent, him ye be-

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 15
Thereupon the people would have made him king. 16 But withdrawing himself, he walked on the sea to his disciples: 26 reproveth the people flocking after him, and all the fleshly hearers of his word: 32 declareth himself to be the bread of life to believers. 66 Many disciples depart from him. 68 Peter confesseth him. 70 Judas is a devil.

AFTER [1]these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.
3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 [2]And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.
5 ¶ [3]When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip,
Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.
7 Philip answered him, [4]Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.
8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,
9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: [5]but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.
12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.
13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

39 lieve not. [g]Ye search the scriptures, because ye

45 ye seek not? Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even 46 Moses, on whom ye have set your hope. For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me; for he wrote 47 of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

6 After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the signs which he did on them that were sick.
3 And Jesus went up into the mountain, and there he 4 sat with his disciples. Now the passover, the feast
5 of the Jews, was at hand. Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude com-

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth [6]that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 [7]And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but [8]for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: [9]for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, [10]This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, [11]What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 [12]Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, [13]He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 [14]Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, [15]I am the bread of life: [16]he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

14 remained over unto them that had eaten. When therefore the people saw the [c]sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world.
15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone.
16 And when evening came, his disciples went down 17 unto the sea; and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea unto Capernaum. And it was 18 now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. And the sea was rising by reason of a great wind that 19 blew. When therefore they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat:
20 and they were afraid. But he saith unto them, It 21 is I; be not afraid. They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.

22 On the morrow the multitude which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other [d]boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples 23 went away alone (howbeit there came [e]boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the 24 bread after the Lord had given thanks): when the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the [e]boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.
25 And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou 26 hither? Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were 27 filled. Work not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the 28 Father, even God, hath sealed. They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the 29 works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them,
This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom 30 [f]he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and be-31 lieve thee? what workest thou? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave 32 them bread out of heaven to eat. Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread 33 out of heaven. For the bread of God is that which cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the 34 world. They said therefore unto him, Lord, ever-35 more give us this bread. Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never 36 [17] But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and [a] believe not.

37 [18] All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and [19] him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.
38 For I came down from heaven, [20] not to do mine own will, [21] but the will of him that sent me.
39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, [22] that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.
40 And this is the will of him that sent me, [23] that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.
42 And they said, [24] Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?
43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.
44 [25] No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.
45 [26] It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. [27] Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.
46 [28] Not that any man hath seen the Father, [29] save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.
47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [30] He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.
48 [31] I am that bread of life.
49 [32] Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
50 [33] This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.
51 I am the living bread [34] which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and [35] the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.
52 The Jews therefore [36] strove among themselves, saying, [37] How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [38] ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.
54 [39] Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.
55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [40] dwelleth in me, and I in him.
57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.
58 [41] This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.
59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
60 [42] Many therefore of his disciples, when they had

36 thirst. But I said unto you, that ye have seen me, 37 and yet believe not. All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh 38 to me I will in no wise cast out. For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the 39 will of him that sent me. And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it 40 up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; and [g] I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down 42 out of heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how doth he now say, I am come down out of 43 heaven? Jesus answered and said unto them, Mur-
44 mur not among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father which sent me draw him:
45 and I will raise him up in the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Every one that hath heard from the Father, and 46 hath learned, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is from God, 47 he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto 48 you, He that believeth hath eternal life. I am the 49 bread of life. Your fathers did eat the manna in 50 the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may 51 eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
53 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves.
54 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.
55 For my flesh is [h] meat indeed, and my blood is 56 [i] drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh and drink-
57 eth my blood abideth in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live be-58 cause of me. This is the bread which came down out of heaven: not as the fathers did eat, and died: he that eateth this bread shall live for ever.
59 These things said he in [j] the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

63 [44] It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But [45] there are some of you that believe not. For [46] Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore [47] said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ [48] From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast [49] the words of eternal life.

69 [50] And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, [51] Have not I chosen you twelve, [52] and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jesus reproveth the ambition and boldness of his kinsmen: 10 goeth up from Galilee to the feast of tabernacles: 14 teacheth in the temple. 40 Divers opinions of him among the people. 45 The Pharisees are angry that their officers took him not, and chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, [1] because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 [2] Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 [3] His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For [4] neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, [5] My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 [6] The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, [7] because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; [8] for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then [9] the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And [10] there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for [11] some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear [k] it?
61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you
62 to stumble? What then if ye should behold the 63 Son of man ascending where he was before? It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are 64 spirit, and are life. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was 65 that should betray him. And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

66 Upon this many of his disciples went back, and 67 walked no more with him. Jesus said therefore 68 unto the twelve, Would ye also go away? Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go?
69 thou [l] hast the words of eternal life. And we have believed and know that thou art the Holy One of 70 God. Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you 71 the twelve, and one of you is a devil? Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because the Jews
2 sought to kill him. Now the feast of the Jews, the 3 feast of tabernacles, was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may behold thy works
4 which thou doest. For no man doeth anything in secret, [a] and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the 5 world. For even his brethren did not believe on him.
6 Jesus therefore saith unto them, My time is not yet
7 come; but your time is alway ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify
8 of it, that its works are evil. Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up [b] yet unto this feast; because my 9 time is not yet fulfilled. And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in 11 secret. The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, 12 and said, Where is he? And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he 13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him [12] for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 [13] And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, [14] My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 [15] If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 [16] He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 [17] Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? [18] Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, [19] Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 [20] Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, [21] but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because [22] I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 [23] Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. [24] Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 [25] Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, [26] Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and [27] I am not come of myself, but he that sent me [28] is true, [29] whom ye know not.

29 But [30] I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then [31] they sought to take him: but [32] no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And [33] many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, [34] Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye [35] shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto [36] the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye

13 leadeth the multitude astray. Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus
15 went up into the temple, and taught. The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man 16 letters, having never learned? Jesus therefore answered them, and said, My teaching is not mine, 17 but his that sent me. If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be 18 of God, or whether I speak from myself. He that speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you
20 doeth the law? Why seek ye to kill me? The multitude answered, Thou hast a [c] devil: who seeketh
21 to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I
22 did one work, and ye all [d] marvel. For this cause hath Moses given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers); and on the sabbath ye 23 circumcise a man. If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made a 24 man every whit whole on the sabbath? Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgement.

25 Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, Is not 26 this he whom they seek to kill? And lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is the Christ?
27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one knoweth whence he is.
28 Jesus therefore cried in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me
29 is true, whom ye know not. I know him; because I
30 am from him, and he sent me. They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on 31 him, because his hour was not yet come. But of the multitude many believed on him; and they said, When the Christ shall come, will he do more signs 32 than those which this man hath done? The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him.
33 Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while am I with you, and I go unto 34 him that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not 35 find me: and where I am, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the Dispersion [e] among the Greeks, and shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 [37] In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, [38] If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 [39] He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, [40] out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 ([41] But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet [42] glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is [43] the Prophet.

41 Others said, [44] This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come [45] out of Galilee?

42 [46] Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, [47] where David was?

43 So [48] there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And [49] some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, [50] Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 [51] Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, ([52] he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 [53] Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for [54] out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery. 12 He preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine: 33 answereth the Jews that boasted of Abraham, 59 and conveyeth himself from their cruelty.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 [1] Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come?

37 Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let 38 him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall 39 flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: [f] for the Spirit was not yet given; because 40 Jesus was not yet glorified. Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This 41 is of a truth the prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What, doth the Christ come 42 out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh of the seed of David, and from 43 Bethlehem, the village where David was? So there arose a division in the multitude because of him.
44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why did 46 ye not bring him? The officers answered, Never 47 man so spake. The Pharisees therefore answered 48 them, Are ye also led astray? Hath any of the 49 rulers believed on him, or of the Pharisees? But this multitude which knoweth not the law are ac-50 cursed. Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came 51 to him before, being one of them), Doth our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and 52 know what he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and [g] see that out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, [2]He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, [3]being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, [4]Neither do I condemn thee: go, and [5]sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, [6]I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, [7]Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but [8]ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 [9]Ye judge after the flesh; [10]I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for [11]I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 [12]It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and [13]the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, [14]Ye neither know me, nor my Father: [15]if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in [16]the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and [17]no man laid hands on him; for [18]his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and [19]ye shall seek me, and [20]shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, [21]Ye are from beneath; I am from above: [22]ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 [23]I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: [24]for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but [25]he that sent me is true; and [26]I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have [27]lifted up the Son of man, [28]then shall ye know that I am he, and [29]that I do nothing of myself; but [30]as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

7 and with his finger wrote on the ground. But when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among 8 you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the 9 ground. And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, 10 where she was, in the midst. And Jesus lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they?
11 did no man condemn thee? And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth sin no more.]

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the 13 light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness 14 is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I come, or whither I 15 go. Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.
16 Yea and if I judge, my judgement is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.
17 Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness 18 of two men is true. I am he that beareth witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth wit-
19 ness of me. They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know 20 my Father also. These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come.

21 He said therefore again unto them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin:

23 go, ye cannot come? And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this 24 world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that [c]I am he, ye shall die in your 25 sins. They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? Jesus said unto them, [d]Even that which I have also 26 spoken unto you from the beginning. I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you: howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these speak I [e]unto the world.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed ;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and [35] the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, [36] We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man : how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free ?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [37] Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And [38] the servant abideth not in the house for ever : but the Son abideth ever.

36 [39] If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

42 Jesus said unto them, [47] If God were your Father, ye would love me : [48] for I proceeded forth and came from God ; [49] neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 [50] Why do ye not understand my speech ? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 [51] Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and [52] abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own : for he is a liar, and the father of it.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and [54] hast a devil ?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil ; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And [55] I seek not mine own glory : there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The man that was born blind restored to sight. 8 He is brought to the Pharisees. 13 They are offended at it, and excommunicate him: 35 but he is received of Jesus, and confesseth him. 39 Who they are whom Christ enlighteneth.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, [1] who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: [2] but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 [3] I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, [4] I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, [5] he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash [6] in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) [7] He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, [8] A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

therefore to cast at him: but Jesus [q] hid himself, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he should 4 should be made manifest in him. We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, [9] How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [10] there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, [11] He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because [12] they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he [13] should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [14] Give God the praise: [15] we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, [16] we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, [17] Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that [18] God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 [19] If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, [20] Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on [21] the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and [22] it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, [23] For judgment I am come into he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do 16 see. Some therefore of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division

17 among them. They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet.
18 The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had re-
19 ceived his sight, and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then 20 doth he now see? His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born 21 blind: but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of 22 age; he shall speak for himself. These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the 23 synagogue. Therefore said his parents, He is of 24 age; ask him. So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory
25 to God: we know that this man is a sinner. He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, 26 now I see. They said therefore unto him, What 27 did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? He answered them, I told you even now, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? would 28 ye also become his disciples? And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are 29 disciples of Moses. We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we know not 30 whence he is. The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not 31 whence he is, and yet he opened mine eyes. We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he 32 heareth. Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind.
33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.
34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on [b] the Son of 36 God? He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, 37 that I may believe on him? Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that speaketh 38 with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he 39 worshipped him. And Jesus said, For judgement

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, [25] and said unto him, Are we blind also?

CHAPTER X.

1 Christ is the door, and the good shepherd. 19 Divers opinions of him. 24 He proveth by his works that he is Christ the Son of God: 39 escapeth the Jews, 40 and went again beyond Jordan, where many believed on him.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 [1] I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 [2] I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and [3] leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and [4] know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 [5] As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: [6] and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And [7] other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; [8] and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, [9] because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I [10] have power to take it again. [11] This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ [12] There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

came I into this world, that they which see not may see; and that they which see may become blind.

40 Those of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and
2 a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is 3 [a] the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them
4 out. When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they
5 know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice
6 of strangers. This [b] parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily,
8 I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that came before me are thieves and robbers: but 9 the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall 10 go in and go out, and shall find pasture. The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may 11 [c] have it abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the 12 sheep. He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and 13 the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for 14 the sheep. I am the good shepherd; and I know
15 mine own, and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I 16 lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must [d] bring, and they shall hear my voice; and [e] they 17 shall become one flock, one shepherd. Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my 18 life, that I may take it again. No one [f] taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have [g] power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.

19 There arose a division again among the Jews be-mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. [14] Can a devil [15] open the eyes of the blind?
22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple [16] in Solomon's porch.
24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: [17] the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.
26 But [18] ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
27 [19] My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
28 And I give unto them eternal life; and [20] they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
29 [21] My Father, [22] which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
30 [23] I and my Father are one.
31 Then [24] the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?
33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, [25] makest thyself God.
34 Jesus answered them, [26] Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?
35 If he called them gods, [27] unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;
36 Say ye of him, [28] whom the Father hath sanctified, and [29] sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; [30] because I said, I am [31] the Son of God?
37 [32] If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, [33] believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, [34] that the Father is in me, and I in him.
39 [35] Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, 40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place [36] where John at first baptized; and there he abode.
41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: [37] but all things that John spake of this man were true.
42 [38] And many believed on him there.

hath a [h] devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a [h] devil. Can a [h] devil open the eyes of the blind?
22 [i] And it was the feast of the dedication at Je-23 rusalem: it was winter; and Jesus was walking in 24 the temple in Solomon's porch. The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the 25 Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my 26 Father's name, these bear witness of me. But ye 27 believe not, because ye are not of my sheep. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they 28 follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them 29 out of my hand. [j] My Father, which hath given them unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able 30 to snatch [k] them out of the Father's hand. I and the 31 Father are one. The Jews took up stones again to 32 stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from the Father; for which of 33 those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, 34 makest thyself God. Jesus answered them, Is it not 35 written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came 36 (and the scripture cannot be broken), say ye of him, whom the Father [l] sanctified and sent into the world,
Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of 37 God? If I do not the works of my Father, believe 38 me not. But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the 39 Father. They sought again to take him: and he went forth out of their hand.

40 And he went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and 41 there he abode. And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no sign: but all things

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus, four days buried. 45 Many Jews believe. 47 The high priests and Pharisees gather a council against Christ. 49 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Jesus hid himself. 55 At the passover they enquire after him, and lay wait for him.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of [1]Mary and her sister Martha.

2 ([2]It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, [3]but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, [4]he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judæa again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, [5]the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? [6]If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But [7]if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus [8]sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, [9]whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, [10]I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am [11]the resurrection, and the [12]life: [13]he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, 2 of the village of Mary and her sister Martha. And it was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother 3 Lazarus was sick. The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is 4 sick. But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that 5 the Son of God may be glorified thereby. Now
Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he was.
7 Then after this he saith to the disciples, Let us go
8 into Judæa again. The disciples say unto him,
Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone 9 thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because 10 he seeth the light of this world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light 11 is not in him. These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
12 The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is 13 fallen asleep, he will [a]recover. Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake 14 of taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus therefore said 15 unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto 16 him. Thomas therefore, who is called [b]Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been 18 in the tomb four days already. Now Bethany was 19 nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, 20 to console them concerning their brother. Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in the house.
21 Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou 22 hadst been here, my brother had not died. And even now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of 23 God, God will give thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy 24 brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at 25 the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me,

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: [14] I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.
28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.
30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.
31 [15] The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.
32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, [16] Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.
35 [17] Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this man, [18] which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.
40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest [19] see the glory of God?
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.
42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [20] because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.
44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and [21] his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.
45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, [22] and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.
47 ¶ [23] Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, [24] What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.
48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

when she had said this, she went away, and called Mary [c] her sister secretly, saying, The [d] Master is 29 here, and calleth thee. And she, when she heard 30 it, arose quickly, and went unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in 31 the place where Martha met him.) The Jews then which were with her in the house, and were comforting her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that 32 she was going unto the tomb to [e] weep there. Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
33 When Jesus therefore saw her [f] weeping, and the Jews also [f] weeping which came with her, he [g] groaned 34 in the spirit, and [h] was troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come 35 36 and see. Jesus wept. The Jews therefore said, 37 Behold how he loved him! But some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also 38 should not die? Jesus therefore again [i] groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, 39 and a stone lay [j] against it. Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stink-40 eth: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou be-41 lievedst, thou shouldest see the glory of God? So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heard-42 est me. And I knew that thou hearest me always:
but because of the multitude which standeth around
I said it, that they may believe that thou didst send 43 me. And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a 44 loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with [k] grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Many therefore of the Jews, which came to Mary and beheld [l] that which he did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.

47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What do we? for this 48 man doeth many signs. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.

high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, 50 [26] Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And [27] not for that nation only, [28] but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus [29] therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called [30] Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ [31] And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 [32] Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet. 9 The people flock to see Lazarus. 10 The high priests consult to kill him. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 20 Greeks desire to see Jesus. 23 He foretelleth his death. 37 The Jews are generally blinded: 42 yet many chief rulers believe, but do not confess him: 44 therefore Jesus calleth earnestly for confession of faith.

THEN Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, [1] where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 [2] There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took [3] Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [4] had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For [5] the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, [6] whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ [7] But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 [8] Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ [9] On the next day much people that were come priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing 50 at all, nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that 51 the whole nation perish not. Now this he said not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation;

52 and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are 53 scattered abroad. So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim; and 55 there he tarried with the disciples. Now the passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, 56 to purify themselves. They sought therefore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come 57 to the feast? Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.

12 Jesus therefore six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised
2 from the dead. So they made him a supper there: and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them
3 that sat at meat with him. Mary therefore took a pound of ointment of [a] spikenard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour
4 of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of his dis-
5 ciples, which should betray him, saith, Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred [b] pence, and 6 given to the poor? Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the [c] bag [d] took away what was put 7 therein. Jesus therefore said, [e] Suffer her to keep it
8 against the day of my burying. For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

9 The common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also,
10 whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus 11 also to death; because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, [10] Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 [11] And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 [12] Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things [13] understood not his disciples at the first: [14] but when Jesus was glorified, [15] then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 [16] For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [17] Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there [18] were certain Greeks among them [19] that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, [20] which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, [21] The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [22] Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 [23] He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [24] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 [25] Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: [26] but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. [27] Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, [28] This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall [29] the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, [30] if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw [31] all men unto me.

33 [32] This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, [33] We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while [34] is the light with you. [35] Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [36] he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be [37] the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and [38] did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [39] Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, 40 [40] He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 [41] These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but [42] because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 [43] For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, [44] He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And [45] he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 [46] I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, [47] I judge him not: for [48] I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 [49] He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: [50] the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For [51] I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, [52] what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Jesus washeth the disciples' feet: exhorteth them to humility and charity. 18 He foretelleth, and discovereth to John by a token, that Judas should betray him: 31 commandeth them to love one another, 36 and forewarneth Peter of his denial.

NOW [1] before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that [2] his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, [3] the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing [4] that the Father had given all things into his hands, and [5] that he was come from God, and went to God;

a little while is the light [l] among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not 36 whither he goeth. While ye have the light, believe on the light, that ye may become sons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and 37 [m] hid himself from them. But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they believed not on 38 him: that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake,

Lord, who hath believed our report?
And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and he hardened their heart;
Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart,
And should turn,
And I should heal them.

41 These things said Isaiah, because he saw his glory;
42 and he spake of him. Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess [n] it, lest they should 43 be put out of the synagogue: for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

44 And Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.
45 And he that beholdeth me beholdeth him that sent 46 me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the dark-
47 ness. And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge 48 the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the same shall

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, [7]dost thou wash my feet?
7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; [8]but thou shalt know hereafter.
8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, [9]If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [10]ye are clean, but not all.
11 For [11]he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
13 [12]Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
14 [13]If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; [14]ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For [15]I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
16 [16]Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
17 [17]If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.
18 ¶ I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, [18]He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.
19 [19]Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
20 [20]Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
21 [21]When Jesus had thus said, [22]he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [23]one of you shall betray me.
22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 Now [24]there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.
24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.
25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
27 [25]And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.
28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

4 forth from God, and goeth unto God, riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took 5 a towel, and girded himself. Then he poureth water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel where-
6 with he was girded. So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand here-
8 after. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not,
9 thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and 10 my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not [b]save to wash his feet, but is clean 11 every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and [c]sat down again, he said unto them, 13 Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me, [d]Master, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
14 If I then, the Lord and the [d]Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For I have given you an example, that ye also 16 should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, A [e]servant is not greater than his lord; neither [f]one that is sent greater than he that 17 sent him. If ye know these things, blessed are ye 18 if ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom I [g]have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth [h]my bread lifted up his 19 heel against me. From henceforth I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may 20 believe that [i]I am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say 22 unto you, that one of you shall betray me. The disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he 23 spake. There was at the table reclining in Jesus'
24 bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto 25 him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. He leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto 26 him, Lord, who is it? Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.
27 And after the sop, then entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, That thou doest, do 28 quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, [27]Now is the Son of man glorified, and [28]God is glorified in him.

32 [29]If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and [30]shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: [31]and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

35 [33]By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but [34]thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will [35]lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples with the hope of heaven: 6 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, and one with the Father: 13 assureth their prayers in his name to be effectual: 15 requesteth love and obedience, 16 promiseth the Holy Ghost the Comforter, 27 and leaveth his peace with them.

LET [1]not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. [2]I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [3]I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that [4]where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am [5]the way, [6]the truth, and [7]the life: [8]no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 [9]If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? [10]he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that [11]I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you [12]I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

29 intent he spake this unto him. For some thought, because Judas had the j bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something to the 30 poor. He then having received the sop went out straightway: and it was night.

31 When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now k is the Son of man glorified, and God k is glo-
32 rified in him; and God shall glorify him in himself,
33 and straightway shall he glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I 35 also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow after-37 wards. Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? I will lay down my life for 38 thee. Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

2 God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many b mansions; if it were not so, I would have 20 At that day ye shall know that [25]I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 [26]He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 [27]Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, [28]If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, [29]and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The consolation and mutual love between Christ and his members, under the parable of the vine. 18 A comfort in the hatred and persecution of the world. 26 The office of the Holy Ghost, and of the apostles.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 [1] Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 [2] Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 [3] Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much [4] fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, [5] he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, [6] ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 [7] Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; [8] so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 [9] If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and [10] that your joy might be full.

12 [11] This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 [12] Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 [13] Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; [14] for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 [15] Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and [16] ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that [17] whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 [18] These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 [19] If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 [20] If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but [21] because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, [22] The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER XV.

15 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husband-
2 man. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit.
3 Already ye are clean because of the word which 4 I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you.
As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide 5 in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much 6 fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into 7 the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and 8 it shall be done unto you. Herein [a] is my Father glorified, [b] that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye 9 be my disciples. Even as the Father hath loved me, 10 I also have loved you: abide ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and 11 abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy 12 may be fulfilled. This is my commandment, that ye 13 love one another, even as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his 14 life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do the 15 things which I command you. No longer do I call you [c] servants; for the [d] servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father I have made 16 known unto you. Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may 17 give it you. These things I command you, that ye 18 may love one another. If the world hateth you, [e] ye 19 know that it hath hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out 20 of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, A [d] servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, secuted me, they will also persecute you ; [23] if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

21 But [24] all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 [25] If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin : [26] but now they have no cloke for their sin.

23 [27] He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them [28] the works which none other man did, they had not had sin : but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, [29] They hated me without a cause.

26 [30] But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, [31] he shall testify of me :

27 And [32] ye also shall bear witness, because [33] ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Ghost, and by his resurrection and ascension : 23 assureth their prayers made in his name to be acceptable to his Father. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye [1] should not be offended.

2 [2] They shall put you out of the synagogues : yea, the time cometh, [3] that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And [4] these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But [5] these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And [6] these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now [7] I go my way to him that sent me ; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou ?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, [8] sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth ; It is expedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, [9] the Comforter will not come unto you ; but [10] if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment :

9 [11] Of sin, because they believe not on me ;

10 [12] Of righteousness, [13] because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more ;

11 [14] Of judgment, because [15] the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, [16] but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, [17] the Spirit of truth, is come, [18] he will guide you into all truth : for he shall not speak of himself ; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak : and he will shew you things to come.

they will also persecute you ; if they kept my word, 21 they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they 22 know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin : but now 23 they have no excuse for their sin. He that hateth 24 me hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin : but now have they both seen and hated both 25 me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, 26 They hated me without a cause. But when the [f] Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which [g] proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness 27 of me : [h] and ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

16 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye
2 should not be made to stumble. They shall put you out of the synagogues : yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth 3 service unto God. And these things will they do, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
4 But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you 5 from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I go unto him that sent me ; and none of you 6 asketh me, Whither goest thou ? But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled 7 your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth ; It is expedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, the [a] Comforter will not come unto you ; but 8 if I go, I will send him unto you. And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and 9 of righteousness, and of judgement : of sin, because 10 they believe not on me ; of righteousness, because I 11 go to the Father, and ye behold me no more ; of judgement, because the prince of this world hath 12 been judged. I have yet many things to say unto 13 you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth : for he shall not speak from himself ; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak : and he shall declare unto you the things

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
15 [19] All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
16 [20] A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, [21] because I go to the Father.
17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.
19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?
20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
21 [22] A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
22 [23] And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and [24] your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. [25] Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, [26] that your joy may be full.
25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.
26 [27] At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:
27 [28] For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and [29] have believed that I came out from God.
28 [30] I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.
29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.
30 Now are we sure that [31] thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this [32] we believe that thou camest forth from God.
31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?
32 [33] Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, [34] every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and [35] yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.
33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [36] in me ye might have peace. [37] In the world ye shall have tribulation: [38] but be of good cheer; [39] I have overcome the world.

14 that are to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall 15 take of mine, and shall declare it unto you. All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare 16 it unto you. A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me.
17 Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A 19 little while? We know not what he saith. Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see 20 me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned 21 into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the 22 world. And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and 23 your joy no one taketh away from you. And in that day ye shall [b] ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he 24 will give it you in my name. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [c] proverbs: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [c] proverbs, but shall tell you plainly of 26 the Father. In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will [d] pray the Father
27 for you; for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came 28 forth from the Father. I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the 29 world, and go unto the Father. His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [e] pro-
30 verb. Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 11 in unity, 17 and truth, 20 to glorify them, and all other believers with him in heaven.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, [1] the hour is come: glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 [2] As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many [3] as thou hast given him.

3 And [4] this is life eternal, that they might know thee [5] the only true God, and Jesus Christ, [6] whom thou hast sent.

4 [7] I have glorified thee on the earth: [8] I have finished the work [9] which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [10] which I had with thee before the world was.

6 [11] I have manifested thy name unto the men [12] which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words [13] which thou gavest me; and they have received them, [14] and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: [15] I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and [16] thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 [17] And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, [18] keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, [19] that they may be one, [20] as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, [21] I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and [22] none of them is lost, [23] but the son of perdition; [24] that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 [25] I have given them thy word; [26] and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, [27] even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but [28] that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 [29] They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 [30] Sanctify them through thy truth: [31] thy word is truth.

18 [32] As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And [33] for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

17 These things spake Jesus; and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the hour is come; glorify 2 thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee: even as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that whatsoever thou hast given him, to them he should give 3 eternal life. And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and him whom 4 thou didst send, even Jesus Christ. I glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which 5 thou hast given me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory 6 which I had with thee before the world was. I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word.
7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast
8 given me are from thee: for the words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and they believed that thou didst send 9 me. I [a] pray for them: I [a] pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they 10 are thine: and all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them.
11 And I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that 12 they may be one, even as we are. While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the son of perdition; that the 13 scripture might be fulfilled. But now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I 14 have given them thy word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I 15 am not of the world. I [a] pray not that thou should-est take them [b] from the world, but that thou should-16 est keep them [b] from [c] the evil one. They are not of 17 the world, even as I am not of the world. [d] Sanc-18 tify them in the truth: thy word is truth. As thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them 19 into the world. And for their sakes I [d] sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified 20 in truth. Neither for these only do I [a] pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word;

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, [1]he went forth with his disciples over [2]the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: [3]for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 [4]Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, [5]Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 [6]Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: [7]the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And [8]led him away to [9]Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 [10]Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that thou didst send me, and lovedst them, even as thou

24 lovedst me. Father, [c]that which thou hast given me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with me; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the founda-

25 tion of the world. O righteous Father, the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew

26 that thou didst send me; and I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the [a]brook [b]Kidron, where was a garden, into the which he entered,

2 himself and his disciples. Now Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times

3 resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received the [c]band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them,

5 Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, was standing with 6 them. When therefore he said unto them, I am he,

7 they went backward, and fell to the ground. Again therefore he asked them, Whom seek ye? And

8 they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these

9 go their way: that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of those whom thou hast given me I lost

10 not one. Simon Peter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's [d]servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the [d]servant's name

11 was Malchus. Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 So the [c]band and the [e]chief captain, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him,

13 and led him to Annas first; for he was father in law

14 to Caiaphas, which was high priest that year. Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ [11] And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 [12] But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, [13] I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by [14] struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 [15] Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. [16] They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and [17] immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ [18] Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; [19] and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 [20] That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 [21] Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the 16 court of the high priest; but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.
17 The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples?
18 He saith, I am not. Now the [f] servants and the officers were standing there, having made [g] a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his dis-
20 ciples, and of his teaching. Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in [h] synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing.
21 Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know
22 the things which I said. And when he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus [i] with his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high
23 priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why 24 smitest thou me? Annas therefore sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not.
26 One of the [f] servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did 27 not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter therefore denied again: and straightway the cock crew.
28 They lead Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the [j] palace: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the [j] palace, that they might not be
29 defiled, but might eat the passover. Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusa-
30 tion bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto 31 thee. Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to 32 put any man to death: that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

33 Pilate therefore entered again into the [j] palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the 34 King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me?

tion and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 [22]Jesus answered, [23]My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that [24]is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, [25]I find in him no fault at all.

39 [26]But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 [27]Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. [28]Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten. 4 Pilate is desirous to release him, but being overcome with the outrage of the Jews, he delivered him to be crucified. 23 They cast lots for his garments. 26 He commendeth his mother to John. 28 He dieth. 31 His side is pierced. 38 He is buried by Joseph and Nicodemus.

THEN [1]Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, [2]that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 [3]When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, [4]We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because [5]he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? [6]But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, [7]Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, [8]If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: [9]whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what 36 hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my [k]servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my king-

39 in him. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that 40 I release unto you the King of the Jews? They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged
2 him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple
3 garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him [a]with their 4 hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may 5 know that I find no crime in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the 6 man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no crime in 7 him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he made him-
8 self the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard
9 this saying, he was the more afraid; and he entered into the [b]palace again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence
10 art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have [c]power to release
11 thee, and have [c]power to crucify thee? Jesus answered him, Thou wouldest have no [c]power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath greater
12 sin. Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh 13 himself a king [d]speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgement-seat at a in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And [10] it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, [11] We have no king but Cæsar.

16 [12] Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 [13] And he bearing his cross [14] went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ [15] And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ [16] Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, [17] They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ [18] Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of [19] Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and [20] the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, [21] Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her [22] unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, [23] that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and [24] they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [25] It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, [26] because it was the preparation, [27] that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gab-14 batha. Now it was the Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he saith 15 unto the Jews, Behold, your King! They therefore cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no 16 king but Cæsar. Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified.

17 They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called
The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew 18 Golgotha: where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the 19 midst. And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, 20 THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title therefore read many of the Jews: [e] for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in 21 Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am 22 King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the [f] coat: now the [f] coat was without seam, woven from the top through-24 out. They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

They parted my garments among them,
And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

25 These things therefore the soldiers did. But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and 26 Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold, thy son!
27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother!
And from that hour the disciple took her unto his own home.

28 After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, 29 saith, I thirst. There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar 30 upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said,
It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, 32 and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him: but 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden ; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 [35] There laid they Jesus therefore [36] because of the Jews' preparation day ; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

THE [1] first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the [2] other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 [3] Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together : and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw [4] the linen clothes lying ; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And [5] the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the [6] scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ [7] But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping : and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

33 when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead
34 already, they brake not his legs : howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straight-
35 way there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true : and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may 36 believe. For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not 37 be [g] broken. And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus : and Pilate gave him leave. He 39 came therefore, and took away his body. And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a [h] mixture of myrrh 40 and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to 41 bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden ; and in the garden a new tomb
42 wherein was never man yet laid. There then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away from the 2 tomb. She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they
3 have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb.
4 And they ran both together : and the other disciple
5 outran Peter, and came first to the tomb ; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths
6 lying ; yet entered he not in. Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the 7 tomb ; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself.
8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, which came first to the tomb, and he saw, and be-
9 lieved. For as yet they knew not the scripture,
10 that he must rise again from the dead. So the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping : so, as she wept, she stooped and looked 12 into the tomb ; and she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet,

14 [8]And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and [9]knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to [10]my brethren, and say unto them, [11]I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to [12]my God, and your God.

18 [13]Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ [14]Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. [15]Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: [16]as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, [18]called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and [19]reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ appearing again to his disciples was known of them by the great draught of fishes. 12 He dineth with them: 15 earnestly commandeth Peter to feed his lambs and sheep: 18 foretelleth him of his death: 22 rebuketh his curiosity touching John. 25 The conclusion.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and [1] Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and [2] the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples [3] knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then [4] Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, [5] Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore [6] that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, [7] Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now [8] the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. [9] He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [10] thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 [11] Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast

21 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he man-
2 ifested himself on this wise. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called [a] Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebe-
3 dee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night they took 4 nothing. But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: howbeit the disciples knew not
5 that it was Jesus. Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered
6 him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw
7 it for the multitude of fishes. That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked),
8 and cast himself into the sea. But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off),
9 dragging the net full of fishes. So when they got out upon the land, they see [b] a fire of coals there,
10 and [c] fish laid thereon, and [d] bread. Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now
11 taken. Simon Peter therefore went [e] up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many,
12 the net was not rent. Jesus saith unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that 13 it was the Lord. Jesus cometh, and taketh the [f] bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of [g] John, [h] lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I [i] love thee. He saith unto him,
16 Feed my lambs. He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of [g] John, [h] lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I
17 [i] love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of [g] John, [i] lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, [i] Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou know-est all things; thou [j] knowest that I [i] love thee.
18 Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER I.

1 Christ, preparing his apostles to the beholding of his ascension, gathereth them together into the mount Olivet, commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost, promiseth after few days to send it: by virtue whereof they should be witnesses unto him, even to the utmost parts of the earth. 9 After his ascension they are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second coming. 12 They accordingly return, and, giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias apostle in the place of Judas.

THE former treatise have I made, O [1] Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 [2] Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost [3] had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 [4] To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 [5] And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, [6] which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 [7] For John truly baptized with water; [8] but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

asked of him, saying, [9] Lord, wilt thou at this time [10] restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, [11] It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 [12] But ye shall receive power, [13] after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and [14] ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 [15] And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, [16] he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them [17] in white apparel;

11 Which also said, [18] Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, [19] shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 [20] Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up [21] into an upper room, where abode both [22] Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and [23] Simon Zelotes, and [24] Judas the brother of James.

14 [25] These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with [26] the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with [27] his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number [28] of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, [29] which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, [30] which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For [31] he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of [32] this ministry.

18 [33] Now this man purchased a field with [34] the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, [35] Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and [36] his bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 [37] Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that [38] he was taken up from us, must one be ordained [39] to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called [40] Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

asked him, saying, Lord, dost thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which the Father hath [f] set within his own authority. But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, which was received up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey off. And when they were come in, they went up into the upper chamber, where they were abiding; both Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the [g] son of James. These all with one accord continued stedfastly in prayer, [h] with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

And in these days Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of [i] persons gathered together, about a hundred and twenty), Brethren, it was needful that the scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost spake before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered among us, and received his [j] portion in this ministry. (Now this man obtained a field with the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it became known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch that in their language that field was called Akeldama, that is, The field of blood.) For it is written in the book of Psalms,

Let his habitation be made desolate,
And let no man dwell therein:

and,

His [k] office let another take.

CHAPTER II.

1 The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, and speaking divers languages, are admired by some, and derided by others. 14 Whom Peter disproving, and shewing that the apostles spake by the power of the Holy Ghost, that Jesus was risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, had poured down the same Holy Ghost, and was the Messias, a man known to them to be approved of God by his miracles, wonders, and signs, and not crucified without his determinate counsel and foreknowledge: 37 he baptizeth a great number that were converted. 41 Who afterwards devoutly and charitably converse together: the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing his church.

AND when [1] the day of Pentecost was fully come, [2] they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and [3] it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And [4] they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began [5] to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak [6] Galilæans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, [7] seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 [8] And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, [9] I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and [10] your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

24 Matthias. And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew of these 25 two the one whom thou hast chosen, to take the place in this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they gave lots [m] for them; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2 And when the day of Pentecost [a] was now come,
2 they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where 3 they were sitting. And there appeared unto them tongues [b] parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat 4 upon each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, de-6 vout men, from every nation under heaven. And when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language.
7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying,

11 Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we do hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works 12 of God. And they were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, What meaneth this?
13 But others mocking said, They are filled with new

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; [11] and they shall prophesy:

19 [12] And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 [13] The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that [14] whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you [15] by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, [16] being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, [17] ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 [18] Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, [19] I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you [20] of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, [21] and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, [22] that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 [23] This Jesus hath God raised up, [24] whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore [25] being by the right hand of God exalted, and [26] having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he [27] hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, [28] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God [29] hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, [30] they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, [31] Repent, and be

18 Yea and on my [d] servants and on my [e] hand-maidens in those days
Will I pour forth of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.
19 And I will shew wonders in the heaven above,
And signs on the earth beneath;
Blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
20 The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
Before the day of the Lord come,
That great and notable day:
21 And it shall be, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.
22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God unto you by [f] mighty works and wonders and signs, which God did by him
23 in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves know; him, being delivered up by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye by the hand of [g] lawless
24 men did crucify and slay: whom God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it was 25 not possible that he should be holden of it. For David saith concerning him,
I beheld the Lord always before my face;
For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
Moreover my flesh also shall [h] dwell in hope:
27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in Hades,
Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou madest known unto me the ways of life;
Thou shalt make me full of gladness [i] with thy countenance.
29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his 30 tomb is with us unto this day. Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins [j] he would 31 set one upon his throne; he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left in Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption.
32 This Jesus did God raise up, [k] whereof we all are 33 witnesses. Being therefore [l] by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath poured forth 34 this, which ye see and hear. For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,
The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.
36 Let [m] all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified.
37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the 38 apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? And Peter

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

CHAPTER III.

1 Peter preaching to the people that came to see a lame man restored to his feet, 12 professeth the cure not to have been wrought by his or John's own power, or holiness, but by God, and his Son Jesus, and through faith in his name: 13 withal reprehending them for crucifying Jesus. 17 Which because they did it through ignorance, and that thereby were fulfilled God's determinate counsel, and the scriptures: 19 he exhorteth them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their sins, and salvation in the same Jesus.

NOW Peter and John went up together [1] into the temple at the hour of prayer, [2] being the ninth hour.

2 And [3] a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [4] to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: [5] In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he [6] leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 [7] And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which [8] sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift 39 of the Holy Ghost. For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as 40 many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. And with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked 41 generation. They then [n] that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that 42 day about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and [o] fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many won-
44 ders and signs were done [p] by the apostles. [q] And all that believed were together, and had all things
45 common; and they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had 46 need. And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they did take their food with gladness and 47 singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added [r] to them day by day those that were being saved.

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the tem-
2 ple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms

6 thing from them. But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. In 7 the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones re-
8 ceived strength. And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.
9 And all the people saw him walking and praising
10 God: and they took knowledge of him, that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch [9] that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 [10] The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, [11] hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye [12] delivered up, and [13] denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied [14] the Holy One [15] and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the Prince of life, [16] whom God hath raised from the dead; [17] whereof we are witnesses.

16 [18] And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that [19] through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But [20] those things, which God before had shewed [21] by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ [22] Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 [23] Whom the heaven must receive until the times of [24] restitution of all things, [25] which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, [26] A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 [27] Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, [28] And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 [29] Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, [30] sent him to bless you, [31] in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

11 And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the [a] porch that is called 12 Solomon's, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this [b] man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or 13 godliness we had made him to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his [c] Servant Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied before the face of Pilate, 14 when he had determined to release him. But ye denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for 15 a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the [d] Prince of life; whom God raised from the dead;
16 [e] whereof we are witnesses. And [f] by faith in his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the 17 presence of you all. And now, brethren, I wot that 18 in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But the things which God foreshewed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he

20 of the Lord; and that he may send the Christ who 21 hath been appointed for you, even Jesus: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, whereof God spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world
22 began. Moses indeed said, A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, [g] like unto me; to him shall ye hearken in all things
23 whatsoever he shall speak unto you. And it shall be, that every soul, which shall not hearken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the 24 people. Yea and all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, 25 they also told of these days. Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God [h] made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be

CHAPTER IV.

1 The rulers of the Jews offended with Peter's sermon, 4 (though thousands of the people were converted that heard the word,) imprison him and John. 5 After, upon examination Peter boldly avouching the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus only we must be eternally saved, 13 they command him and John to preach no more in that name, adding also threatening, 23 whereupon the church fleeth to prayer. 31 And God, by moving the place where they were assembled, testified that he heard their prayer: confirming the church with the gift of the Holy Ghost, and with mutual love and charity.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

2 [1] Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And [2] Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [3] By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 [4] Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, [5] that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, [6] whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 [7] This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 [8] Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, [9] and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed [10] standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, [11] What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is [12] manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 [13] And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, [14] Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

4 And as they spake unto the people, [a] the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees 2 came upon them, being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the res-3 urrection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in ward unto the morrow: for 4 it was now eventide. But many of them that heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together 6 in Jerusalem; and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as 7 many as were of the kindred of the high priest. And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired,
By what power, or in what name, have ye done this?
8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto 9 them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders, if we this day are examined concerning a good deed done to an impotent man, [b] by what means this man is [c] made 10 whole; be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even in [d] him doth this man stand here 11 before you whole. He is the stone which was set at nought of you the builders, which was made the head 12 of the corner. And in none other is there salvation:
for neither is there any other name under heaven,
that is given among men, wherein we must be saved.

13 Now when they beheld the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
14 And seeing the man which was healed standing with 15 them, they could say nothing against it. But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the 16 council, they conferred among themselves, saying, notable [e] miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we 17 cannot deny it. But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they called them, and charged them not to speak at all

23 ¶ And being let go, [19] they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, [30] the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, [31] and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed [32] were of one heart and of one soul: [33] neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with [34] great power gave the apostles [35] witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and [36] great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: [37] for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 [38] And laid them down at the apostles' feet: [39] and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

CHAPTER V.

1 After that Ananias and Sapphira his wife for their hypocrisy at Peter's rebuke had fallen down dead, 12 and that the rest of the apostles had wrought many miracles, 14 to the increase of the faith: 17 the apostles are again imprisoned, 19 but delivered by an angel bidding them to preach openly to all: 21 when, after their teaching accordingly in the temple, 29 and before the council, 33 they are in danger to be killed, through the advice of Gamaliel, a great counsellor among the Jews, they be kept alive, 40 and are but beaten: for which they glorify God, and cease no day from preaching.

BUT a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, [1] and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 [2] But Peter said, Ananias, why hath [3] Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words [4] fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, [5] wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together [6] to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 [7] Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 [8] And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And [9] by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; ([10] and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And [11] of the rest durst no man join himself to them: [12] but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ [15] Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and were filled with indignation, and laid hands on the 18 [16] And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

20 Go, stand and speak in the temp[le] to the people
[18] all the words of this life.
21 And when they heard that, they [e]red into the temple early in the morning, and tau[ght]. [19] But the high priest came, and they that wer[e] [w]ith him, and called the council together, and all th[e] senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, 23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.
24 Now when the high priest and [20] the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.
25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.
26 Then went the captain with the officers, and bro[ught] them without violence: [21] for they feared the peop[le] lest they should have been stoned.
27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,
28 Saying, [22] Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, [23] and intend to bring this man's [24] blood upon us.
29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, [25] We ought to obey God rather than men.
30 [26] The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and [27] hanged on a tree.
31 [28] Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be [29] a Prince and [30] a Saviour, [31] for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.
32 And [32] we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, [33] whom God hath given to them that obey him.
33 ¶ [34] When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.
34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named [35] Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;
35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take he[ed] to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching th[ese] men.
36 For before these days rose up Theudas, bo[asting] himself to be somebody; to whom a number [of] about four hundred, joined themselves: who w[as] and all, as many as obeyed him, were scat[tered] brought to nought.
37 After this man rose up Judas of G[alilee] in the days of the taxing, and drew away much[people] after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.
38 And now I say unto you, Refrai[n] from these men, and let them alone: [36] for if this c[ounsel] or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

20 and brought them out, and said, Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words 21 of this Life. And when they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught.
But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the 22 prison-house to have them brought. But the officers that came found them not in the prison; and 23 they returned, and told, saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found 24 no man within. Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto 25 this would grow. And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people.
26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for they feared the peo-27 ple, lest they should be stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the coun-28 cil. And the high priest asked them, saying, We straitly charged you not to teach in this name:
and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood upon 29 us. But Peter and the apostles answered and said, 30 We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, hanging 31 him on a tree. Him did God exalt [d] with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give re-32 pentance to Israel, and remission of sins. And we are witnesses [e] of these [f] things; [g] and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 But they, when they heard this, were cut to the 34 [h]art, and were minded to slay them. But there
[s]tood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named
[G]amaliel, a doctor of the law, had in honour of all
[t]he people, and commanded to put the men forth a [l]ittle space; and he said unto them, Ye men of Is-

CHAPTER VI.

1 The apostles, desirous to have the poor regarded for their bodily sustenance, as also careful themselves to dispense the word of God, the food of the soul, 3 appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men. 5 Of whom Stephen, a man full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost, is one. 12 Who is taken of those, whom he confounded in disputing, 13 and after falsely accused of blasphemy against the law and the temple.

AND in those days, [1] when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the [2] Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected [3] in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, [4] It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [5] look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we [6] will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, [7] a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and [8] Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and [9] Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and [10] when they had prayed, [11] they laid their hands on them.

7 And [12] the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company [13] of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And [14] they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 [15] Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 [16] For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall [17] destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

39 men, it will be overthrown: but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be 40 found even to be fighting against God. And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they beat them and charged them not to 41 speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer 42 dishonour for the Name. And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ.

6 Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the [a] Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministra-
2 tion. And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not [b] fit that we should forsake the word of God, and [c] serve tables.
3 [d] Look ye out therefore, brethren, from among you seven men of good report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.
4 But we will continue stedfastly in prayer, and in the 5 ministry of the word. And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and 6 Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought
9 great wonders and signs among the people. But there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them 10 of Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the 11 Spirit by which he spake. Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Stephen, permitted to answer to the accusation of blasphemy, 2 sheweth that Abraham worshipped God rightly, and how God chose the fathers 20 before Moses was born, and before the tabernacle and temple were built: 37 that Moses himself witnessed of Christ: 44 and that all outward ceremonies were ordained according to the heavenly pattern, to last but for a time: 51 reprehending their rebellion, and murdering of Christ, the Just One, whom the prophets foretold should come into the world. 54 Whereupon they stone him to death, who commendeth his soul to Jesus, and humbly prayeth for them.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, [1] Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, [2] Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then [3] came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: [4] yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, [5] That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil [6] four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and [7] serve me in this place.

8 [8] And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: [9] and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; [10] and Isaac begat Jacob; and [11] Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 [12] And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: [13] but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, [14] and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 [15] Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 [16] But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 [17] And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 [18] Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and [19] all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 [20] So Jacob went down into Egypt, [21] and died, he, and our fathers, 16 And [22] were carried over into Sychem, and laid in [23] the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

17 But when [24] the time of the promise drew nigh,

7 And the high priest said, Are these things so?
2 And he said,

Brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in 3 Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, and said unto him, Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew
4 thee. Then came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this
5 land, wherein ye now dwell: and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he
6 had no child. And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them
7 evil, four hundred years. And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me
8 in this place. And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat
9 Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. And the patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold
10 him into Egypt: and God was with him, and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his 11 house. Now there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers
12 found no sustenance. But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers 13 the first time. And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's race be-14 came manifest unto Pharaoh. And Joseph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kin-15 dred, threescore and fifteen souls. And Jacob went down into Egypt; and he died, himself, and our 16 fathers; and they were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of [a] Hamor in Shechem.

which God had sworn to Abraham, [25] the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, [26] so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 [27] In which time Moses was born, and [28] was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And [29] when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was [30] mighty in words and in deeds.

23 [31] And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 [32] And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, [33] Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 [34] Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 [35] And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, [36] I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 [37] Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 [38] I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer [39] by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 [40] He brought them out, after that he had [41] shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, [42] and in the Red sea, [43] and in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, [44] A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; [45] him shall ye hear.

God vouchsafed unto Abraham, the people grew and 18 multiplied in Egypt, till there arose another king
19 over Egypt, which knew not Joseph. The same dealt subtilly with our race, and evil entreated our fathers, that [b] they should cast out their babes to the 20 end they might not [c] live. At which season Moses was born, and was [d] exceeding fair; and he was 21 nourished three months in his father's house: and when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him
22 up, and nourished him for her own son. And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians;
23 and he was mighty in his words and works. But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.
24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting
25 the Egyptian: and he supposed that his brethren understood how that God by his hand was giving 26 them [e] deliverance; but they understood not. And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to 27 another? But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler 28 and a judge over us? Wouldest thou kill me, as 29 thou killedst the Egyptian yesterday? And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the 30 land of Midian, where he begat two sons. And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, in a flame
31 of fire in a bush. And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, 32 there came a voice of the Lord, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst not 33 behold. And the Lord said unto him, Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou 34 standest is holy ground. I have surely seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them: and now come, I will send thee into 35 Egypt. This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a [f] deliverer with the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the 36 bush. This man led them forth, having wrought wonders and signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and 37 in the wilderness forty years. This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your bre-

38 [46] This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with [47] the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers : [48] who received the lively [49] oracles to give unto us :

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 [50] Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us : for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 [51] And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then [52] God turned, and gave them up to worship [53] the host of heaven ; as it is written in the book of the prophets, [54] O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness ?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them : and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, [55] that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 [56] Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, [57] whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David ;

46 [58] Who found favour before God, and [59] desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 [60] But Solomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit [61] the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands ; as saith the prophet, 49 [62] Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool : what house will ye build me ? saith the Lord : or what is the place of my rest ?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things ?

51 ¶ Ye [63] stiffnecked and [64] uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost : as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 [65] Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted ? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of [66] the Just One ; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers :

53 [67] Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ [68] When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, [69] being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, [70] I see the heavens opened, and the [71] Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And [72] cast him out of the city, [73] and stoned him :

38 thren, [g] like unto me. This is he that was in the [h] church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers :
39 who received living oracles to give unto us : to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto 40 Egypt, saying unto Aaron, Make us gods which shall go before us : for as for this Moses, which led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is 41 become of him. And they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and re-
42 joiced in the works of their hands. But God turned, and gave them up to serve the host of heaven ; as it is written in the book of the prophets,

Did ye offer unto me slain beasts and sacrifices
Forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel ?
43 And ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch,
And the star of the god Rephan,
The figures which ye made to worship them :
And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he appointed who spake unto Moses, that he should make it according to the figure 45 that he had seen. Which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with [i] Joshua when they entered on the possession of the nations, which God thrust out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of 46 David ; who found favour in the sight of God, and 47 asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob. But 48 Solomon built him a house. Howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with hands ; as saith the prophet,

49 The heaven is my throne,
And the earth the footstool of my feet :
What manner of house will ye build me ? saith the Lord :
Or what is the place of my rest ?
50 Did not my hand make all these things ?

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost : as your 52 fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute ? and they killed them which shewed before of the coming of the Righteous One ; of whom ye have now become betrayers and 53 murderers ; ye who received the law [j] as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not.

54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their 55 teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, 56 and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son 57 of man standing on the right hand of God. But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their 58 ears, and rushed upon him with one accord ; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned him : and and [74] the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, [75] calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, [76] receive my spirit.

60 And he [77] kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, [78] Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 By occasion of the persecution in Jerusalem, the church being planted in Samaria, 5 by Philip the deacon, who preached, did miracles, and baptized many, among the rest Simon the sorcerer, a great seducer of the people: 14 Peter and John come to confirm and enlarge the church: where, by prayer and imposition of hands giving the Holy Ghost, 18 when Simon would have bought the like power of them, 20 Peter sharply reproving his hypocrisy, and covetousness, and exhorting him to repentance, together with John preaching the word of the Lord, return to Jerusalem. 26 But the angel sendeth Philip to teach, and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch.

AND [1] Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and [2] they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and [3] made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, [4] he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [5] they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then [6] Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [7] unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city [8] used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, [9] giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things [10] concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, [11] that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For [12] as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [13] they were baptized in [14] the name of the Lord Jesus.)

the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet 59 of a young man named Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord
60 Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell
8 asleep. And Saul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions
2 of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamen-
3 tation over him. But Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 They therefore that were scattered abroad went 5 about preaching the word. And Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the 6 Christ. And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did.
7 [a] For from many of those which had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed.
8 And there was much joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, which beforetime in the city used sorcery, and amazed the [b] people of Samaria, giving out that him-
10 self was some great one: to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is that power of God which is called Great.
11 And they gave heed to him, because that of long 12 time he had amazed them with his sorceries. But when they believed Philip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and 13 women. And Simon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Philip; and beholding signs and great [c] miracles wrought, he was amazed.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, 15 they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they 16 might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they had been bap-

17 Then [15] laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.
18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.
20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because [16] thou hast thought that [17] the gift of God may be purchased with money.
21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.
22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, [18] if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.
23 For I perceive that thou art in [19] the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.
24 Then answered Simon, and said, [20] Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.
25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.
26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.
27 And he arose and went: and, behold, [21] a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and [22] had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.
29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.
30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?
31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.
32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, [23] He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:
33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.
34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?
35 Then Philip opened his mouth, [24] and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.
36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; [25] what doth hinder me to be baptized?
37 And Philip said, [26] If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, [27] I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

18 Holy Ghost. Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the [d] Holy Ghost
19 was given, he offered them money, saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, 20 he may receive the Holy Ghost. But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought to obtain the gift of God with money.
21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this [e] matter: for 22 thy heart is not right before God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee.
23 For I see that thou [f] art in the gall of bitterness and 24 in the bond of iniquity. And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.
26 But an angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go [g] toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza: the 27 same is desert. And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem
28 for to worship; and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.
29 And the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join

31 Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with 32 him. Now the place of the scripture which he was reading was this,

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,
So he openeth not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgement was taken away:
His generation who shall declare?
For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of him-
35 self, or of some other? And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached 36 unto him Jesus. And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me

CHAPTER IX.

1 Saul, going towards Damascus, 4 is stricken down to the earth, 10 is called to the apostleship, 18 and is baptized by Ananias. 20 He preacheth Christ boldly. 23 The Jews lay wait to kill him: 29 so do the Grecians, but he escapeth both. 31 The church having rest, Peter healeth Æneas of the palsy, 36 and restoreth Tabitha to life.

AND [1] Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And [2] as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, [3] why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: [4] it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, [5] what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And [6] the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, [7] named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, [8] of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, [9] how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all [10] that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [11] he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [12] the Gentiles, and [13] kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For [14] I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 [15] And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and [16] putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou might-

40 rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

9 But Saul, yet breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the
2 high priest, and asked of him letters to Damascus unto the synagogues, that if he found any that were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring
3 them bound to Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light
4 out of heaven: and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why per-
5 secutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou perse-6 cutest: but rise, and enter into the city, and it shall 7 be told thee what thou must do. And the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the 8 [a] voice, but beholding no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and 9 brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here,
11 Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of 12 Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth; and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. [18] Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, [19] that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; [20] Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, [21] and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, [22] the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 [23] But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and [24] let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And [25] when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 [26] But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, [27] and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And [28] he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the [29] Grecians: [30] but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 [31] Then had the churches rest throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed [32] throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, [33] Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and [34] Saron saw him, and [35] turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full [36] of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in [37] an upper chamber.

And he was certain days with the disciples which the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23 And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews took 24 counsel together to kill him: but their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates also 25 day and night that they might kill him: but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

26 And when he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.
27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the 28 name of Jesus. And he was with them going in 29 and going out at Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the [c] Grecian Jews; but they went about to 30 kill him. And when the brethren knew it, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 So the church throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being [d] edified; and, walking [e] in the fear of the Lord and [e] in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, was multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to the saints which dwelt 33 at Lydda. And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight years; for he 34 was palsied. And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed.
35 And straightway he arose. And all that dwelt at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter [38] put them all forth, and [39] kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body [40] said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; [41] and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one [42] Simon a tanner.

CHAPTER X.

1 Cornelius, a devout man, 5 being commanded by an angel, sendeth for Peter: 11 who by a vision 15, 20 is taught not to despise the Gentiles. 34 As he preacheth Christ to Cornelius and his company, 44 the Holy Ghost falleth on them, 48 and they are baptized.

THERE was a certain man in Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 [1] A devout man, and one that [2] feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 [3] He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one [4] Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: [5] he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, [6] Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And [7] saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; [8] for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second

38 And as Lydda was nigh unto Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, intreating him, Delay not to come on unto us.
39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made,
40 while she was with them. But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.
42 And it became known throughout all Joppa: and 43 many believed on the Lord. And it came to pass, that he abode many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

10 Now there was a certain man in Cæsarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of the band called the
2 Italian [a] band, a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the 3 people, and prayed to God alway. He saw in a vision openly, as it were about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in unto him, and say-
4 ing to him, Cornelius. And he, fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are gone up for a memorial before God.
5 And now send men to Joppa, and fetch one Simon,
6 who is surnamed Peter: he lodgeth with one Simon
7 a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout
8 soldier of them that waited on him continually; and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour:
10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but 11 while they made ready, he fell into a trance; and he beholdeth the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by 12 four corners upon the earth: wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the 13 earth and fowls of the heaven. And there came a 14 voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, [10] the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 [11] Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, [12] Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and [13] of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, [14] and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, [15] Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how [16] that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [17] God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [18] a man stood before me [19] in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, [20] thy prayer is heard, [21] and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, [22] Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But [23] in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

unto him again the second time, What God hath 16 cleansed, make not thou common. And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the 18 gate, and called and asked whether Simon, which 19 was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said
20 unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. But arise, and get thee down, and go with them, nothing
21 doubting: for I have sent them. And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?
22 And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned of God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and 23 to hear words from thee. So he called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa ac-24 companied him. And on the morrow [b] they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near 25 friends. And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his 26 feet, and worshipped him. But Peter raised him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.
27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth
28 many come together: and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know [c] how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet unto me hath God shewed that I should not call any man com-29 mon or unclean: wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore 30 with what intent ye sent for me. And Cornelius said, Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, 31 a man stood before me in bright apparel, and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are 32 had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of 33 Simon a tanner, by the sea side. Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that 34 have been commanded thee of the Lord. And Peter opened his mouth, and said,

Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of 35 persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him.

38 How [27] God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power : who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil ; [28] for God was with him.

39 And [29] we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem ; [30] whom they slew and hanged on a tree :

41 [32] Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, [33] who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And [34] he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify [35] that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge [36] of quick and dead.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, [39] the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 [40] And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, [41] because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost [42] as well as we ?

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.
11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me.
12 And [6] the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover [7] these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:
13 [8] And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;
14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.
15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, [9] as on us at the beginning.
16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, [10] John indeed baptized with water; but [11] ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.
17 [12] Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; [13] what was I, that I could withstand God?
18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, [14] Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.
19 ¶ [15] Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.
20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto [16] the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.
21 And [17] the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and [18] turned unto the Lord.
22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth [19] Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.
23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and [20] exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.
24 For he was a good man, and [21] full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: [22] and much people was added unto the Lord.
25 Then departed Barnabas to [23] Tarsus, for to seek Saul:
26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

CHAPTER XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter; whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 In his pride taking to himself the honour due to God, he is stricken by an angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After his death, the word of God prospereth.

2 And he killed James [1]the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were [2]the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And [3]when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, [4]the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and [5]wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought [6]he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; [7]which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that [8]the Lord hath sent his angel, and [9]hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, [10]he came to the house of Mary the mother of [11]John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together [12]praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, [13]It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

29 And the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send f relief unto the brethren that 30 dwelt in Judæa: which also they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time Herod the king put forth
2 his hands to afflict certain of the church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.
3 And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And those were the days
4 of unleavened bread. And when he had taken him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after 5 the Passover to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him.
6 And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and guards before the door
7 kept the prison. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his 8 hands. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and 9 follow me. And he went out, and followed; and he wist not that it was true which was done a by the 10 angel, but thought he saw a vision. And when they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straight-
11 way the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ. 42 The Gentiles believe: 45 but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme: 46 whereupon they turn to the Gentiles. 48 As many as were ordained to life believed.

NOW there were [1] in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as [2] Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and [3] Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, [4] Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work [5] whereunto I have called them.

3 And [6] when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to [7] Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, [8] they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [9] John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found [10] a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But [11] Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) [12] filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, [13] thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteous-them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went to 18 another place. Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of 19 Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be [b] put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and tarried there.

20 Now he was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because their 21 country was fed from the king's country. And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the [c] throne, and made an oration unto 22 them. And the people shouted, saying, The voice
23 of a god, and not of a man. And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.
25 And Barnabas and Saul returned [d] from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them John whose surname was Mark.

13 Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the 2 tetrarch, and Saul. And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have
3 called them. Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to 5 Cyprus. And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their attendant.
6 And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain [a] sorcerer, a false
7 prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus; which was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God.
8 But Elymas the [a] sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside
9 the proconsul from the faith. But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Ghost, fastened his 10 eyes on him, and said, O full of all guile and all villany, thou son of the devil, thou enemy of all

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and [15] John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and [16] went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

21 [29] And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And [30] when he had removed him, [31] he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, [32] I have found David the son of Jesse, [33] a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

30 [47] But God raised him from the dead:
31 And [48] he was seen many days of them which came up with him [49] from Galilee to Jerusalem, [50] who are his witnesses unto the people.
32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that [51] the promise which was made unto the fathers,
33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, [52] Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, [53] I will give you the sure mercies of David.
35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [54] Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, [55] fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that [56] through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:
39 And [57] by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.
40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in [58] the prophets;
41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.
42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, [59] persuaded them to continue in [60] the grace of God.
44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.
45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and [61] spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.
46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, [62] It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but [63] seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, [64] we turn to the Gentiles.
47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [65] I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.
48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: [66] and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

34 my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and sure 35 blessings of David. Because he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to see cor-36 ruption. For David, after he had [f] in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell on sleep, and 37 was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: but 38 he whom God raised up saw no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins:
39 and by him every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified
40 by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken in the prophets;

For I work a work in your days,
A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.

42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath.

I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles,

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and [67] raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium. 8 At Lystra Paul healeth a cripple, whereupon they are reputed as gods. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They pass through divers churches, confirming the disciples in faith and patience. 26 Returning to Antioch, they report what God had done with them.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, [1] which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the [2] apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, [3] to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and [4] fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ [5] And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and [6] perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, [7] Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, [8] The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, [9] and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, [10] they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, [11] why do ye these things? [12] We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from [13] these vanities [14] unto the living God, [15] which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 [16] Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 [17] Nevertheless he left not himself without wit-

49 ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the re-
50 gion. But the Jews urged on the devout women of honourable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Bar-
51 nabas, and cast them out of their borders. But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, 52 and came unto Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

14 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of Jews and of
2 Greeks believed. But the Jews that were disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made
3 them evil affected against the brethren. Long time therefore they tarried there speaking boldly in the Lord, which bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by 4 their hands. But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part
5 with the apostles. And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of the Jews with their rulers, to entreat them shamefully, and to stone
6 them, they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the re-
7 gion round about: and there they preached the gospel.

8 And at Lystra there sat a certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who 9 never had walked. The same heard Paul speaking: who, fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing 10 that he had faith to be [a] made whole, said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he 11 leaped up and walked. And when the multitudes saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are 12 come down to us in the likeness of men. And they called Barnabas, [b] Jupiter; and Paul, [c] Mercury, be-13 cause he was the chief speaker. And the priest of [b] Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have 14 done sacrifice with the multitudes. But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments, and sprang forth among the multi-15 tude, crying out and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like [d] passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in 16 them is: who in the generations gone by suffered
17 all the nations to walk in their own ways. And yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, [21] and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and [22] exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that [23] we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [24] ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, [25] from whence they had been [26] recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, [27] they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [28] opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

AND [1] certain men which came down from Judæa taught the brethren, and said, [2] Except ye be circumcised [3] after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that [4] Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And [5] being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, [6] declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and [7] they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, [8] That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

19 But there came Jews thither from Antioch and Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, 20 supposing that he was dead. But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with 21 Barnabas to Derbe. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and

2 And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and questioning with them, the brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apos-

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, [9] Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, [10] which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [11] giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 [12] And put no difference between us and them, [13] purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, [14] to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But [15] we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had [16] wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [17] James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 [18] Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [19] After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore [20] my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles [21] are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain [22] from pollutions of idols, and [23] from fornication, and from things strangled, [24] and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, [25] being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed [26] Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [27] certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 [28] Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 together to consider of this matter. And when there had been much questioning, Peter rose up, and said unto them,

Brethren, ye know how that [a] a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and 8 believe. And God, which knoweth the heart, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as 9 he did unto us; and he made no distinction between 10 us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. Now therefore why tempt ye God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither 11 our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they.

12 And all the multitude kept silence; and they hearkened unto Barnabas and Paul rehearsing what signs and wonders God had wrought among the 13 Gentiles by them. And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying,

14 Brethren, hearken unto me: Symeon hath rehearsed how first God did visit the Gentiles, to take 15 out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After these things I will return,
And I will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen;
And I will build again the ruins thereof,
And I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men may seek after the Lord,
And all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called,

18 Saith the Lord, [b] who maketh these things known from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my judgement is, that we trouble not them which from among the Gentiles turn to God;
20 but that we [c] write unto them, that they abstain from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and 21 from what is strangled, and from blood. For Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and
23 Silas, chief men among the brethren: and they wrote thus by them, The apostles and the elder brethren unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles
24 in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting: Forasmuch as we have heard that certain [d] which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no command-

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.
28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;
29 [29] That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and [30] from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.
30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, [31] exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.
33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let [32] go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.
34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.
35 [33] Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.
36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren [34] in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.
37 And Barnabas determined to take with them [35] John, whose surname was Mark.
38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [36] who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.
39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;
40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, [37] being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.
41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, [38] confirming the churches.

CHAPTER XVI.

Paul having circumcised Timothy, 7 and being called by the Spirit from one country to another, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 For which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned. 26 The prison doors are opened. 31 The jailor is converted, 37 and they are delivered.

THEN came he to [1] Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, [2] named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:
2 Which [4] was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.
3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and [5] took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.
4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, [6] that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.
5 And [7] so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.
6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and 28 by word of mouth. For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater bur-29 den than these necessary things; that ye abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude to-31 gether, they delivered the epistle. And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the [e] consolation.
32 And Judas and Silas, being themselves also prophets, [f] exhorted the brethren with many words, and 33 confirmed them. And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed in peace from the 35 brethren unto those that had sent them forth.[g] But Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us return now and visit the brethren in every city wherein we proclaimed the word of the Lord, 37 and see how they fare. And Barnabas was minded to take with them John also, who was called Mark.
38 But Paul thought not good to take with them him who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and 39 went not with them to the work. And there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and Barnabas took Mark with him, 40 and sailed away unto Cyprus; but Paul chose Silas, and went forth, being commended by the brethren
41 to the grace of the Lord. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

16 And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess which believed; but his father
2 was a Greek. The same was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.
3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his fa-
4 ther was a Greek. And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, which had been ordained of the apostles
5 and elders that were at Jerusalem. So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia, 7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia [8] came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a [9] man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go [10] into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to [11] Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose [12] heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And [13] she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel [14] possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters [15] much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, [16] being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. [17] And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And [18] when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, [19] they caught Paul and Silas, and [20] drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, [21] do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, [22] and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 [23] And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and and Galatia, having been forbidden of the Holy 7 Ghost to speak the word in Asia; and when they were come over against Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia; and the Spirit of Jesus suffered them

8 not; and passing by Mysia, they came down to 9 Troas. And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There was a man of Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and 10 help us. And when he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; and from thence to Philippi, which 12 is a city of Macedonia, the first of the district, a Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying
13 certain days. And on the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which were come
14 together. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, to give heed unto the things which were 15 spoken by Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain maid having [a] a spirit of 17 divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are [b] servants of the Most High God, which proclaim unto you [c] the 18 way of salvation. And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was [d] gone, they laid hold on Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the 20 rulers, and when they had brought them unto the [e] magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do
21 exceedingly trouble our city, and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe,
22 being Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the [e] magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded to beat them with 23 rods. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor
24 to keep them safely: who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and made 25 their feet fast in the stocks. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns unto 26 God, and the prisoners were listening to them; and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately [24] all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, [25] Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [26] Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [28] being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and [29] desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, [30] and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER XVII.

Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 4 where some believe, and others persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 13 Being persecuted at Thessalonica, 15 he cometh to Athens, and disputeth, and preacheth the living God to them unknown, 34 whereby many are converted unto Christ.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, [1] went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, [2] that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 [3] And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and [4] Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of [5] Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

immediately all the doors were opened; and every 27 one's bands were loosed. And the jailor being roused out of sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword, and was about to kill himself, sup-
28 posing that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no
29 harm: for we are all here. And he called for lights, and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell 30 down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out,
31 and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt 32 be saved, thou and thy house. And they spake the word of [f] the Lord unto him, with all that were 33 in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, 34 he and all his, immediately. And he brought them up into his house, and set [g] meat before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, [h] having believed in God.

35 But when it was day, the [i] magistrates sent the 36 [j] serjeants, saying, Let those men go. And the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The [i] magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come 37 forth, and go in peace. But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? nay verily; but 38 let them come themselves and bring us out. And the [j] serjeants reported these words unto the [i] magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they
39 were Romans; and they came and besought them; and when they had brought them out, they asked 40 them to go away from the city. And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they [k] comforted them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was
2 a synagogue of the Jews: and Paul, as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three [a] sabbath days
3 reasoned with them from the scriptures, opening and alleging, that it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom,
4 said he, I proclaim unto you, is the Christ. And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great
5 multitude, and of the chief women not a few. But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them forth to

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, [6] These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, [7] saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And [8] the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and [9] searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 [10] And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and [11] receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, [12] his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 [13] God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is [14] Lord of heaven and earth, [15] dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [16] as

6 the people. And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned [b] the 7 world upside down are come hither also; whom Jason hath received: and these all act contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another
8 king, one Jesus. And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these 9 things. And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berœa: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.
11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily,
12 whether these things were so. Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honour-
13 able estate, and of men, not a few. But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at Berœa also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the 14 multitudes. And then immediately the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea: and Silas
15 and Timothy abode there still. But they that conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him, as he beheld the city
17 full of idols. So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the market-
18 place every day with them that met with him. And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange [c] gods: because he preached Jesus
19 and the resurrection. And they took hold of him, and brought him [d] unto [e] the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken 20 by thee? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these 21 things mean. (Now all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning there [f] spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new 22 thing.) And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said,

Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that 23 ye are somewhat [g] superstitious. For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, [h] TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ye worship in ig-
24 norance, this set I forth unto you. The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in [i] temples made 25 with hands; neither is he served by men's hands,

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, [23] we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And [24] the times of this ignorance God winked at; but [25] now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which [26] he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that [27] he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth to the Gentiles. 9 The Lord encourageth him in a vision. 12 He is accused before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed. 18 Afterwards passing from city to city he strengtheneth the disciples. 24 Apollos, being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, 28 preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named [1] Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, [2] and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 [3] And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And [4] when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was [5] pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

6 And [6] when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [7] he shook his raiment, and said unto them, [8] Your blood be upon your own heads; [9] I am clean: [10] from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 [11] And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

as though he needed anything, seeing he himself
26 giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; and he made of one every nation of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation;
27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from 28 each one of us: for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets
29 have said, For we are also his offspring. Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that j the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone,
30 graven by art and device of man. The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now he k commandeth men that they should all everywhere
31 repent: inasmuch as he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge l the world in righteousness m by n the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear
33 thee concerning this yet again. Thus Paul went out
34 from among them. But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things he departed from Athens, and 2 came to Corinth. And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome:
3 and he came unto them; and because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and they wrought;
4 for by their trade they were tentmakers. And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and a persuaded Jews and Greeks.

5 But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, testi-
6 fying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. And when they opposed themselves, and b blasphemed, he shook out his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from 7 henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.
8 And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, c believed in the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then [12] spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace :
10 [13] For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee : for I have much people in this city.
11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.
14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, [14] If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you :
15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.
16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila ; having [16] shorn his head in [17] Cenchrea : for he had a vow.
19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there : but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.
20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not ;
21 But bade them farewell, saying, [18] I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem : but I will return again unto you, [19] if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.
22 And when he had landed at Cæsarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.
23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of [20] Galatia and Phrygia in order, [21] strengthening all the disciples.
24 ¶ [22] And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.
25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord ; and being [23] fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, [24] knowing only the baptism of John.
26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue : whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.
27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him : who, when he was come, [25] helped them much which had believed through grace :
28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, [26] shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

9 And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy 10 peace : for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee : for I have much people in this 11 city. And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul, and 13 brought him before the judgement-seat, saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the 14 law. But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason 15 would that I should bear with you : but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves ; I am not minded to be a 16 judge of these matters. And he drave them from 17 the judgement-seat. And they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

18 And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila ; having shorn his head in Cenchreæ : for he had a 19 vow. And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there : but he himself entered into the synagogue, 20 and reasoned with the Jews. And when they asked 21 him to abide a longer time, he consented not ; but taking his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you, if God will, he set sail from Ephesus.
22 And when he had landed at Cæsarea, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to Antioch.
23 And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in order, stablishing all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, [d] a learned man, came to Ephesus ;
25 and he was mighty in the scriptures. This man had been [e] instructed in the way of the Lord ; and being fervent in spirit, he spake and taught carefully the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism
26 of John : and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him
27 the way of God more carefully. And when he was minded to pass over into Achaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him : and when he was come, he [f] helped 28 them much which had believed through grace : for he powerfully confuted the Jews, [g] and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

CHAPTER XIX.

6 The Holy Ghost is given by Paul's hands. 9 The Jews blaspheme his doctrine, which is confirmed by miracles. 13 The Jewish exorcists 16 are beaten by the devil. 19 Conjuring books are burnt. 24 Demetrius, for love of gain, raiseth an uproar against Paul, 35 which is appeased by the townclerk.

AND it came to pass, that, while [1]Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, [2]We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, [3]Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, [4]John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized [5]in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had [6]laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and [7]they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 [8]And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things [9]concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But [10]when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil [11]of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And [12]this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And [13]God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 [14]So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ [15]Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, [16]took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and [17]fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [18]confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 [19]So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

19 And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper country came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples: and he said unto them, Did ye receive the Holy Ghost when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether [a]the Holy Ghost was given. And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Jesus. And when they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And they were in all about twelve men.

8 And he entered into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. And this continued for the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. And God wrought special [b]miracles by the hands of Paul: insomuch that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out. But certain also of the strolling Jews, exorcists, took upon them to name over them which had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, which did this. And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus I [c]know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Many also of them that had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. And not a few of them that practised [d]curious arts brought their books together, and burned them in the sight of all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of the Lord and prevailed.

21 ¶ [20]After these things were ended, Paul [21]purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, [22]I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of [23]them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and [24]Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And [25]the same time there arose no small stir about [26]that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought [27]no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that [28]they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught [29]Gaius and [30]Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [31]Alexander [32]beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

21 Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 And having sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

23 And about that time there arose no small stir
24 concerning the Way. For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines of [e]Diana, brought no little business unto the crafts-
25 men; whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know
26 that by this business we have our wealth. And ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no
27 gods, which are made with hands: and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess [e]Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all
28 Asia and [f]the world worshippeth. And when they heard this, they were filled with wrath, and cried
29 out, saying, Great is [e]Diana of the Ephesians. And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, 30 Paul's companions in travel. And when Paul was minded to enter in unto the people, the disciples

34 made a defence unto the people. But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is 35 [e]Diana of the Ephesians. And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great [e]Diana, and of the image which fell down
36 from [i]Jupiter? Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do no-
37 thing rash. For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of temples nor blasphe-38 mers of our goddess. If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, [j]the courts are open, and there are pro-
39 consuls: let them accuse one another. But if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be settled

CHAPTER XX.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia. 7 He celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus having fallen down dead, 10 is raised to life. 17 At Miletum he calleth the elders together, telleth them what shall befall to himself, 28 committeth God's flock to them, 29 warneth them of false teachers, 32 commendeth them to God, 36 prayeth with them, and goeth his way.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and [1] departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And [2] when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, [3] Aristarchus and Secundus; and [4] Gaius of Derbe, and [5] Timotheus; and of Asia, [6] Tychicus and [7] Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after [8] the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them [9] to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon [10] the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [11] to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights [12] in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and [13] fell on him, and embracing him said, [14] Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for [15] he hasted, if it were possible for him, [16] to be at Jerusalem [17] the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

40 in the regular assembly. For indeed we are in danger to be [k] accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall 41 not be able to give account of this concourse. And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 And after the uproar was ceased, Paul having sent for the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.
2 And when he had gone through those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece.
3 And when he had spent three months there, and a plot was laid against him by the Jews, as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return
4 through Macedonia. And there accompanied him [a] as far as Asia Sopater of Berœa, the son of Pyrrhus; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and 5 of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. But these [b] had gone before, and were waiting for us at Troas.
6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we tarried seven days.
7 And upon the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and 8 prolonged his speech until midnight. And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where we 9 were gathered together. And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he fell down
10 from the third story, and was taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Make ye no ado; for his life is in him.
11 And when he was gone up, and had broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long
12 while, even till break of day, so he departed. And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 But we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go [c] by land.
14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and 15 came to Mitylene. And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and [d] the day after 16 we came to Miletus. For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, [18] from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me [19] by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how [20] I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, 21 [21] Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [22] repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, [23] I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [24] the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But [25] none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, [26] so that I might finish my course with joy, [27] and the ministry, [28] which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, [29] I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am [30] pure from the blood of all men.

27 For [31] I have not shunned to declare unto you all [32] the counsel of God.

28 ¶ [33] Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost [34] hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, [35] which he hath purchased [36] with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing [37] shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also [38] of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that [39] by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and [40] to the word of his grace, which is able [41] to build you up, and to give you [42] an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 [43] I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, [44] that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, [45] how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he [46] kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and [47] fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

18 to him the [e] elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them,

Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, after what manner I was with you all
19 the time, serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and with tears, and with trials which befell
20 me by the plots of the Jews: how that I shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to 21 house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus
22 [f] Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall 23 befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost testifieth unto me in every city, saying that bonds and afflic-
24 tions abide me. But I hold not my life of any account, as dear unto myself, [g] so that I may accomplish my course, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the 25 grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, 26 shall see my face no more. Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all 27 men. For I shrank not from declaring unto you the 28 whole counsel of God. Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, in the which the Holy Ghost hath made you [h] bishops, to feed the church of [i] God,
29 which he [j] purchased with his own blood. I know that after my departing grievous wolves shall enter 30 in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after 31 them. Wherefore watch ye, remembering that by the space of three years I ceased not to admonish 32 every one night and day with tears. And now I commend you to [k] God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the 33 inheritance among all them that are sanctified. I 34 coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Ye yourselves know that these hands ministered unto 35 my necessities, and to them that were with me. In all things I gave you an example, how that so labouring ye ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down,
37 and prayed with them all. And they all wept sore,

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Paul will not by any means be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. 9 Philip's daughters prophetesses. 17 Paul cometh to Jerusalem: 27 where he is apprehended, and in great danger. 31 but by the chief captain is rescued, and permitted to speak to the people.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: [1] who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and [2] we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned [3] home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we entered into the house of Philip [4] the evangelist, [5] which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [6] which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named [7] Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, [8] So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, [9] What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [10] The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 [11] And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [12] James; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, [13] he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles [14] by his ministry.

38 and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And they brought him on his way unto the ship.

21 And when it came to pass that we were parted from them, and had set sail, we came with a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and
2 from thence unto Patara: and having found a ship crossing over unto Phœnicia, we went aboard, and
3 set sail. And when we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed unto Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade
4 her burden. And having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not set foot in 5 Jerusalem. And when it came to pass that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way, till we were out of the city:
6 and kneeling down on the beach, we prayed, and bade each other farewell; and we went on board the ship, but they returned home again.
7 And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we saluted the brethren,
8 and abode with them one day. And on the morrow we departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one
9 of the seven, we abode with him. Now this man had 10 four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. And as we tarried there [a] many days, there came down from 11 Judæa a certain prophet, named Agabus. And coming to us, and taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into 12 the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him 13 not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at 14 Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after these days we [b] took up our baggage,
16 and went up to Jerusalem. And there went with us also certain of the disciples from Cæsarea, bringing with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe ; and they are all [15] zealous of the law :

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore ? the multitude must needs come together : for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee : We have four men which have a vow on them ;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [16] shave their heads : and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing ; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, [17] we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them [18] entered into the temple, [19] to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, [20] the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and [21] laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help : This is the man, [22] that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place : and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city [23] Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And [24] all the city was moved, and the people ran together : and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple : and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 [25] Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them : and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and [26] commanded him to be bound with two chains ; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude : and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [27] Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said

20 wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. And they, when they heard it, glorified God ; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many [c] thousands there are among the Jews of them which have be-21 lieved ; and they are all zealous for the law : and they have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their 22 children, neither to walk after the customs. What is it therefore ? they will certainly hear that thou art
23 come. Do therefore this that we say to thee : We 24 have four men which have a vow on them ; these take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may shave their heads : and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee ; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law.
25 But as touching the Gentiles which have believed, we [d] wrote, giving judgement that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornica-
26 tion. Then Paul [e] took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude, and laid hands on 28 him, crying out, Men of Israel, help : This is the man, that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place : and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath 29 defiled this holy place. For they had before seen with him in the city Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the tem-
30 ple. And all the city was moved, and the people ran together : and they laid hold on Paul, and dragged him out of the temple : and straightway the doors were shut. And as they were seeking to 31 kill him, tidings came up to the [f] chief captain of the [g] band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion.
32 And forthwith he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them : and they, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul.
33 Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains ; and inquired who he was, and what he had 34 done. And some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd : and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be 36 diers for the violence of the crowd ; for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, Away with him.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 [2]I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city [3]at the feet of [4]Gamaliel, and taught [5]according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [6]was zealous toward God, [7]as ye all are this day.

4 [8]And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [9]all the estate of the elders: [10]from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And [11]it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And [12]they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And [13]one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, [14]having a good report of all the [15]Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [16]The God of our fathers [17]hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and [18]see

39 Assassins? But Paul said, I am a Jew, of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech 40 thee, give me leave to speak unto the people. And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with the hand unto the people; and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, saying,

22 Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.

2 And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,

3 I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are
4 this day: and I persecuted this Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and

17 And [25] it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And [26] saw him saying unto me, [27] Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [28] they know that I imprisoned and [29] beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, [35] Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, [1] I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him [2] to smite him on the mouth.

23 should live. And as they cried out, and threw off
24 their garments, and cast dust into the air, the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, bidding that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they so
25 shouted against him. And when they had tied him up [b] with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man
26 that is a Roman, and uncondemned? And when the centurion heard it, he went to the chief captain, and told him, saying, What art thou about to do?
27 for this man is a Roman. And the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a 28 Roman? And he said, Yea. And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman 29 born. They then which were about to examine him straightway departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid, when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 But on the morrow, desiring to know the certainty, wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

23 And Paul, looking stedfastly on the council, said, Brethren, I have lived before God in all good con-
2 science until this day. And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on 3 the mouth. Then said Paul unto him, God shall

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, [6] I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee : [7] of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees : and the multitude was divided.

8 [8] For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit : but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry : and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, [9] We find no evil in this man : but [10] if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, [11] let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And [12] the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul : for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him : and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain : for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me ?

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 answereth for his life and doctrine. 24 He preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife. 26 The governor hopeth for a bribe, but in vain. 27 At last, going out of his office, he leaveth Paul in prison.

AND after [1] five days [2] Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

22 looking for the promise from thee. So the chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me.
23 And he called unto him two of the centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the 24 night: and he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto 25 Felix the governor. And he wrote a letter after this form:
26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor
27 Felix, greeting. This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be slain of them, when I came upon them with the soldiers, and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. And desiring to

29 brought him down unto their council: whom I found to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or 30 of bonds. And when it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee.[c]

31 So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took

5 [8] For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes :

6 [4] Who also hath gone about to profane the temple : whom we took, and would [5] have judged according to our law.

7 [6] But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 [7] Commanding his accusers to come unto thee : by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem [8] for to worship.

12 [9] And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city :

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [10] the way which they call heresy, so worship I the [11] God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [12] the law and in the prophets :

15 And [13] have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, [14] that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And [15] herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years [16] I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 [17] Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, [19] Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When [20] Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and [21] that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

5 us of thy clemency a few words. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout [a] the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes :
6 who moreover assayed to profane the temple : on 8 whom also we laid hold : [b] from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.
9 And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

10 And when the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered,

Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do cheerfully
11 make my defence : seeing that thou canst take knowledge, that it is not more than twelve days
12 since I went up to worship at Jerusalem : and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the syna-13 gogues, nor in the city. Neither can they prove to 14 thee the things whereof they now accuse me. But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way which they call [c] a sect, so serve I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, 15 and which are written in the prophets : having hope toward God, which these also themselves [d] look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the 16 just and unjust. Herein do I also exercise myself to have a conscience void of offence toward God
17 and men alway. Now after [e] many years I came 18 to bring alms to my nation, and offerings : [f] amidst which they found me purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult : but there were certain
19 Jews from Asia — who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, if they had aught
20 against me. Or else let these men themselves say what wrongdoing they found, when I stood before 21 the council, except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

22 But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine 23 your matter. And he gave order to the centurion that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence ; and not to forbid any of his friends to minister unto him.

24 But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, [g] his wife, which was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that [22]money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, [23]willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER XXV.

2 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth unto Cæsar. 14 Afterwards Festus openeth his matter to king Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth. 25 Festus cleareth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem.

2 [1]Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, [2]laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, [3]if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, [4]and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, [5]Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, [6]willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, [7]Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 [8]For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [9]I appeal unto Cæsar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, [10]There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 [11]About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 [12]To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, and [h]temperance, and the judgement to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me.
26 He hoped withal that money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, 27 and communed with him. But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to gain favour with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, [a]having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from 2 Cæsarea. And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and 3 they besought him, asking favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; laying wait to 4 kill him on the way. Howbeit Festus answered, that Paul was kept in charge at Cæsarea, and that
5 he himself was about to depart thither shortly. Let them therefore, saith he, which are of power among you, go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on the judgement-seat,
7 and commanded Paul to be brought. And when he was come, the Jews which had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him many and grievous charges, which they could
8 not prove; while Paul said in his defence, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, 9 nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. But Festus, desiring to gain favour with the Jews, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and 10 there be judged of these things before me? But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's judgement-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have 11 I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if none of those things is true, whereof these accuse me, no man can [b]give me up unto them. I appeal unto 12 Cæsar. Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Cæsarea, [c]and saluted
14 Festus. And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix:
15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, ask-16 ing for sentence against him. To whom I answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, [13] without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 [14] But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 Then [15] Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom [16] all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought [17] not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that [18] he had committed nothing worthy of death, [19] and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER XXVI.

2 Paul, in the presence of Agrippa, declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship. 24 Festus chargeth him to be mad, whereunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost persuaded to be a Christian. 31 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after [1] the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 [2] And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [3] the promise made of God unto our fathers:

any man, before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him.

17 When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat down on the judgement-seat, and commanded the man to be 18 brought. Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things
19 as I supposed; but had certain questions against him of their own [d] religion, and of one Jesus, who 20 was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. And I, being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem,
21 and there be judged of these matters. But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of [e] the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I
22 should send him to Cæsar. And Agrippa said unto Festus, I also [f] could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

23 So on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and the principal men of the city, at the command
24 of Festus Paul was brought in. And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live
25 any longer. But I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death: and as he himself appealed 26 to [e] the emperor I determined to send him. Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write.
27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

26 And Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to make my defence before thee this day touching all
3 the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: [a] especially because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I
4 beseech thee to hear me patiently. My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation, and at Jerusalem,

7 Unto which promise [4]our twelve tribes, instantly serving God [5]day and night, [6]hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 [7]I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 [8]Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority [9]from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 [10]And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 [11]Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, [12]to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, [13]unto whom now I send thee, 18 [14]To open their eyes, and [15]to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, [16]that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and [17]inheritance among them which are [18]sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But [19]shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judæa, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do [20]works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes [21]the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those [22]which the prophets and [23]Moses did say should come:

23 [24]That Christ should suffer, and [25]that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and [26]should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, [27]thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

7 the promise made of God unto our fathers; unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning
8 this hope I am accused by the Jews, O king! Why is it judged incredible with you, if God doth raise 9 the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of 10 Jesus of Nazareth. And this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave 11 my vote against them. And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto foreign cities.
12 [b]Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the 13 authority and commission of the chief priests, at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me.
14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee
15 to kick against [c]the goad. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom 16 thou persecutest. But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things [d]wherein thou hast seen me, and of the 17 things wherein I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto 18 whom I send thee, to open their eyes, [e]that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me.
19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I
20 was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: but declared both to them of Damascus first, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judæa, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of [f]repentance.
21 For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple,
22 and assayed to kill me. Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should 23 come; [g]how that the Christ [h]must suffer, and [g]how that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much learn-
25 ing doth turn thee to madness. But Paul saith, I am not mad, most excellent Festus; but speak forth 31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, [29] This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Paul shipping toward Rome, 10 foretelleth of the danger of the voyage, 11 but is not believed. 14 They are tossed to and fro with tempest, 41 and suffer shipwreck, 22, 34, 44 yet all come safe to land.

AND when [1] it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one [2] Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius [3] courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, [4] because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

26 words of truth and soberness. For the king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a 27 corner. King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets?
28 I know that thou believest. And Agrippa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest 29 fain make me a Christian. And Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.
30 And the king rose up, and the governor, and Ber-31 nice, and they that sat with them: and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of 32 bonds. And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

27 And when it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Au-
2 gustan [a] band. And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus,
3 a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. And the next day we touched at Sidon: and Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go unto 4 his friends and [b] refresh himself. And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, 5 because the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and 6 Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sail-
7 ing for Italy; and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not [c] further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of 8 Crete, over against Salmone; and with difficulty coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.
9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast was now al-
10 ready gone by, Paul admonished them, and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the lading
11 and the ship, but also of our lives. But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken
12 by Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phœnix, and winter there; which is a haven of Crete, 13 looking [d] north-east and south-east. And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.
15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.
16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:
17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.
18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;
19 And the third day [5] we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.
20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.
21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.
22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.
23 [6] For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and [7] whom I serve,
24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.
25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: [8] for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.
26 Howbeit [9] we must be cast upon a certain island.
27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;
28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.
29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.
30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.
34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for [10] there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.
35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and [11] gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.
36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.
37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen [12] souls.

14 along Crete, close in shore. But after no long time there beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which 15 is called Euraquilo: and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and 16 were driven. And running under the lee of a small island called [e] Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, 17 to secure the boat: and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, under-girding the ship; and, fearing lest they should be cast upon the Syrtis, 18 they lowered the gear, and so were driven. And as we laboured exceedingly with the storm, the next 19 day they began to throw the freight overboard; and the third day they cast out with their own hands 20 the [f] tackling of the ship. And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved 21 was now taken away. And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and 22 have gotten this injury and loss. And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no 23 loss of life among you, but only of the ship. For there stood by me this night an angel of the God 24 whose I am, whom also I serve, saying, Fear not,
Paul; thou must stand before Cæsar: and lo, God hath granted thee all them that sail with thee.
25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe
God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken 26 unto me. Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.
27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were draw-28 ing near to some country; and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms: and after a little space, they 29 sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. And fearing lest haply we should be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and 30 [g] wished for the day. And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would lay 31 out anchors from the foreship, Paul said to the cen-turion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the 32 ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, 34 having taken nothing. Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of 35 you. And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all: 36 and he brake it, and began to eat. Then were they all of good cheer, and themselves also took food.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [13] they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that [1] the island was called Melita.

2 And the [2] barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and [3] felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and [4] said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and [5] prayed, and [6] laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many [7] honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

38 score and sixteen souls. And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the 39 wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether 40 they could [i] drive the ship upon it. And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach.
41 But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break
42 up by the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them
43 should swim out, and escape. But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to 44 the land: and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to the land.

28 And when we were escaped, then we knew that
2 the island was called [a] Melita. And the barbarians shewed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain,
3 and because of the cold. But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out [b] by reason of the heat, and fastened
4 on his hand. And when the barbarians saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said one to another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet Justice
5 hath not suffered to live. Howbeit he shook off the 6 beast into the fire, and took no harm. But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation, and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 Now in the neighbourhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three
8 days courteously. And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laying his hands
9 on him healed him. And when this was done, the rest also which had diseases in the island came, and 10 were cured: who also honoured us with many honours; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

11 And after three months we set sail in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, whose 12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:
14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.
15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.
16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but [8] Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.
17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, [9] though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet [10] was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
18 Who, [11] when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.
19 But when the Jews spake against it, [12] I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.
20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that [13] for the hope of Israel I am bound with [14] this chain.
21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judæa concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.
22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where [15] it is spoken against.
23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; [16] to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, [17] both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.
24 And [18] some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.
25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,
26 Saying, [19] Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:
27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent [20] unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.
29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans, 9 and his desire to come to them. 16 What his gospel is, and the righteousness which it sheweth. 18 God is angry with all manner of sin. 21 What were the sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, [1] called to be an apostle, [2] separated unto the gospel of God,
2 ([3] Which he had promised afore [4] by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)
3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, [5] which was [6] made of the seed of David according to the flesh ;
4 And [7] declared to be the Son of God with power, according [8] to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead :
5 By whom [9] we have received grace and apostleship, for [10] obedience to the faith among all nations, [11] for his name :
6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ :
7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, [12] called to be saints : [13] Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
8 First, [14] I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [15] your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
9 For [16] God is my witness, [17] whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that [18] without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers ;
10 [19] Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [20] by the will of God to come unto you.
11 For I long to see you, that [21] I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established ;
12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by [22] the mutual faith both of you and me.
13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that [23] oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but [24] was let hitherto,) that I might have some [25] fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.
14 [26] I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians ; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

1 PAUL, a [a] servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an
2 apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, which he promised afore [b] by his prophets in the holy scrip-
3 tures, concerning his Son, who was born of the seed
4 of David according to the flesh, who was [c] declared to be the Son of God [d] with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection of the dead ;
5 even Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we received grace and apostleship, unto obedience [e] of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake :
6 among whom are ye also, called to be Jesus Christ's :
7 to all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints : Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, [f] that your faith is proclaimed throughout 9 the whole world. For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, always in my 10 prayers making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered [g] by the will of God to 11 come unto you. For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye 12 may be established ; that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by the other's faith, 13 both yours and mine. And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in the 14 rest of the Gentiles. I am debtor both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to the wise and to the fool-

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.
16 For [27] I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for [28] it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; [29] to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
17 For [30] therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [31] The just shall live by faith.
18 [32] For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;
19 Because [33] that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for [34] God hath shewed it unto them.
20 For [35] the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but [36] became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
22 [37] Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,
23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible [38] God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.
24 [39] Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, [40] to dishonour their own bodies [41] between themselves:
25 Who changed [42] the truth of God [43] into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.
26 For this cause God gave them up unto [44] vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:
27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.
28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things [45] which are not convenient;
29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,
30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,
31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:
32 Who [46] knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things [47] are worthy of death, not only do the same, but [48] have pleasure in them that do them.

15 ish. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach
16 the gospel to you also that are in Rome. For I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to 17 the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is revealed a righteousness of God [h] by faith unto faith: as it is written, But the righteous shall live [h] by faith.

18 For [i] the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men,
19 who [j] hold down the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest
20 in them; for God manifested it unto them. For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and 21 divinity; [k] that they may be without excuse: because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became vain in their 22 reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 and changed the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts unto uncleanness, that their bodies should be 25 dishonoured among themselves: for that they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed [l] for ever. Amen.
26 For this cause God gave them up unto [m] vile passions: for their women changed the natural use 27 into that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men with men working unseemliness, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was due.

28 And even as they [n] refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up unto a reprobate
29 mind, to do those things which are not fitting; being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, 30 deceit, malignity; whisperers, backbiters, [o] hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of 31 evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unmerciful: who, knowing the ordinance of 32 God, that they which practise such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also consent with them that practise them.

CHAPTER II.

1 They that sin, though they condemn it in others, cannot excuse themselves, 6 and much less escape the judgment of God, 9 whether they be Jews or Gentiles. 14 The Gentiles cannot escape, 17 nor yet the Jews, 25 whom their circumcision shall not profit, if they keep not the law.

THEREFORE thou art [1] inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: [2] for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou [3] the riches of his goodness and [4] forbearance and [3] longsuffering; [6] not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart [7] treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 [8] Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and [9] do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew [10] first, and also of the Gentile;

10 [11] But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For [12] there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For [13] not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 [14] In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [15] by Jesus Christ [16] according to my gospel.

17 Behold, [17] thou art called a Jew, and [18] restest in the law, [19] and makest thy boast of God,

18 And [20] knowest his will, and [21] approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And [22] art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [23] which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

2 Wherefore thou art without excuse, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest [a] another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest dost practise the same things.
2 [b] And we know that the judgement of God is according to truth against them that practise such 3 things. And reckonest thou this, O man, who judgest them that practise such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?
4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the
5 goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? but after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up for thyself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgement of God; who
6 will render to every man according to his works:
7 to them that by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honour and incorruption, eternal life: but unto them that are factious, and obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, shall be wrath and indig-
9 nation, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that worketh evil, of the Jew first, and also 10 of the Greek; but glory and honour and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and 11 also to the Greek: for there is no respect of per-12 sons with God. For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as 13 have sinned under law shall be judged by law; for not the hearers of a law are [c] just before God, but 14 the doers of a law shall be [d] justified: for when Gentiles which have no law do by nature the things of the law, these, having no law, are a law unto 15 themselves; in that they shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness therewith, and their [e] thoughts one with another
16 accusing or else excusing them; in the day when God [f] shall judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, by Jesus Christ.

17 But if thou bearest the name of a Jew, and rest-
18 est upon [g] the law, and gloriest in God, and knowest [h] his will, and [i] approvest the things that are excel-
19 lent, being instructed out of the law, and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a

21 [24] Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [25] dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that [26] makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is [27] written.

25 [28] For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore [29] if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [30] judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For [31] he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, [32] which is one inwardly; and [33] circumcision is that of the heart, [34] in the spirit, and not in the letter; [35] whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER III.

1 The Jews' prerogative: 3 which they have not lost: 9 howbeit the law convinceth them also of sin: 20 therefore no flesh is justified by the law, 28 but all, without difference, by faith only: 31 and yet the law is not abolished.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that [1] unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if [2] some did not believe? [3] shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 [4] God forbid: yea, let [5] God be true, but [6] every man a liar; as it is written, [7] That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ([8] I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then [9] how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) [10] Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that [11] they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, [12] There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

That thou mightest be justified in thy words,
And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgement.

There is none that seeketh after God;

CHAPTER IV.

1 Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness, 10 before he was circumcised. 13 By faith only he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we say then that [1]Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were [2]justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? [3]Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one:
13 Their throat is an open sepulchre;
With their tongues they have used deceit:
The poison of asps is under their lips:
14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 Their feet are swift to shed blood;
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it speaketh to them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world
20 may be brought under the judgement of God: because [d]by [e]the works of the law shall no flesh be [f]justified in his sight: for [g]through the law cometh
21 the knowledge of sin. But now apart from the law a righteousness of God hath been manifested, being 22 witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God through faith [h]in Jesus Christ unto all [i]them that believe; for there is no distinc-
23 tion; for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory
24 of God; being justified freely by his grace through 25 the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God [j]set forth [k]to be a propitiation, through [l]faith, by his blood, to shew his righteousness, because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the for-
26 bearance of God; for the shewing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be [m]just, and the [m]justifier of him that 27 [n]hath faith [h]in Jesus. Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works?
28 Nay: but by a law of faith. [o]We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from [e]the 29 works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles
30 also: if so be that God is one, and he shall justify the circumcision [d]by faith, and the uncircumcision
31 [p]through faith. Do we then make [q]the law of none effect [p]through faith? God forbid: nay, we establish [q]the law.

4 What then shall we say [a]that Abraham, our fore-
2 father according to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham was justified [b]by works, he hath whereof
3 to glory; but not toward God. For what saith the scripture? And Abraham believed God, and it was

4 ow [4] to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned f grace, but of debt.
5 ut to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that ustifieth [5] the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
7 Saying, [6] Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not im-pute sin.
9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And [7] he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [8] he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.
13 For the promise, that he should be the [9] heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For [10] if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:
15 Because [11] the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [12] by grace;
[13] to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; [14] who is the father of us all,
17 (As it is written, [15] I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, [16] who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those [17] things which be not as though they were.
18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [18] So shall thy seed be.
19 And being not weak in faith, [19] he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:
20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; 21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, [20] he was able also to perform.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
23 Now [21] it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [22] on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;
25 [23] Who was delivered for our offences, and [24] was raised again for our justification.

4 reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, 5 but as of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith 6 is reckoned for righteousness. Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God 7 reckoneth righteousness apart from works, saying,
Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven,
And whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not reckon sin.
9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say,
To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteous-10 ness. How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circum-11 cision, but in uncircumcision: and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that 12 righteousness might be reckoned unto them; and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in 13 uncircumcision. For not [c] through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness 14 of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of 15 none effect: for the law worketh wrath; but where 16 there is no law, neither is there transgression. For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, 17 who is the father of us all (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though 18 they were. Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So 19 shall thy seed be. And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body [d] now as good as dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the 20 deadness of Sarah's womb: yea, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to 21 God, and being fully assured that, what he had 22 promised, he was able also to perform. Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness.
23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it 24 was reckoned unto him; but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, who believe on him that 25 raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in our hope, 8 that sith we were reconciled by his blood, when we were enemies, 10 we shall much more be saved being reconciled. 12 As sin and death came by Adam, 17 so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ. 20 Where sin abounded, grace did superabound.

THEREFORE [1] being justified by faith, we have [2] peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:
2 [3] By whom also we have access by faith into this grace [4] wherein we stand, and [5] rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only so, but [6] we glory in tribulations also: [7] knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
4 [8] And patience, experience; and experience, hope:
5 [9] And hope maketh not ashamed; [10] because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.
6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time [11] Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
8 But [12] God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified [13] by his blood, we shall be saved [14] from wrath through him.
10 For [15] if, when we were enemies, [16] we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [17] by his life.
11 And not only so, but we also [18] joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.
12 Wherefore, as [19] by one man sin entered into the world, and [20] death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:
13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [21] sin is not imputed when there is no law.
14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, [22] who is the figure of him that was to come.
15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded [23] unto many.
16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.
17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)
18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came [24] upon all men unto justification of life.
19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

5 Being therefore justified [a] by faith, [b] let us have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;
2 through whom also we have had our access [c] by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and [d] let us
3 [e] rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but [f] let us also [e] rejoice in our tribulations:
4 knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and 5 patience, probation; and probation, hope: and hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the [g] Holy 6 Ghost which was given unto us. For while we were yet weak, in due season Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for [h] the good man some one would 8 even dare to die. But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, 9 Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified [i] by his blood, shall we be saved from the 10 wrath of God through him. For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we 11 be saved [i] by his life; and not only so, [j] but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death
13 passed unto all men, for that all sinned: — for until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed
14 when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgres-
15 sion, who is a figure of him that was to come. But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto the many.
16 And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgement came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto
17 justification. For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; much more shall they receive the abundance of grace and [l] of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, even 18 Christ. So then as through one trespass the judgement came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one act of righteousness the free gift
19 unto all men to justification of life. For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one shall

20 Moreover [25]the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much [26]more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VI.

1 We may not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our baptism. 12 Let not sin reign any more, 18 because we have yielded ourselves to the service of righteousness, 23 and for that death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? [1]Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are [2]dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that [3]so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ [4]were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are [5]buried with him by baptism into death: that [6]like as Christ was raised up from the dead by [7]the glory of the Father, [8]even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 [9]For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that [10]our old man is crucified with him, that [11]the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For [12]he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now [13]if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that [14]Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, [15]he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, [16]he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be [17]dead indeed unto sin, but [18]alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 [19]Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your [20]members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but [21]yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For [22]sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, [23]because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that [24]to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart [25]that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then [26]made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the 20 the many be made righteous. And [m]the law came in beside, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly:

21 that, as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in 2 sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. We who died to sin, how shall we any longer live therein?
3 Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
4 We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also
5 might walk in newness of life. For if we have become [a]united with him by the likeness of his death, we shall be also by the likeness of his resurrection;
6 knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so
7 we should no longer be in bondage to sin; for he 8 that hath died is justified from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with 9 him; knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death no more hath dominion
10 over him. For [b]the death that he died, he died unto sin [c]once: but [b]the life that he liveth, he liveth unto 11 God. Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body,
13 that ye should obey the lusts thereof: neither present your members unto sin as [d]instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as [d]instru-
14 ments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not 16 under law, but under grace? God forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as [e]servants unto obedience, his [e]servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience
17 unto righteousness? But thanks be to God, [f]that, whereas ye were [e]servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that [g]form of teaching 18 whereunto ye were delivered; and being made free from sin, ye became [e]servants of righteousness.

CHAPTER VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 4 But we are dead to the law. 7 Yet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, good, 16 as I acknowledge, who am grieved because I cannot keep it.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [1] the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then [2] if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [3] dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should [4] bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, [5] did work in our members [6] to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [7] in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [8] I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, [9] Thou shalt not covet.

8 But [10] sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For [11] without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, [12] which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [13] the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [14] sold under sin.

firmity of your flesh: for as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as 20 servants to righteousness unto sanctification. For when ye were [h] servants of sin, ye were free in regard 21 of righteousness. What fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for 22 the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end
23 eternal life. For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men that know [a] the law), how that the law hath domi-
2 nion over a man for so long time as he liveth? For the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die,
3 she is discharged from the law of the husband. So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another
4 man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth
5 fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, the [b] sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto 6 death. But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that wherein we were holden; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Howbeit, I had not known sin, except through [a] the law: for I had not known [c] coveting,
8 except the law had said, Thou shalt not [c] covet: but sin, finding occasion, wrought in me through the commandment all manner of [c] coveting: for apart
9 from [a] the law sin is dead. And I was alive apart from [a] the law once: but when the commandment
10 came, sin revived, and I died; and the commandment, which was unto life, this I found to be unto 11 death: for sin, finding occasion, through the commandment beguiled me, and through it slew me.
12 So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy,
13 and righteous, and good. Did then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shewn to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; — that through the com-
14 mandment sin might become exceeding sinful. For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, 15 For that which I do I allow not: for [15]what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.
17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
18 For I know that [16]in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

22 For I [17]delight in the law of God after [18]the inward man:
23 But [19]I see another law in [20]my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.
24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?
25 [21]I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

1 They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh. 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit: 17 and what of being God's child, 19 whose glorious deliverance all things long for, 29 was beforehand decreed from God. 38 What can sever us from his love?

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who [1]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
2 For [2]the law of [3]the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from [4]the law of sin and death.
3 For [5]what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, [6]God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, [7]who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
5 For [8]they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit [9]the things of the Spirit.
6 For [10]to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
7 Because [11]the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, [12]neither indeed can be.
8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [13]the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not [14]the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.
10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
11 But if the Spirit of [15]him that raised up Jesus

15 sold under sin. For that which I [d] do I know not: for 16 not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate,
17 that I do. But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto the law that it is good. So now it is no
18 more I that [d] do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth
19 no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to [d] do that which is good is not. For the good which I 20 would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. But if what I would not, that I do, it is 21 no more I that [d] do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. I find then [e] the law, that, to me who would do good,
22 evil is present. For I delight [f] in the law of God
23 after the inward man: but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity [g] under the law of 24 sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of [h] the body of this 25 death? [i] I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I myself with the mind serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them
2 that are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law
3 of sin and of death. For what the law could not do, [a] in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of [b] sinful flesh [c] and as an offering for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
4 that the [d] ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the
5 spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the spirit
6 the things of the spirit. For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the spirit is life and peace:
7 because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither in-
8 deed can it be: and they that are in the flesh cannot 9 please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, 10 he is none of his. And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because 11 of righteousness. But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he from the dead dwell in you, [16] he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 [17] Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For [18] if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do [19] mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For [20] as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For [21] ye have not received the spirit of bondage again [22] to fear; but ye have received the [23] Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, [24] Abba, Father.

16 [25] The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; [26] heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; [27] if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that [28] the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For [29] the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the [30] manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For [31] the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation [32] groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have [33] the firstfruits of the Spirit, [34] even we ourselves groan within ourselves, [35] waiting for the adoption, to wit, the [36] redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but [37] hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [38] we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [39] the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And [40] he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints [41] according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [42] who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom [43] he did foreknow, [44] he also did predestinate [45] to be conformed to the image of his Son, [46] that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also [47] called: and whom he called, them he also [48] justified: and whom he justified, them he also [49] glorified.

that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also your mortal bodies [e] through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, 13 to live after the flesh: for if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the spirit ye [f] mortify the 14 [g] deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.
15 For ye received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby
16 we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God:
17 and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory
19 which shall be revealed to us-ward. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing
20 of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him
21 who subjected it, [h] in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of 22 God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain [i] together until now.
23 And not only so, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, 24 the redemption of our body. For by hope were we saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: [j] for who 25 [k] hopeth for that which he seeth? But if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us
27 with groanings which cannot be uttered; and he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, [l] because he maketh intercession for 28 the saints according to the will of God. And we know that to them that love God [m] all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose. For whom he foreknew, he 29 also foreordained to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many 30 brethren: and whom he foreordained, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

37 [58] Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor [59] principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

CHAPTER IX.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 18 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The potter may do with his clay what he list. 25 The calling of the Gentiles and rejecting of the Jews were foretold. 32 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

I [1] SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 [2] That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For [3] I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 [4] Who are Israelites; [5] to whom pertaineth the adoption, and [6] the glory, and [7] the covenants, and [8] the giving of the law, and [9] the service of God, and [10] the promises;

5 [11] Whose are the fathers, and [12] of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, [13] who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 [14] Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For [15] they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 [16] Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In [17] Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but [18] the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, [19] At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God
32 is for us, who is against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall 33 he not also with him freely give us all things? Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? [n] It
34 is God that justifieth; who is he that shall condemn? [o] It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.
35 Who shall separate us from the love [p] of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or fa-36 mine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Even as it is written,

For thy sake we are killed all the day long;
We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than con-38 querors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to 39 come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other [q] creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience
2 bearing witness with me in the Holy Ghost, that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.
3 For I could [a] wish that I myself were anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen according
4 to the flesh: who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the pro-
5 mises; whose are the fathers, and of whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, [b] who is over all, God bless-
6 ed [c] for ever. Amen. But it is not as though the word of God hath come to nought. For they are 7 not all Israel, which are of Israel: neither, because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but,
8 In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are children of God; but the children of the promise are reckoned for a 9 seed. For this is a word of promise, According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this ; but when [20] Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac ;
11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of [21] him that calleth ;)
12 It was said unto her, [22] The elder shall serve the younger.
13 As it is written, [23] Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.
14 What shall we say then ? [24] Is there unrighteousness with God ? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, [25] I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.
17 For [26] the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, [27] Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault ? For [28] who hath resisted his will ?
20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God ? [29] Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus ?
21 Hath not the [30] potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make [31] one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour ?
22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering [32] the vessels of wrath [33] fitted to destruction :
23 And that he might make known [34] the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had [35] afore prepared unto glory,
24 Even us, whom he hath called, [36] not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles ?
25 As he saith also in Osee, [37] I will call them my people, which were not my people ; and her beloved, which was not beloved.
26 [38] And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people ; there shall they be called the children of the living God.
27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, [39] Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, [40] a remnant shall be saved :
28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness : [41] because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
29 And as Esaias said before, [42] Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, [43] we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.
30 What shall we say then ? [44] That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, [45] even the righteousness which is of faith.
31 But Israel, [46] which followed after the law of righteousness, [47] hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

10 And not only so ; but Rebecca also having conceived
11 by one, even by our father Isaac — for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that 12 calleth, it was said unto her, The elder shall serve 13 the younger. Even as it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

14 What shall we say then ? Is there unrighteous-15 ness with God ? God forbid. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will 16 have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that 17 runneth, but of God that hath mercy. For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might shew in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad
18 in all the earth. So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he still find 20 fault ? For who withstandeth his will ? Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God ? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it,
21 Why didst thou make me thus ? Or hath not the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honour, and another 22 unto dishonour ? What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted unto de-
23 struction : [d] and that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he 24 afore prepared unto glory, even us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the 25 Gentiles ? As he saith also in Hosea,

I will call that my people, which was not my people ;
And her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall be, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people,
There shall they be called sons of the living God.

27 And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, If the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is 28 the remnant that shall be saved : for the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it and cut-29 ting it short. And, as Isaiah hath said before,

Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed,
We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then ? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of 31 faith : but Israel, following after a law of righteous-

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For [48] they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, [49] Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and [50] whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAPTER X.

5 The scripture sheweth the difference betwixt the righteousness of the law, and this of faith, 11 and that all, both Jew and Gentile, that believe, shall not be confounded, 18 and that the Gentiles shall receive the word and believe. 19 Israel was not ignorant of these things.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record [1] that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of [2] God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own [3] righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For [4] Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, [5] That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, [6] Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? [7] The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That [8] if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, [9] Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For [10] there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for [11] the same Lord over all [12] is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 [13] For whosoever shall call [14] upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear [15] without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [16] How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But [17] they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, [18] Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [19] their sound went into all the earth, [20] and their words unto the ends of the world.

33 even as it is written,

Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence:
And he that believeth on [f] him shall not be put to shame.

10 Brethren, my heart's [a] desire and my supplication
2 to God is for them, that they may be saved. For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God,
3 but not according to knowledge. For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the 4 righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to every one that believeth.
5 For Moses writeth that the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby.
6 But the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven?
7 (that is, to bring Christ down:) or, Who shall descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up
8 from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is,
9 the word of faith, which we preach: [b] because if thou shalt [c] confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him
10 from the dead, thou shalt be saved: for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with 11 the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall 12 not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord
13 of all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: for, Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord
14 shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how 15 shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring [d] glad tidings of good things!

16 But they did not all hearken to the [e] glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our re-17 port? So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by 18 the word of Christ. But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily,

Their sound went out into all the earth,
And their words unto the ends of [f] the world.

CHAPTER XI.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them: 26 for there is a promise of their salvation. 33 God's judgments are unsearchable.

I SAY then, [1] Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [2] I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which [3] he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 [4] Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [5] I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 [6] Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And [7] if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? [8] Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded

8 (According as it is written, [9] God hath given them the spirit of slumber, [10] eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And David saith, [11] Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 [12] Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather [13] through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as [14] I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [15] might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if [16] the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

21 But as to Israel he saith, All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

11 I say then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of 2 Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God did not cast off his people which he foreknew. Or wot ye not what the scripture saith [a] of Elijah? how he

13 But I speak to you that are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my 19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well ; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. [20] Be not highminded, but [21] fear :

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God : on them which fell, severity ; but toward thee, goodness, [22] if thou continue in his goodness : otherwise [23] thou also shalt be cut off.

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be [25] wise in your own conceits ; that [26] blindness in part is happened to Israel, [27] until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved : as it is written, [28] There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob :

29 For the gifts and calling of God are [31] without repentance.

30 For as ye [32] in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief :

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For [33] God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

25 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this mystery, lest ye be wise in your own conceits, that a hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until 26 the fulness of the Gentiles be come in ; and so all Israel shall be saved : even as it is written,

There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer ;
He shall turn away [d] ungodliness from Jacob :
27 And this is [e] my covenant unto them,

31 mercy by their disobedience, even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shewn to 32 you they also may now obtain mercy. For God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

CHAPTER XII.

1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 3 No man must think too well of himself, 6 but attend every one on that calling wherein he is placed. 9 Love, and many other duties, are required of us. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

I [1] BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, [2] that ye [3] present your bodies [4] a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And [5] be not conformed to this world: but [6] be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may [7] prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, [8] through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, [9] not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt [10] to every man the measure of faith.

4 For [11] as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So [12] we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 [13] Having then gifts differing [14] according to the grace that is given to us, whether [15] prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or [16] he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or [17] he that exhorteth, on exhortation: [18] he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; [19] he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, [20] with cheerfulness.

9 [21] Let love be without dissimulation. [22] Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 [23] Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; [24] in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 [25] Rejoicing in hope; [26] patient in tribulation; [27] continuing instant in prayer;

13 [28] Distributing to the necessity of saints; [29] given to hospitality.

14 [30] Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 [31] Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 [32] Be of the same mind one toward another. [33] Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. [34] Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 [35] Recompense to no man evil for evil. [36] Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, [37] live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, [38] avenge not yourselves, but

12 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, [a] acceptable to God, which is your [b] reasonable
2 [c] service. And be not fashioned according to this [d] world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is [e] the good and [a] acceptable and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath 4 dealt to each man a measure of faith. For even as we have many members in one body, and all the 5 members have not the same office: so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and severally mem-
6 bers one of another. And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion
7 of [f] our faith; or ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that teacheth, to his teaching;
8 or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with [g] liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheer-
9 fulness. Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor
10 that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to 11 another; in honour preferring one another; in diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit; serving [h] the 12 Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation;
13 continuing stedfastly in prayer; communicating to the necessities of the saints; [i] given to hospitality.
14 Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse
15 not. Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with 16 them that weep. Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but [j] condescend to [k] things that are lowly. Be not 17 wise in your own conceits. Render to no man evil for evil. Take thought for things honourable in the 18 sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as in 19 you lieth, be at peace with all men. Avenge not

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Subjection, and many other duties, we owe to the magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 Gluttony and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul [1] be subject unto the higher powers. For [2] there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth [3] the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? [4] do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore [5] ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, [6] but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 [7] Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for [8] he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, [9] Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, [10] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore [11] love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time [12] to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: [13] let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and [14] let us put on the armour of light.

13 [15] Let us walk honestly, as in the day; [16] not in rioting and drunkenness, [17] not in chambering and wantonness, [18] not in strife and envying.

14 But [19] put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and [20] make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

yourselves, beloved, but give place unto [l] wrath: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I 20 will recompense, saith the Lord. But if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire 21 upon his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Let every soul be in subjection to the higher powers: for there is no power but of God; and the
2 powers that be are ordained of God. Therefore he that resisteth the power, withstandeth the ordinance of God: and they that withstand shall receive to
3 themselves judgement. For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. And wouldest thou have no fear of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same:
4 for [a] he is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for [a] he beareth not the sword in vain: for [a] he is a minister of God, an avenger for wrath to him that 5 doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for 6 conscience sake. For for this cause ye pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attend-
7 ing continually upon this very thing. Render to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man anything, save to love one another: for he that loveth [b] his neighbour hath fulfilled [c] the 9 law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, Thou shalt 10 love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: love therefore is the fulfilment of [c] the law.

11 And this, knowing the season, that now it is high time for you to awake out of sleep: for now is [d] salvation nearer to us than when we first believed.
12 The night is far spent, and the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let 13 us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife 14 and jealousy. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER XIV.

3 Men may not contemn nor condemn one the other for things indifferent: 13 but take heed that they give no offence in them: 15 for that the apostle proveth unlawful by many reasons.

HIM that [1] is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he [2] may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and [3] let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 [4] Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 [5] One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that [6] regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [7] he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [8] none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For [9] to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be [10] Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for [11] we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, [12] As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then [13] every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that [14] no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, [15] that there is nothing unclean of itself: but [16] to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. [17] Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 [18] Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 [19] For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ [20] is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 [21] Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith [22] one may edify another.

20 [23] For meat destroy not the work of God. [24] All things indeed are pure; [25] but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

14 But him that is weak in faith receive ye, yet not 2 [a] to doubtful disputations. One man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is weak eateth herbs.
3 Let not him that eateth set at nought him that eat-eth not; and let not him that eateth not judge him 4 that eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou that judgest the [b] servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make 5 him stand. One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let 6 each man be fully assured in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord:
and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto 7 the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. For none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to him-8 self. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether 9 we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died, and lived again, that he might 10 be Lord of both the dead and the living. But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgement-seat of God.
11 For it is written,

As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow,
And every tongue shall [c] confess to God.

12 So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion 14 of falling. I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who accounteth anything to be unclean, to 15 him it is unclean. For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou walkest no longer in love.
Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ 16 died. Let not then your good be evil spoken of:
17 for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy 18 Ghost. For he that herein serveth Christ is well-19 pleasing to God, and approved of men. So then [d] let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another.
20 Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God.
All things indeed are clean; howbeit it is evil for 22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. [27] Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for [28] whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves, 3 for Christ did not so, 7 but receive one the other, as Christ did us all, 8 both Jews 9 and Gentiles. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 28 and promiseth to see them, 30 and requesteth their prayers.

WE [1] then that are strong ought to bear the [2] infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 [3] Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good [4] to edification.

3 [5] For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, [6] The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For [7] whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 [8] Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may [9] with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore [10] receive ye one another, [11] as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that [12] Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, [13] to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And [14] that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [15] For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, [16] Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, [17] Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Esaias saith, [18] There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all [19] joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And [20] I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, [21] filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, [22] because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That [23] I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the [24] offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ [25] in those things which pertain to God.

21 that man who eateth with offence. It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything
22 whereby thy brother stumbleth.[e] The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which he [f] ap-
23 proveth. But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.[g]

15 Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
2 Let each one of us please his neighbour for that
3 which is good, unto edifying. For Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell upon
4 me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might 5 have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of the same mind one with 6 another according to Christ Jesus: that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the God and 7 Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ also received
8 [a] you, to the glory of God. For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the pro-
9 mises given unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

Therefore will I [b] give praise unto thee among the Gentiles,
And sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith,

Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again,

Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles;
And let all the peoples praise him.

12 And again, Isaiah saith,

There shall be the root of Jesse,
And he that ariseth to rule over the Gentiles;
On him shall the Gentiles hope.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one 15 another. But I write the more boldly unto you in some measure, as putting you again in remembrance, because of the grace that was given me of God, 16 that I should be a minister of Christ Jesus unto the Gentiles, [c] ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made accept-17 able, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. I have therefore my glorying in Christ Jesus in things per-

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [26] which Christ hath not wrought by me, [27] to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 [28] Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, [29] lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, [30] To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also [31] I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and [32] having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, [33] and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now [34] I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For [35] it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For [36] if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, [37] their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them [38] this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 [39] And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and [40] for the love of the Spirit, [41] that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 [42] That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judæa; and that [43] my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 [44] That I may come unto you with joy [45] by the will of God, and may with you be [46] refreshed.

33 Now [47] the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER XVI.

3 Paul willeth the brethren to greet many, 17 and adviseth them to take heed of those which cause dissension and offences, 21 and after sundry salutations endeth with praise and thanks to God.

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [1] Cenchrea:

2 [2] That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet [3] Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

18 taining to God. For I will not dare to speak of any [d] things save those which Christ wrought through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and 19 deed, in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of [e] the Holy Ghost; so that from Jerusalem, and round about even unto Illyricum, I have [f] fully 20 preached the gospel of Christ; yea, [g] making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build upon another 21 man's foundation; but, as it is written,

They shall see, to whom no tidings of him came,
And they who have not heard shall understand.

22 Wherefore also I was hindered these many times
23 from coming to you: but now, having no more any place in these regions, and having these many years
24 a longing to come unto you, whensoever I go unto Spain (for I hope to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first in some measure I shall have been satisfied with 25 your company) — but now, I say, I go unto Jeru-26 salem, ministering unto the saints. For it hath been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the 27 saints that are at Jerusalem. Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to 28 minister unto them in carnal things. When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by you unto Spain.
29 And I know that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
31 that I may be delivered from them that are disobedient in Judæa, and that my ministration which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints;
32 that I may come unto you in joy through the will 33 of God, and together with you find rest. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

16 I commend unto you Phœbe our sister, who is a
2 [a] servant of the church that is at Cenchreæ: that ye receive her in the Lord, worthily of the saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever matter she may have need of you: for she herself also hath been a succourer of many, and of mine own self.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

After his salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, and 12 reproveth their dissensions. 18 God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise, 21 by the foolishness of preaching, and 26 calleth not the wise, mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

PAUL, [1] called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ [2] through the will of God, and [3] Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, [4] to them that [5] are sanctified in Christ Jesus, [6] called to be saints, with all that in every place [7] call upon the name of Jesus Christ [8] our Lord, [9] both their's and our's :

3 [10] Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [11] I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, [12] in all utterance, and in all knowledge ;

6 Even as [13] the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you :

7 So that ye come behind in no gift ; [14] waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ :

8 [15] Who shall also confirm you unto the end, [16] that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 [17] God is faithful, by whom we were called unto [18] the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [19] that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you ; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, [20] that every one of you saith, I am of Paul ; and I of [21] Apollos ; and I of [22] Cephas ; and I of Christ.

13 [23] Is Christ divided ? was Paul crucified for you ? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul ?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but [24] Crispus and [25] Gaius ;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of [26] Stephanas : besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel : [27] not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to [28] them that

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes [a] our brother,
2 unto the church of God which is at Corinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours :
3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank [b] my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus ;
5 that in everything ye were enriched in him, in all
6 [c] utterance and all knowledge ; even as the testi-
7 mony of Christ was confirmed in you : so that ye come behind in no gift ; waiting for the revelation
8 of our Lord Jesus Christ ; who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be unreproveable in the 9 day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, through whom ye were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you ; but that ye be perfected together in the same mind
11 and in the same judgement. For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by them which are of the household of Chloe, that there 12 are contentions among you. Now this I mean, that each one of you saith, I am of Paul ; and I of 13 Apollos ; and I of Cephas ; and I of Christ. [d] Is Christ divided ? was Paul crucified for you ? or 14 were ye baptized into the name of Paul ? [e] I thank God that I baptized none of you, save Crispus and 15 Gaius ; lest any man should say that ye were bap-
16 tized into my name. And I baptized also the household of Stephanas : besides, I know not whether I 17 baptized any other. For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel : not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

perish [29] foolishness ; but unto us [30] which are saved it is the [31] power of God.

19 For it is written, [32] I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 [33] Where is the wise ? where is the scribe ? where is the disputer of this world ? [34] hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world ?

21 [35] For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the [36] Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom :

23 But we preach Christ crucified, [37] unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks [38] foolishness ;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [39] the power of God, and [40] the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men ; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that [41] not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called :

27 But [42] God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise ; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty ;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [43] things which are not, [44] to bring to nought things that are :

29 [45] That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us [46] wisdom, and [47] righteousness, and [48] sanctification, and [49] redemption :

31 That, according as it is written, [50] He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER II.

He declareth that his preaching, 1 though it bring not excellency of speech, or of 4 human wisdom : yet consisteth in the 4, 5 power of God : and so far excelleth 6 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense, as that 14 the natural man cannot understand it.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, [1] came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you [2] the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [3] save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And [4] I was with you [5] in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching [6] was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, [7] but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power :

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but [8] in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them [9] that are perfect : yet not [10] the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, [11] that come to nought :

perishing foolishness ; but unto us which are being 19 saved it is the power of God. For it is written,
I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And the prudence of the prudent will I reject.
20 Where is the wise ? where is the scribe ? where is the disputer of this [f] world ? hath not God made 21 foolish the wisdom of the world ? For seeing that in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the [g] preaching to save them that 22 believe. Seeing that Jews ask for signs, and Greeks 23 seek after wisdom : but we preach [h] Christ crucified, unto Jews a stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles 24 foolishness ; but unto [i] them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the 25 wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men ; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For [j] behold your calling, brethren, how that not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not 27 many noble, [k] are called : but God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise ; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things 28 that are strong ; and the base things of the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, yea [l] and the things that are not, that he might 29 bring to nought the things that are : that no flesh 30 should glory before God. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us wisdom from God, [m] and righteousness and sanctification, and re-31 demption : that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came not with excellency of [a] speech or of wisdom, proclaim-2 ing to you the [b] mystery of God. For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, 3 and him crucified. And I was with you in weak-
4 ness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my [a] speech and my [c] preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit 5 and of power : that your faith should not [d] stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among the [e] perfect :
yet a wisdom not of this [f] world, nor of the rulers of this [f] world, which are coming to nought : but

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, [12] which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 [13] Which none of the princes of this world knew: for [14] had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [15] Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But [16] God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [17] save the spirit of man which is in him? [18] even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [19] the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 [20] Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 [21] But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: [22] for they are foolishness unto him: [23] neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 [24] But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 [25] For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? [26] But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER III.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Strife and division, arguments of a fleshly mind. 7 He that planteth, and he that watereth, is nothing. 9 The ministers are God's fellowworkmen. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which 17 must be kept holy. 19 The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto [1] spiritual, but as unto [2] carnal, even as unto [3] babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with [4] milk, and not with meat: [5] for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for [6] whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while one saith, [7] I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but [8] ministers by whom ye believed, [9] even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 [10] I have planted, [11] Apollos watered; [12] but God gave the increase.

7 So then [13] neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: [14] and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For [15] we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are [16] God's building.
10 [17] According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid [18] the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But [19] let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.
11 For other foundation can no man lay than [20] that is laid, [21] which is Jesus Christ.
12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
13 [22] Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day [23] shall declare it, because [24] it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, [25] he shall receive a reward.
15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [26] yet so as by fire.
16 [27] Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?
17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.
18 [28] Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
19 For [29] the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [30] He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.
20 And again, [31] The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.
21 Therefore [32] let no man glory in men. For [33] all things are your's;
22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;
23 And [34] ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER IV.

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had. 7 We have nothing which we have not received. 9 The apostles spectacles to the world, angels, and men, 13 the filth and offscouring of the world: 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 16 whom we ought to follow.

LET a man so account of us, as of [1] the ministers of Christ, [2] and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
4 For I know nothing by myself; [3] yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
5 [4] Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, [5] who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [6] then shall every man have praise of God.
6 And these things, brethren, [7] I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes;

9 his own labour. For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's [a] husbandry, God's building.
10 According to the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let each 11 man take heed how he buildeth thereon. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid,
12 which is Jesus Christ. But if any man buildeth on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay,
13 stubble; each man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; [b] and the fire itself shall prove each man's 14 work of what sort it is. If any man's work shall abide which he built thereon, he shall receive a re-
15 ward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as through fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are a [c] temple of God, and 17 that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man destroyeth the [c] temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the [c] temple of God is holy, [d] which temple ye are.
18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in this [e] world, let 19 him become a fool, that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He that taketh the wise in their 20 craftiness: and again, The Lord knoweth the rea-
21 sonings of the wise, that they are vain. Wherefore let no one glory in men. For all things are yours;
22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to 23 come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a
3 man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be [a] judged of you, or of man's [b] judgement: yea, I [c] judge not mine own
4 self. For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that [d] judgeth me is 5 the Lord. Wherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man have his praise from God.

CHAPTER V.

1 The incestuous person 6 is cause rather of shame unto them, than of rejoicing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be shunned and avoided.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as [1] named among the Gentiles, [2] that one should have his [3] father's wife.

2 [4] And ye are puffed up, and have not rather [5] mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written; that no one of you be puffed up
7 for the one against the other. For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost
8 thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have reigned without us: yea and I would that ye 9 did reign, that we also might reign with you. For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men doomed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, [e] and to angels, and to 10 men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye 11 have glory, but we have dishonour. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwell-
12 ingplace; and we toil, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, 13 we endure; being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the [f] filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even until now.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but to ad-
15 monish you as my beloved children. For though ye should have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I begat 16 you through the gospel. I beseech you therefore, 17 be ye imitators of me. For this cause have I sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, even as I rather mourned, you?

3 [6] For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, [7] with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 [8] To deliver such an one unto [9] Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 [10] Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that [11] a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even [12] Christ our [13] passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore [14] let us keep the feast, [15] not with old leaven, neither [16] with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle [17] not to company with fornicators:

10 [18] Yet not altogether with the fornicators [19] of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go [20] out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, [21] if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one [22] no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge [23] them also that are without? do not ye judge [24] them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore [25] put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The Corinthians must not vex their brethren, in going to law with them: 6 especially under infidels. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 15 Our bodies are the members of Christ, 19 and temples of the Holy Ghost. 16, 17 They must not therefore be defiled.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [1] the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall [2] judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 [3] If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [4] Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

3 taken away from among you. For I verily, being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as 4 though I were present, judged him that hath so wrought this thing, in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, with the 5 power of our Lord Jesus, to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit
6 may be saved in the day of the Lord [c] Jesus. Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little lea-
7 ven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath been sa-
8 crificed, even Christ: wherefore let us [d] keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in my epistle to have no com-
10 pany with fornicators; [e] not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs
11 go out of the world: but [f] now I write unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such 12 a one no, not to eat. For what have I to do with judging them that are without? Do not ye judge 13 them that are within, whereas them that are without God judgeth? Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against [a] his neighbour, go to law before the unrighteous, and not
2 before the saints? Or know ye not that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world is judged by you, are ye unworthy [b] to judge the smallest mat-
3 ters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life?
4 If then ye have [c] to judge things pertaining to this life, [d] do ye set them to judge who are of no account
5 in the church? I say this to move you to shame. Is it so that there cannot be found among you one wise man, who shall be able to decide between his 6 brethren, but brother goeth to law with brother, and
7 that before unbelievers? Nay, already it is altogether [e] a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather take wrong? why

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: [6] neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were [7] some of you: [8] but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 [9] All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 [10] Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but [11] for the Lord; [12] and the Lord for the body.

14 And [13] God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us [14] by his own power.

15 Know ye not that [15] your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for [16] two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 [17] But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 [18] Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth [19] against his own body.

19 What? [20] know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, [21] and ye are not your own?

20 For [22] ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER VII.

2 He treateth of marriage, 4 shewing it to be a remedy against fornication: 10 and that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 18, 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects we may either marry, or abstain from marrying.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: [1] It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 [2] Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 [3] Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [4] Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, [5] and not of commandment.

8 not rather be defrauded? Nay, but ye yourselves
9 do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effe-
10 minate, nor abusers of themselves with men, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
11 And such were some of you: but ye [f] were washed, but ye were sanctified, but ye were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.
12 All things are lawful for me; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for mė; but I 13 will not be brought under the power of any. Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall bring to nought both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and 14 the Lord for the body: and God both raised the 15 Lord, and will raise up us through his power. Know ye not that your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and 16 make them members of a harlot? God forbid. Or know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, The twain, saith he, shall become one 17 flesh. But he that is joined unto the Lord is one 18 spirit. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth 19 fornication sinneth against his own body. Or know ye not that your body is a [g] temple of the [h] Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have from God?
20 and ye are not your own; for ye were bought with a price: glorify God therefore in your body.

7 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote: It
2 is good for a man not to touch a woman. But, because of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.
3 Let the husband render unto the wife her due: and 4 likewise also the wife unto the husband. The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over

7 For [6] I would that all men were [7] even as I myself. But [8] every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [9] It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But [10] if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, [11] yet not I, but the Lord, [12] Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, [13] not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else [14] were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [15] to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt [16] save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And [17] so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [18] let him not be circumcised.

19 [19] Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [20] the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is [21] the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [22] Christ's servant.

23 [23] Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, [24] let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins [25] I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one [26] that hath obtained mercy of the Lord [27] to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, [28] that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But [29] this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

7 mission, not of commandment. [a] Yet I would that all men were even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.
8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is 9 good for them if they abide even as I. But if they have not continency, let them marry: for it is better 10 to marry than to burn. But unto the married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife 11 depart not from her husband (but and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his 12 wife. But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content 13 to dwell with him, let him not leave her. And the woman which hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her 14 husband. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but 15 now are they holy. Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called 16 [b] us in peace. For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy 17 wife? Only, as the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. And 18 so ordain I in all the churches. Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircum-19 cision? let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but the 20 keeping of the commandments of God. Let each man abide in that calling wherein he was called.
21 Wast thou called being a bondservant? care not for it: [c] but if thou canst become free, use it rather.
22 For he that was called in the Lord, being a bond-servant, is the Lord's freedman: likewise he that 23 was called, being free, is Christ's bondservant. Ye were bought with a price; become not bondservants 24 of men. Brethren, let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgement, as one that 26 hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. I think therefore that this is good by reason of the present distress, namely, that it is good for a man 27 [d] to be as he is. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife?
28 seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh:
29 and I would spare you. But this I say, brethren, the time [e] is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
31 And they that use this world, as not [30] abusing it: for [31] the fashion of this world passeth away.
32 But I would have you without carefulness. [32] He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman [33] careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.
37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.
38 [34] So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.
39 [35] The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; [36] only in the Lord.
40 But she is happier if she so abide, [37] after my judgment: and [38] I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols. 8, 9 We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren: 11 but must bridle our knowledge with charity.

NOW [1] as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [2] knowledge. [3] Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.
2 And [4] if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
3 But if any man love God, [5] the same is known of him.
4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that [6] an idol is nothing in the world, [7] and that there is none other God but one.
5 For though there be that are [8] called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)
6 But [9] to us there is but one God, the Father, [10] of whom are all things, and we in him; and [11] one Lord Jesus Christ, [12] by whom are all things, and we by him.
7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some [13] with conscience of the idol unto this hour

30 and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and
31 those that buy, as though they possessed not; and those that use the world, as not [f] abusing it: for the 32 fashion of this world passeth away. But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how 33 he may please the Lord: but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may 34 please his [g] wife. And there is a difference also between the wife and the virgin. She that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how 35 she may please her husband. And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a [h] snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may 36 attend upon the Lord without distraction. But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his [i] virgin daughter, if she be past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry.
37 But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep 38 his own [i] virgin daughter, shall do well. So then both he that giveth his own [i] virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in 39 marriage shall do better. A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be [j] dead, she is free to be married to whom 40 she will; only in the Lord. But she is happier if she abide as she is, after my judgement: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge
2 puffeth up, but love [a] edifieth. If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he knoweth not yet as he
3 ought to know; but if any man loveth God, the 4 same is known of him. Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no God
5 but one. For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods
6 many, and lords many; yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all 7 things, and we through him. Howbeit in all men there is not that knowledge: but some, being used eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is [14] defiled.

8 But [15] meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But [16] take heed lest by any means this liberty of your's become [17] a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not [18] the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And [19] through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But [20] when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, [21] if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER IX.

1 He sheweth his liberty, 7 and that the minister ought to live by the gospel: 15 yet that himself hath of his own accord abstained, 18 to be either chargeable unto them, 22 or offensive unto any, in matters indifferent. 24 Our life is like unto a race.

1 AM I not an apostle? am I not free? [2] have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? [3] are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for [4] the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 [5] Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as [6] the brethren of the Lord, and [7] Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, [8] have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who [9] goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who [10] planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who [11] feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, [12] Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that [13] he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 [14] If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? [15] Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, [16] lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 [17] Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is de-8 filed. But meat will not commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, [b] are we the worse; nor, if we 9 eat, [c] are we the better. But take heed lest by any means this [d] liberty of yours become a stumbling-
10 block to the weak. For if a man see thee which hast knowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, [e] be emboldened to 11 eat things sacrificed to idols? For [f] through thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth, the brother for 12 whose sake Christ died. And thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when 13 it is weak, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if meat maketh my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I make not my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not free? am I not an apostle? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are not ye my work in the 2 Lord? If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye
3 in the Lord. My defence to them that examine me
4 is this. Have we no right to eat and to drink?
5 Have we no right to lead about a wife that is a [a] believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the 6 brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? Or I only and Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working?
7 What soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of 8 the flock? Do I speak these things after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same?
9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it
10 for the oxen that God careth, or [b] saith he it altogether for our sake? Yea, for our sake it was written: because he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of par-
11 taking. If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a 12 great matter if we shall reap your carnal things? If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right; but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance 13 to the gospel of Christ. Know ye not that they which minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they which wait upon the altar have their

14 Even so [18]hath the Lord ordained [19]that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But [20]I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for [21]it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for [22]necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, [23]I have a reward: but if against my will, [24]a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, [25]when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I [26]abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be [27]free from all men, yet have [28]I made myself servant unto all, [29]that I might gain the more.

20 And [30]unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 [31]To [32]them that are without law, as without law, ([33]being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 [34]To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: [35]I am made all things to all men, [36]that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? [37]So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that [38]striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we [39]an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, [40]not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 [41]But I keep under my body, and [42]bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be [43]a castaway.

CHAPTER X.

1 The sacraments of the Jews 6 are types of our's, 7 and their punishments, 11 examples for us. 14 We must fly from idolatry. 21 We must not make the Lord's table the table of devils: 24 and in things indifferent we must have regard of our brethren.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under [1]the cloud, and all passed through [2]the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same [3]spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same [4]spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they [5]were overthrown in the wilderness.

14 portion with the altar? Even so did the Lord ordain that they which proclaim the gospel should live of 15 the gospel. But I have used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case: for it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.
16 For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto 17 me, if I preach not the gospel. For if I do this of mine own will, I have a reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a stewardship intrusted to me.
18 What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as 19 not to use to the full my right in the gospel. For though I was free from all men, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more.
20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law, that I might 21 gain them that are under the law; to them that are without law, as without law, not being without law to God, but under law to Christ, that I might gain
22 them that are without law. To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save 23 some. And I do all things for the gospel's sake,
24 that I may be a joint partaker thereof. Know ye not that they which run in a [c]race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so run, that ye may 25 attain. And every man that striveth in the games is temperate in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.
26 I therefore so run, as not uncertainly; so [d]fight I,
27 as not beating the air: but I [e]buffet my body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, how that our fathers were all under the cloud, and
2 all passed through the sea; and were all baptized

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as [6] they also lusted.
7 [7] Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [8] The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
8 [9] Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [10] fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as [11] some of them also tempted, and [12] were destroyed of serpents.
10 Neither murmur ye, as [13] some of them also murmured, and [14] were destroyed of [15] the destroyer.
11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and [16] they are written for our admonition, [17] upon whom the ends of the world are come.
12 Wherefore [18] let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.
13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but [19] God is faithful, [20] who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also [21] make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, [22] flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to [23] wise men; judge ye what I say.
16 [24] The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? [25] The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
17 For [26] we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
18 Behold [27] Israel [28] after the flesh: [29] are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?
19 What say I then? [30] that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles [31] sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.
21 [32] Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [33] the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.
22 Do we [34] provoke the Lord to jealousy? [35] are we stronger than he?

it, and for conscience sake: for [42] the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for [43] why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that [44] for which I give thanks?

31 [45] Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 [46] Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to [47] the church of God:

33 Even as [48] I please all men in all things, [49] not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER XI.

1 He reproveth them, because in holy assemblies 4 their men prayed with their heads covered, and 6 women with their heads uncovered, 17 and because generally their meetings were not for the better but for the worse, as 21 namely in profaning with their own feasts the Lord's supper. 23 Lastly, he calleth them to the first institution thereof.

BE [1] ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, [2] that ye remember me in all things, and [3] keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that [4] the head of every man is Christ; and [5] the head of the woman is the man; and [6] the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or [7] prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But [8] every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were [9] shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be [10] a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as [11] he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For [12] the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 [13] Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman [14] to have power on her head [15] because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless [16] neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; [17] but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But [18] if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, [19] neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

29 for conscience sake: conscience, I say, not thine own, but the other's; for why is my liberty judged
30 by another conscience? [k] If I by grace partake, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give 31 thanks? Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or 32 whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to 33 Greeks, or to the church of God: even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be 11 saved. Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you that ye remember me in all things, and hold fast the traditions, even as I deli-
3 vered them to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ
4 is God. Every man praying or prophesying, hav-
5 ing his head covered, dishonoureth his head. But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoureth her head: for it is one and 6 the same thing as if she were shaven. For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let 7 her be veiled. For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of 8 the man. For the man is not of the woman; but 9 the woman of the man: for neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the 10 man: for this cause ought the woman to [a] have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels.
11 Howbeit neither is the woman without the man, nor 12 the man without the woman, in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the 13 woman; but all things are of God. Judge ye [b] in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto 14 God unveiled? Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonour 15 to him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
16 But if any man seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 But in giving you this charge, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the 18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, [20] I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For [21] there must be also heresies among you, [22] that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and [23] another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye [24] the church of God, and [25] shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For [26] I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, [27] That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death [28] till he come.

27 [29] Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But [30] let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For [31] if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, [32] we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man [33] hunger, let him eat at [34] home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest [35] will I set in order when [36] I come.

CHAPTER XII.

NOW [1] concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know [2] that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these [3] dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, [4] that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed:

18 worse. For first of all, when ye come together [c] in the church, I hear that [d] divisions exist among you;
19 and I partly believe it. For there must be also [e] heresies among you, that they which are approved
20 may be made manifest among you. When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not pos-
21 sible to eat the Lord's supper: for in your eating each one taketh before other his own supper; and 22 one is hungry, and another is drunken. What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the [f] church of God, and put them to shame that [g] have not? What shall I say to you? [h] shall I
23 praise you in this? I praise you not. For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that the Lord Jesus in the night in which
24 he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which 25 [i] is for you: this do in remembrance of me. In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new [j] covenant in my blood: this do, as oft as 26 ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the 27 Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of 28 the Lord. But let a man prove himself, and so let 29 him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judge-30 ment unto himself, if he [k] discern not the body. For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and 31 not a few sleep. But if we [l] discerned ourselves, we 32 should not be judged. But [m] when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we may not be 33 condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for 34 another. If any man is hungry, let him eat at home; that your coming together be not unto judgement. And the rest will I set in order whensoever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would and [5] that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now [6] there are diversities of gifts, but [7] the same Spirit.

5 [8] And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God [9] which worketh all in all.

7 [10] But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit [11] the word of wisdom; to another [12] the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 [13] To another faith by the same Spirit; to another [14] the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 [15] To another the working of miracles; to another [16] prophecy; [17] to another discerning of spirits; to another [18] divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, [19] dividing to every man severally [20] as he will.

12 For [21] as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [22] so also is Christ.

13 For [23] by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, [24] whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and [25] have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath [26] God set the members every one of them in the body, [27] as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members

God saith, Jesus is anathema; and no man can say,
Jesus is Lord, but in the Holy Spirit.
4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same
5 Spirit. And there are diversities of ministrations, 6 and the same Lord. And there are diversities of workings, but the same God, who worketh all things 7 in all. But to each one is given the manifestation 8 of the Spirit to profit withal. For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom; and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same 9 Spirit: to another faith, in the same Spirit; and to 10 another gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; and to another workings of [a] miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits: to another divers kinds of tongues; and to another the 11 interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each one severally even as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are 13 one body; so also is Christ. For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made 14 to drink of one Spirit. For the body is not one 15 member, but many. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not 16 therefore not of the body. And if the ear shall say,
Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it 17 is not therefore not of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole 18 were hearing, where were the smelling? But now hath God set the members each one of them in the 19 body, even as it pleased him. And if they were all 20 one member, where were the body? But now they 21 are many members, but one body. And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.
22 Nay, much rather, those members of the body which 23 seem to be more feeble are necessary: and those parts of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we [b] bestow more abundant honour;
and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeli-24 ness; whereas our comely parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abun-25 dant honour to that part which lacked; that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.
26 And whether one member suffereth, all the members

27 Now [28] ye are the body of Christ, and [29] members in particular.

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But [37] covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 All gifts, 2, 3 how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity. 4 The praises thereof, and 13 prelation before hope and faith.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of [1] prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, [2] so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [3] though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 [4] Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, [5] seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 [6] Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but [7] rejoiceth in the truth;

7 [8] Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 [9] For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For [10] now we see through a glass, darkly; but then [11] face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Prophecy is commended, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before speaking with tongues, 6 by a comparison drawn from musical instruments. 12 Both must be referred to edification, 22 as to their true and proper end. 26 The true use of each is taught, 27 and the abuse taxed. 34 Women are forbidden to speak in the church.

FOLLOW after charity, and [1] desire spiritual gifts, [2] but rather that ye may prophesy.

suffer with it; or one member is [c] honoured, all the 27 members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of 28 Christ, and [d] severally members thereof. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then [e] miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, [f] governments, divers kinds of 29 tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are 30 all teachers? are all workers of [e] miracles? have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues?
31 do all interpret? But desire earnestly the greater gifts. And a still more excellent way shew I unto you.

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a
2 clanging cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains,
3 but have not love, I am nothing. And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body [a] to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me
4 nothing. Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
5 doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own,
6 is not provoked, taketh not account of evil; rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth;
7 [b] beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all
8 things, endureth all things. Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away.
9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part:
10 but when that which is perfect is come, that which is 11 in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.
5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.
6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by [4] revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?
8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?
9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.
10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.
13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: [5] I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing [6] with the understanding also.
16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen [7] at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
20 Brethren, [8] be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice [9] be ye children, but in understanding be men.
21 [10] In the law it is [11] written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [12] will they not say that ye are mad?

3 speaketh mysteries. But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification, and comfort, and consolation.
4 He that speaketh in a tongue [b] edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth [b] edifieth the church.
5 Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.
6 But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching?
7 Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or
8 harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain
9 voice, who shall prepare himself for war? So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken?
10 for ye will be speaking into the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and 11 [c] no kind is without signification. If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be 12 a barbarian [d] unto me. So also ye, since ye are zealous of [e] spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto 13 the edifying of the church. Wherefore let him that speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret.
14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my 15 understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and 16 I will sing with the understanding also. Else if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of [f] the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou 17 sayest? For thou verily givest thanks well, but the 18 other is not [g] edified. I thank God, I speak with 19 tongues more than you all: howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in mind: howbeit in 21 malice be ye babes, but in mind be [h] men. In the law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that
23 believe. If therefore the whole church be assembled together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, [14] hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. [15] Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and [16] let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, [17] let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And [18] the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, [19] as in all churches of the saints.

34 [20] Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but [21] they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the [22] law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 [23] If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, [24] covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 [25] Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER XV.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them, that shall be found alive at the last day.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel [1] which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [2] wherein ye stand;

2 [3] By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless [4] ye have believed in vain.

3 For [5] I delivered unto you first of all that [6] which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins [7] according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day [8] according to the scriptures:

5 [9] And that he was seen of Cephas, then [10] of the twelve:

24 say that ye are mad? But if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is 25 [i] reproved by all, he is judged by all; the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is [j] among you indeed.

26 What is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation.
27 Let all things be done unto edifying. If any man speaketh in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most 28 three, and that in turn; and let one interpret: but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to 29 God. And let the prophets speak by two or three,
30 and let the others [k] discern. But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence.
31 For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may 32 learn, and all may be [l] comforted; and the spirits of 33 the prophets are subject to the prophets; for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace; as in all the churches of the saints.

34 Let the women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but let them
35 be in subjection, as also saith the law. And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to 36 speak in the church. What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone?

37 If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, that they are the commandment
38 of the Lord. [m] But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore, my brethren, desire earnestly to pro-
40 phesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. But let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now I make known unto you, brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received,
2 wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are [a] saved; I make known, I say, [b] in what words I preached it unto you, if ye hold it fast, except ye believed [c] in 3 vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received, how that Christ died for our sins
4 according to the scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third day ac-
5 cording to the scriptures; and that he appeared to 6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then [11] of all the apostles.
8 [12] And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.
9 For I am [13] the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [14] I persecuted the church of God.
10 But [15] by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [16] I laboured more abundantly than they all: [17] yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [18] then is Christ not risen:
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.
15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because [19] we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [20] ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
19 [21] If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
20 But now [22] is Christ risen from the dead, and become [23] the firstfruits of them that slept.
21 For [24] since by man came death, [25] by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
23 But [26] every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.
24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up [27] the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
25 For he must reign, [28] till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
26 [29] The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
27 For he [30] hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.
28 [31] And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then [32] shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

6 Cephas; then to the twelve; then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some are fallen
7 asleep; then he appeared to James; then to all 8 the apostles; and last of all, as unto one born out of 9 due time, he appeared to me also. For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found [d] vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with 11 me. Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there 13 is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been 14 raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching [d] vain, [e] your faith also is [d] vain.
15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised up [f] Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are 16 not raised. For if the dead are not raised, neither 17 hath Christ been raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ
19 have perished. [g] If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most pitiable.

20 But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, 21 the firstfruits of them that are asleep. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of 22 the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in [f] Christ
23 shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then they that are Christ's,
24 at his [h] coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up the kingdom to [i] God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished all rule and all au-
25 thority and power. For he must reign, till he hath 26 put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy
27 that shall be abolished is death. For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. [j] But when he saith, All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto 28 him. And when all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that God may be all in all.

36 Thou fool, [43] that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 [44] So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 [45] It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam [46] was made a living soul; [47] the last Adam was made [48] a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 [49] The first man is of the earth, [50] earthy: the second man is the Lord [51] from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and such [52] are the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, [54] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; [56] We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?

30 why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by [k] that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I fought with beasts at Ephesus, [l] what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: Evil company doth corrupt good manners.

34 [m] Awake up righteously, and sin not; for some have no knowledge of God: I speak this to move you to shame.

35 But some one will say, How are the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come?

36 Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself sowest is

37 not quickened, except it die: and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some 38 other kind; but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and an-

40 other flesh of birds, and another of fishes. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the

41 terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star

42 in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is 44 sown in weakness; it is raised in power: it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

45 So also it is written, The first man Adam became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving 46 spirit. Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; then that which is spirit-

47 ual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the se-

48 cond man is of heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, 49 such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, [n] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth cor-

51 ruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be

52 changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall

1 He exhorteth them to relieve the want of the brethren at Jerusalem. 10 Commendeth Timothy, 13 and after friendly admonitions, 16 shutteth up his epistle with divers salutations.

NOW concerning [1] the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 [2] Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, [3] whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 [4] And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

11 [12] Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth [13] in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother [14] Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 [15] Watch ye, [16] stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, [17] be strong.

14 [18] Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know [19] the house of Stephanas, that it is [20] the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to [21] the ministry of the saints,)

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, by the comforts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, 8 so particularly in his late danger in Asia. 12 And calling both his own conscience and their's to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gospel, 15 he excuseth his not coming to them, as proceeding not of lightness, but of his lenity towards them.

PAUL, [1] an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, [2] with all the saints which are in all Achaia:
2 [3] Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 [4] Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;
4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.
5 For as [5] the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.
6 And whether we be afflicted, [6] it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that [7] as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.
8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of [8] our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy [a] our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the 2 saints which are in the whole of Achaia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 fort; who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we our-
5 selves are comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also
6 aboundeth through Christ. But whether we be afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or whether we be comforted, it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of the same 7 sufferings which we also suffer: and our hope for you is stedfast; knowing that, as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye of the comfort.

pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life :

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should [9] not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead :

10 [10] Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver : in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us ;

11 Ye also [11] helping together by prayer for us, that [12] for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and [13] godly sincerity, [14] not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge ; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end ;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, [15] that we are your rejoicing, even as [16] ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence [17] I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have [18] a second benefit ;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and [19] to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judæa.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness ? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [20] according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay ?

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [21] the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, [22] but in him was yea.

20 [23] For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and [24] hath anointed us, is God ;

22 Who [25] hath also sealed us, and [26] given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover [27] I call God for a record upon my soul, [28] that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for [29] that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy : for [30] by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER II.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, 10 even as himself also upon his true repentance had forgiven him, 12 declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places.

BUT I determined this with myself, [1] that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me ?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, [2] I should have sorrow from them of whom I power, insomuch that we despaired even of life :

9 [b] yea, we ourselves have had the [c] answer of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in our-
10 selves, but in God which raiseth the dead : who delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver : on whom we have [d] set our hope that he will
11 also still deliver us ; ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication ; that, for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abun-
13 dantly to you-ward. For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge,
14 and I hope ye will acknowledge unto the end : as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come before unto you, that ye might have a second [e] benefit ;
16 and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be set 17 forward on my journey unto Judæa. When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew fickleness ? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and 18 the nay nay ? But as God is faithful, our word
19 toward you is not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you [f] by us, even [f] by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was 20 not yea and nay, but in him is yea. For how many soever be the promises of God, in him is the yea : wherefore also through him is the Amen, unto the 21 glory of God through us. Now he that stablisheth us with you [g] in Christ, and anointed us, is God ;
22 [h] who also sealed us, and gave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 But I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to 24 spare you I forbare to come unto Corinth. Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are helpers of 2 your joy : for by [i] faith ye stand. [a] But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again to you
2 with sorrow. For if I make you sorry, who then is he that maketh me glad, but he that is made sorry
3 by me ? And I wrote this very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I

5 But [5] if any have caused grief, he hath not [6] grieved me, but in part : that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted [7] of many.

7 [8] So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be [9] obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also : for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us : for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, [10] when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and [11] a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 [12] I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother : but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest [13] the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, [14] in them that are saved, and [15] in them that perish :

16 [16] To the one we are the savour of death unto death ; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And [17] who is sufficient for these things ?

17 For we are not as many, which [18] corrupt the word of God : but as [19] of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

1 Lest their false teachers should charge him with vainglory, he sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry. 6 Whereupon entering a comparison between the ministers of the law and of the gospel, 12 he proveth that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation.

DO [1] we begin again to commend ourselves ? or need we, as some others, [2] epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you ?

2 [3] Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men :

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ [4] ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God ; not [5] in tables of stone, but [6] in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward :

5 [7] Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves ; but [8] our sufficiency is of God ;

6 Who also hath made us able [9] ministers of [10] the ought to rejoice ; having confidence in you all, that 4 my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears ; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any hath caused sorrow, he hath caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too
6 heavily) to you all. Sufficient to such a one is this 7 punishment which was inflicted by [b] the many ; so that contrariwise ye should [c] rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should 8 be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him.
9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, [d] whether ye are obedient in all
10 things. But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also : for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it in 11 the [e] person of Christ ; that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan : for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and when a door was opened unto me in the 13 Lord, I had no relief for my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother : but taking my leave of them, 14 I went forth into Macedonia. But thanks be unto God, which always leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savour of his 15 knowledge in every place. For we are a sweet savour of Christ unto God, in them that are being 16 saved, and in them that are perishing ; to the one a savour from death unto death ; to the other a savour from life unto life. And who is sufficient for 17 these things ? For we are not as the many, [f] corrupting the word of God : but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

3 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves ? or need we, as do some, epistles of commendation to 2 you or from you ? Ye are our epistle, written in 3 our hearts, known and read of all men ; being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God ; not in tables of stone, but in tables
4 that are hearts of flesh. And such confidence have 5 we through Christ to God-ward : not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from 6 ourselves ; but our sufficiency is from God ; who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new [a] cove-new testament; not [11] of the letter, but of the spirit: for [12] the letter killeth, [13] but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if [14] the ministration of death, [15] written and engraven in stones, was glorious, [16] so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not [17] the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration [18] of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, [19] we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, [20] which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to [21] the end of that which is abolished:

14 But [22] their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless [23] when it shall turn to the Lord, [24] the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now [25] the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding [26] as in a glass [27] the glory of the Lord, [28] are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel, 7 and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same did redound to the praise of God's power, 12 to the benefit of the church, 16 and to the apostle's own eternal glory.

THEREFORE seeing we have [1] this ministry, [2] as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, [3] nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but [4] by manifestation of the truth [5] commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, [6] it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom [7] the god of this world [8] hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest [9] the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, [10] who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 [11] For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus

7 letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death, [b] written, and engraven on stones, came [c] with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which glory [d] was 8 passing away: how shall not rather the ministration
9 of the spirit be with glory? [e] For if the ministration of condemnation is glory, much rather doth the 10 ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the 11 glory that surpasseth. For if that which [f] passeth away was [g] with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

12 Having therefore such a hope, we use great bold-13 ness of speech, and are not as Moses, who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly [h] on the end of that which [d] was pass-14 ing away: but their [i] minds were hardened: for until this very day at the reading of the old [j] covenant the same veil [k] remaineth unlifted; which veil 15 is done away in Christ. But unto this day, whenso-ever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart.
16 But whensoever [l] it shall turn to the Lord, the veil 17 is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
18 But we all, with unveiled face [m] reflecting as a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from [n] the Lord the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as 2 we obtained mercy, we faint not: but we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the 3 sight of God. But and if our gospel is veiled, it is 4 veiled in them that are perishing: in whom the god of this [a] world hath blinded the [b] minds of the unbelieving, [c] that the [d] light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn 5 upon them. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ the Lord; and [12] ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, [13] who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath [14] shined in our hearts, to give [15] the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in [16] earthen vessels, [17] that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are [18] troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; [19] cast down, but not destroyed;

10 [20] Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [21] that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live [22] are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then [23] death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having [24] the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [25] I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that [26] he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For [27] all things are for your sakes, that [28] the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet [29] the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For [30] our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 [31] While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER V.

1 That in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 and in expectance of it, and of the general judgment, he laboureth to keep a good conscience, 12 not that he may herein boast of himself, 14 but as one that, having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live as a new creature to Christ only, 18 and by his ministry of reconciliation to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

FOR we know that if [1] our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [2] we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that [3] being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [4] clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now [5] he that hath wrought us for the selfsame

Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your [e] servants [f] for 6 Jesus' sake. Seeing it is God, that said, Light shall [g] shine out of darkness, who shined in our hearts, to give the [g] light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of 8 God, and not from ourselves; we are pressed on every side, yet not straitened; perplexed, yet not 9 unto despair; pursued, yet not [h] forsaken; smitten
10 down, yet not destroyed; always bearing about in the body the [i] dying of Jesus, that the life also of 11 Jesus may be manifested in our body. For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested
12 in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us,
13 but life in you. But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and there-
14 fore also we speak; knowing that he which raised up [j] the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also with Jesus, 15 and shall present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through [k] the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.

16 Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed 17 day by day. For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceed-
18 ingly an eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our [a] tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the 2 heavens. For verily in this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our habitation which is from 3 heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be 4 found naked. For indeed we that are in this [a] tabernacle do groan, [b] being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal may be swallowed up of 5 life. Now he that wrought us for this very thing is thing is God, who also [6]hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [7]we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and [8]willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 [9]For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; [10]that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore [11]the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but [12]we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For [13]we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion [14]to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For [15]whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that [16]if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, [17]that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 [18]Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, [19]yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man [20]be in Christ, he is [21]a new creature: [22]old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, [23]who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [24]God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are [25]ambassadors for Christ, as [26]though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [27]he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made [28]the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER VI.

1 That he hath approved himself a faithful minister of Christ, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of affliction and disgraces for the gospel. 10 Of which he speaketh the more boldly amongst them, because his heart is open to them, 13 and he expecteth the like affection from them again, 14 exhorting to flee the society and pollutions of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

WE then, as [1]workers together with him, [2]beseech you also [3]that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [4]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee:) behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

God, who gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are 7 absent from the Lord (for we walk by faith, not by 8 [c]sight); we are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at 9 home with the Lord. Wherefore also we [d]make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well-
10 pleasing unto him. For we must all be made manifest before the judgement-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done [e]in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your 12 consciences. We are not again commending ourselves unto you, but speak as giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and 13 not in heart. For whether we [f]are beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober
14 mind, it is unto you. For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that one died
15 for all, therefore all died; and he died for all, that they which live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto him who for their sakes died and 16 rose again. Wherefore we henceforth know no man after the flesh: even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more.
17 Wherefore if any man is in Christ, [g]he is a new creature: the old things are passed away; behold, 18 they are become new. But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and 19 gave unto us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not reckoning unto them their trespasses, and having [h]committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 We are ambassadors therefore on behalf of Christ, as though God were intreating by us: we beseech you on behalf of Christ, be ye reconciled to God.

CHAPTER VII.

1 He proceedeth in exhorting them to purity of life, 2 and to bear him like affection as he doth to them. 3 Whereof lest he might seem to doubt, he declareth what comfort he took in his afflictions, by the report which Titus gave of their godly sorrow, which his former epistle had wrought in them, 13 and of their lovingkindness and obedience towards Titus, answerable to his former boastings of them.

HAVING [1]therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us ; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, [2]we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you : for [3]I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, our 12 heart is enlarged. Ye are not straitened in us, 13 but ye are straitened in your own affections. Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children), be ye also enlarged.

is my glorying of you : [6] I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, [7] when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but [8] we were troubled on every side ; [9] without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless [10] God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by [11] the coming of Titus ;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me ; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, [12] though I did repent : for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance : for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For [13] godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of : [14] but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge ! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, [15] but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort : yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit [16] was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed ; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [17] the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that [18] I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 He stirreth them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 7 by commendation of their former forwardness, 9 by the example of Christ, 14 and by the spiritual profit that shall redound to themselves thereby: 16 commending to them the integrity and willingness of Titus, and those other brethren, who upon his request, exhortation, and commendation, were purposely come to them for this business.

MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia ;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and [1] their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves ;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us [2] the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave great is my glorying on your behalf : I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

5 For even when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side ; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless he that comforteth the lowly, even God, 7 comforted us by the [b] coming of Titus ; and not by his [b] coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me ; so that 8 I rejoiced yet more. For though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it, though I did regret ; [c] for I see that that epistle made you sorry, 9 though but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance : for ye were made sorry after a godly 10 sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance [d] unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret : but the sor- 11 row of the world worketh death. For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what longing, yea, what zeal, yea, what avenging ! In everything ye approved 12 yourselves to be pure in the matter. So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made 13 manifest unto you in the sight of God. Therefore we have been comforted : and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame ; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also, which 15 I made before Titus, was found to be truth. And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, 16 how with fear and trembling ye received him. I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been given in the churches 2 of Macedonia ; how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty 3 abounded unto the riches of their [a] liberality. For according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 beseeching us with much intreaty in regard of this grace and the fellowship in the ministering to the 5 saints : and this, not as we had hoped, but first they their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that [3] we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as [4] ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see [5] that ye abound in this grace also.

8 [6] I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, [7] that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [8] I give my advice : for [9] this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be [10] forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it ; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For [11] if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened :

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want : that there may be equality :

15 As it is written, [12] He that had gathered much had nothing over ; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted [13] the exhortation ; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him [14] the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches ;

19 And not that only, but who was also [15] chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us [16] to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind :

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us :

21 [17] Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you : or our brethren be enquired of, they are [18] the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our [19] boasting on your behalf.

gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the 6 will of God. Insomuch that we exhorted Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also 7 complete in you this grace also. But as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in [b] your love to us, 8 see that ye abound in this grace also. I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love.
9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become 10 rich. And herein I give my judgement : for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning a year ago, not only to do, but also to 11 will. But now complete the doing also ; that as there was the readiness to will, so there may be the 12 completion also out of your ability. For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according as a man 13 hath, not according as he hath not. For I say not this, that others may be eased, and ye distressed :
14 but by equality ; your abundance being a supply at this present time for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want ; that 15 there may be equality : as it is written, He that gathered much had nothing over ; and he that gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which putteth the same 17 earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. For indeed he accepted our exhortation ; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own 18 accord. And we have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is spread through 19 all the churches ; and not only so, but who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of this grace, which is ministered by us to the 20 glory of the Lord, and to shew our readiness : avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter 21 of this bounty which is ministered by us : for we take thought for things honourable, not only in the 22 sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence 23 which he hath in you. Whether any inquire about Titus, he is my partner and my fellow-worker to you-ward ; or our brethren, they are the [c] messengers of 24 the churches, they are the glory of Christ. [d] Shew ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our glorying on your behalf.

CHAPTER IX.

1 He yieldeth the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, yet he sent Titus and his brethren beforehand. 6 And he proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountiful alms, as being but a kind of sowing of seed, 10 which shall return a great increase to them, 13 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings unto God.

FOR as touching [1] the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you :

2 For I know [2] the forwardness of your mind, [3] for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that [4] Achaia was ready a year ago ; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 [5] Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf ; that, as I said, ye may be ready :

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 [6] But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly ; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; [7] not grudgingly, or of necessity : for [8] God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 [9] And God is able to make all grace abound toward you ; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work :

9 (As it is written, [10] He hath dispersed abroad ; he hath given to the poor : his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [11] ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your [12] righteousness ;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, [13] which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only [14] supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God ;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they [15] glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal [16] distribution unto them, and unto all men ;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding [17] grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God [18] for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER X.

Against the false apostles, who disgraced the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth out the spiritual might and authority, with which he is armed against all adversary powers, 7 assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word, as he is now in writing being absent, 12 and withal taxing them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass, and vaunting themselves into other men's labours.

NOW [1] I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, [2] who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you :

2 But I beseech you, [3] that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to

9 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is
2 superfluous for me to write to you : for I know your readiness, of which I glory on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia hath been prepared for a year past ; and [a] your zeal hath stirred up [b] very
3 many of them. But I have sent the brethren, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect ; that, even as I said, ye may be pre-
4 pared : lest by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this
5 confidence. I thought it necessary therefore to intreat the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your afore-promised [c] bounty, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of [d] extortion.

6 But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly ; and he that soweth [e] bountifully
7 shall reap also [e] bountifully. Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart ; not [f] grudgingly, or of necessity : for God loveth a
8 cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound unto you ; that ye, having always all sufficiency in everything, may abound unto every good 9 work : as it is written,

He hath scattered abroad, he hath given to the poor ;
His righteousness abideth for ever.

10 And he that supplieth seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness :
11 ye being enriched in everything unto all [g] liberality,
12 which worketh through us thanksgiving to God. For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of the wants of the saints, but aboundeth also through many thanksgivings unto God ;
13 seeing that through the proving of you by this ministration they glorify God for the obedience of your confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the [g] liberality of your contribution unto them and unto 14 all ; while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the 15 exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

10 Now I Paul myself intreat you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good
2 courage toward you : yea, I beseech you, that I may not when present shew courage with the confidence be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 ([4]For the weapons [5]of our warfare are not carnal, but [6]mighty through God [7]to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 [8]Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 [9]And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when [10]your obedience is fulfilled.

7 [11]Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [12]If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are [13]we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more [14]of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, [15]I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but [16]his bodily presence is weak, and his [17]speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 [18]For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 [19]But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: [20]for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [21]of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 [22]But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For [23]not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [24]whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Out of his jealousy over the Corinthians, who seemed to make more account of the false apostles than of him, he entereth into a forced commendation of himself, 5 of his equality with the chief apostles, 7 of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and without any their charge, 13 shewing that he was not inferior to those deceitful workers in any legal prerogative, 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kind of sufferings for his ministry, far superior.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [1]my folly: and indeed bear with me.

wherewith I count to be bold against some, which 3 count of us as if we walked according to the flesh. For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war accord-4 ing to the flesh (for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the cast-5 ing down of strong holds); casting down [a]imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought 6 into captivity to the obedience of Christ; and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your 7 obedience shall be fulfilled. [b]Ye look at the things that are before your face. If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so 8 also are we. For though I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting 9 you down), I shall not be put to shame: that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.
10 For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong;
but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no 11 account. Let such a one reckon this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are 12 we also in deed when we are present. For we are not bold [c]to number or compare ourselves with certain of them that commend themselves: but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are with-13 out understanding. But we will not glory beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the [d]province which God apportioned to us as a measure, 14 to reach even unto you. For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for we [e]came even as far as unto you in the gospel of 15 Christ: not glorying beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labours; but having hope that, as your faith groweth, we shall be magnified in you according to our [d]province unto further abundance, 16 so as to preach the gospel even unto the parts beyond you, and not to glory in another's [d]province in re-17 gard of things ready to our hand. But he that 18 glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

11 Would that ye could bear with me in a little fool-
2 ishness: [a]nay indeed bear with me. For I am

2 For I am [2] jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [3] I have espoused you to one husband, [4] that I may present you [5] as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as [6] the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds [7] should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or [8] another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose [9] I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though [10] I be rude in speech, yet not [11] in knowledge; but [12] we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence [13] in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [14] I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [15] the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself [16] from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 [17] As the truth of Christ is in me, [18] no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? [19] because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, [20] that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such [21] are false apostles, [22] deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into [23] an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the [24] ministers of righteousness; [25] whose end shall be according to their works.

16 [26] I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [27] I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, [28] in this confidence of boasting.

18 [29] Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, [30] seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, [31] if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, [32] as though we had been weak. Howbeit [33] whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

jealous over you with [b] a godly jealousy: for I espoused you to one husband, that I might present you
3 as a pure virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your [c] minds should be corrupted from the simplicity
4 and the purity that is toward Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different gospel, which ye did
5 not accept, ye do well to bear with him. For I reckon that I am not a whit behind [d] the very chief-
6 est apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet am I not in knowledge; nay, in everything we have 7 made it manifest among all men to you-ward. Or did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of 8 God for nought? I robbed other churches, taking 9 wages of them that I might minister unto you; and when I was present with you and was in want, I was not a burden on any man; for the brethren, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep my-
10 self. As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this glorying in the regions of Achaia.

12 eth. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off [e] occasion from them which desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as 13 we. For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of 14 Christ. And no marvel; for even Satan fashioneth
15 himself into an angel of light. It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may 17 glory a little. That which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confi-18 dence of glorying. Seeing that many glory after 19 the flesh, I will glory also. For ye bear with the 20 foolish gladly, being wise yourselves. For ye bear with a man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalt-21 eth himself, if he smiteth you on the face. I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet whereinsoever any is bold (I speak in 22 foolishness), I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they

CHAPTER XII.

1 For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderful revelations, 9 yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting. 14 He promiseth to come to them again: but yet altogether in the affection of a father, 20 although he feareth he shall to his grief find many offenders, and publick disorders there.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [1]in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one [2]caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [3]paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: [4]yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For [5]though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a [6]thorn in the flesh, [7]the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 [8]For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.

23 the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more abun-
24 dantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.
25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have 26 I been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my [f]countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in 27 the sea, in perils among false brethren; in labour and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, 28 in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. [g]Beside those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for all the churches.
29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is made to 30 stumble, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my weak-
31 ness. The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed [h]for evermore, knoweth that I lie 32 not. In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, in order 33 to take me: and through a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 [a]I must needs glory, though it is not expedient; but I will come to visions and revelations of the 4 body, I know not; God knoweth), how that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 On behalf of such a one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my weaknesses.
6 For if I should desire to glory, I shall not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he
7 seeth me to be, or heareth from me. And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations — wherefore, that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a [b]thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be

Most gladly therefore [9] will I rather glory in my infirmities, [10] that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore [11] I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake : [12] for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become [13] a fool in glorying ; ye have compelled me : for I ought to have been commended of you : for [14] in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though [15] I be nothing.

12 [16] Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 [17] For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that [18] I myself was not burdensome to you ? forgive me [19] this wrong.

14 [20] Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you ; and I will not be burdensome to you : for [21] I seek not your's, but you : [22] for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And [23] I will very gladly spend and be spent [24] for you ; though [25] the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, [26] I did not burden you : nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 [27] Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you ?

18 [28] I desired Titus, and with him I sent a [29] brother. Did Titus make a gain of you ? walked we not in the same spirit ? walked we not in the same steps ?

19 [30] Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you ? [31] we speak before God in Christ : [32] but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that [33] I shall be found unto you such as ye would not : lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults :

21 And lest, when I come again, my God [34] will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many [35] which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and [36] fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 He threateneth severity, and the power of his apostleship against obstinate sinners. 5 And advising them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to a reformation of their sins before his coming, 11 he concludeth his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer.

THIS is [1] the third time I am coming to you. [2] In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 [3] I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time ; and being absent now I write to them [4] which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, [5] I will not spare :

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ [6] speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty [7] in you.

4 [8] For though he was crucified through weakness, ness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the strength of Christ may [c] rest

10 upon me. Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake : for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become foolish : ye compelled me ; for I ought to have been commended of you : for in nothing was I behind [d] the very chiefest apostles, though

12 I am nothing. Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, by signs and 13 wonders and [e] mighty works. For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that I myself was not a burden to you ? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you ; and I will not be a burden to you : for I seek not yours, but you : for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the 15 children. And I will most gladly spend and be [f] spent for your souls. If I love you more abun-

16 dantly, am I loved the less ? But be it so, I did not myself burden you ; but, being crafty, I caught you

17 with guile. Did I take advantage of you by any

18 one of them whom I have sent unto you ? I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you ? walked we not by the same Spirit ? walked we not in the same steps ?

19 [g] Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edify-

20 ing. For I fear, lest by any means, when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not ; lest by any means there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, [h] tu-

21 mults ; lest, when I come again, my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have sinned heretofore, and repented not of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. At the mouth of two witnesses or three shall every

2 word be established. I have said [a] beforehand, and I do say [a] beforehand, [b] as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to them that have sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, if I

3 come again, I will not spare ; seeing that ye seek a proof of Christ that speaketh in me ; who to you-

4 ward is not weak, but is powerful in you : for he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

6 He wondereth that they have so soon left him and the gospel, 8 and accurseth those that preach any other gospel than he did. 11 He learned the gospel not of men, but of God: 14 and sheweth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

PAUL, an apostle, ([1] not of men, neither by man, but [2] by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, [3] who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren [4] which are with me, [5] unto the churches of Galatia:

3 [6] Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 [7] Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us [8] from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed [9] from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

1 PAUL, an apostle (not from men, neither through [a] man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Fa-
2 ther, who raised him from the dead), and all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of
3 Galatia: Grace to you and peace [b] from God the 4 Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil [c] world, according to the will of 5 our God and Father: to whom be the glory [d] for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so quickly removing from him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a 7 [10] Which is not another; but there be some [11] that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though [12] we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you [13] than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For [14] do I now [15] persuade men, or God? or [16] do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 [17] But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For [18] I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but [19] by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that [20] beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and [21] wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, [22] being more exceedingly zealous [23] of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, [24] who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 [25] To reveal his Son in me, that [26] I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with [27] flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years [28] I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But [29] other of the apostles saw I none, save [30] James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, [31] behold, before God, I lie not.

21 [32] Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face [33] unto the churches of Judæa which [34] were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose: 3 and that Titus was not circumcised: 11 and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why he and other, being Jews, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

THEN fourteen years after [1] I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, [2] and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [3] I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of [4] false brethren unawares

7 different gospel; which is not another gospel: only there are some that trouble you, and would pervert
8 the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach [e] unto you any gospel [f] other than that which we preached unto you, let 9 him be anathema. As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that which ye received, let him be 10 anathema. For am I now persuading men, or God? or am I seeking to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a [g] servant of Christ.
11 For I make known to you, brethren, as touching the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not 12 after man. For neither did I receive it from [h] man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ.
13 For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church
14 of God, and made havock of it: and I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age [i] among my countrymen, being more exceedingly 15 zealous for the traditions of my fathers. But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and called me through 16 his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I
17 conferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto Damascus.
18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to [j] visit Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days.
19 But other of the apostles saw I none, [k] save James 20 the Lord's brother. Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.
21 Then I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.
22 And I was still unknown by face unto the churches
23 of Judæa which were in Christ: but they only heard say, He that once persecuted us now preach-
24 eth the faith of which he once made havock; and they glorified God in me.

2 Then [a] after the space of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus
2 also with me. And I went up by revelation; and I laid before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before them who [b] were of repute, lest by any means I should be running,
3 or had run, in vain. But not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be cir-
4 cumcised: [c] and that because of the false brethren brought in, who came in privily to spy out our [5] liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [6] that they might bring us into bondage :

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour ; that [7] the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these [8] who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me : [9] God accepteth no man's person :) for they who seemed to be somewhat [10] in conference added nothing to me :

7 But contrariwise, [11] when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision [12] was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter ;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, [13] the same was [14] mighty in me toward the Gentiles :)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be [15] pillars, perceived [16] the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship ; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor ; [17] the same which I also was forward to do.

11 [18] But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, [19] he did eat with the Gentiles : but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him ; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to [20] the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter [21] before them all, [22] If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews ?

15 [23] We who are Jews by nature, and not [24] sinners of the Gentiles, 16 [25] Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but [26] by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law : for [27] by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found [28] sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin ? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I [29] through the law [30] am dead to the law, that I might [31] live unto God.

20 I am [32] crucified with Christ : nevertheless I live ; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me : and the life which I now live in the flesh [33] I live by the faith of the Son of God, [34] who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God : for [35] if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

privily brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they 5 might bring us into bondage : to whom we gave place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour ; that the truth of the gospel might continue
6 with you. But from those who [d] were reputed to be somewhat ([e] whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me : God accepteth not man's person) — they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to 7 me : but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been intrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the gospel of the circumci-
8 sion (for he that wrought for Peter unto the apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the 9 Gentiles) ; and when they perceived the grace that was given unto me, James and Cephas and John, they who [d] were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the cir-
10 cumcision ; only they would that we should remember the poor ; which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I resisted him
12 to the face, because he stood condemned. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles : but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing them that were of 13 the circumcision. And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him ; insomuch that even Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation.
14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews ?
15 We being Jews by nature, and not sinners of the 16 Gentiles, yet knowing that a man is not justified by [f] the works of the law, [g] save through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law : because by the works of the law
17 shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a minister of sin ? God for-18 bid. For if I build up again those things which I 19 destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. For I through [h] the law died unto [h] the law, that I might 20 live unto God. I have been crucified with Christ ; [i] yet I live ; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me : and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, 21 who loved me, and gave himself up for me. I do not make void the grace of God : for if righteousness is through [h] the law, then Christ died for nought.

CHAPTER III.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang upon the law? 6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham. 10 And this he sheweth by many reasons.

O FOOLISH Galatians, [1] who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey [2] the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye [3] the Spirit by the works of the law, [4] or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? [5] having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by [6] the flesh?

4 [7] Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore [8] that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as [9] Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that [10] they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And [11] the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, [12] In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, [13] Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But [14] that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, [15] The just shall live by faith.

12 And [16] the law is not of faith: but, [17] The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 [18] Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, [19] Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 [20] That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive [21] the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; [22] Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now [23] to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is [24] Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, [25] which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, [26] that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if [27] the inheritance be of the law, [28] it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? [29] It was added because of transgressions, till [30] the seed should come

3 O foolish Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth crucified? 2 This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by [a] the works of the law, or by the [b] hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, [c] are ye now perfected in the flesh? 4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? if it be indeed in vain. 5 He therefore that supplieth to you the Spirit, and worketh [d] miracles [e] among you, doeth he it by [a] the works of the law, or by the [b] hearing of faith? 6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 7 [f] Know therefore that they which be of faith, the same are sons of Abraham. 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God [g] would justify the [h] Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the nations be blessed. 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. 10 For as many as are of [a] the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one which continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. 11 Now that no man is justified [i] by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, The righteous shall live by faith; 12 and the law is not of faith; but, He that doeth them shall live in them. 13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: 14 that upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: Though it be but a man's [j] covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or add- 16 eth thereto. Now to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which 17 is Christ. Now this I say; A [j] covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so 18 as to make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but God hath granted it to Abraham by promise. 19 What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom to whom the promise was made; and it was [31] ordained by angels in the hand [32] of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, [33] but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: [34] for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But [35] the scripture hath concluded [36] all under sin, [37] that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore [38] the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, [39] that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye [40] are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For [41] as many of you as have been baptized into Christ [42] have put on Christ.

28 [43] There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [44] one in Christ Jesus.

29 And [45] if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and [46] heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age. 5 But Christ freed us from the law: 7 therefore we are servants no longer to it. 14 He remembereth their good will to him, and his to them, 22 and sheweth that we are the sons of Abraham by the freewoman.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, [1] were in bondage under the elements of the world:

4 But [2] when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, [3] made [4] of a woman, [5] made under the law,

5 [6] To redeem them that were under the law, [7] that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth [8] the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; [9] and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, [10] when ye knew not God, [11] ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, [12] after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, [13] how turn ye again to [14] the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 [15] Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

the promise hath been made; and it was ordained 20 through angels by the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.
21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have 22 been of the law. Howbeit the scripture hath shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before [k] faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should 24 afterwards be revealed. So that the law hath been our tutor to bring us unto Christ, that we might be 25 justified by faith. But now that faith is come, we 26 are no longer under a tutor. For ye are all sons of 27 God, through faith, in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on 28 Christ. There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female: for ye all are one man in Christ Jesus.
29 And if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant, though he is
2 lord of all; but is under guardians and stewards
3 until the term appointed of the father. So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under 4 the [a] rudiments of the world: but when the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, born of a
5 woman, born under the law, that he might redeem them which were under the law, that we might re-
6 ceive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our 7 hearts, crying, Abba, Father. So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.

8 Howbeit at that time, not knowing God, ye were in bondage to them which by nature are no gods:
9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be known of God, how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly [a] rudiments, whereunto ye desire 10 to be in bondage over again? Ye observe days, and 11 I am afraid of you, [16] lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: [17] ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how [18] through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you [19] at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me [20] as an angel of God, [21] even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, [22] because I tell you the truth?

17 They [23] zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 [24] My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, [25] the one by a bondmaid, [26] the other by a freewoman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman [27] was born after the flesh; [28] but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount [29] Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But [30] Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, [31] Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are [32] the children of promise.

29 But as then [33] he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, [34] even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith [35] the scripture? [36] Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for [37] the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, [38] but of the free.

CHAPTER V.

1 He moveth them to stand in their liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision: 13 but rather love, which is the sum of the law. 19 He reckoneth up the works of the flesh, 22 and the fruits of the Spirit, 25 and exhorteth to walk in the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in [1] the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again [2] with the yoke of bondage.

11 months, and seasons, and years. I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labour upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, brethren, be as I am, for I am as 13 ye are. Ye did me no wrong: but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I preached the 14 gospel unto you the [b] first time: and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor [c] rejected; but ye received me as an angel of God, 15 even as Christ Jesus. Where then is that gratulation [d] of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given 16 them to me. So then am I become your enemy,
17 because I [e] tell you the truth? They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you 18 out, that ye may seek them. But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and 19 not only when I am present with you. My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ
20 be formed in you, yea, I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye 22 not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the 23 freewoman. Howbeit the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but the son by the freewoman
24 is born through promise. Which things contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from mount Sinai, bearing children unto bondage, 25 which is Hagar. [f] Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now 26 is: for she is in bondage with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our 27 mother. For it is written,

> Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;
> Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:
> For more are the children of the desolate than of her which hath the husband.

28 Now [g] we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of 29 promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, 30 even so it is now. Howbeit what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of 31 the freewoman. Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

5 [a] With freedom did Christ set us free: stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage.

8 This persuasion cometh not of him [12] that calleth you.
9 [13] A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.
10 [14] I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but [15] he that troubleth you [16] shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.
11 [17] And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, [18] why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [19] the offence of the cross ceased.
12 [20] I would they were even cut off [21] which trouble you.
13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only [22] use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but [23] by love serve one another.
14 For [24] all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; [25] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.
16 This I say then, [26] Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.
17 For [27] the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: [28] so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
18 But [29] if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.
19 Now [30] the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,
21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that [31] they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
22 But [32] the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, [33] gentleness, [34] goodness, [35] faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: [36] against such there is no law.
24 And they that are Christ's [37] have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.
25 [38] If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive
3 circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. Yea, I testify again to every man that receiveth circum-
4 cision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Ye are [b] severed from Christ, ye who would be justified
5 by the law; ye are fallen away from grace. For we through the Spirit by faith wait for the hope of 6 righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but 7 faith [c] working through love. Ye were running well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey
8 the truth? This persuasion came not of him that 9 calleth you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole
10 lump. I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgement, whosoever he 11 be. But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? then hath the stumbling-12 block of the cross been done away. I would that they which unsettle you would even [d] cut themselves off.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, 14 but through love be servants one to another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this;
15 Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.
16 But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not 17 fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye 18 may not do the things that ye would. But if ye are 19 led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these,
20 fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, fac-
21 tions, divisions, [e] heresies, envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I [f] forewarn you, even as I did [f] forewarn you, that they which practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom
22 of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithful-23 ness, meekness, [g] temperance: against such there is 24 no law. And they that are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also

CHAPTER VI.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped, 2 and to bear one another's burden: 6 to be liberal to their teachers, 9 and not weary of well doing. 12 He sheweth what they intend that preach circumcision. 14 He glorieth in nothing, save in the cross of Christ.

BRETHREN, [1] if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye [2] which are spiritual, restore such an one [3] in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, [4] lest thou also be tempted.

2 [5] Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [6] the law of Christ.

3 For [7] if a man think himself to be something, when [8] he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But [9] let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and [10] not in another.

5 For [11] every man shall bear his own burden.

6 [12] Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 [13] Be not deceived; [14] God is not mocked: for [15] whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 [16] For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And [17] let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, [18] if we faint not.

10 [19] As we have therefore opportunity, [20] let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of [21] the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, [22] they constrain you to be circumcised; [23] only lest they should [24] suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 [25] But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is [26] crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For [27] in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but [28] a new creature.

16 [29] And as many as walk [30] according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon [31] the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for [32] I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, [33] the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 After the salutation, 3 and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, 4 he treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of man's salvation. 13 And because the height of this mystery cannot easily be attained unto, 16 he prayeth that they may come 18 to the full knowledge and 20 possession thereof in Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [1] by the will of God, [2] to the saints which are at Ephesus, [3] and to the faithful in Christ Jesus :

2 [4] Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [5] Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ :

4 According as [6] he hath chosen us in him [7] before the foundation of the world, that we should [8] be holy and without blame before him in love :

5 [9] Having predestinated us unto [10] the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, [11] according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, [12] wherein he hath made us accepted in [13] the beloved.

7 [14] In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [15] the riches of his grace ;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence ;

9 [16] Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure [17] which he hath purposed in himself :

10 That in the dispensation of [18] the fulness of times [19] he might gather together in one [20] all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth ; even in him :

11 [21] In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, [22] being predestinated according to [23] the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will :

12 [24] That we should be to the praise of his glory, [25] who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard [26] the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation : in whom also after that ye believed, [27] ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 [28] Which is the earnest of our inheritance [29] until the redemption of [30] the purchased possession, [31] unto the praise of his glory.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints which are [a] at Ephesus, and the 2 faithful in Christ Jesus : Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with every spiritual bless-
4 ing in the heavenly places in Christ : even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blemish before
5 [b] him in love : having foreordained us unto adoption as sons through Jesus Christ unto himself, according 6 to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, [c] which he freely bestowed on us
7 in the Beloved : in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses,
8 according to the riches of his grace, [d] which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence,
9 having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in 10 him unto a dispensation of the fulness of the [e] times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things [f] in the heavens, and the things upon the earth ; in him, I
11 say, in whom also we were made a heritage, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his will ;
12 to the end that we should be unto the praise of his 13 glory, we who [g] had before hoped in Christ : in whom ye also, having heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation, — in whom, having also be-14 lieved, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, which is an earnest of our inheritance, unto the redemption of God's own possession, unto the praise of his glory.

CHAPTER II.

3 [6]Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in [7]the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and [8]were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, [9]who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 [10]Even when we were dead in sins, hath [11]quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together [12]in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in [13]his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 [14]For by grace are ye saved [15]through faith; and that not of yourselves: [16]it is the gift of God:

9 [17]Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are [18]his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, [19]which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

CHAPTER III.

5 The hidden mystery, 6 that the Gentiles should be saved, 3 was made known to Paul by revelation: 8 and to him was that grace given, that 9 he should preach it. 13 He desireth them not to faint for his tribulation, 14 and prayeth 19 that they may perceive the great love of Christ toward them.

FOR this cause I Paul, [1] the prisoner of Jesus Christ [2] for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of [3] the dispensation of the grace of God [4] which is given me to you-ward:

3 [5] How that [6] by revelation [7] he made known unto me the mystery; ([8] as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge [9] in the mystery of Christ)

5 [10] Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, [11] as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles [12] should be fellowheirs, and [13] of the same body, and [14] partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 [15] Whereof I was made a minister, [16] according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by [17] the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, [18] who am less than the least of all saints, that which is called Circumcision, in the flesh, made 12 by hands; that ye were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, 13 having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were far off are 14 made nigh in the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who made both one, and brake down the mid-

15 dle wall of partition, having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; that he might create in himself of the twain one new man, so making peace;
16 and might reconcile them both in one body unto God through the cross, having slain the enmity
17 thereby: and he came and [d] preached peace to you that were far off, and peace to them that were 18 nigh: for through him we both have our access in 19 one Spirit unto the Father. So then ye are no more strangers and sojourners, but ye are fellow-citizens
20 with the saints, and of the household of God, being built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief corner
21 stone; in whom [e] each several building, fitly framed together, groweth into a holy [f] temple in the Lord;
22 in whom ye also are builded together [g] for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

2 in behalf of you Gentiles, — if so be that ye have heard of the [a] dispensation of that grace of God
3 which was given me to you-ward; how that by revelation was made known unto me the mystery,
4 as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye can perceive my understanding in the mys-
5 tery of Christ; which in other generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets
6 in the Spirit; to wit, that the Gentiles are fellowheirs, and fellow-members of the body, and fellowpartakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through 7 the gospel, whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given 8 me according to the working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, was is this grace given, that [19] I should preach among the Gentiles [20] the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of [21] the mystery, [22] which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, [23] who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 [24] To the intent that now [25] unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places [26] might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 [27] According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and [28] access [29] with confidence by the faith of him.

13 [30] Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations [31] for you, [32] which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom [33] the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, [34] according to the riches of his glory, [35] to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in [36] the inner man;

17 [37] That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, [38] being rooted and grounded in love,

18 [39] May be able to comprehend with all saints [40] what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled [41] with all the fulness of God.

20 Now [42] unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly [43] above all that we ask or think, [44] according to the power that worketh in us,

21 [45] Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth to unity, 7 and declareth that God therefore giveth divers 11 gifts unto men, that his church might be 13 edified, and 16 grown up in Christ. 18 He calleth them from the impurity of the Gentiles, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to cast off lying, and 29 corrupt communication.

I THEREFORE, [1] the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye [2] walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 [3] With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit [4] in the bond of peace.

4 [5] There is one body, and [6] one Spirit, even as ye are called in one [7] hope of your calling;

5 [8] One Lord, [9] one faith, [10] one baptism,

6 [11] One God and Father of all, who is above all, and [12] through all, and in you all.

7 But [13] unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, [14] When he ascended up on this grace given, to preach unto the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to [b] make all men see what is the [c] dispensation of the mystery which from all ages hath been hid in God who created all things; to the intent that now unto the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places might be made known through the church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the [d] eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through [e] our faith in him. Wherefore I ask that [f] ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which [g] are your glory.

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father, from whom every [h] family in heaven and on earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto [i] all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. But unto each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, high, [15] he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 [16] (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also [17] that ascended up far above all heavens, [18] that he might fill all things.)

11 [19] And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, [20] evangelists; and some, [21] pastors and [22] teachers;

12 [23] For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, [24] for the edifying of [25] the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, [26] and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto [27] a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more [28] children, [29] tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [30] wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, [31] whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But [32] speaking the truth in love, [33] may grow up into him in all things, [34] which is the head, even Christ:

16 [35] From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that [36] ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, [37] in the vanity of their mind,

18 [38] Having the understanding darkened, [39] being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [40] blindness of their heart:

19 [41] Who being past feeling [42] have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 [43] If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye [44] put off concerning [45] the former conversation [46] the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [47] be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye [48] put on the new man, which after God [49] is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, [50] speak every man truth with his neighbour: for [51] we are members one of another.

26 [52] Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 [53] Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather [54] let him labour, working with his hands the thing

When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive,
And gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now this, He ascended, what is it but that he also 10 descended [a] into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.)
11 And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and 12 teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of the 13 body of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a full-grown man, unto the measure of the 14 stature of the fulness of Christ: that we may be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men,
15 in craftiness, after the wiles of error; but [b] speaking truth in love, may grow up in all things into him,
16 which is the head, even Christ; from whom all the body fitly framed and knit together [c] through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the 18 vanity of their mind, being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hard-19 ening of their heart; who being past feeling gave themselves up to lasciviousness, [d] to work all un-
20 cleanness with [e] greediness. But ye did not so learn

23 which waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit; and 24 that ye be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, [f] which after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

which is good, that he may have to give [55] to him that needeth.

29 [56] Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but [57] that which is good to the use of edifying, [58] that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And [59] grieve not the holy Spirit of God, [60] whereby ye are sealed unto the day of [61] redemption.

31 [62] Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and [63] evil speaking, be put away from you, [64] with all malice:

32 And [65] be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, [66] forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER V.

2 After general exhortations, to love, 3 to fly fornication, 4 and all uncleanness, 7 not to converse with the wicked, 15 to walk warily, and to be 18 filled with the Spirit, 22 he descendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Christ doth his church.

BE [1] ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;
2 And [2] walk in love, [3] as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God [4] for a sweetsmelling savour.

3 But [5] fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, [6] let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 [7] Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, [8] which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that [9] no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, [10] who is an idolater, [11] hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 [12] Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things [13] cometh the wrath of God [14] upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 [15] For ye were sometimes darkness, but now [16] are ye light in the Lord: walk as [17] children of light:

9 (For [18] the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 [19] Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And [20] have no fellowship with [21] the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather [22] reprove them.

12 [23] For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But [24] all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, [25] Awake thou that sleepest, and [26] arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 [27] See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 [28] Redeeming the time, [29] because the days are evil.

hands the thing that is good, that he may have 29 whereof to give to him that hath need. Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for [h] edifying as the need may be, that it 30 may give grace to them that hear. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were sealed 31 unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and railing, be put 32 away from you, with all malice: and be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave [i] you.

5 Be ye therefore imitators of God, as beloved
2 children; and walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for [a] us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odour of a sweet smell.
3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as be-
4 cometh saints; nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting: but rather giving
5 of thanks. For this ye know of a surety, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the 6 kingdom of Christ and God. Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the sons of disobe-
7 dience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them;
8 for ye were once darkness, but are now light in the 9 Lord: walk as children of light (for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and 10 truth), proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord;
11 and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of 12 darkness, but rather even [b] reprove them; for the things which are done by them in secret it is a 13 shame even to speak of. But all things when they are [c] reproved are made manifest by the light: for 14 everything that is made manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall shine upon thee.

15 Look therefore carefully how ye walk, not as un-16 wise, but as wise; [d] redeeming the time, because the

18 And [33] be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;
19 Speaking to yourselves [34] in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;
20 [35] Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father [36] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;
21 [37] Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
22 [38] Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [39] as unto the Lord.
23 For [40] the husband is the head of the wife, even as [41] Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of [42] the body.
24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands [43] in every thing.
25 [44] Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and [45] gave himself for it;
26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it [46] with the washing of water [47] by the word,
27 [48] That he might present it to himself a glorious church, [49] not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; [50] but that it should be holy and without blemish.
28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
30 For [51] we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 [52] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they [53] two shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
33 Nevertheless [54] let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she [55] reverence her husband.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The duty of children towards their parents, 5 of servants towards their masters. 10 Our life is a warfare, 12 not only against flesh and blood, but also spiritual enemies. 13 The complete armour of a Christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

CHILDREN, [1] obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 [2] Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;
3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And, [3] ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [4] bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
5 [5] Servants, be obedient to them that are your mas-

17 days are evil. Wherefore be ye not foolish, but 18 understand what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be filled
19 [e] with the Spirit; speaking [f] one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making
20 melody with your heart to the Lord; giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus
21 Christ to [g] God, even the Father; subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ.

22 Wives, be in subjection unto your own husbands,
23 as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, 24 being himself the saviour of the body. But as the church is subject to Christ, [h] so let the wives also be
25 to their husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, 26 and gave himself up for it; that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the [i] washing of water with 27 the word, that he might present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and with-
28 out blemish. Even so ought husbands also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth 29 his own wife loveth himself: for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, 30 even as Christ also the church; because we are 31 members of his body. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his 32 wife; and the twain shall become one flesh. This mystery is great: but I speak in regard of Christ 33 and of the church. Nevertheless do ye also severally love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she fear her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this
2 is right. Honour thy father and mother (which is 3 the first commandment with promise), that it may be well with thee, and thou [a] mayest live long on the ters according to the flesh, [6] with fear and trembling, [7] in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 [8] Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 [9] Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, [10] whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye [11] masters, do the same things unto them, [12] forbearing threatening: knowing that [13] your Master also is in heaven; [14] neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and [15] in the power of his might.

11 [16] Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against [17] flesh and blood, but against [18] principalities, against powers, against [19] the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 [20] Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand [21] in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, [22] having your loins girt about with truth, and [23] having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 [24] And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking [25] the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And [26] take the helmet of salvation, and [27] the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 [28] Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and [29] watching thereunto with all perseverance and [30] supplication for all saints;

19 [31] And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth [32] boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 For which [33] I am an ambassador [34] in bonds: that therein [35] I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But [36] that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [37] Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 [38] Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 [39] Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ [40] in sincerity. Amen.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER I.

3 He testifieth his thankfulness to God, and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith, and fellowship in his sufferings. 9 daily praying to him for their increase in grace: 12 he sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorify Christ either by his life or death, 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 and to fortitude in persecution.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints [1] in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 [2] Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [3] I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [4] For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun [5] a good work in you will perform it [6] until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you [7] in my heart; inasmuch as both in [8] my bonds, and in [9] the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [10] ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For [11] God is my record, [12] how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, [13] that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

10 That [14] ye may approve things that are excellent; [15] that ye may be sincere and without offence [16] till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [17] which are by Jesus Christ, [18] unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest [19] in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and [20] strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for [21] the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation

1 PAUL and Timothy, [a] servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi,
2 with the [b] bishops and deacons: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you,
4 always in every supplication of mine on behalf of 5 you all making my supplication with joy, for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the 6 first day until now; being confident of this very thing, that he which began a good work in you will
7 perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ: even as it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because [c] I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers with me of 8 grace. For God is my witness, how I long after 9 you all in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more
10 and more in knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may [d] approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto the 11 day of Christ; being filled with the [e] fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out
13 rather unto the progress of the gospel; so that my bonds became manifest in Christ [f] throughout the 14 whole prætorian guard, and to all the rest; and that most of the brethren in the Lord, [g] being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold 15 to speak the word of God without fear. Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and 16 some also of good will: the one do it of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gos-
17 pel: but the other proclaim Christ of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in 18 my bonds. What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. For I
19 know that this shall turn to my salvation, through

[22] through your prayer, and the supply of [23] the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my [24] earnest expectation and my hope, that [25] in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that [26] with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For [27] I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to [28] depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And [29] having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That [30] your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only [31] let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, [32] that ye stand fast in one spirit, [33] with one mind [34] striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: [35] which is to them an evident token of perdition, [36] but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you [37] it is given in the behalf of Christ, [38] not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 [39] Having the same conflict [40] which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He exhorteth them to unity, and to all humbleness of mind, by the example of Christ's humility and exaltation: 12 to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, 16 and comforts to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth, 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, [1] if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [2] bowels and mercies,

2 [3] Fulfil ye my joy, [4] that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 [5] Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but [6] in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 [7] Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 [8] Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, [9] being in the form of God, [10] thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 [11] But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form [12] of a servant, and [13] was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of 20 Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by 21 life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and 22 to die is gain. [h] But if to live in the flesh,—if this is the fruit of my work, then [i] what I shall 23 choose [j] I wot not. But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ;

24 for it is very far better: yet to abide in the flesh is 25 more needful for your sake. And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy [k] in the faith;
26 that your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in 27 me through my presence with you again. Only [l] let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul striving [m] for the faith of 28 the gospel; and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God;
29 because to you it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to 30 suffer in his behalf: having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit,
2 if any tender mercies and compassions, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be of the same mind, having the same
3 love, being of one accord, [a] of one mind; doing nothing through faction or through vainglory, but in lowliness of mind each counting other better than 4 himself; not looking each of you to his own things,
5 but each of you also to the things of others. Have this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
6 who, [b] being in the form of God, counted it not [c] a
7 prize to be on an equality with God, but emptied himself, taking the form of a [d] servant, [e] being made 8 in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient himself, and [14] became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also [15] hath highly exalted him, and [16] given him a name which is above every name:

10 [17] That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And [18] that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, [19] as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with [20] fear and trembling.

13 For [21] it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things [22] without murmurings and [23] disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, [24] the sons of God, without rebuke, [25] in the midst of [26] a crooked and perverse nation, among whom [27] ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that [28] I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that [29] I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if [30] I be offered upon the sacrifice [31] and service of your faith, [32] I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [33] Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man [34] likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all [35] seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, [36] that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But [37] I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [38] Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and [39] fellowsoldier, [40] but your messenger, and [41] he that ministered to my wants.

26 [42] For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and [43] hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto

9 even unto death, yea, the death of the cross. Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him
10 the name which is above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and [f] things under the 11 earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not [g] as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation
13 with fear and trembling; for it is God which worketh in you both to will and to work, for his good 14 pleasure. Do all things without murmurings and 15 disputings; that ye may be blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye
16 are seen as [h] lights in the world, holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain neither 17 labour in vain. Yea, and if I am [i] offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice 18 with you all: and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good com-
20 fort, when I know your state. For I have no man like-minded, who will care [j] truly for your state.
21 For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus
22 Christ. But ye know the proof of him, that, as a child serveth a father, so he served with me in fur-
23 therance of the gospel. Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go

27 was sick: for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon

29 and that I may be the less sorrowful. Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and hold such 30 in honour: because for the work of [m] Christ he

CHAPTER III.

1 He warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision, 4 shewing that himself hath greater cause than they to trust in the righteousness of the law: 7 which notwithstanding he counteth as dung and loss, to gain Christ and his righteousness, 12 therein acknowledging his own imperfection. 15 He exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

FINALLY, my brethren, [1] rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 [2] Beware of dogs, beware of [3] evil workers, [4] beware of the concision.

3 For we are [5] the circumcision, [6] which worship God in the spirit, and [7] rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though [8] I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 [9] Circumcised the eighth day, [10] of the stock of Israel, [11] of the tribe of Benjamin, [12] an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, [13] a Pharisee;

6 [14] Concerning zeal, [15] persecuting the church; [16] touching the righteousness which is in the law, [17] blameless.

7 But [18] what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss [19] for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having [20] mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but [21] that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and [22] the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might [23] attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already [24] attained, either were already [25] perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, [26] forgetting those things which are behind, and [27] reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 [28] I press toward the mark for the prize of [29] the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be [30] perfect, [31] be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, [32] let us walk [33] by the same rule, [34] let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, [35] be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as [36] ye have us for an ensample.

3 Finally, my brethren, [a] rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not
2 irksome, but for you it is safe. Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the concision:
3 for we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and 4 have no confidence in the flesh: though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man [b] thinketh to have confidence in the flesh,
5 I yet more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew

10 [f] by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, 11 becoming conformed unto his death; if by any means I may attain unto the resurrection from the 12 dead. Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may [g] apprehend that for which also I was appre-
13 hended by Christ Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself [h] yet to have apprehended: but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretch-
14 ing forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the [i] high call-
15 ing of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are otherwise minded, even this shall God 16 reveal unto you: only, whereunto we have already attained, by that same rule let us walk.

CHAPTER IV.

1 From particular admonitions 4 he proceedeth to general exhortations, 10 shewing how he rejoiced at their liberality towards him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his own wants, as for the grace of God in them. 19 And so he concludeth with prayer and salutations.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and [1] longed for, [2] my joy and crown, so [3] stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, [4] that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which [5] laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in [6] the book of life.

4 [7] Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. [8] The Lord is at hand.

6 [9] Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [10] the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, [11] whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 [12] Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and [13] the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [14] your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, [15] therewith to be content.

12 [16] I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

4 Wherefore, my brethren beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be of 3 the same mind in the Lord. Yea, I beseech thee also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 [a] Rejoice in the Lord alway: again I will say,
5 [a] Rejoice. Let your [b] forbearance be known unto all
6 men. The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto 7 God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [c] honourable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are [d] of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be
9 any praise, [e] think on these things. The things which ye both learned and received and heard and saw in me, these things do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I [f] rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length ye have revived your thought for me; [g] wherein ye did indeed take thought, but ye lacked
11 opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therein
12 to be content. I know how to be abased, and I know also how to abound: in everything and in all things have I learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in want.

13 I can do all things [17] through Christ which strengtheneth me.
14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that [18] ye did communicate with my affliction.
15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, [19] no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.
16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.
17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire [20] fruit that may abound to your account.
18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received [21] of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, [22] an odour of a sweet smell, [23] a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.
19 But my God [24] shall supply all your need [25] according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.
20 [26] Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren [27] which are with me greet you.
22 All the saints salute you, [28] chiefly they that are of Cæsar's household.
23 [29] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ It was written to the Philippians from Rome by Epaphroditus.

13 I can do all things in him that strengtheneth me.
14 Howbeit ye did well, that ye had fellowship with 15 my affliction. And ye yourselves also know, ye Philippians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church had fellowship with me in the matter of giving and re-
16 ceiving, but ye only; for even in Thessalonica ye
17 sent once and again unto my need. Not that I seek for the gift; but I seek for the fruit that increaseth

20 ing to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. Now unto our God and Father be the glory [h] for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren
22 which are with me salute you. All the saints salute you, especially they that are of Cæsar's household.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 After salutation he thanketh God for their faith, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 prayeth further for their increase in grace, 14 describeth the true Christ, 21 encourageth them to receive Jesus Christ, and commendeth his own ministry.

PAUL, [1] an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,
2 To the saints [2] and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: [3] Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 [4] We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
4 [5] Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of [6] the love which ye have to all the saints,
5 For the hope [7] which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
6 Which is come unto you, [8] as it is in all the world; and [9] bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [10] the grace of God in truth:
7 As ye also learned of [11] Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you [12] a faithful minister of Christ;

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will
2 of God, and Timothy [a] our brother, [b] to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colossæ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

3 We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord
4 Jesus Christ, praying always for you, having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which
5 ye have toward all the saints, because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel,
6 which is come unto you; even as it is also in all the world bearing fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye heard and knew the grace of 7 God in truth; even as ye learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of

9 [14]For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire [15]that ye might be filled with [16]the knowledge of his will [17]in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 [18]That ye might walk worthy of the Lord [19]unto all pleasing, [20]being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

27 [57] To whom God would make known what is [58] the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles ; which is Christ in you, [59] the hope of glory :

28 Whom we preach, [60] warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom ; [61] that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus :

29 [62] Whereunto I also labour, [63] striving [64] according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER II.

1 He still exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions, 18 worshipping of angels, 20 and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great [1] conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh ;

2 [2] That their hearts might be comforted, [3] being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, [4] to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ ;

3 [5] In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, [6] lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For [7] though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding [8] your order, and the [9] stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 [10] As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him :

7 [11] Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 [12] Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after [13] the tradition of men, after the [14] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For [15] in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 [16] And ye are complete in him, [17] which is the head of all [18] principality and power :

11 In whom also ye are [19] circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in [20] putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ :

12 [21] Buried with him in baptism, wherein also [22] ye are risen with him through [23] the faith of the operation of God, [24] who hath raised him from the dead.

13 [25] And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses ;

14 [26] Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross ;

cording to the [o] dispensation of God which was given 26 me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God, even the mystery which hath been hid [p] from all ages and generations : but now hath it been manifested to his 27 saints, to whom God was pleased to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope
28 of glory : whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we 29 may present every man perfect in Christ ; whereunto I labour also, striving according to his working, which worketh in me [q] mightily.

2 For I would have you know how greatly I strive for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many 2 as have not seen my face in the flesh ; that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the [a] full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of 3 God, [b] even Christ, in whom are all the treasures of 4 wisdom and knowledge hidden. This I say, that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech.
5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As therefore ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, so
7 walk in him, rooted and builded up in him, and stablished [c] in your faith, even as ye were taught, abounding [d] in thanksgiving.

8 [e] Take heed lest there shall be any one that maketh spoil of you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the [f] rudi-
9 ments of the world, and not after Christ : for in him
10 dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily, and in him ye are made full, who is the head of all prin-
11 cipality and power : in whom ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the cir-
12 cumcision of Christ ; having been buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him
13 from the dead. And you, being dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, I say, did he quicken together with him, having for-
14 given us all our trespasses ; having blotted out [g] the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us : and he hath taken it out

15 And [27] having spoiled [28] principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore [29] judge you [30] in meat, or in drink, or in respect [31] of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 [32] Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 [33] Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things [34] which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding [35] the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be [36] dead with Christ from [37] the rudiments of the world, [38] why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 ([39] Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) [40] after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 [41] Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in [42] will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER III.

1 He sheweth where we should seek Christ. 5 He exhorteth to mortification, 10 to put off the old man, and to put on Christ, 12 exhorting to charity, humility, and other several duties.

IF ye then [1] be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where [2] Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 [3] For ye are dead, [4] and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 [5] When Christ, who is [6] our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him [7] in glory.

5 [8] Mortify therefore [9] your members which are upon the earth; [10] fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, [11] evil concupiscence, and covetousness, [12] which is idolatry:

6 [13] For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on [14] the children of disobedience:

7 [15] In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 [16] But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, [17] filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 [18] Lie not one to another, [19] seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which [20] is renewed in knowledge [21] after the image of him that [22] created him:

11 Where there is neither [23] Greek nor Jew, circum-

15 of the way, nailing it to the cross; [h] having put off from himself the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them
in it.

16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a feast day or a new moon or a 17 sabbath day: which are a shadow of the things to 18 come; but the body is Christ's. Let no man rob you of your prize [i] by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, [j] dwelling in the things which he hath [k] seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 and not holding fast the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 If ye died with Christ from the [l] rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, do ye 21 subject yourselves to ordinances, Handle not, nor 22 taste, nor touch (all which things are to perish with the using), after the precepts and doctrines of men?
23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any [m] value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then ye were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on 2 the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the 3 earth. For ye died, and your life is hid with Christ
4 in God. When Christ, who is [a] our life, shall be manifested, then shall ye also with him be manifested in glory.

5 [b] Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil de-6 sire, and covetousness, the which is idolatry; for which things' sake cometh the wrath of God [c] upon 7 the sons of disobedience; [d] in the which ye also walked aforetime, when ye lived in these things.
8 But now put ye also away all these; anger, wrath, malice, railing, shameful speaking out of your 9 mouth: lie not one to another; seeing that ye have 10 put off the old man with his doings, and have put on the new man, which is being renewed unto knowledge after the image of him that created him:

14 [29] And above all these things [30] put on charity, which is the [31] bond of perfectness.

15 And let [32] the peace of God rule in your hearts, [33] to the which also ye are called [34] in one body ; [35] and be ye thankful.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done : and [53] there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. 10 He saluteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

MASTERS, [1] give unto your servants that which is just and equal ; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 [2] Continue in prayer, and watch in the same [3] with thanksgiving ;

3 [4] Withal praying also for us, that God would [5] open unto us a door of utterance, to speak [6] the mystery of Christ, [7] for which I am also in bonds :

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 [8] Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, [9] redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be alway [10] with grace, [11] seasoned and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondman, freeman : but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, 13 longsuffering ; forbearing one another, and forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any ; even as [e] the Lord forgave you, so also do ye :
14 and above all these things put on love, which is the 15 bond of perfectness. And let the peace of Christ [f] rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called 17 your hearts unto God. And whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

18 Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fit-19 ting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and 20 be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing in the 21 Lord. Fathers, provoke not your children, that they 22 be not discouraged. [i] Servants, obey in all things them that are your [j] masters according to the flesh ; not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in single-
23 ness of heart, fearing the Lord : whatsoever ye do, work [k] heartily, as unto the Lord, and not unto men ;

25 Christ. For he that doeth wrong shall [l] receive again for the wrong that he hath done : and there
4 is no respect of persons. [a] Masters, render unto your [b] servants that which is just and [c] equal ; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

7 All my affairs shall Tychicus make known unto you, the beloved brother and faithful minister and 8 fellow-servant in the Lord: whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye may know our estate, and that he may comfort your hearts; to-
9 gether with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things that are done here.

10 Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandments; if he come unto you, re-11 ceive him), and Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision: these only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, men that have 12 been a comfort unto me. Epaphras, who is one of you, a [e] servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always striving for you in his prayers, that ye may stand perfect and fully assured in all the will of 13 God. For I bear him witness, that he hath much labour for you, and for them in Laodicea, and for them
14 in Hierapolis. Luke, the beloved physician, and De-15 mas salute you. Salute the brethren that are in Laodicea, and [f] Nymphas, and the church that is in 16 [g] their house. And when [h] this epistle hath been read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye also read the 17 epistle from Laodicea. And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them Saint Paul was at all times in thanksgiving, and prayer: 5 and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and conversion to God.

PAUL, and [1] Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: [2] Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 [3] We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making

3 [4]Remembering without ceasing [5]your work of faith, [6]and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, [7]your election of God.

5 For [8]our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and [9]in the Holy Ghost, [10]and in much assurance; as [11]ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And [12]ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, [13]with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you [14]sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also [15]in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us [16]what manner of entering in we had unto you, [17]and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And [18]to wait for his Son [19]from heaven, [20]whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us [21]from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER II.

1 In what manner the gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians, and in what sort also they received it. 18 A reason is rendered both why Saint Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

FOR [1]yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at [2]Philippi, [3]we were bold in our God [4]to speak unto you the gospel of God [5]with much contention.

3 [6]For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as [7]we were allowed of God [8]to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; [9]not as pleasing men, but God, [10]which trieth our hearts.

5 For [11]neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; [12]God is witness:

6 [13]Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when [14]we might have been [15]burdensome, [16]as the apostles of Christ.

7 But [17]we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing [18]to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also [19]our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for [20]labouring night and day, [21]because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 [22]Ye are witnesses, and God also, [23]how holily and

3 mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, be-4 fore our God and Father; knowing, brethren be-
5 loved of God, your election, [a]how that our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the [b]Holy Ghost, and in much [c]assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we shewed
6 ourselves toward you for your sake. And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the 7 [b]Holy Ghost; so that ye became an ensample to all
8 that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we 9 need not to speak anything. For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from 10 idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivereth us from the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our entering in 2 unto you, that it hath not been found vain: but having suffered before, and been shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we waxed bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God in much con-
3 flict. For our exhortation is not of error, nor of un-
4 cleanness, nor in guile: but even as we have been approved of God to be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God which 5 proveth our hearts. For neither at any time were we found using words of flattery, as ye know, nor a 6 cloke of covetousness, God is witness; nor seeking glory of men, neither from you, nor from others, when we might have [a]been burdensome, as apostles
7 of Christ. But we were [b]gentle in the midst of you, as when a nurse cherisheth her own children:
8 even so, being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased to impart unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye
9 were become very dear to us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we 10 preached unto you the gospel of God. Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and righteously justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe :

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 [24] That ye would walk worthy of God, [25] who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God [26] without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it [27] not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers [28] of the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus : for [29] ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, [30] even as they have of the Jews :

15 [31] Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and [32] their own prophets, and have persecuted us ; and they please not God, [33] and are contrary to all men :

16 [34] Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, [35] to fill up their sins alway : [36] for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time [37] in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly [38] to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again ; but [39] Satan hindered us.

19 For [40] what is our hope, or joy, or [41] crown of rejoicing ? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [42] at his coming ?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER III.

1 Saint Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians, partly by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them : partly by rejoicing in their well doing : 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

WHEREFORE [1] when we could no longer forbear, [2] we thought it good to be left at Athens alone ;

2 And sent [3] Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith :

3 [4] That no man should be moved by these afflictions : for yourselves know that [5] we are appointed thereunto.

4 [6] For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation ; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, [7] when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, [8] lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and [9] our labour be in vain.

6 [10] But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [11] as we also to see you :

7 Therefore, brethren, [12] we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith :

8 For now we live, if ye [13] stand fast in the Lord.

9 [14] For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God ;

and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you 11 that believe : as ye know how we dealt with each one of you, as a father with his own children, ex-
12 horting you, and encouraging you, and testifying, to the end that ye should walk worthily of God, who [c] calleth you into his own kingdom and glory.
13 And for this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us [d] the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also worketh in you that be-
14 lieve. For ye, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judæa in Christ Jesus : for ye also suffered the same things of your own
15 countrymen, even as they did of the Jews ; who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drave out us, and please not God, and are contrary 16 to all men ; forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved ; to fill up their sins alway : but the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for [e] a short season, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly to see your face with great 18 desire : because we would fain have come unto you, I Paul once and again ; and Satan hindered us.
19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of glorying ? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his [f] com-
20 ing ? For ye are our glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we
2 thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone ; and sent Timothy, our brother and [a] God's minister in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort
3 you concerning your faith ; that no man be moved by these afflictions ; for yourselves know that hereunto
4 we are appointed. For verily, when we were with you, we told you [b] beforehand that we are to suffer affliction ; even as it came to pass, and ye know.
5 For this cause I also, when I could no longer forbear, sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labour
6 should be in vain. But when Timothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as 7 we also to see you ; for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and afflic-
8 tion through your faith : for now we live, if ye
9 stand fast in the Lord. For what thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God ;

10 [15] Night and day [16] praying exceedingly [17] that we might see your face, [18] and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, [19] direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord [20] make you to increase and abound in love [21] one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may [22] stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [23] with all his saints.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth them to go on forward in all manner of godliness, 6 to live holily and justly, 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own business: 13 and last of all to sorrow moderately for the dead. 15 And unto this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgment.

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, [1] that as ye have received of us [2] how ye ought to walk [3] and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is [4] the will of God, even [5] your sanctification, [6] that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 [7] That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 [8] Not in the lust of concupiscence, [9] even as the Gentiles [10] which know not God:

6 [11] That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord [12] is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, [13] but unto holiness.

8 [14] He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [15] who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love [16] ye need not that I write unto you: for [17] ye yourselves are taught of God [18] to love one another.

10 [19] And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, [20] that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and [21] to do your own business, and [22] to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 [23] That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, [24] even as others [25] which have no hope.

14 For [26] if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so [27] them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you [28] by the word of the Lord, that [29] we which are alive and remain unto the 10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our 12 Lord Jesus, direct our way unto you: and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do
13 toward you; to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before our God and Father, at the [c] coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.[d]

4 Finally then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as ye do
2 walk, — that ye abound more and more. For ye know what [a] charge we gave you through the Lord
3 Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanc-4 tification, that ye abstain from fornication; that each one of you know how to possess himself of his
5 own vessel in sanctification and honour, not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles which know not 6 God; that no man [b] transgress, and wrong his brother in the matter: because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we [c] forewarned you and 7 testified. For God called us not for uncleanness,
8 but in sanctification. Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

9 But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are 10 taught of God to love one another; for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound
11 more and more; and that ye [d] study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your 12 hands, even as we charged you; that ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and may have need of nothing.

13 But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow
14 not, even as the rest, which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep [e] in Jesus will God 15 bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [30] the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with [31] the trump of God: [32] and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 [33] Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [34] in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so [35] shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 [36] Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER V.

1 He proceedeth in the former description of Christ's coming to judgment, 16 and giveth divers precepts, 23 and so concludeth the epistle.

BUT of [1] the times and the seasons, brethren, [2] ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that [3] the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [4] sudden destruction cometh upon them, [5] as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 [6] But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all [7] the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 [8] Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but [9] let us watch and be sober.

7 For [10] they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken [11] are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, [12] putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For [13] God hath not appointed us to wrath, [14] but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 [15] Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 [16] Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, [17] to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. [18] And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, [19] warn them that are unruly, [20] comfort the feebleminded, [21] support the weak, [22] be patient toward all men.

15 [23] See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever [24] follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 [25] Rejoice evermore.

17 [26] Pray without ceasing.

18 [27] In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 [28] Quench not the Spirit.

20 [29] Despise not prophesyings.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that aught be written unto
2 you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of 3 the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. When they are saying, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape.
4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day
5 should overtake you [a] as a thief: for ye are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the 6 night, nor of darkness; so then let us not sleep, as 7 do the rest, but let us watch and be sober. For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be
8 drunken are drunken in the night. But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope 9 of salvation. For God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our 10 Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we [b] wake or sleep, we should live together with 11 him. Wherefore [c] exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.

12 But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labour among you, and are over you in the Lord,
13 and admonish you; and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace
14 among yourselves. And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, 15 support the weak, be longsuffering toward all. See that none render unto any one evil for evil; but always follow after that which is good, one toward an-
16 17 other, and toward all. Rejoice alway; pray
18 without ceasing; in everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus to you-ward.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Saint Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience: 11 and therewithal useth divers reasons for the comforting of them in persecution, whereof the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgment of God.

PAUL, [1] and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians [2] in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
2 [3] Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 [4] We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;
4 So that [5] we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God [6] for your patience and faith [7] in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:
5 Which is [8] a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, [9] for which ye also suffer:
6 [10] Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;
7 And to you who are troubled [11] rest with us, when [12] the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,
8 [13] In flaming fire taking vengeance on them [14] that know not God, and [15] that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:
9 [16] Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and [17] from the glory of his power;
10 [18] When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, [19] and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the 2 Lord Jesus Christ; Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to give thanks to God alway for you, brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith
4 groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth; so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in
5 the afflictions which ye endure; which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God; to the end that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom
6 of God, for which ye also suffer: if so be that it is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction
7 to them that afflict you, and to you that are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus
8 from heaven with the angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our

12 [22] That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER II.

1 He willeth them to continue stedfast in the truth received, 3 sheweth that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of antichrist, before the day of the Lord come. 15 And thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and prayeth for them.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, [1] by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, [2] and by our gathering together unto him,

2 [3] That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 [4] Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, [5] except there come a falling away first, and [6] that man of sin be revealed, [7] the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and [8] exalteth himself [9] above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For [10] the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, [11] whom the Lord shall consume [12] with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [13] with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is [14] after the working of Satan with all power and [15] signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in [16] them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And [17] for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, [18] that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but [19] had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But [20] we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God [21] hath [22] from the beginning chosen you to salvation [23] through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to [24] the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, [25] stand fast, and hold [26] the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

us everlasting consolation and [29] good hope through grace,

CHAPTER III.

1 He craveth their prayers for himself, 3 testifieth what confidence he hath in them, 5 maketh request to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idleness, and ill company, 16 and last of all concludeth with prayer and salutation.

FINALLY, brethren, [1] pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you :

2 And [2] that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men : [3] for all men have not faith.

3 But [4] the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and [5] keep you from evil.

4 And [6] we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And [7] the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [8] that ye withdraw yourselves [9] from every brother that walketh [10] disorderly, and not after [11] the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know [12] how ye ought to follow us : for [13] we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you ;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought ; but [14] wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you :

9 [15] Not because we have not power, but to make [16] ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, [17] that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some [18] which walk among you disorderly, [19] working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 [20] Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, [21] that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, [22] be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and [23] have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 [24] Yet count him not as an enemy, [25] but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now [26] the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 [27] The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle : so I write.

18 [28] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

17 and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish them in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is
2 with you ; and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men ; for all have not [a] faith.
3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and 4 guard you from [b] the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do
5 and will do the things which we command. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not
7 after the tradition which [c] they received of us. For yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us : for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you ;
8 neither did we eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in labour and travail, working night and 9 day, that we might not burden any of you : not because we have not the right, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us.
10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, If any will not work, neither let him
11 eat. For we hear of some that walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are busybodies.
12 Now them that are such we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they 13 work, and eat their own bread. But ye, brethren, 14 be not weary in well-doing. And if any man obeyeth not our word by this epistle, note that man, that ye have no company with him, to the end that he 15 may be ashamed. And yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.
17 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle : so I write.
18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right use and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Paul's calling to be an apostle, 20 and of Hymenæus and Alexander.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [1] by the commandment [2] of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, [3] which is our hope ;

2 Unto [4] Timothy, [5] my own son in the faith : [6] Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, [7] when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some [8] that they teach no other doctrine,

4 [9] Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, [10] which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith : so do.

5 Now [11] the end of the commandment is charity [12] out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned :

6 From which some having swerved have turned aside unto [13] vain jangling ;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law ; [14] understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [15] the law is good, if a man use it lawfully ;

9 [16] Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary [17] to sound doctrine ;

11 According to the glorious gospel of [18] the blessed God, [19] which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, [20] who hath enabled me, [21] for that he counted me faithful, [22] putting me into the ministry ;

13 [23] Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious : but I obtained mercy, because [24] I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 [25] And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant [26] with faith [27] and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 [28] This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [29] Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners ; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause [30] I obtained mercy, that

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Saviour, and Christ Jesus
2 our hope ; unto Timothy, my true child in faith : Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at Ephesus, when I was going into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge
4 certain men not to teach a different doctrine, neither to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, the which minister questionings, rather than a [a] dispen-
5 sation of God which is in faith ; so do I now. But the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart
6 and a good conscience and faith unfeigned : from which things some having [b] swerved have turned 7 aside unto vain talking ; desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they
8 say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully,
9 as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for [c] murderers of fathers and [c] murderers of mothers,
10 for manslayers, for fornicators, for abusers of themselves with men, for men-stealers, for liars, for false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary
11 to the [d] sound [e] doctrine ; according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that [f] enabled me, even Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, appoint-
13 ing me to his service ; though I was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious : howbeit I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in un-14 belief ; and the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
15 Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sin-
16 ners ; of whom I am chief : howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, [31] for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [32] the King eternal, [33] immortal, [34] invisible, [35] the only wise God, [36] be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge [37] I commit unto thee, son Timothy, [38] according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest [39] war a good warfare;

19 [40] Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith [41] have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [42] Hymenæus and [43] Alexander; whom I have [44] delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to [45] blaspheme.

CHAPTER II.

1 That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why. 9 How women should be attired. 12 They are not permitted to teach. 15 They shall be saved, notwithstanding the testimonies of God's wrath, in childbirth, if they continue in faith.

I EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 [1] For kings, and [2] for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is [3] good and acceptable in the sight [4] of God our Saviour;

4 [5] Who will have all men to be saved, [6] and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 [7] For there is one God, and [8] one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 [9] Who gave himself a ransom for all, [10] to be testified [11] in due time.

7 [12] Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, ([13] I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) [14] a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray [15] every where, [16] lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that [17] women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 [18] But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But [19] I suffer not a woman to teach, [20] nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For [21] Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And [22] Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

Christ shew forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them which should hereafter believe on 17 him unto eternal life. Now unto the King [g] eternal, incorruptible, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory [h] for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which [i] went before on thee, that by them thou mayest war the 19 good warfare; holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made ship-
20 wreck concerning the faith: of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander; whom I delivered unto Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, [a] that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for 2 all men; for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all
3 godliness and gravity. This is good and accept-4 able in the sight of God our Saviour; who willeth that all men should be saved, and come to the 5 knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, one mediator also between God and men, himself man,
6 Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all;
7 the testimony to be borne in its own times; whereunto I was appointed a [b] preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I desire therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and [c] dis-
9 puting. In like manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls
10 or costly raiment; but (which becometh women 11 professing godliness) through good works. Let a 12 woman learn in quietness with all subjection. But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have domi-
13 nion over a man, but to be in quietness. For Adam
14 was first formed, then Eve; and Adam was not beguiled, but the woman being beguiled hath fallen 15 into transgression: but she shall be saved through [d] the childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

CHAPTER III.

2 How bishops, and deacons, and their wives should be qualified, 14 and to what end Saint Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

THIS [1] is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a [2] bishop, he desireth a good [3] work.

2 [4] A bishop then must be blameless, [5] the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, [6] apt to teach;

3 [7] Not given to wine, [8] no striker, [9] not greedy of filthy lucre; but [10] patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, [11] having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride [12] he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report [13] of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach [14] and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must [15] the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, [16] not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 [17] Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 [18] Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For [19] they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself [20] in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: [21] God was manifest in the flesh, [22] justified in the Spirit, [23] seen of angels, [24] preached unto the Gentiles, [25] believed on in the world, [26] received up into glory.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. 6 And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

NOW the Spirit [1] speaketh expressly, that [2] in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed [3] to seducing spirits, [4] and doctrines of devils;

2 [5] Speaking lies in hypocrisy; [6] having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 [7] Forbidding to marry, [8] and commanding to abstain

3 [a] Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the office
2 of a [b] bishop, he desireth a good work. The [b] bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, soberminded, orderly, given to 3 hospitality, apt to teach; [c] no brawler, no striker;
4 but gentle, not contentious, no lover of money; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children 5 in subjection with all gravity; (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take 6 care of the church of God?) not a novice, lest being puffed up he fall into the [d] condemnation of the 7 devil. Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are without; lest he fall into reproach 8 and the snare of the devil. Deacons in like manner must be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much 9 wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mys-10 tery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as 11 deacons, if they be blameless. Women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, temperate, faith-12 ful in all things. Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
13 For they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come 15 unto thee shortly; but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know [e] how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the liv-16 ing God, the pillar and [f] ground of the truth. And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; [g] He who was manifested in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, received up in glory.

4 But the Spirit saith expressly, that in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to 2 seducing spirits and doctrines of [a] devils, through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, [b] branded in 3 their own conscience as with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, from meats, which God hath created [9] to be received [10] with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For [11] every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, [12] nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But [13] refuse profane and old wives' fables, and [14] exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For [15] bodily exercise profiteth little: [16] but godliness is profitable unto all things, [17] having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 [18] This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore [19] we both labour and suffer reproach, because we [20] trust in the living God, [21] who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 [22] These things command and teach.

12 [23] Let no man despise thy youth; but [24] be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 [25] Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [26] by prophecy, [27] with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 [28] Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both [29] save thyself, and [30] them that hear thee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Rules to be observed in reproving. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders. 23 A precept for Timothy's health. 24 Some men's sins go before unto judgment, and some men's do follow after.

REBUKE [1] not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows [2] that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and [3] to requite their parents: [4] for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 [5] Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and [6] continueth in supplications and prayers [7] night and day.

6 [8] But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 [9] And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, [10] and specially for those of his own house, [11] he hath denied the faith, [12] and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, [13] having been the wife of one man, which God created to be received with thanksgiving

4 by them that believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be 5 rejected, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doc-
7 trine which thou hast followed until now: but refuse profane and old wives' fables. And exercise thyself
8 unto godliness: for bodily exercise is profitable [c] for a little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which now is, and of that
9 which is to come. Faithful is the saying, and worthy 10 of all acceptation. For to this end we labour and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of them
11 that believe. These things command and teach.
12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of 13 life, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give 14 heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the 15 presbytery. Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be 16 manifest unto all. Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father;
2 the younger men as brethren: the elder women as
3 mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. Ho-
4 nour widows that are widows indeed. But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn first to shew piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is acceptable in the 5 sight of God. Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, hath her hope set on God, and continueth
6 in supplications and prayers night and day. But she that giveth herself to pleasure is dead while she liveth.
7 These things also command, that they may be without 8 reproach. But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath denied the faith, 9 and is worse than an unbeliever. Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 [16] And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 [17] I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [18] give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve [19] them that are widows indeed.

17 [20] Let the elders that rule well [21] be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine [30] for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 [31] Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

Christ, [7] and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, [8] knowing nothing, but doting about [9] questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 [10] Perverse disputings of [11] men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [12] supposing that gain is godliness: [13] from such withdraw thyself.

6 But [14] godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For [15] we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And [16] having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But [17] they that will be rich fall into temptation [18] and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, [19] which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 [20] For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 [21] But thou, [22] O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 [23] Fight the good fight of faith, [24] lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, [25] and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 [26] I give thee charge in the sight of God, [27] who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, [28] who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, [29] until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is [30] the blessed and only Potentate, [31] the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 [32] Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; [33] whom no man hath seen, nor can see: [34] to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, [35] nor trust in [36] uncertain riches, but in [37] the living God, [38] who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that [39] they be rich in good works, [40] ready to distribute, [41] willing to communicate;

19 [42] Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may [43] lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, [44] keep that which is committed to thy trust, [45] avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 Which some professing [46] have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶ The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is 4 according to godliness; he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but [d] doting about questionings and disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings,
5 evil surmisings, wranglings of men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, supposing that godli-
6 ness is a way of gain. But godliness with content-7 ment is great gain: for we brought nothing into the 8 world, for neither can we carry anything out; but having food and covering [e] we shall be therewith
9 content. But they that desire to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and per-10 dition. For the love of money is a root of all [f] kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, pa-
12 tience, meekness. Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the life eternal, whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good confession in the 13 sight of many witnesses. I charge thee in the sight of God, who [g] quickeneth all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good 14 confession; that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of 15 our Lord Jesus Christ: which in [h] its own times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, 16 the King of [i] kings, and Lord of [j] lords; who only hath immortality, dwelling in light unapproachable; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power eternal. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this present [k] world, that they be not highminded, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who 18 giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be 19 ready to distribute, [l] willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

20 O Timothy, guard [m] that which is committed unto thee, turning away from the profane babblings and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so 21 called; which some professing have [n] erred concerning the faith.

Grace be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul's love to Timothy, and the unfeigned faith which was in Timothy himself, his mother, and grandmother. 6 He is exhorted to stir up the gift of God which was in him, 8 to be stedfast, and patient in persecution, 13 and to persist in the form and truth of that doctrine which he had learned of him. 15 Phygellus and Hermogenes, and such like, are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended.

PAUL, [1] an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to [2] the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 [3] To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 [4] I thank God, [5] whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that [6] without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 [7] Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance [8] the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and [9] thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance [10] that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For [11] God hath not given us the spirit of fear; [12] but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 [13] Be not thou therefore ashamed of [14] the testimony of our Lord, nor of me [15] his prisoner: [16] but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 [17] Who hath saved us, and [18] called us with an holy calling, [19] not according to our works, but [20] according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus [21] before the world began,

10 But [22] is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, [23] who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 [24] Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 [25] For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: [26] for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to [27] keep that which I have committed unto him [28] against that day.

13 [29] Hold fast [30] the form of [31] sound words, [32] which thou hast heard of me, [33] in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus [a] by the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is
2 in Christ Jesus, to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers in a pure conscience, how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day
4 longing to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I
5 may be filled with [b] joy; having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice;
6 and, I am persuaded, in thee also. For the which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou [c] stir up the gift of God, which is in thee through the laying 7 on of my hands. For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and [d] discipline.
8 Be not ashamed therefore of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but suffer hardship
9 with the gospel according to the power of God; who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus
10 before times eternal, but hath now been manifested by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and incorruption
11 to light through the gospel, whereunto I was appointed a [e] preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher.

15 This thou knowest, that [36] all they which are in Asia be [37] turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord [38] give mercy unto [39] the house of Onesiphorus; [40] for he oft refreshed me, and [41] was not ashamed of [42] my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him [43] that he may find mercy of the Lord [44] in that day: and in how many things he [45] ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER II.

1 He is exhorted again to constancy and perseverance, and to do the duty of a faithful servant of the Lord in dividing the word aright, and staying profane and vain babblings. 17 Of Hymenæus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 He is taught whereof to beware, and what to follow after, and in what sort the servant of the Lord ought to behave himself.

THOU therefore, [1] my son, [2] be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 [3] And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, [4] the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be [5] able to teach others also.

3 [6] Thou therefore endure hardness, [7] as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 [8] No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And [9] if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [10] The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ [11] of the seed of David [12] was raised from the dead [13] according to my gospel:

9 [14] Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, [15] even unto bonds; [16] but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore [17] I endure all things for the elect's sakes, [18] that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 [19] It is a faithful saying: For [20] if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 [21] If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [22] if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 [23] If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [24] he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [25] charging them before the Lord [26] that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But [27] shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

14 love which is in Christ Jesus. [h] That good thing which was committed unto thee guard through the [i] Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all that are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermo-16 genes. The Lord grant mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not 17 ashamed of my chain; but, when he was in Rome,
18 he sought me diligently, and found me (the Lord grant unto him to find mercy of the Lord in that day); and in how many things he ministered at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

2 Thou therefore, my child, be strengthened in the 2 grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things which thou hast heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be 3 able to teach others also. [a] Suffer hardship with me,
4 as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier on service entangleth himself in the affairs of this life; that he may please him who enrolled him as a sol-
5 dier. And if also a man contend in the games, he is not crowned, except he have contended law-
6 fully. The husbandman that laboureth must be the 7 first to partake of the fruits. Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee understanding in all
8 things. Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel:
9 wherein I suffer hardship unto bonds, as a male-
10 factor; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ 11 Jesus with eternal glory. Faithful is the [b] saying: For if we died with him, we shall also live with 12 him: if we endure, we shall also reign with him:
13 if we shall deny him, he also will deny us: if we are faithless, he abideth faithful; for he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them in the sight of [c] the Lord, that they strive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of 15 them that hear. Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, [d] handling aright the word of truth.
16 But shun profane babblings: for they will proceed

18 Who [29] concerning the truth have erred, [30] saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [31] the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord [32] knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 [33] But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; [34] and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 [35] If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and [36] prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but [37] follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that [38] call on the Lord [39] out of a pure heart.

23 But [40] foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And [41] the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, [42] apt to teach, patient,

CHAPTER III.

1 He advertiseth him of the times to come, 6 describeth the enemies of the truth, 10 propoundeth unto him his own example, 16 and commendeth the holy scriptures.

THIS know also, that [1] in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be [2] lovers of their own selves, [3] covetous, [4] boasters, [5] proud, [6] blasphemers, [7] disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 [8] Without natural affection, [9] trucebreakers, false accusers, [10] incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 [11] Traitors, heady, highminded, [12] lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but [13] denying the power thereof: [14] from such turn away.

6 For [15] of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able [16] to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 [17] Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: [18] men of corrupt minds, [19] reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, [20] as their's also was.

10 [21] But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

17 further in ungodliness, and their word will [e] eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is Hymenæus and Phile-18 tus; men who concerning the truth have [f] erred, saying that [g] the resurrection is past already, and 19 overthrow the faith of some. Howbeit the firm foundation of God standeth, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from 20 unrighteousness. Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some unto honour, and 21 some unto dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, meet for the master's use, prepared unto 22 every good work. But flee youthful lusts, and follow after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with them 23 that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. But foolish and ignorant questionings refuse, knowing 24 that they gender strifes. And the Lord's [h] servant must not strive, but be gentle towards all, apt to 25 teach, forbearing, in meekness [i] correcting them that oppose themselves; if peradventure God may give them repentance unto the knowledge of the 26 truth, and they may [j] recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, having been [k] taken captive [l] by the Lord's servant unto the will of God.

3 But know this, that in the last days grievous
2 times shall come. For men shall be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, railers, dis-3 obedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-4 control, fierce, no lovers of good, traitors, headstrong, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of 5 God; holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof: from these also turn away.
6 For of these are they that creep into houses, and take captive silly women laden with sins, led away 7 by divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to 8 come to the knowledge of the truth. And like as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also withstand the truth; men corrupted in mind, 9 reprobate concerning the faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be evident unto 10 all men, as theirs also came to be. But thou didst follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, longsuf-

12 Yea, and [26] all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 [27] But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But [28] continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them ;

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth him to do his duty with all care and diligence, 6 certifieth him of the nearness of his death, 9 willeth him to come speedily unto him, and to bring Marcus with him, and certain other things which he wrote for, 14 warneth him to beware of Alexander the smith, 16 informeth him what had befallen him at his first answering, 19 and soon after he concludeth.

I [1] CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, [2] who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom ;

2 Preach the word ; be instant in season, out of season ; reprove, [3] rebuke, [4] exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 [5] For the time will come when they will not endure [6] sound doctrine ; [7] but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears ;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and [8] shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, [9] endure afflictions, do the work of [10] an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For [11] I am now ready to be offered, and the time of [12] my departure is at hand.

7 [13] I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith :

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me [14] a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me [15] at that day : and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me :

10 For [16] Demas hath forsaken me, [17] having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica ; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 [18] Only [19] Luke is with me. Take [20] Mark, and bring him with thee : for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And [21] Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

11 fering, love, patience, persecutions, sufferings ; what things befell me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra ; what persecutions I endured : and out of them all
12 the Lord delivered me. Yea, and all that would live
13 godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, 14 deceiving and being deceived. But abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of [a] whom thou hast learned
15 them ; and that from a babe thou hast known the sacred writings which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
16 [b] Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for [c] instruc-
17 tion which is in righteousness : that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work.

4 [a] I charge thee in the sight of God, and of Christ Jesus, who shall judge the quick and the dead, and 2 by his appearing and his kingdom ; preach the word ; be instant in season, out of season ; [b] reprove, rebuke,
3 exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. For the time will come when they will not endure the [c] sound [d] doctrine ; but, having itching ears, will heap to 4 themselves teachers after their own lusts ; and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside
5 unto fables. But be thou sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy 6 ministry. For I am already being [e] offered, and the 7 time of my departure is come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept 8 the faith : henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day : and not only to me, but also to all them that have loved his appearing.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER I.

1 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 6 How they that are to be chosen ministers ought to be qualified. 11 The mouths of evil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and [1] the acknowledging of the truth [2] which is after godliness;
2 [3] In hope of eternal life, which God, [4] that cannot lie, promised [5] before the world began;
3 [6] But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, [7] which is committed unto me [8] according to the commandment of God our Saviour;
4 To [9] Titus, [10] mine own son after [11] the common faith: [12] Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.
5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest [13] set in order the things that are wanting, and [14] ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:
6 [15] If any be blameless, [16] the husband of one wife, [17] having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

of God ; not selfwilled, not soon angry, [19] not given to wine, no striker, [20] not given to filthy lucre ;

8 [21] But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate ;

9 [22] Holding fast [23] the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able [24] by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For [25] there are many unruly and vain talkers and [26] deceivers, [27] specially they of the circumcision :

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, [28] who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, [29] for filthy lucre's sake.

12 [30] One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. [31] Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be [32] sound in the faith ;

14 [33] Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and [34] commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 [35] Unto the pure all things are pure : but [36] unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure ; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God ; but [37] in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, [38] and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAPTER II.

1 Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. 9 Of the duty of servants, and in general of all Christians.

BUT speak thou the things which become [1] sound doctrine :

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, [2] sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 [3] The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things ;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, [4] to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, [5] obedient to their own husbands, [6] that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 [7] In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works : in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, [8] sincerity,

8 [9] Sound speech, that cannot be condemned ; [10] that he that is of the contrary part [11] may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort [12] servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well [13] in all things ; not answering again ;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity ; [14] that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For [15] the grace of God that bringeth salvation [16] hath appeared to all men, blameless, as God's steward ; not selfwilled, not soon angry, [e] no brawler, no striker, not greedy of 8 filthy lucre ; but given to hospitality, a lover of 9 good, soberminded, just, holy, temperate ; holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the [f] sound [g] doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and 11 deceivers, specially they of the circumcision, whose mouths must be stopped ; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for 12 filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are alway liars, evil beasts, 13 idle [h] gluttons. This testimony is true. For which cause reprove them sharply, that they may be [i] sound 14 in the faith, not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the 15 truth. To the pure all things are pure : but to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure ; but both their mind and their conscience are 16 defiled. They profess that they know God ; but by their works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

2 But speak thou the things which befit the [a] sound
2 [b] doctrine : that aged men be temperate, grave, soberminded, [c] sound in faith, in love, in patience :
3 that aged women likewise be reverent in demeanour, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine,
4 teachers of that which is good ; that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love
5 their children, to be soberminded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed :
6 the younger men likewise exhort to be soberminded :
7 in all things shewing thyself an ensample of good works ; in thy doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gra-
8 vity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned ; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, hav-
9 ing no evil thing to say of us. Exhort [d] servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things ; not gainsaying ;
10 not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity ; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in 11 all things. For the grace of God [e] hath appeared,

CHAPTER III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach. 10 He is willed also to reject obstinate hereticks: 12 which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he should come unto him, and so concludeth.

PUT them in mind [1] to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, [2] to be ready to every good work,

2 [3] To speak evil of no man, [4] to be no brawlers, but [5] gentle, shewing all [6] meekness unto all men.

3 For [7] we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that [8] the kindness and love of [9] God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 [10] Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by [11] the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 [12] Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 [13] That being justified by his grace, [14] we should be made heirs [15] according to the hope of eternal life.

8 [16] This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful [17] to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But [18] avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; [19] for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick [20] after the first and second admonition [21] reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, [22] being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or [23] Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and [24] Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let our's also learn [25] to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be [26] not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

4 He rejoiceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgive his servant Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him again.

PAUL, [1] a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, [2] and fellowlabourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and [3] Archippus [4] our fellowsoldier, and to [5] the church in thy house :

3 [6] Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [7] I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 [8] Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints ;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual [9] by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints [10] are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, [11] though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, [12] and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son [13] Onesimus, [14] whom I have begotten in my bonds :

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me :

12 Whom I have sent again : thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels :

13 Whom I would have retained with me, [15] that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel :

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing ; [16] that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 [17] For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever ;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, [18] a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, [19] both in the flesh, and in the Lord ?

17 If thou count me therefore [20] a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account ;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord : [21] refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 [22] Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

1 PAUL, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy
[a] our brother, to Philemon our beloved and fellow-
2 worker, and to Apphia [b] our sister, and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house :
3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always, making mention of thee 5 in my prayers, hearing of [c] thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and 6 toward all the saints ; that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the knowledge of 7 every good thing which is in [d] you, unto Christ. For I had much joy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I have all boldness in Christ
9 to enjoin thee that which is befitting, yet for love's sake I rather beseech, being such a one as Paul [e] the aged, and now a prisoner also of Christ Jesus :
10 I beseech thee for my child, whom I have begot-11 ten in my bonds, [f] Onesimus, who was aforetime unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee 12 and to me : whom I have sent back to thee in his 13 own person, that is, my very heart : whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might 14 minister unto me in the bonds of the gospel : but without thy mind I would do nothing ; that thy goodness should not be as of necessity, but of free 15 will. For perhaps he was therefore parted from thee for a season, that thou shouldest have him 16 for ever ; no longer as a [g] servant, but more than a [g] servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much rather to thee, both in the flesh and in 17 the Lord. If then thou countest me a partner, re-18 ceive him as myself. But if he hath wronged thee at all, or oweth thee aught, put that to mine account ; 19 I Paul write it with mine own hand, I will repay it :
that I say not unto thee how that thou owest to me 20 even thine own self besides. Yea, brother, let me have [h] joy of thee in the Lord : refresh my heart 21 in Christ. Having confidence in thine obedience I write unto thee, knowing that thou wilt do even be-

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for [23] I trust that [24] through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee [25] Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 [26] Marcus, [27] Aristarchus, [28] Demas, [29] Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

25 [30] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to Philemon, by Onesimus, a servant.

22 yond what I say. But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I hope that through your prayers I shall be granted unto you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus,

24 saluteth thee; and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow-workers.

25 The grace of [i] our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. [j] Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Christ in these last times coming to us from the Father, 4 is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

GOD, who at sundry times and [1] in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath [2] in these last days [3] spoken unto us by his Son, [4] whom he hath appointed heir of all things, [5] by whom also he made the worlds;

3 [6] Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and [7] upholding all things by the word of his power, [8] when he had by himself purged our sins, [9] sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as [10] he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [11] Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [12] I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in [13] the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, [14] And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, [15] Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, [16] Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [17] hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [18] Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

1 GOD, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers

2 manners, hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in [a] his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things,

3 through whom also he made the [b] worlds; who being the effulgence of his glory, and [c] the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than 5 they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time,

Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee?

and again,

I will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?

6 [d] And when he again [e] bringeth in the firstborn into [f] the world he saith, And let all the angels of God

7 worship him. And of the angels he saith,

Who maketh his angels [g] winds,
And his ministers a flame of fire:

8 but of the Son he saith,

Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever;
And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of [h] thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee
With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And,

Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the works of thy hands:

CHAPTER II.

1 We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 5 and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was necessary.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.
2 For if the word [1] spoken by angels was stedfast, and [2] every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;
3 [3] How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; [4] which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was [5] confirmed unto us by them that heard him;
4 [6] God also bearing them witness, [7] both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and [8] gifts of the Holy Ghost, [9] according to his own will?
5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection [10] the world to come, whereof we speak.
6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [11] What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:
8 [12] Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now [13] we see not yet all things put under him.
9 But we see Jesus, [14] who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, [15] crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death [16] for every man.
10 [17] For it became him, [18] for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make [19] the captain of their salvation [20] perfect through sufferings.
11 For [21] both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified [22] are all of one: for which cause [23] he is not ashamed to call them brethren,
12 Saying, [24] I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.
13 And again, [25] I will put my trust in him. And again, [26] Behold I and the children [27] which God hath given me.

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply we drift

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he [28]also himself likewise took part of the same; [29]that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
15 And deliver them who [30]through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.
17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him [31]to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be [32]a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
18 [33]For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy punishment than hardhearted Israel.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of [1]the heavenly calling, consider [2]the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;
2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also [3]Moses was faithful in all his house.
3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as [4]he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.
4 For every house is builded by some man; but [5]he that built all things is God.
5 [6]And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as [7]a servant, [8]for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
6 But Christ as [9]a son over his own house; [10]whose house are we, [11]if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.
7 Wherefore (as [12]the Holy Ghost saith, [13]To day if ye will hear his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
11 So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)
12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, [14]if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;
15 While it is said, [15]To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
16 [16]For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

14 me. Since then the children are sharers in [i]flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he [j]might bring to nought him that [k]had the power of death, that is, the devil;
15 and [j]might deliver all them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
16 For verily not of angels doth he take hold, but he 17 taketh hold of the seed of Abraham. Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make pro-
18 pitiation for the sins of the people. [l]For [m]in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

3 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our
2 confession, even Jesus; who was faithful to him that [a]appointed him, as also was Moses in all [b]his house.
3 For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he that [c]built the house hath
4 more honour than the house. For every house is [c]builded by some one; but he that [c]built all things
5 is God. And Moses indeed was faithful in all [b]his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things
6 which were afterward to be spoken; but Christ as a son, over [b]his house; whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness and the glorying of our hope firm
7 unto the end. Wherefore, even as the Holy Ghost saith,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,
Like as in the day of the temptation in the wilderness,
9 [d]Wherewith your fathers tempted me by proving me,
And saw my works forty years.
10 Wherefore I was displeased with this generation,
And said, They do alway err in their heart:
But they did not know my ways;
11 As I sware in my wrath,
[e]They shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away
13 from the living God: but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of 14 you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin: for we are become partakers [f]of Christ, if we hold fast the 15 beginning of our confidence firm unto the end: while it is said,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For who, when they heard, did provoke? nay, did not all they that came out of Egypt by Moses?

CHAPTER IV.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 By our high priest Jesus the Son of God, subject to infirmities, but not sin, 16 we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LET [1] us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
3 [2] For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, [3] As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, [4] And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.
5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, [5] and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:
7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David,
To day, after so long a time; as it is said, [6] To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.
10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall [7] after the same example of unbelief.
12 For the word of God is [8] quick, and powerful, and [9] sharper than any [10] twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is [11] a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 [12] Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked [13] and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
14 Seeing then that we have [14] a great high priest,
[15] that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God,
[16] let us hold fast our profession.
15 For [17] we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but [18] was in all points tempted like as we are, [19] yet without sin.
16 [20] Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

17 And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, whose [g] carcases fell in 18 the wilderness? And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were 19 disobedient? And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should 2 seem to have come short of it. For indeed we have had [a] good tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but the word of hearing did not profit them, because [b] they were not united by faith with them
3 that heard. [c] For we which have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said,

As I sware in my wrath,
[d] They shall not enter into my rest:

although the works were finished from the founda-4 tion of the world. For he hath said somewhere of the seventh day on this wise, And God rested on the 5 seventh day from all his works; and in this place again,

[d] They shall not enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some should enter thereinto, and they to whom [e] the good tidings were before preached failed to enter in because of 7 disobedience, he again defineth a certain day, [f] saying in David, after so long a time, To-day, as it hath been before said,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts.

8 For if [g] Joshua had given them rest, he would not 9 have spoken afterward of another day. There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of 10 God. For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also rested from his works, as God did from 11 his. Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall [h] after the same example 12 of disobedience. For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the 13 thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
14 Having then a great high priest, who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us 15 hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points 16 tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

CHAPTER V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviour's priesthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

FOR every high priest taken from among men [1] is ordained for men [2] in things pertaining to God, [3] that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins :

2 [4] Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way ; for that [5] he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And [6] by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 [7] And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as [8] was Aaron.

5 [9] So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest ; but he that said unto him, [10] Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [11] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had [12] offered up prayers and supplications [13] with strong crying and tears unto him [14] that was able to save him from death, and was heard [15] in that he feared ;

8 [16] Though he were a Son, yet learned he [17] obedience by the things which he suffered ;

9 And [18] being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him ;

10 Called of God an high priest [19] after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom [20] we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are [21] dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be [22] the first principles of the oracles of God ; and are become such as have need of [23] milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness : for he is [24] a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised [25] to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER VI.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be stedfast, 12 diligent, and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

THEREFORE [1] leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection ; not laying again the foundation of repentance [2] from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 [3] Of the doctrine of baptisms, [4] and of laying on of hands, [5] and of resurrection of the dead, [6] and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, [7] if God permit.

4 For [8] it is impossible for those [9] who were once enlightened, and have tasted of [10] the heavenly gift, and [11] were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of [12] the world to come,

5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for
2 sins : who can bear gently with the ignorant and erring, for that he himself also is compassed with 3 infirmity ; and by reason thereof is bound, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
4 And no man taketh the honour unto himself, but 5 when he is called of God, even as was Aaron. So Christ also glorified not himself to be made a high priest, but he that spake unto him,

Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee :

6 as he saith also in another place,

Thou art a priest for ever
After the order of Melchizedek.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him [a] from death, and having been heard for his godly fear,
8 though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the 9 things which he suffered ; and having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the 10 [b] author of eternal salvation ; named of God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.
11 Of [c] whom we have many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hear-12 ing. For when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again [d] that some one teach you the rudiments of the [e] first principles of the oracles of God ; and are become such as have 13 need of milk, and not of solid food. For every one that partaketh of milk is without experience of the 14 word of righteousness ; for he is a babe. But solid food is for [f] fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 Wherefore let us [a] cease to speak of the first principles of Christ, and press on unto [b] perfection ; not laying again a foundation of repentance from 2 dead works, and of faith toward God, [c] of the teaching of [d] baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgement.
3 4 And this will we do, if God permit. For as touching those who were once enlightened [e] and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partak-
5 ers of the Holy Ghost, and [f] tasted the good word of

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, [14] receiveth blessing from God :

8 [15] But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing ; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 [16] For [17] God is not unrighteous to forget [18] your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have [19] ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that [20] every one of you do shew the same diligence [21] to the full assurance of hope unto the end :

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience [22] inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, [23] he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater : and [24] an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [25] the heirs of promise [26] the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath :

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [27] set before us :

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, [28] and which entereth into that within the veil ;

20 [29] Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, [30] made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so, far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

FOR this [1] Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him ;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all ; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace ;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life ; but made like unto the Son of God ; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, [2] unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [3] they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law,

6 God, and the powers of the age to come, and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance ; [g] seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the land which hath drunk the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing

8 from God : but if it beareth thorns and thistles, it is rejected and nigh unto a curse ; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that [h] accompany salvation, though

10 we thus speak : for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and the love which ye shewed toward his name, in that ye ministered unto the saints, and

11 still do minister. And we desire that each one of you may shew the same diligence unto the [i] fulness

12 of hope even to the end : that ye be not sluggish, but imitators of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he sware by him-

14 self, saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and 15 multiplying I will multiply thee. And thus, having

16 patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men swear by the greater : and in every dispute of

17 theirs the oath is final for confirmation. Wherein God, being minded to shew more abundantly unto the heirs of the promise the immutability of his

18 counsel, [j] interposed with an oath : that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before

19 us ; which we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and stedfast and entering into that which 20 is within the veil ; whither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from

2 the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King

3 of peace ; without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the 5 chief spoils. And they indeed of the sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham :

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, [4] and blessed [5] him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes ; but there he receiveth them, [6] of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 [7] If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron ?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that [8] our Lord sprang out of Juda ; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident : for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [9] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for [10] the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For [11] the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of [12] a better hope did ; by the which [13] we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made without an oath ; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, [14] The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec :)

22 By so much [15] was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death :

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [16] to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, [17] who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [18] and made higher than the heavens ;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [19] first for his own sins, [20] and then for the people's : for [21] this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh [22] men high priests which that is, of their brethren, though these have come 6 out of the loins of Abraham : but he whose genealogy is not counted from them hath taken tithes of Abraham, and hath blessed him that hath the pro-

7 mises. But without any dispute the less is blessed of 8 the better. And here men that die receive tithes ; but there one, of whom it is witnessed that he 9 liveth. And, so to say, through Abraham even 10 Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes ; for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, 12 and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron ? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of 13 necessity a change also [a] of the law. For he of whom these things are said [b] belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at 14 the altar. For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah ; as to which tribe Moses spake 15 nothing concerning priests. And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of 16 Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, who hath been made, not after the law of a carnal command-17 ment, but after the power of an [c] endless life : for it is witnessed of him,

Thou art a priest for ever
After the order of Melchizedek.

18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness 19 (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better hope, through which we 20 draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch as it is not 21 without the taking of an oath (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath ; but he with an oath [d] by him that saith [e] of him,

The Lord sware and will not repent himself,
Thou art a priest for ever) ;

22 by so much also hath Jesus become the surety of 23 a better [f] covenant. And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death
24 they are hindered from continuing : but he, because he abideth for ever, [g] hath his priesthood [h] un-
25 changeable. Wherefore also he is able to save [i] to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest became us, holy, guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher
27 than the heavens ; who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people : for this he 28 did once for all, when he offered up himself. For the law appointeth men high priests, having infir-

CHAPTER VIII.

1 By the eternal priesthood of Christ the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished. 7 And the temporal covenant with the fathers, by the eternal covenant of the gospel.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, [1] who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of [2] the sanctuary, and of [3] the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For [4] every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore [5] it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [6] shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: [7] for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now [8] hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 [9] For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [10] Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For [11] this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and [12] I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And [13] they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, [14] and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 [15] In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, 11 far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and [1] a worldly sanctuary.

2 [2] For there was a tabernacle made; the first, [3] wherein was [4] the candlestick, and [5] the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

mity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth a Son, perfected for evermore.

8 [a] Now [b] in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a high priest, who 2 sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of [c] the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched,
3 not man. For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have somewhat to offer.
4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who offer the gifts ac-
5 cording to the law; who serve that which is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is warned of God when he is about to [d] make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was shewed thee in the 6 mount. But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by how much also he is the mediator of a better [e] covenant, which hath been enacted upon 7 better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for 8 a second. For finding fault with them, he saith,

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord,
That I will [f] make a new [e] covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;
9 Not according to the [e] covenant that I made with their fathers
In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt;
For they continued not in my [e] covenant,
And I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
10 For this is the [e] covenant that [g] I will make with the house of Israel
After those days, saith the Lord;
I will put my laws into their mind,
And on their heart also will I write them:
And I will be to them a God,
And they shall be to me a people:
11 And they shall not teach every man his fellow-citizen,
And every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord:
For all shall know me,
From the least to the greatest of them.
12 For I will be merciful to their iniquities,
And their sins will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.

9 Now even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and its sanctuary, a sanctuary of this
2 world. For there was a tabernacle prepared, the first, wherein [a] were the candlestick, and the table, and [b] the shewbread; which is called the Holy place.

3 [6] And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;
4 Which had the golden censer, and [7] the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [8] the golden pot that had manna, and [9] Aaron's rod that budded, and [10] the tables of the covenant;
5 And [11] over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.
6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [12] the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.
7 But into the second went the high priest alone [13] once every year, not without blood, [14] which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:
8 [15] The Holy Ghost this signifying, that [16] the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:
9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, [17] that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;
10 Which stood only in [18] meats and drinks, and [19] divers washings, [20] and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.
11 But Christ being come [21] an high priest [22] of good things to come, [23] by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;
12 Neither [24] by the blood of goats and calves, but [25] by his own blood he entered in [26] once into the holy place, [27] having obtained eternal redemption for us.
13 For if [28] the blood of bulls and of goats, and [29] the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:
14 How much more [30] shall the blood of Christ, [31] who through the eternal Spirit [32] offered himself without spot to God, [33] purge your conscience from [34] dead works [35] to serve the living God?
15 [36] And for this cause [37] he is the mediator of the new testament, [38] that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, [39] they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.
17 For [40] a testament is of force after men are dead:
otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.
18 [41] Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.
19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, [42] he took the blood of calves and of goats, [43] with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

3 And after the second [illegible]
4 called the Holy of holies; [illegible] and the ark of the covenant [illegible] with gold, wherein [d] was a golden [illegible] manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, [illegible]
5 of the covenant; and above it cherubi[illegible] overshadowing [e] the mercy-seat; of which th[illegible] 6 cannot now speak severally. Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services; 7 but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offereth for him-8 self, and for the [f] errors of the people: the Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holy place hath not yet been made manifest, while as the 9 first tabernacle is yet standing; which is a parable for the time now present; according to which are offered both gifts and sacrifices that cannot, as touching the conscience, make the worshipper per-10 fect, being only (with meats and drinks and divers washings) carnal ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

11 But Christ having come a high priest of [g] the good things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, 12 not of this creation, nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained 13 eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the 14 flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse [h] your conscience from 15 dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of a new [i] covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first [i] covenant, they that have been called may receive the promise 16 of the eternal inheritance. For where a [i] testament is, there must of necessity [j] be the death of him that 17 made it. For a [i] testament is of force [k] where there hath been death: [l] for doth it ever avail while he 18 that made it liveth? Wherefore even the first co- 19 venant hath not been dedicated without blood. For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled

23 It was therefore necessary that [47] the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For [48] Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of [49] the true; but into heaven itself, now [50] to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as [51] the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now [52] once [53] in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 [54] And as it is appointed unto men once to die, [55] but after this the judgment:

28 So [56] Christ was once [57] offered to bear the sins [58] of many; and unto them that [59] look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER X.

1 The weakness of the law sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered, 14 for ever hath taken away sins. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOR the law having [1] a shadow [2] of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [3] can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto [4] perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 [5] But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For [6] it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, [7] Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 [8] By the which will we are sanctified [9] through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [10] daily ministering and

20 both the book itself, and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the [m] covenant which God commanded
21 to you-ward. Moreover the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner
22 with the blood. And according to the law, I may almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.
23 It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sa-
24 crifices than these. For Christ entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before
25 the face of God for us: nor yet that he should offer himself often; as the high priest entereth into the 26 holy place year by year with blood not his own; else must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once at the [n] end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin [o] by the 27 sacrifice of himself. And inasmuch as it is [p] appointed unto men once to die, and after this cometh
28 judgement; so Christ also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time, apart from sin, to them that wait for him, unto salvation.

10 For the law having a shadow of the good things to come, not the very image of the things, [a] they can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect them that draw
2 nigh. Else would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed,
3 would have had no more conscience of sins? But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance made of sins
4 year by year. For it is impossible that the blood of 5 bulls and goats should take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith,

Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,
But a body didst thou prepare for me;
6 In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure:
7 Then said I, Lo, I am come
(In the roll of the book it is written of me)
To do thy will, O God.

8 Saying above, Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are 9 offered according to the law), then hath he said, Lo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the 10 first, that he may establish the second. [b] By which will we have been sanctified through the offering of 11 the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every [c] priest indeed standeth day by day ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, [11] which can never take away sins:

12 [12] But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting [13] till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering [14] he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 [15] This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, [16] boldness to enter [17] into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By [18] a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, [19] through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having [20] an high priest over [21] the house of God;

22 [22] Let us draw near with a true heart [23] in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled [24] from an evil conscience, and [25] our bodies washed with pure water.

23 [26] Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for [27] he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 [28] Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and [29] so much the more, as ye see [30] the day approaching.

26 For [31] if we sin wilfully [32] after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and [33] fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 [34] He that despised Moses' law died without mercy [35] under two or three witnesses:

29 [36] Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and [37] hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, [38] and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, [39] Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, [40] The Lord shall judge his people.

31 [41] It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But [42] call to remembrance the former days, in which, [43] after ye were illuminated, ye endured [44] a great fight of afflictions; offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which 12 can never take away sins: but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for [d] sins for ever, sat down on 13 the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made the footstool of his feet.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them
15 that are sanctified. And the Holy Ghost also beareth witness to us: for after he hath said, 16 This is the [e] covenant that [f] I will make with them
After those days, saith the Lord;
I will put my laws on their heart,
And upon their mind also will I write them;
then saith he,
17 And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.
18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.
19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into 20 the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, 21 through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having 22 a great priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in [g] fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil [h] conscience, and 23 our body washed with pure water: let us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not; for he 24 is faithful that promised: and let us consider one
25 another to provoke unto love and good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more
27 a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgement, and a [i] fierceness of fire which shall 28 devour the adversaries. A man that hath set at nought Moses' law dieth without compassion on the 29 word of two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, think ye, shall he be judged worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, [j] an unholy thing, and hath done despite 30 unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

CHAPTER XI.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOW faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence [1] of things not seen.

2 For [2] by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that [3] the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith [4] Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead [5] yet speaketh.

5 By faith [6] Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith [7] Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, [8] prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [9] the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith [10] Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, [11] dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, [12] the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for [13] a city which hath foundations, [14] whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also [15] Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and [16] was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him [17] faithful who had promised.

33 flict of sufferings; partly, being made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, be-
34 coming partakers with them that were so used. For ye both had compassion on them that were in bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, knowing [k] that [l] ye yourselves have a better 35 possession and an abiding one. Cast not away therefore your boldness, which hath great recompense of 36 reward. For ye have need of patience, that, having done the will of God, ye may receive the promise.
37 For yet a very little while,
He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.
38 But [m] my righteous one shall live by faith:
And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.
39 But we are not [n] of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the [o] saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is [a] the assurance of things hoped for,
2 the [b] proving of things not seen. For therein the
3 elders had witness borne to them. By faith we understand that the [c] worlds have been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been
4 made out of things which do appear. By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, [d] God bearing witness [e] in respect of his gifts: and through it he being
5 dead yet speaketh. By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: for before his translation he hath had witness borne to him that he had 6 been well-pleasing unto God: and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that
7 he is a rewarder of them that seek after him. By faith Noah, being warned of God concerning things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the right-
8 eousness which is according to faith. By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he 9 went. By faith he became a sojourner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, [f] dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of 10 the same promise: for he looked for the city which hath the foundations, whose [g] builder and maker is 11 God. By faith even Sarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she 12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and [18] him as good as dead, [19] so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, [20] not having received the promises, but [21] having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and [22] confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things [23] declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed [24] to be called their God: for [25] he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith [26] Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises [27] offered up his only begotten son,

18 Of whom it was said, [28] That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God [29] was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith [30] Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, [31] blessed both the sons of Joseph; and [32] worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith [33] Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith [34] Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's [35] commandment.

24 By faith [36] Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 [37] Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming [38] the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto [39] the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith [40] he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as [41] seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith [42] he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith [43] they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith [44] the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith [45] the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when [46] she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [47] Gedeon, and of [48] Barak, and of 12 counted him faithful who had promised: wherefore also there sprang of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea shore, innumerable.

13 These all died [h] in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were 14 strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seek-15 ing after a country of their own. And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to 16 return. But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham, being tried, [i] offered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly received the promises was 18 offering up his only begotten son; even he [j] to whom 19 it was said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called: accounting that God is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a parable receive 20 him back. By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, 21 even concerning things to come. By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his 22 staff. By faith Joseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel;
23 and gave commandment concerning his bones. By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the 24 king's commandment. By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pha-
25 raoh's daughter; choosing rather to be evil entreated with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures
26 of sin for a season; accounting the reproach of [k] Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt:
27 for he looked unto the recompense of reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisi-
28 ble. By faith he [l] kept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the first-29 born should not touch them. By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the 30 Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had 31 been compassed about for seven days. By faith Rahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace.
32 And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah; of 35 [59] Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were [60] tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover [61] of bonds and imprisonment:

37 [62] They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: [63] they wandered about [64] in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

CHAPTER XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, [1] let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and [2] let us run [3] with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; [4] who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and [5] is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 [6] For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, [7] lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 [8] Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, [9] My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For [10] whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 [11] If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, [12] whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall

33 David and Samuel and the prophets: who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of aliens.

35 Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were [m] tortured, not accepting [n] their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 and others had trial of mockings and scourgings,

37 yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword: they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute,

38 afflicted, evil entreated (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains

39 and caves, and the holes of the earth. And these all, having had witness borne to them through their 40 faith, received not the promise, God having [o] provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside [a] every weight, and the sin which [b] doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that

2 is set before us, looking unto Jesus the [c] author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against [d] themselves, that ye wax not

4 weary, fainting in your souls. Ye have not yet re-

5 sisted unto blood, striving against sin: and ye have forgotten the exhortation, which reasoneth with you as with sons,

> My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord,
> Nor faint when thou art reproved of him;

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,
And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 [e] It is for chastening that ye endure; God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom

8 his father chasteneth not? But if ye are without chastening, whereof all have been made partakers,

9 then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we not much rather be in subjection unto [18] the Father of spirits, and live ?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure ; but he for our profit, [14] that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous : nevertheless afterward it yieldeth [15] the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore [16] lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees ;

13 [17] And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way ; [18] but let it rather be healed.

14 [19] Follow peace with all men, and holiness, [20] without which no man shall see the Lord :

15 [21] Looking diligently [22] lest any man fail of the grace of God ; [23] lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled ;

16 [24] Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, [25] who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, [26] when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected : [27] for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto [28] the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words ; which voice they that heard [29] intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more :

21 [31] And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake :)

22 But ye are come [32] unto mount Sion, [33] and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, [34] and to an innumerable company of angels,

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honest life, 5 to avoid covetousness, 7 to regard God's preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ, 16 to give alms, 17 to obey governors, 18 to pray for the apostle. 20 The conclusion.

LET [1] brotherly love continue.

2 [2] Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby [3] some have entertained angels unawares.

3 [4] Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: [5] but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and [6] be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, [7] I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, [8] The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 [9] Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: [10] whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ [11] the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 [12] Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; [13] not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 [14] We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For [15] the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, [16] suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing [17] his reproach.

14 [18] For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 [19] By him therefore let us offer [20] the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, [21] the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

16 [22] But to do good and to communicate forget not: for [23] with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 [24] Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for [25] they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 [26] Pray for us: for we trust we have [27] a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

have been made, that those things which are not 28 shaken may remain. Wherefore, receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have [q] grace, whereby we may offer service well-pleasing to God
29 with [r] reverence and awe: for our God is a consuming fire.

13 Let love of the brethren continue. Forget not to shew love unto strangers: for thereby some have 3 entertained angels unawares. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; them that are evil entreated, as being yourselves also in the body.
4 Let marriage be had in honour among all, and let the bed be undefiled: for fornicators and adulterers God
5 will judge. [a] Be ye free from the love of money; content with such things as ye have: for himself hath said, I will in no wise fail thee, neither will I
6 in any wise forsake thee. So that with good courage we say,

The Lord is my helper; I will not fear:
What shall man do unto me?

7 Remember them that had the rule over you, which spake unto you the word of God; and considering 8 the issue of their [b] life, imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and to-day, yea and 9 [c] for ever. Be not carried away by divers and strange teachings: for it is good that the heart be stablished by grace; not by meats, wherein they
10 that [d] occupied themselves were not profited. We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat 11 which serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the holy place [e] by the high priest as an offering for sin, are 12 burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own 13 blood, suffered without the gate. Let us therefore go forth unto him without the camp, bearing his re-14 proach. For we have not here an abiding city, but 15 we seek after the city which is to come. Through him [f] then let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips which 16 make confession to his name. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices
17 God is well pleased. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit to them: for they watch in behalf of your souls, as they that shall give account; that they may do this with joy, and not with [g] grief: for this were unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honestly in all

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JAMES.

CHAPTER I.

1 We are to rejoice under the cross, 5 to ask patience of God, 13 and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins, unto him, 19 but rather to hearken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter. 26 Otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

1 JAMES, [2] a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, [3] to the twelve tribes [4] which are scattered abroad, greeting.
2 My brethren, [5] count it all joy [6] when ye fall into divers temptations;
3 [7] Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.
4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
5 [8] If any of you lack wisdom, [9] let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and [10] it shall be given him.
6 [11] But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
8 [12] A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.
9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:
10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because [13] as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

1 JAMES, a [a] servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are of the Dispersion, [b] greeting.
2 Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into 3 manifold [c] temptations; knowing that the proof of 4 your faith worketh patience. And let patience have its perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and upbraideth not;
6 and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the 7 surge of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. For let not that man think [d] that he shall receive any-8 thing of the Lord; a doubleminded man, unstable in all his ways.

9 But let the brother of low degree glory in his high
10 estate: and the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 [14] Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive [15] the crown of life, [16] which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then [17] when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, [18] bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 [19] Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, [20] with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 [21] Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, [22] that we should be a kind of [23] firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, [24] let every man be swift to hear, [25] slow to speak, [26] slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore [27] lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, [28] which is able to save your souls.

22 But [29] be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For [30] if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But [31] whoso looketh into the perfect [32] law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, [33] this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and [34] bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, [35] To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, [36] and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER II.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren: 13 rather we are to be loving, and merciful: 14 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 not of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [1] the Lord of glory, with [2] respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with 11 For the sun ariseth with the scorching wind, and withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he hath been approved, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to them that 13 love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted [e] of God: for God [f] cannot be tempted 14 with [g] evil, and he himself tempteth no man: but each man is [h] tempted, when he is drawn away by 15 his own lust, and enticed. Then the lust, when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and the sin, when it is 16 fullgrown, bringeth forth death. Be not deceived,
17 my beloved brethren. Every good [i] gift and every perfect boon is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nei-
18 ther shadow that is cast by turning. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 [j] Ye know this, my beloved brethren. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to 20 wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not the right-21 eousness of God. Wherefore putting away all filthiness and overflowing of [k] wickedness, receive with meekness the [l] implanted word, which is able to 22 save your souls. But be ye doers of the word, and 23 not hearers only, deluding your own selves. For if any one is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding [m] his natural face in a 24 mirror: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he
25 was. But he that looketh into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth, but a doer that worketh, this man
26 shall be blessed in his doing. If any man [n] thinketh himself to be religious, while he bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion
27 is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

2 My brethren, [a] hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.
2 For if there come into your [b] synagogue a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, [3] Hath not God chosen the poor of this world [4] rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom [5] which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But [6] ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, [7] and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, [8] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But [9] if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, [10] he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, [11] Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by [12] the law of liberty.

13 For [13] he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and [14] mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 [15] What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 [16] If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And [17] one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, [18] and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: [19] the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, [20] when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou [21] how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [22] Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [23] the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

him that weareth the fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, 4 Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; [c] are ye not divided [d] in your own mind, and become judges 5 with evil thoughts? Hearken, my beloved brethren; did not God choose them that are poor as to the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to them that love him?
6 But ye have dishonoured the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves drag you before 7 the judgement-seats? Do not they blaspheme the honourable name [e] by the which ye are called?
8 Howbeit if ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, 9 ye do well: but if ye have respect of persons, ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as trans-10 gressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is become guilty of 11 all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor 12 of the law. So speak ye, and so do, as men that are 13 to be judged by a law of liberty. For judgement is without mercy to him that hath shewed no mercy:
mercy glorieth against judgement.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save 15 him? If a brother or sister be naked, and in lack 16 of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth 17 it profit? Even so faith, if it have not works, is 18 dead in itself. [f] Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith apart from thy works, and I by my works will shew thee my 19 faith. Thou believest that [g] God is one; thou doest 20 well: the [h] devils also believe, and shudder. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith apart from 21 works is barren? Was not Abraham our father

22 son upon the altar? [i] Thou seest that faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made per-

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER III.

1 We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others: 5 but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 They who be truly wise be mild, and peaceable, without envying, and strife.

MY brethren, [1] be not many masters, [2] knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For [3] in many things we offend all. [4] If any man offend not in word, [5] the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, [6] we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so [7] the tongue is a little member, and [8] boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And [9] the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that [10] it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, [11] full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, [12] which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 [13] Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation [14] his works [15] with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have [16] bitter envying and strife in your hearts, [17] glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 [18] This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 For [19] where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But [20] the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, [21] and without hypocrisy.

18 [22] And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

25 tified, and not only by faith. And in like manner was not also Rahab the harlot justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out 26 another way? For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3 Be not many teachers, my brethren, knowing that
2 we shall receive [a] heavier judgement. For in many things we all stumble. If any stumbleth not in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the
3 whole body also. Now if we put the horses' bridles into their mouths, that they may obey us, we turn
4 about their whole body also. Behold, the ships also, though they are so great, and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder,
5 whither the impulse of the steersman willeth. So the tongue also is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, [b] how much wood is kindled
6 by how small a fire! And the tongue is [c] a fire: [d] the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of [e] nature, and is set on fire by hell.
7 For every [f] kind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath 8 been tamed [g] by [h] mankind: but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is full of deadly 9 poison. Therewith bless we the Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after 10 the likeness of God: out of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these 11 things ought not so to be. Doth the fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter?
12 can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? let him shew by his good life his works in meekness of 14 wisdom. But if ye have bitter jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against the truth.
15 This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down from 16 above, but is earthly, [i] sensual, [j] devilish. For where jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every 17 vile deed. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without [k] va-
18 riance, without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace [l] for them that make peace.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We are to strive against covetousness, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, and rash judgment of others: 13 and not to be confident in the good success of worldly business, but mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts [1] that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 [2] Ye ask, and receive not, [3] because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 [4] Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [5] the friendship of the world is enmity with God? [6] whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, [7] The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [8] God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [9] Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 [10] Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. [11] Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and [12] purify your hearts, ye [13] double minded.

9 [14] Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 [15] Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 [16] Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, [17] and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, [18] who is able to save and to destroy: [19] who art thou that judgest another?

13 [20] Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? [21] It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, [22] If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: [23] all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore [24] to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER V.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance. 7 We ought to be patient in afflictions, after the example of the prophets, and Job: 12 to forbear swearing, 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults, to pray one for another, 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

GO [1] to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

4 Whence come wars and whence come fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your plea-
2 sures that war in your members? Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and [a] covet, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war; ye have not, because ye ask not.
3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that
4 ye may spend it in your pleasures. Ye adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore would be a friend of the world maketh himself an enemy
5 of God. Or think ye that the scripture [b] speaketh in vain? [c] Doth the spirit which [d] he made to dwell
6 in us long unto envying? But he giveth [e] more grace. Wherefore the scripture saith, God resist-
7 eth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. Be subject therefore unto God; but resist the devil,
8 and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye doubleminded.
9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.
10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall exalt you.

11 Speak not one against another, brethren. He that speaketh against a brother, or judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer of the 12 law, but a judge. One only is the lawgiver and judge, even he who is able to save and to destroy: but who art thou that judgest thy neighbour?
13 Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and 14 trade, and get gain: whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then 15 vanisheth away. [f] For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or that.
16 But now ye glory in your vauntings: all such glory-
17 ing is evil. To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and [2] your garments are motheaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [3] Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, [4] the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and [5] the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 [6] Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 [7] Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [8] the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: [9] for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 [10] Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge [11] standeth before the door.

10 [12] Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, [13] we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of [14] the patience of Job, and have seen [15] the end of the Lord; that [16] the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, [17] swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? [18] let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [19] anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; [20] and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. [21] The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man [22] subject to like passions as we are, and [23] he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: [24] and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And [25] he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, [26] if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way [27] shall save a soul from death, and [28] shall hide a multitude of sins.

2 series that are coming upon you. Your riches are
3 corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and your silver are rusted; and their rust shall be for a testimony [a] against you, and shall eat your flesh as fire. Ye have laid up your treasure in the 4 last days. Behold, the hire of the labourers who mowed your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.
5 Ye have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts in 6 a day of slaughter. Ye have condemned, ye have killed the righteous one; he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the [b] coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it,
8 until [c] it receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the [b] coming 9 of the Lord is at hand. Murmur not, brethren, one against another, that ye be not judged: behold, the 10 judge standeth before the doors. Take, brethren, for an example of suffering and of patience, the 11 prophets who spake in the name of the Lord. Behold, we call them blessed which endured: ye have heard of the [d] patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, how that the Lord is full of pity, and merciful.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but [e] let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under judgement.
13 Is any among you suffering? let him pray. Is any 14 cheerful? let him sing praise. Is any among you sick? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [f] anointing him with oil in 15 the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be for-16 given him. Confess therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The supplication of a righteous man avail-
17 eth much in its working. Elijah was a man of like [g] passions with us, and he prayed [h] fervently that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth for 18 three years and six months. And he prayed again; and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 My brethren, if any among you do err from the 20 truth, and one convert him; [i] let him know, that he which converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER I.

1 He blesseth God for his manifold spiritual graces: 10 shewing that the salvation in Christ is no news, but a thing prophesied of old: 13 and exhorteth them accordingly to a godly conversation, forasmuch as they are now born anew by the word of God.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers [1] scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 [2] Elect [3] according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [4] through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and [5] sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: [6] Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 [7] Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which [8] according to his abundant mercy [9] hath begotten us again unto a lively hope [10] by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, [11] and that fadeth not away, [12] reserved in heaven for you,

5 [13] Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 [14] Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now [15] for a season, if need be, [16] ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That [17] the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [18] it be tried with fire, [19] might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 [20] Whom having not seen, ye love; [21] in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving [22] the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 [23] Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time [24] the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand [25] the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 [26] Unto whom it was revealed, that [27] not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with [28] the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; [29] which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore [30] gird up the loins of your mind, [31] be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you [32] at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are sojourners of the Dispersion in Pontus, Ga-
2 latia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.
3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus
4 Christ from the dead, unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, re-
5 served in heaven for you, who by the power of God are guarded through faith unto a salvation ready to 6 be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, ye have been put to grief in manifold [a] temptations,
7 that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth though it is proved by fire, might be found unto praise and glory and honour at 8 the revelation of Jesus Christ: whom not having seen ye love; on whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy un-
9 speakable and [b] full of glory: receiving the end of 10 your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace
11 that should come unto you: searching what time or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it testified beforehand the sufferings [c] of Christ, and the glories that 12 should follow them. To whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that preached the gospel unto you [d] by the [e] Holy Ghost sent forth from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore girding up the loins of your mind, be sober and set your hope perfectly on the grace that [f] is to be brought unto you at the revelation of

14 As obedient children, [83] not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts [84] in your ignorance :
15 [85] But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation ;
16 Because it is written, [86] Be ye holy ; for I am holy.
17 And if ye call on the Father, [87] who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, [88] pass the time of your [89] sojourning here in fear :
18 Forasmuch as ye know [90] that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [91] received by tradition from your fathers ;
19 But [92] with the precious blood of Christ, [93] as of a lamb without blemish and without spot :
20 [94] Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest [95] in these last times for you,
21 Who by him do believe in God, [96] that raised him up from the dead, and [97] gave him glory ; that your faith and hope might be in God.
22 Seeing ye [98] have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned [99] love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently :
23 [100] Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, [101] by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.
24 For [102] all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away :
25 [103] But the word of the Lord endureth for ever.
[104] And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER II.

1 He dehorteth them from the breach of charity: 4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they are built. 11 He beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, 13 to be obedient to magistrates, 18 and teacheth servants how to obey their masters, 20 patiently suffering for well doing, after the example of Christ.

WHEREFORE [1] laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,[d]
2 [2] As newborn babes, desire the sincere [3] milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby :
3 If so be ye have [4] tasted that the Lord is gracious.
4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, [5] disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, 5 [6] Ye also, as lively stones, are built up [7] a spiritual house, [8] an holy priesthood, to offer up [9] spiritual sacrifices, [10] acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, [11] Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious : and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

14 Jesus Christ ; as children of obedience, not fashioning yourselves according to your former lusts in the 15 time of your ignorance : but [g] like as he which called you is holy, be ye yourselves also holy in all manner 16 of living ; because it is written, Ye shall be holy ;
17 for I am holy. And if ye call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your sojourn-18 ing in fear : knowing that ye were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your 19 fathers ; but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, even the blood of 20 Christ : who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was manifested at the end 21 of the times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, which raised him from the dead, and gave him glory ; so that your faith and hope 22 might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth unto unfeigned love of the brethren, love one another [h] from the 23 heart fervently : having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the 24 word of [i] God, which liveth and abideth. For,

All flesh is as grass,
And all the glory thereof as the flower of grass.
The grass withereth, and the flower falleth :

25 But the [j] word of the Lord abideth for ever.
And this is the [j] word of good tidings which was preached unto you.

2 Putting away therefore all [a] wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speak-2 ings, as newborn babes, long for the [b] spiritual milk which is without guile, that ye may grow thereby 3 unto salvation ; if ye have tasted that the Lord is 4 gracious : unto whom coming, a living stone, rejected
5 indeed of men, but with God elect, [c] precious, ye also, as living stones, are built up [d] a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, 6 acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. Because it is contained in [e] scripture,

Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect,
[c] precious :
And he that believeth on [f] him shall not be put to shame.

10 [21] Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you [22] as strangers and pilgrims, [23] abstain from fleshly lusts, [24] which war against the soul;

12 [25] Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, [26] they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God [27] in the day of visitation.

CHAPTER III.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer persecution. 19 He declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, [1] ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, [2] they also may without the word [3] be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 [4] While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 [5] Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [6] the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, [7] calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 [8] Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, [9] as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [10] that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, [11] be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, [12] love as brethren, [13] be pitiful, be courteous:

9 [14] Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, [15] that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [16] he that will love life, and see good days, [17] let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him [18] eschew evil, and do good; [19] let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, [20] and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 [21] And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 [22] But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and [23] be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and [24] be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

16 [25] Having a good conscience; [26] that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

sheep; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and [u] Bishop of your souls.

3 In like manner, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word be gained by the [a] behaviour of their wives; beholding your chaste [a] behaviour coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own [b] husbands: as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not [c] put in fear by any terror.

7 Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour [d] unto the woman, as unto the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all likeminded, [e] compassionate, loving as brethren, tenderhearted, humbleminded: not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but contrariwise blessing; for hereunto were ye called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For,

He that would love life,
And see good days,
Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips that they speak no guile:
And let him turn away from evil, and do good;
Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous,
And his ears unto their supplication:
But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil.

And who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous of that which is good? But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are ye: and fear not their fear, neither be troubled; but sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord: being ready always to give answer to every man that asketh you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet with meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, wherein ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of life in Christ. For it is better, if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-

18 For Christ also hath [27] once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, [28] being put to death [29] in the flesh, but [30] quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and [31] preached unto the spirits [32] in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, [33] when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while [34] the ark was a preparing, [35] wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 [36] The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of [37] the filth of the flesh, [38] but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) [39] by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and [40] is on the right hand of God; [41] angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the general end that now approacheth: 12 and comforteth them against persecution.

FORASMUCH then [1] as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for [2] he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 [3] That he no longer [4] should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, [5] but to the will of God.

3 [6] For the time past of our life may suffice us [7] to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, [8] speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready [9] to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause [10] was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [11] the end of all things is at hand: [12] be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 [13] And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for [14] charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 [15] Use hospitality one to another [16] without grudging.

10 [17] As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, [18] as good stewards of [19] the manifold grace of God.

11 [20] If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; [21] if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that [22] God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, [23] to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

18 doing. Because Christ also [f] suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh,
19 but quickened in the spirit; in which also he went 20 and preached unto the spirits in prison, which aforetime were disobedient, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, [g] wherein few, that is, eight souls, were 21 saved through water: which also [h] after a true likeness doth now save you, even baptism, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the [i] interrogation of a good conscience toward God, through
22 the resurrection of Jesus Christ; who is on the right hand of God, having gone into heaven; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

4 Forasmuch then as Christ suffered in the flesh, arm ye yourselves also with the same [a] mind; for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased [b] from
2 sin; that [c] ye no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the 3 will of God. For the time past may suffice to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries:
4 wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them into the same [d] excess of riot, speaking evil of
5 you: who shall give account to him that is ready to 6 judge the quick and the dead. For unto this end [e] was the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and be sober unto [f] prayer:
8 above all things being fervent in your love among yourselves; for love covereth a multitude of sins:
9 using hospitality one to another without murmur-
10 ing: according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the 11 manifold grace of God; if any man speaketh, speaking as it were oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering as of the strength which God supplieth: that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the dominion [g] for ever and ever. Amen.

g Gr. unto the ages of the ages.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning [24] the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you :

13 [25] But rejoice, inasmuch as [26] ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings ; [27] that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 [28] If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye ; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you : [29] on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But [30] let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, [31] or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed ; [32] but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come [33] that judgment must begin at the house of God : and [34] if it first begin at us, [35] what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God ?

18 [36] And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear ?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God [37] commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER V.

1 He exhorteth the elders to feed their flocks, 5 the younger to obey, 8 and all to be sober, watchful, and constant in the faith : 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also [1] an elder, and [2] a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also [3] a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed :

2 [4] Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, [5] not by constraint, but willingly ; [6] not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind ;

3 Neither as [7] being lords over [8] God's heritage, but [9] being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when [10] the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive [11] a crown of glory [12] that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, [13] all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility : for [14] God resisteth the proud, and [15] giveth grace to the humble.

6 [16] Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time :

7 [17] Casting all your care upon him ; for he careth for you.

8 [18] Be sober, be vigilant ; because [19] your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour :

9 [20] Whom resist stedfast in the faith, [21] knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, [22] who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto you :
13 but insomuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice ; that at the revelation of his glory
14 also ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. If ye are reproached [h] for the name of Christ, blessed are ye ; because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God
15 resteth upon you. For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as a med-
16 dler in other men's matters : but if a man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed ; but let him
17 glorify God in this name. For the time is come for judgement to begin at the house of God : and if it begin first at us, what shall be the end of them that 18 obey not the gospel of God ? And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and sin-
19 ner appear ? Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 The elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a partaker of the glory that
2 shall be revealed : Tend the flock of God which is among you, [a] exercising the oversight, not of constraint, but willingly, [b] according unto God ; nor yet
3 for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind ; neither as lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making
4 yourselves ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive
5 the crown of glory that fadeth not away. [c] Likewise, ye younger, be subject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another : for God resisteth the proud, but giveth
6 grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt
7 you in due time ; casting all your anxiety upon
8 him, because he careth for you. Be sober, be watchful : your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour :
9 whom withstand stedfast in [d] your faith, knowing that the same sufferings are [e] accomplished in your 10 [f] brethren who are in the world. And the God of all grace, who called you unto his eternal glory in

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER I.

1 Confirming them in hope of the increase of God's graces, 5 he exhorteth them, by faith, and good works, to make their calling sure: 12 whereof he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand: 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eyewitness of the apostles beholding his majesty, and by the testimony of the Father, and the prophets.

SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [1] like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 [2] Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, [3] through the knowledge of him [4] that hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 [5] Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be [6] partakers of the divine nature, [7] having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, [8] giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue [9] knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and [10] to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren [11] nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things [12] is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [13] purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [14] to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, [15] ye shall never fall:

1 [a] SIMON Peter, a [b] servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [c] a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of [d] our God and
2 Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus
3 our Lord; seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us
4 [e] by his own glory and virtue; whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become partakers of [f] the divine nature, having escaped from 5 the corruption that is in the world by lust. Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply virtue; and in your
6 virtue knowledge; and in your knowledge [g] temperance; and in your [g] temperance patience; and in 7 your patience godliness; and in your godliness love of the brethren; and in your love of the brethren
8 love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the 9 knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For he that lacketh these things is blind, [h] seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old
10 sins. Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore [16]I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, [17]though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, [18]as long as I am in this tabernacle, [19]to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 [20]Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as [21]our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed [22]cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but [23]were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, [24]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in [25]the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto [26]a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and [27]the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that [28]no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For [29]the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: [30]but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers: 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known, and avoided.

BUT [1]there were false prophets also among the people, even as [2]there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even [3]denying the Lord [4]that bought them, [5]and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And [6]through covetousness shall they with feigned words [7]make merchandise of you: [8]whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not [9]the angels [10]that sinned, but [11]cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved [12]Noah the eighth person, [13]a preacher of righteousness, [14]bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

11 these things, ye shall never stumble: for thus shall be richly supplied unto you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I shall be ready always to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the truth which is with you.

13 And I think it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 knowing that the putting off of my tabernacle cometh swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ signified unto me. Yea, I will give diligence that at

15 every time ye may be able after my [i]decease to call

16 these things to remembrance. For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and [j]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he [k]received from God the Father honour and glory, when there [l]came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in

18 whom I am well pleased: and this voice we ourselves heard [m]come out of heaven, when we were 20 arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of [o]private interpretation.

21 For no prophecy ever [p]came by the will of man: but men spake from God, being moved by the [q]Holy Ghost.

2 But there arose false prophets also among the people, as among you also there shall be false teachers, who shall privily bring in [a]destructive heresies, denying even the Master that bought them,

3 And in covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose sentence now from of old lingereth not, and their destruction

4 slumbereth not. For if God spared not angels when they sinned, but [b]cast them down to [c]hell, and committed them to [d]pits of darkness, to be reserved

7 And [17] delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked :

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, [18] in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds ;)

9 [19] The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished :

10 But chiefly [20] them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. [21] Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas [22] angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, [23] as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not ; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption ;

13 [24] And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [25] to riot in the day time. [26] Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while [27] they feast with you ;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin ; beguiling unstable souls : [28] an heart they have exercised with covetous practices ; cursed children :

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [29] Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness ;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity : the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 [30] These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest ; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when [31] they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that [32] were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them [33] liberty, they themselves are [34] the servants of corruption : for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For [35] if after they [36] have escaped the pollutions of the world [37] through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For [38] it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [39] The dog is turned to his own vomit again ; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

6 world of the ungodly ; and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an example
7 unto those that should live ungodly ; and delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life
8 of the wicked (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, [f] vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless
9 deeds) : the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous
10 under punishment unto the day of judgement ; but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise dominion. Daring, self-willed, they tremble not to rail at [g] dignities :
11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgement against them before
12 the Lord. But these, as creatures without reason, born [h] mere animals [i] to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall 13 in their [j] destroying surely be destroyed, suffering wrong as the hire of wrong-doing ; men that count it pleasure to revel in the day-time, spots and blemishes, revelling in their [k] love-feasts while they
14 feast with you ; having eyes full of [l] adultery, and that cannot cease from sin ; enticing unstedfast souls ; having a heart exercised in covetousness ;
15 children of cursing ; forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of [m] Beor, who loved the hire of wrong-
16 doing ; but he was rebuked for his own transgression : a dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed 17 the madness of the prophet. These are springs without water, and mists driven by a storm ; for whom 18 the blackness of darkness hath been reserved. For, uttering great swelling words of vanity, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by lasciviousness, those who are just escaping from them that live in error ;
19 promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption ; for of [n] whom a man is overcome, of the same is he also brought into bond-
20 age. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of [o] the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state is become worse
21 with them than the first. For it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy com-
22 mandment delivered unto them. It has happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER III.

1 He assureth them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgment, against those scorners who dispute against it: 8 warning the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 11 exhorting them, from the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life: 15 and again, to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which [1] I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, [2] and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 [3] Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, [4] walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, [5] Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that [6] by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [7] standing out of the water and in the water:

6 [8] Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But [9] the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto [10] fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [11] a thousand years as one day.

9 [12] The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but [13] is longsuffering to us-ward, [14] not willing that any should perish, but [15] that all should come to repentance.

10 But [16] the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which [17] the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be [18] in all holy conversation and godliness, 12 [19] Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall [20] be dissolved, and the elements shall [21] melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [22] new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent [23] that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that [24] the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, [25] speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable

3 This is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I stir up your
2 sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; that ye should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles:
3 knowing this first, that [a] in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking after their own
4 lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his [b] coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning
5 of the creation. For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and [c] amidst water, by the word
6 of God; by which means the world that then was,
7 being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been [d] stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgement and destruction of ungodly men.
8 But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a 9 thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the [e] elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein
11 shall be [f] burned up. Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons
12 ought ye to be in all holy living and godliness, looking for and [g] earnestly desiring the [b] coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the [e] elements shall 13 melt with fervent heat? But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace, 15 without spot and blameless in his sight. And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to 16 the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; wherein are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and unstedfast wrest, as they do

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life, by a communion with God: 5 to which we must adjoin holiness of life, to testify the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

THAT [1] which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, [2] which we have looked upon, and [3] our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For [4] the life [5] was manifested, and we have seen it, [6] and bear witness, [7] and shew unto you that eternal life, [8] which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 [9] That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly [10] our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, [11] that your joy may be full.

5 [12] This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that [13] God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 [14] If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and [15] the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 [16] If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, [17] and the truth is not in us.

9 [18] If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to [19] cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1 THAT which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled,
2 concerning the [a] Word of life (and the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare unto you the life, the eternal life, which was
3 with the Father, and was manifested unto us); that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his 4 Son Jesus Christ: and these things we write, that [b] our joy may be fulfilled.

5 And this is the message which we have heard from him, and announce unto you, that God is light,
6 and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in the darkness,
7 we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleans-
8 eth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin,
9 we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all un-
10 righteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER II.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity. 3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments, 9 to love our brethren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of seducers: 20 from whose deceits the godly are safe, preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [1] we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And [2] he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but [3] also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 [4] He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, [5] is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But [6] whoso keepeth his word, [7] in him verily is the love of God perfected: [8] hereby know we that we are in him.

6 [9] He that saith he abideth in him [10] ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, [11] I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment [12] which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [13] a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: [14] because the darkness is past, and [15] the true light now shineth.

9 [16] He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 [17] He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [18] there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and [19] walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [20] your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him [21] that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [22] ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 [23] Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [24] If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, [25] and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And [26] the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 [27] Little children, [28] it is the last time: and as ye have heard that [29] antichrist shall come, [30] even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know [31] that it is the last time.

19 [32] They went out from us, but they were not of

2 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, we have an [a] Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the 2 righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.
3 And hereby know we that we know him, if we keep 4 his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the 5 truth is not in him: but whoso keepeth his word, in him verily hath the love of God been perfected.
6 Hereby know we that we are in him: he that saith he abideth in him ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

7 Beloved, no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which 8 ye heard. Again, a new commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light al-
9 ready shineth. He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in the darkness even until now.
10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and 11 there is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, my little children, because your 13 sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. I write unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the evil one. [b] I have written unto you, little children, because ye know the 14 Father. [b] I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. [b] I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have 15 overcome the evil one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love 16 the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the vainglory of life, is not of 17 the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last hour: and as ye heard that antichrist cometh, even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is 19 the last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they us; for [33] if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, [34] that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But [35] ye have an unction [36] from the Holy One, and [37] ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 [38] Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 [39] Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] [40] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, [41] which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [42] ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 [43] And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you [44] concerning them that seduce you.

27 But [45] the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and [46] ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing [47] teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, [48] when he shall appear, we may have confidence, [49] and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 [50] If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that [51] every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons: 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that [1] we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, [2] because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, [3] now are we the sons of God, and [4] it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, [5] we shall be like him; for [6] we shall see him as he is.

3 [7] And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for [8] sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know [9] that he was manifested [10] to take away our sins; and [11] in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: [12] whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, [13] let no man deceive you: [14] he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 [15] He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the would have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest [c] how that they 20 all are not of us. And ye have an anointing from 21 the Holy One, [d] and ye know all things. I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and [e] because no lie is of the 22 truth. Who is the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, even he 23 that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he 24 that confesseth the Son hath the Father also. As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also shall abide in the 25 Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise

26 which he promised [f] us, even the life eternal. These things have I written unto you concerning them that 27 would lead you astray. And as for you, the anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, [g] and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, [h] ye abide in him.
28 And now, my little children, abide in him; that, if he shall be manifested, we may have boldness, and 29 not be ashamed [i] before him at his [j] coming. If ye know that he is righteous, [k] ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him.

3 Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God: and such we are. For this cause the world
2 knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if [a] he shall be manifested, we shall be like him; for we 3 shall see him even as he is. And every one that hath this hope set on him purifieth himself, even as 4 he is pure. Every one that doeth sin doeth also 5 lawlessness: and sin is lawlessness. And ye know that he was manifested to [b] take away sins; and in 6 him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither
7 [c] knoweth him. My little children, let no man lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, 8 even as he is righteous: he that doeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning.

Son of God was manifested, [16] that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 [17] Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for [18] his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: [19] whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, [20] neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For [21] this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, [22] that we should love one another.

12 Not as [23] Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if [24] the world hate you.

14 [25] We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. [26] He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 [27] Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [28] no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 [29] Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But [30] whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, [31] how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, [32] let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know [33] that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

20 [34] For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 [35] Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, [36] then have we confidence toward God.

22 And [37] whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, [38] and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 [39] And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, [40] and love one another, [41] as he gave us commandment.

24 And [42] he that keepeth his commandments [43] dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [44] hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he 9 might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is 10 begotten of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he 11 that loveth not his brother. For this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, that we should 12 love one another: not as Cain was of the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, brethren, if the world hateth you.
14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not 15 abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath 16 eternal life abiding in him. Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought 17 to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how 18 doth the love of God abide in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither with the 19 tongue; but in deed and truth. Hereby shall we know that we are of the truth, and shall [d] assure our 20 heart before him, whereinsoever our heart condemn us; because God is greater than our heart, and 21 knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn
22 us not, we have boldness toward God; and whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do the things that are pleasing
23 in his sight. And this is his commandment, that we should [e] believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he gave us command-
24 ment. And he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and [6] even now already is it in the world.

4 [7] Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than [8] he that is in the world.

5 [9] They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and [10] the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: [11] he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we [12] the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 [13] Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not [14] knoweth not God; for [15] God is love.

9 [16] In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, [17] that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [18] not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son [19] to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, [20] if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 [21] No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and [22] his love is perfected in us.

13 [23] Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And [24] we have seen and do testify that [25] the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 [26] Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. [27] God is love; and [28] he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that [29] we may have boldness in the day of judgment: [30] because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth [31] is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 [32] If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God [33] whom he hath not seen?

21 And [34] this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

WHOSOEVER [1] believeth that [2] Jesus is the Christ is [3] born of God: [4] and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

b Or, in our case.
c Many ancient authorities read how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

3 [5] For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [6] his commandments are not grievous.
4 For [7] whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.
5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [8] he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
6 This is he that came [9] by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. [10] And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.
7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, [11] the Word, and the Holy Ghost: [12] and these three are one.
8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.
9 If we receive [13] the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: [14] for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.
10 He that believeth on the Son of God [15] hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God [16] hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.
11 [17] And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and [18] this life is in his Son.
12 [19] He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.
13 [20] These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; [21] that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.
14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, [22] if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:
15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.
16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and [23] he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [24] There is a sin unto death: [25] I do not say that he shall pray for it.
17 [26] All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.
18 We know that [27] whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God [28] keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.
19 And we know that we are of God, and [29] the whole world lieth in wickedness.
20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and [30] hath given us an understanding, [31] that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. [32] This is the true God, [33] and eternal life.
21 Little children, [34] keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

3 when we love God, and do his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.
4 For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome
5 the world, even our faith. And who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus
6 is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not [a] with the water
7 only, but [a] with the water and [a] with the blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the 8 Spirit is the truth. For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood:
9 and the three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that he hath borne witness
10 concerning his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne con-
11 cerning his Son. And the witness is this, that God gave unto us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.
12 He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

13 These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, even unto you
14 that believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth
15 us: and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which 16 we have asked of him. If any man see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, [b] he shall ask, and God will give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is [c] a sin unto death: not concerning this do 17 I say that he should make request. All unrighteousness is sin: and there is [c] a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is begotten of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God keep-
19 eth [d] him, and the evil one toucheth him not. We know that we are of God, and the whole world 20 lieth in the evil one. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is 21 the true God, and eternal life. My little children, guard yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

1 He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief, 8 lest they lose the reward of their former profession: 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, [1] whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known [2] the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 [3] Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, [4] in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children [5] walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [6] not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, [7] that we love one another.

6 And [8] this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, [9] as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For [10] many deceivers are entered into the world, [11] who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. [12] This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 [13] Look to yourselves, [14] that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 [15] Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, [16] neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 [17] Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, [18] that our joy may be full.

13 [19] The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

1 THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all
2 they that know the truth; for the truth's sake which abideth in us, and it shall be with us for ever:
3 Grace, mercy, peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoice greatly that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received com-
5 mandment from the Father. And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the begin-
6 ning, that we love one another. And this is love, that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, even as ye heard from the 7 beginning, that ye should walk in it. For many deceivers are gone forth into the world, even they that confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the 8 flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. Look to yourselves, that ye [a] lose not the things which [b] we have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward.
9 Whosoever [c] goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and 10 the Son. If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth not this teaching, receive him not into your house, 11 and give him no greeting: for he that giveth him greeting partaketh in his evil works.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face, that your joy
13 may be fulfilled. The children of thine elect sister salute thee.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality 7 to true preachers: 9 complaining of the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrephes on the contrary side, 11 whose evil example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

THE elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, [1] whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as [2] thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that [3] my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [4] taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, [5] follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. [6] He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius [7] hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; [8] and ye know that our record is true.

13 [9] I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

1 THE elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prosper-
3 eth. For I [a] rejoiced greatly, when brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou walk-
4 est in truth. Greater [b] joy have I none than [c] this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are brethren and 6 strangers withal; who bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to set
7 forward on their journey worthily of God: because that for the sake of the Name they went forth, tak-
8 ing nothing of the Gentiles. We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers with the truth.

9 I wrote somewhat unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among 10 them, receiveth us not. Therefore, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and them that would he forbid-
11 deth, and casteth them out of the church. Beloved, imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: he that doeth
12 evil hath not seen God. Demetrius hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness; and thou knowest that our witness is true.

13 I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen:
14 but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE.

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 4 False teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may persevere, and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and [1] brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and [2] preserved in Jesus Christ, and [3] called:

2 Mercy unto you, and [4] peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you [5] of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that [6] ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 [7] For there are certain men crept in unawares, [8] who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, [9] turning [10] the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [11] denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that [12] the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward [13] destroyed them that believed not.

6 And [14] the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, [15] he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness [16] unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as [17] Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 [18] Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and [19] speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet [20] Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, [21] durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, [22] The Lord rebuke thee.

10 [23] But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way [24] of Cain, and [25] ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished [26] in the gainsaying of Core.

12 [27] These are spots in your [28] feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: [29] clouds they are without water, [30] carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, [31] plucked up by the roots;

13 [32] Raging waves of the sea, [33] foaming out their

1 JUDAS, a [a] servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, [b] to them that are called, beloved in God the 2 Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: Mercy unto you and peace and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the 4 saints. For there are certain men crept in privily, even they who were of old set forth unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying [c] our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to put you in remembrance, though ye know all things once for all, how that [d] the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt,
6 [e] afterward destroyed them that believed not. And angels which kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgement of the 7 great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication, and gone after strange flesh, are set forth [f] as an example, suffering
8 the punishment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings defile the flesh, and 9 set at nought dominion, and rail at [g] dignities. But Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing judgement, but said, 10 The Lord rebuke thee. But these rail at whatsoever things they know not: and what they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason,
11 in these things are they [h] destroyed. Woe unto them! for they went in the way of Cain, and [i] ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and pe-
12 rished in the gainsaying of Korah. These are they who are [j] hidden rocks in your love-feasts when they feast with you, shepherds that without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead,

3 [6] Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for [7] the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him [8] which is, and [9] which was, and which is to come; [10] and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, [11] who is the faithful witness, and the [12] first begotten of the dead, and [13] the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him [14] that loved us, [15] and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

7 [18] Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and [19] they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 [20] I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, [21] which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and [22] companion in tribulation, and [23] in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, [24] for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 [25] I was in the Spirit on [26] the Lord's day, and heard behind me [27] a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, [28] I am Alpha and Omega, [29] the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, [30] I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 [31] And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [32] one like unto the Son of man, [33] clothed with a garment down to the foot, and [34] girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and [35] his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and [36] his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 [37] And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and [38] his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 [39] And he had in his right hand seven stars: and [40] out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: [41] and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And [42] when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And [43] he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; [44] I am the first and the last:

18 [45] I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, [46] I am alive for evermore, Amen; and [47] have the keys of hell and of death.

mony of Jesus Christ, even of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from him which is and which was and [d] which is to come; and from the
5 seven Spirits which are before his throne; and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loveth us, and [e] loosed us from our 6 sins [f] by his blood; and he made us to be a kingdom, to be priests unto his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion [g] for ever and ever. Amen.
7 Behold, he cometh with the clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they which pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth shall mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am the Alpha and the Omega, saith [h] the Lord God, [i] which is and which was and [d] which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, your brother and partaker with you in the tribulation and kingdom and patience which are in Jesus, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the 10 word of God and the testimony of Jesus. I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me
11 a great voice, as of a trumpet saying, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamum, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto 12 Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. And I turned to see the voice which spake with me. And having 13 turned I saw seven golden [j] candlesticks; and in the midst of the [j] candlesticks one like unto [k] a son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about at the breasts with a golden girdle.
14 And his head and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;
15 and his feet like unto burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace; and his voice as the voice
16 of many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as 17 the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as one dead. And he laid his 18 right hand upon me, saying, Fear not; I am the first and the last, and the Living one; and I [l] was dead, and behold, I am alive [m] for evermore, and I have

19 Write [48] the things which thou hast seen, [49] and the things which are, [50] and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery [51] of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, [52] and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are [53] the angels of the seven churches: and [54] the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels, that is, the ministers of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira: and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith [1] he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, [2] who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 [3] I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and [4] thou hast tried them [5] which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast [6] not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; [7] or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of [8] the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 [9] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give [10] to eat of [11] the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith [12] the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 [13] I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art [14] rich) and I know the blasphemy of [15] them which say they are Jews, and are not, [16] but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 [17] Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: [18] be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee [19] a crown of life.

11 [20] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of [21] the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith [22] he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 [23] I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even [24] where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [25] Ba-

19 the keys of death and of Hades. Write therefore the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things which shall come to pass hereaf-20 ter; the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest [n] in my right hand, and the seven golden [o] candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven [o] candlesticks are seven churches.

2 To the angel of the church in Ephesus write;

These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, he that walketh in the midst of the 2 seven golden [a] candlesticks: I know thy works, and thy toil and patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst try them which call themselves apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false;
3 and thou hast patience and didst bear for my name's
4 sake, and hast not grown weary. But I have this against thee, that thou didst leave thy first love.
5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I come to thee, and will move thy [b] candlestick out of its 6 place, except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the Nicolaitans, which I
7 also hate. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the [c] Paradise of God.

8 And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write;

These things saith the first and the last, which 9 [d] was dead, and lived again: I know thy tribulation, and thy poverty (but thou art rich), and the [e] blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and 10 they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; [f] and ye shall have [g] tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, 11 and I will give thee the crown of life. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write;

These things saith he that hath the sharp two-13 edged sword: I know where thou dwellest, even where Satan's throne is: and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny my faith, even in the days [h] of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who 14 was killed among you, where Satan dwelleth. But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there some that hold the teaching of Balaam, who laam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, [26] to eat things sacrificed unto idols, [27] and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine [28] of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [29] will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 [30] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [31] a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, [32] who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 [33] I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [34] Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants [35] to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space [36] to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that [37] I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and [38] I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; [39] I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But [40] that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth [41] my works unto the end, [42] to him will I give power over the nations:

27 [43] And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him [44] the morning star.

29 [45] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER III.

2 The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatened if he do not repent. 8 The angel of the church of Philadelphia 10 is approved for his diligence and patience. 15 The angel of Laodicea rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold, 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the door and knocketh.

taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, 15 and to commit fornication. So hast thou also some that hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans in like 16 manner. Repent therefore; or else I come to thee quickly, and I will make war against them with the 17 sword of my mouth. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.

18 And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write;

These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like unto 19 burnished brass: I know thy works, and thy love and faith and ministry and patience, and that thy 20 last works are more than the first. But I have this against thee, that thou sufferest [i] the woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess; and she teacheth and seduceth my servants to commit for-21 nication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time that she should repent; and she 22 willeth not to repent of her fornication. Behold, I do cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they re-
23 pent of [j] her works. And I will kill her children with [k] death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto each one of you according to your 24 works. But to you I say, to the rest that are in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, which know not the deep things of Satan, as they say; I
25 cast upon you none other burden. Howbeit that 26 which ye have, hold fast till I come. And he that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give authority over the na-
27 tions: and he shall rule them with a rod of [l] iron, as the vessels of the potter are broken to shivers;
28 as I also have received of my Father: and I will 29 give him the morning star. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

3 And to the angel of the church in Sardis write;

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 [4] Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and [5] repent. [6] If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast [7] a few names even in Sardis which have not [8] defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me [9] in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, [10] the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not [11] blot out his name out of the [12] book of life, but [13] I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 [14] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith [15] he that is holy, [16] he that is true, he that hath [17] the key of David, [18] he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and [19] shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 [20] I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee [21] an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make [22] them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, [23] I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, [24] I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon [25] all the world, to try them that dwell [26] upon the earth.

11 Behold, [27] I come quickly: [28] hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take [29] thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make [30] a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and [31] I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is [32] new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: [33] and I will write upon him my new name.

13 [34] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; [35] These things saith the Amen, [36] the faithful and true witness, [37] the beginning of the creation of God;

15 [38] I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, [39] I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee [40] to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and [41] white raiment,

2 dead. Be thou watchful, and stablish the things that remain, which were ready to die: for I have [a] found no works of thine fulfilled before my God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and didst hear; and keep it, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon

4 thee. But thou hast a few names in Sardis which did not defile their garments: and they shall walk

5 with me in white; for they are worthy. He that overcometh shall thus be arrayed in white garments; and I will in no wise blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before

6 my Father, and before his angels. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write;

These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and none shall shut, and that shutteth, and none open-

8 eth: I know thy works (behold, I have [b] set before thee a door opened, which none can shut), that thou hast a little power, and didst keep my word, and

9 didst not deny my name. Behold, I give of the synagogue of Satan, of them which say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to 10 know that I have loved thee. Because thou didst keep the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of [c] trial, that hour which is to come upon the whole [d] world, to [e] try them that dwell

11 upon the earth. I come quickly: hold fast that

12 which thou hast, that no one take thy crown. He that overcometh, I will make him a pillar in the [f] temple of my God, and he shall go out thence no more: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from 13 my God, and mine own new name. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

14 And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write;

These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God:

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor 16 hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will

17 spew thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked:

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 [42] As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, [43] I stand at the door, and knock: [44] if any man hear my voice, and open the door, [45] I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh [46] will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

CHAPTER IV.

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty elders. 6 The four beasts full of eyes before and behind. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sat on the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and [1] the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, [2] Come up hither, [3] and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately [4] I was in the spirit: and, behold, [5] a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: [6] and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 [7] And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, [8] clothed in white raiment; [9] and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded [10] lightnings and thunderings and voices: [11] and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are [12] the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was [13] a sea of glass like unto crystal: [14] and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before [15] and behind.

7 [16] And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them [17] six wings about him; and they were full of eyes [18] within: and they rest not day and night, saying, [19] Holy, holy, holy, [20] Lord God Almighty, [21] which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, [22] who liveth for ever and ever,

10 [23] The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, [24] and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, [25] and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 [26] Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: [27] for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

that thou mayest clothe thyself, and that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zea-
20 lous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup
21 with him, and he with me. He that overcometh, I will give to him to sit down with me in my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father 22 in his throne. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

4 After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard, a voice as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, Come up hither, and I will shew thee the things
2 which must [a] come to pass hereafter. Straightway I was in the Spirit: and behold, there was a throne
3 set in heaven, and one sitting upon the throne; and he that sat was to look upon like a jasper stone and a sardius: and there was a rainbow round about the
4 throne, like an emerald to look upon. And round about the throne were four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones I saw four and twenty elders sitting, arrayed in white garments; and on their
5 heads crowns of gold. And out of the throne proceed lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne,
6 which are the seven Spirits of God; and before the throne, as it were a glassy sea like unto crystal; and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, four living creatures full of eyes before
7 and behind. And the first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face as of a man, and the fourth
8 creature was like a flying eagle. And the four living creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and within: and they have no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God, the Almighty, which was and 9 which is and [b] which is to come. And when the living creatures shall give glory and honour and thanks to him that sitteth on the throne, to him that
10 liveth [c] for ever and ever, the four and twenty elders shall fall down before him that sitteth on the throne, and shall worship him that liveth [c] for ever and ever, and shall cast their crowns before the 11 throne, saying, Worthy art thou, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory and the honour and the power: for thou didst create all things, and because of thy will they were, and were created.

CHAPTER V.

1 The book sealed with seven seals: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open. 12 Therefore the elders praise him, 9 and confess that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne [1] a book written within and on the backside, [2] sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man [3] in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, [4] the Lion of the tribe of Juda, [5] the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, [6] and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood [7] a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and [8] seven eyes, which are [9] the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand [10] of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, [11] the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [12] harps, and golden vials full of odours, [13] which are the prayers of saints.

9 And [14] they sung a new song, saying, [15] Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: [16] for thou wast slain, and [17] hast redeemed us to God by thy blood [18] out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 [19] And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels [20] round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was [21] ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, [22] Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [23] every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [24] Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him [25] that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 [26] And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him [27] that liveth for ever and ever.

5 And I saw [a] in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back, 2 close sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a great voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?
3 And no one in the heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look 4 thereon. And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look thereon:
5 and one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion that is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath overcome, to open the book and the 6 seven seals thereof. And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the [b] seven Spirits of God, sent forth into 7 all the earth. And he came, and he [c] taketh it out of the right hand of him that sat on the throne.
8 And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers
9 of the saints. And they sing a new song, saying, Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and didst purchase unto God with thy blood men of every tribe,
10 and tongue, and people, and nation, and madest them to be unto our God a kingdom and priests; and 11 they reign upon the earth. And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and 12 thousands of thousands; saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and 13 honour, and glory, and blessing. And every created thing which is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, 14 [d] for ever and ever. And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the elders fell down and worshipped.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The opening of the seals in order, and what followed thereupon, containing a prophecy to the end of the world.

AND [1]I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, [2]one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold [3]a white horse: [4]and he that sat on him had a bow; [5]and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, [6]I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 [7]And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, [8]I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo [9]a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [10]see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, [11]I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 [12]And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [13]to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, [14]and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [15]the altar [16]the souls of them that were slain [17]for the word of God, and for [18]the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [19]How long, O Lord, [20]holy and true, [21]dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And [22]white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, [23]that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, [24]and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and [25]the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 [26]And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 [27]And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and [28]every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, [29]hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 [30]And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come.[a]
2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown: and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.
3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the 4 second living creature saying, Come.[a] And another horse came forth, a red horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given to take [b]peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.
5 And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come.[a] And I saw, and behold, a black horse; and he that sat thereon had a 6 balance in his hand. And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A [c]measure of wheat for a [d]penny, and three measures of barley for a [d]penny; and the oil and the wine hurt thou not.
7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come.[a]
8 And I saw, and behold, a pale horse: and he that sat upon him, his name was Death; and Hades followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with [e]death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.
9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which
10 they held: and they cried with a great voice, saying, How long, O Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell
11 on the earth? And there was given them to each one a white robe; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little time, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, which should be killed even as they were, should [f]be fulfilled.
12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon be-
13 came as blood; and the stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, as a fig tree casteth her unripe figs, 14 when she is shaken of a great wind. And the heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved out of their 15 places. And the kings of the earth, and the princes, and the [g]chief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in 16 the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on

CHAPTER VII.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number. 9 Of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands. 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, [1] holding the four winds of the earth, [2] that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [3] Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have [4] sealed the servants of our God [5] in their foreheads.

4 [6] And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed [7] an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nepthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, [8] a great multitude, which no man could number, [9] of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, [10] clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, [11] Salvation to our God [12] which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 [13] And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 [14] Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in [15] white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, [16] These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have [17] washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall [18] dwell among them.

7 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth, or on
2 the sea, or upon any tree. And I saw another angel ascend from the sunrising, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth
3 and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have sealed the ser-
4 vants of our God on their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed, a hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel.

10 and they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation unto our God which sitteth on the throne, and unto 11 the Lamb. And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on

CHAPTER VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels had seven trumpets given them. 6 Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow. 3 Another angel putteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar.

AND [1] when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 [2] And I saw the seven angels which stood before God ; [3] and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer ; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with [4] the prayers of all saints upon [5] the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And [6] the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth : and [7] there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, [8] and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, [9] and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [10] upon the earth : and the third part [11] of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, [12] and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea : [13] and the third part of the sea [14] became blood ;

9 [15] And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died ; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, [16] and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, [17] and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters ;

11 [18] And the name of the star is called Wormwood : [19] and the third part of the waters became wormwood ; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 [20] And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars ; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, [21] and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [22] Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound !

thirst any more ; neither shall the sun strike upon 17 them, nor any heat : for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life : and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

8 And when he opened the seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an
2 hour. And I saw the seven angels which stand before God ; and there were given unto them seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood [a] over the altar, having a golden censer ; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should [b] add it unto the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar
4 which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, [c] with the prayers of the saints, went up
5 before God out of the angel's hand. And the angel [d] taketh the censer ; and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it [e] upon the earth : and there followed thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast [e] upon the earth : and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea : and the third part of the sea became blood ;
9 and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life ; and the third part of the ships was destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fount-
11 ains of the waters ; and the name of the star is called Wormwood : and the third part of the waters became wormwood ; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars ; that the third part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the third part of it, and the night in like manner.

13 And I saw, and I heard [f] an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe, woe, woe, for them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who are yet to sound.

CHAPTER IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit. 2 He openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first woe past. 13 The sixth trumpet soundeth. 14 Four angels are let loose, that were bound.

AND the fifth angel sounded, [1] and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of [2] the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; [3] and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [4] locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, [5] as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them [6] that they should not hurt [7] the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not [8] the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, [9] but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days [10] shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And [11] the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; [12] and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, [13] and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and [14] their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was [15] as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: [16] and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 [17] And they had a king over them, which is [18] the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 [19] One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound [20] in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And [21] the number of the army [22] of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: [23] and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: [24] and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed,

9 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was
2 given to him the key of the pit of the abyss. And he opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by
3 reason of the smoke of the pit. And out of the smoke came forth locusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth
4 have power. And it was said unto them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as
5 have not the seal of God on their foreheads. And it was given them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion,
6 when it striketh a man. And in those days men shall seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they shall desire to die, and death fleeth from them.
7 And the [a] shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were as men's
8 faces. And they had hair as the hair of women,
9 and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of 10 chariots, of many horses rushing to war. And they have tails like unto scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men five months.
11 They have over them as king the angel of the abyss: his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek tongue he hath the name [b] Apollyon.

12 The first Woe is past: behold, there come yet two Woes hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard [c] a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before
14 God, one saying to the sixth angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound at 15 the great river Euphrates. And the four angels were loosed, which had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the third part of men. And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times 16 ten thousand: I heard the number of them. And 17 thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and brimstone.
18 By these three plagues was the third part of men

CHAPTER X.

1 A mighty strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: [1] and a rainbow was upon his head, and [2] his face was as it were the sun, and [3] his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: [4] and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, [5] seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [6] Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth [7] lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, [8] who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [9] that there should be time no longer:

7 But [10] in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And [11] the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, [12] Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; [13] and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, [14] my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, 19 which proceeded out of their mouths. For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and

And the rest of mankind, which were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [d] devils, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor

7 er: but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished the mystery of God, according to the good tidings which
8 he declared to his servants the prophets. And the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard it again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel that standeth
9 upon the sea and upon the earth. And I went unto the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. And he saith unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but in

CHAPTER XI.

3 The two witnesses prophesy. 6 They have power to shut heaven, that it rain not. 7 The beast shall fight against them, and kill them. 8 They lie unburied, 11 and after three days and a half rise again. 14 The second woe is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

AND there was given me [1] a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, [2] Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [3] the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; [4] for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they [5] tread under foot [6] forty and two months.

3 And I will give power unto my two [7] witnesses, [8] and they shall prophesy [9] a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [10] two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, [11] fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: [12] and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These [13] have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and [14] have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they [15] shall have finished their testimony, [16] the beast that ascendeth [17] out of the bottomless pit [18] shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [19] the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, [20] where also our Lord was crucified.

9 [21] And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, [22] and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 [23] And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, [24] and shall send gifts one to another; [25] because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 [26] And after three days and an half [27] the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. [28] And they ascended up to heaven [29] in a cloud; [30] and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour [31] was there a great earthquake, [32] and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, [33] and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 [34] The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And [35] the seventh angel sounded; [36] and there were great voices in heaven, saying, [37] The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; [38] and he shall reign for ever and ever.

4 in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees and the two [c] candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the 5 earth. And if any man desireth to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man shall desire to hurt them,
6 in this manner must he be killed. These have the power to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they shall de-
7 sire. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss shall make war with them, and overcome them, and kill

18 [42] And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, [43] and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, [44] small and great; [45] and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

CHAPTER XII.

1 A woman clothed with the sun travaileth. 4 The great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her child: 6 when she was delivered she fleeth into the wilderness. 7 Michael and his angels fight with the dragon, and prevail. 13 The dragon being cast down into the earth, persecuteth the woman.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, [1] travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold [2] a great red dragon, [3] having seven heads and ten horns, [4] and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And [5] his tail drew the third part [6] of the stars of heaven, [7] and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood [8] before the woman which was ready to be delivered, [9] for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, [10] who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And [11] the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [12] a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [13] Michael and his angels fought [14] against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And [15] the great dragon was cast out, [16] that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, [17] which deceiveth the whole world: [18] he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [19] Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [20] which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [21] they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; [22] and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore [23] rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell

16 ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, which sit before God on their thrones, fell upon 17 their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, which art and which wast; because thou hast taken thy great 18 power, and didst reign. And the nations were wroth, and thy wrath came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth.

19 And there was opened the temple of God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his temple the ark of his [g] covenant; and there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

12 And a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman arrayed with the sun, and the moon under her feet,
2 and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; and she was with child: and she crieth out, travailing in
3 birth, and in pain to be delivered. And there was seen another sign in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon
4 his heads seven diadems. And his tail draweth the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was about to be delivered, that when
5 she was delivered, he might devour her child. And she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child
6 was caught up unto God, and unto his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon; and the 8 dragon warred and his angels; and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in hea-
9 ven. And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole [a] world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with 10 him. And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, [b] Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which 11 accuseth them before our God day and night. And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not their life even unto death.

15 And the serpent [31] cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon giveth his power. 11 Another beast cometh up out of the earth: 14 causeth an image to be made of the former beast, 15 and that men should worship it, 16 and receive his mark.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [1] a beast rise up out of the sea, [2] having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2 [3] And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, [4] and his feet were as the feet of a bear, [5] and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and [6] the dragon gave him his power, [7] and his seat, [8] and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads [9] as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and [10] all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, [11] Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him [12] a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue [13] forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, [14] and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [15] to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: [16] and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, [17] whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain [18] from the foundation of the world.

9 [19] If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 [20] He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: [21] he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. [22] Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast [23] coming up out of them. Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman which 14 brought forth the man child. And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness unto her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and 15 half a time, from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water as a river, that he might cause her to be carried
16 away by the stream. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his 17 mouth. And the dragon waxed wroth with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and 13 hold the testimony of Jesus: and he stood upon the sand of the sea.

And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names of blasphemy.
2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him
3 his power, and his throne, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as though it had been [a] smitten unto death; and his death-stroke was healed: and
4 the whole earth wondered after the beast; and they worshipped the dragon, because he gave his authority unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? and who is able
5 to war with him? and there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to him authority [b] to continue forty
6 and two months. And he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, even them that [c] dwell in the heaven.
7 [d] And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and the earth ; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, [24] whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [25] he doeth great wonders, [26] so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And [27] deceiveth them that dwell on the earth [28] by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast ; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, [29] and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, [30] and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, [31] to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads :

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or [32] the name of the beast, [33] or the number of his name.

18 [34] Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count [35] the number of the beast : [36] for it is the number of a man ; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 The Lamb standing on mount Sion with his company. 6 An angel preacheth the gospel. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world, and putting in of the sickle. 20 The vintage and winepress of the wrath of God.

AND I looked, and, lo, [1] a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him [2] an hundred forty and four thousand, [3] having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, [4] as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder : and I heard the voice of [5] harpers harping with their harps :

3 And [6] they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders : and no man could learn that song [7] but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women ; [8] for they are virgins. These are they [9] which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These [10] were redeemed from among men, [11] being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And [12] in their mouth was found no guile : for [13] they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel [14] fly in the midst of heaven, [15] having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, [16] and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, [17] Fear God, and give glory to him ; for the hour of his judgment is come : [18] and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

earth ; and he had two horns like a lamb, 12 and he spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his sight. And he maketh the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose death-stroke was 13 healed. And he doeth great signs, that he should even make fire to come down out of heaven upon
14 the earth in the sight of men. And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast ; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, who hath
15 the stroke of the sword, and lived. And it was given unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, [h] that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as should not worship the image of the beast should be killed.
16 And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or
17 upon their forehead ; and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his 18 name. Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast ; for it is the number of a man : and his number is [i] Six hundred and sixty and six.

14 And I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty and four thousand, having his name, and the name of
2 his Father, written on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder : and the voice which I heard was as the voice of harpers harping
3 with their harps : and they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders : and no man could learn the song save the hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that had been purchased out of the 4 earth. These are they which were not defiled with women ; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the first-
5 fruits unto God and unto the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no lie : they are without blemish.

6 And I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal gospel to proclaim unto them that [a] dwell on the earth, and unto every nation and tribe
7 and tongue and people ; and he saith with a great voice, Fear God, and give him glory ; for the hour of his judgement is come : and worship him that made the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, [19] Babylon is fallen, is fallen, [20] that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, [21] If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same [22] shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [23] poured out without mixture into [24] the cup of his indignation; and [25] he shall be tormented with [26] fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And [27] the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 [28] Here is the patience of the saints: [29] here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, [30] Blessed are the dead [31] which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, [32] that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat [33] like unto the Son of man, [34] having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel [35] came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, [36] Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest [37] of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [38] which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [39] Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into [40] the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And [41] the winepress was trodden [42] without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, [43] even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them that overcome the beast. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND [1] I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [2] seven angels having the seven last plagues; [3] for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were [4] a sea of glass [5] mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, [6] and over his image, and over his mark, and over

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, which hath made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, If any man worshippeth the beast and his image, and receiveth a mark on his
10 forehead, or upon his hand, he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [b] prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
11 and the smoke of their torment goeth up [c] for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, they that worship the beast and his image, and 12 whoso receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints, they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, Blessed are the dead which die [d] in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; for their works follow with them.

14 And I saw, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud I saw one sitting like unto [e] a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand 15 a sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the temple, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for the harvest of the 16 earth is [f] over-ripe. And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.
18 And another angel came out from the altar, he that hath power over fire; and he called with a great voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.
19 And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the [g] vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress, the great winepress, of the wrath of 20 God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

15 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a glassy sea mingled with fire; and them that come victorious from the beast, and from his image, and from the number of his

8 And [18] the temple was filled with smoke [19] from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER XVI.

2 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 6 The plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying [1] to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials [2] of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [3] upon the earth; and [4] there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men [5] which had the mark of the beast, and upon them [6] which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial [7] upon the sea; and [8] it became as the blood of a dead man: [9] and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial [10] upon the rivers and fountains of waters; [11] and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, [12] Thou art righteous, O Lord, [13] which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For [14] they have shed the blood [15] of saints and prophets, [16] and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, [17] Lord God Almighty, [18] true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial [19] upon the sun; [20] and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and [21] blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: [22] and they repented not [23] to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial [24] upon the name, standing [a] by the glassy sea, having harps of 4 King of the [b] ages. Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all the nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy righteous acts have been made manifest.

5 And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was 6 opened: and there came out from the temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed [c] with precious stone, pure and bright, and girt about
7 their breasts with golden girdles. And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who 8 liveth [d] for ever and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.
2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth; and [a] it became a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and which worshipped his image.
3 And the second poured out his bowl into the sea; and [a] it became blood as of a dead man; and every [b] living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.
4 And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of the waters; [c] and [a] it became
5 blood. And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, which art and which wast, thou Holy One, because thou didst thus [d] judge:
6 for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and blood hast thou given them to drink: they 7 are worthy. And I heard the altar saying, Yea, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

8 And the fourth poured out his bowl upon the sun; and it was given unto [e] it to scorch men with fire.
9 And men were scorched with great heat: and they blasphemed the name of the God which hath the power over these plagues; and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the throne seat of the beast ; [25] and his kingdom was full of darkness ; [26] and they gnawed their tongues for pain, 11 And [27] blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and [28] their sores, [29] and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial [30] upon the great river Euphrates ; [31] and the water thereof was dried up, [32] that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.
13 And I saw three unclean [33] spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of [34] the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of [35] the false prophet.
14 [36] For they are the spirits of devils, [37] working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth [38] and of the whole world, to gather them to [39] the battle of that great day of God Almighty.
15 [40] Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [41] lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.
16 [42] And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.
17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air ; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [43] It is done.
18 And [44] there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings ; [45] and there was a great earthquake, [46] such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
19 And [47] the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell : and great Babylon [48] came in remembrance before God, [49] to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
20 And [50] every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
21 [51] And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent : and [52] men blasphemed God because of [53] the plague of the hail ; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER XVII.

3, 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon, the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 8 The punishment of the whore. 14 The victory of the Lamb.

AND there came [1] one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither ; [2] I will shew unto thee the judgment of [3] the great whore [4] that sitteth upon many waters :
2 [5] With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [6] the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.
3 So he carried me away in the spirit [7] into the wilderness : and I saw a woman sit [8] upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of [9] names of blasphemy, [10] having seven heads and [11] ten horns.
4 And the woman [12] was arrayed in purple and scar-of the beast ; and his kingdom was darkened ; and 11 they gnawed their tongues for pain, and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores ; and they repented not of their works.

12 And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the river Euphrates ; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way might be made ready for 13 the kings that come from the sunrising. And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as it were frogs :
14 for they are spirits of f devils, working signs ; which go forth g unto the kings of the whole h world, to gather them together unto the war of the great day
15 of God, the Almighty. (Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.)
16 And they gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew Har-Magedon.

17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon the air ; and there came forth a great voice out of the 18 temple, from the throne, saying, It is done : and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders ; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since i there were men upon the earth, so great an earth-19 quake, so mighty. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell : and Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of 20 the fierceness of his wrath. And every island fled
21 away, and the mountains were not found. And great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men : and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail ; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

17 And there came one of the seven angels that had the seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the judgement of the great
2 harlot that sitteth upon many waters ; with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and they that dwell in the earth were made drunken
3 with the wine of her fornication. And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness : and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-coloured beast, a full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads
4 and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and b decked with gold and 19 And [33] they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! [34] for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 [35] Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for [36] God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, [37] Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and [38] shall be found no more at all.

22 [39] And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 [40] And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; [41] and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for [42] thy merchants were the great men of the earth; [43] for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And [44] in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that [45] were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great slaughter.

AND after these things [1] I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; [2] Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For [3] true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [4] hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And [5] her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [6] the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [7] Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [8] Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, [9] both small and great.

6 [10] And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for [11] the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [12] the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [13] to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: [14] for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [15] Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb.

18 stood afar off, and cried out as they looked upon the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like 19 the great city? And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, wherein were made rich all that had their ships in the sea by reason of her costliness!
20 for in one hour is she made desolate. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye saints, and ye apostles, and ye prophets; for God hath judged your judgement on her.

21 And [p] a strong angel took up a stone as it were a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, the great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at 22 all. And the voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, [q] of whatsoever craft, shall be found any more at all in thee; and the voice of a millstone shall be heard no more at 23 all in thee; and the light of a lamp shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the princes of the earth; for with thy sorcery were all the nations 24 deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all that have been slain upon the earth.

19 After these things I heard as it were a great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, Halle-lujah; Salvation, and glory, and power, belong to 2 our God: for true and righteous are his judgements; for he hath judged the great harlot, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and he hath 3 avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And a second time they [a] say, Hallelujah. And her 4 smoke goeth up [b] for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God that sitteth on the throne, 5 saying, Amen; Hallelujah. And a voice came forth from the throne, saying, Give praise to our God, all ye his servants, ye that fear him, the small and the 6 great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Hallelujah:
7 for the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigneth. Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad, and let us give the glory unto him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.
8 And it was given unto her that she should array herself in fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine 9 linen is the righteous acts of the saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are bidden to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And several gate was of one pearl: [28] and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 [29] And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord
God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.
23 [30] And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.
24 [31] And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.
25 [32] And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for [33] there shall be no night there.
26 [34] And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 5 The light of the city of God is himself. 9 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

AND he shewed me [1] a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.
2 [2] In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there [3] the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were [4] for the healing of the nations.
3 And [5] there shall be no more curse: [6] but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:
4 And [7] they shall see his face; and [8] his name shall be in their foreheads.
5 [9] And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for [10] the Lord God giveth them light: [11] and they shall reign for ever and ever.
6 And he said unto me, [12] These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets [13] sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.
7 [14] Behold, I come quickly: [15] blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.
8 And I John saw these things, and heard them.
And when I had heard and seen, [16] I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.
9 Then saith he unto me, [17] See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.
10 [18] And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: [19] for the time is at hand.
11 [20] He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

CLASSES OF PASSAGES.

I. Strike out "S." (i. e. Saint) from the title of the Gospels and from the heading of the pages.

II. Strike out "the Apostle" from the title of the Pauline Epistles, and "of Paul the Apostle" from the title of the Epistle to the Hebrews; strike out the word "General" from the title of the Epistles of James, Peter, 1 John, and Jude; and let the title of the Revelation run "The Revelation of John."

III. For "Holy Ghost" adopt uniformly the rendering "Holy Spirit."

IV. At the word "worship" in Matt. ii. 2, etc., add the marginal note "The Greek word denotes an act of reverence, whether paid to man (see chap. xviii. 26) or to God (see chap. iv. 10)."

V. Put into the text uniformly the marginal rendering "through" in place of "by" when it relates to prophecy, viz. in Matt. ii. 5, 17, 23; iii. 3; iv. 14; viii. 17; xii. 17; xiii. 35; xxi. 4; xxiv. 15; xxvii. 9; Luke xviii. 31; Acts ii. 16; xxviii. 25.

VI. For "tempt" ("temptation") substitute "try" or "make trial of" ("trial") wherever enticement to what is wrong is not evidently spoken of; viz. in the following instances: Matt. iv. 7; xvi. 1; xix. 3; xxii. 18, 35; Mark viii. 11; x. 2; xii. 15; Luke iv. 12; x. 25; xi. 16; xxii. 28; John viii. 6; Acts v. 9; xv. 10; 1 Cor. x. 9; Heb. iii. 8, 9; 1 Pet. i. 6.

VII. Substitute modern forms of speech for the following archaisms, viz. "who" or "that" for "which" when used of persons; "are" for "be" in the present indicative; "know" "knew" for "wot" "wist"; "drag" or "drag away" for "hale."

VIII. Substitute for "devil" ("devils") the word "demon" ("demons") wherever the latter word is given in the margin (or represents the Greek words δαίμων, δαιμόνιον); and for "possessed with a devil" (or "devils") substitute either "demoniac" or "possessed with a demon" (or "demons").

IX. After "baptize" let the marg. "Or, in" and the text "with" exchange places.

X. Let the word "testament" be everywhere changed to "covenant" (without an alternate in the margin), except in Heb. ix. 15–17.

XI. Wherever "patience" occurs as the rendering of ὑπομονή add "stedfastness" as an alternate in the margin, except in 2 Cor. i. 6; James v. 11; Luke viii. 15; Heb. xii. 1.

XII. Let ἀσσάριον (Matt. x. 29; Luke xii. 6) be translated "penny," and δηνάριον "shilling," except in Matt. xxii. 19; Mark xii. 15; Luke xx. 24, where the name of the coin, "a denarius," should be given.

XIII. Against the expression "the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" add the marginal rendering "Or, God and the Father" etc.; viz. in Rom. xv. 6; 2 Cor. i. 3; xi. 31; Eph. i. 3; Col. i. 3; 1 Pet. i. 3. And against the expression "our God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and our Father"; viz. in Gal. i. 4; Phil. iv. 20; 1 Thess. i. 3; iii. 11, 13; Jas. i. 27. And against the expression "his God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and his Father", viz. in Rev. i. 6.

XIV. Let the use of "fulfil" be confined to those cases in which it denotes "accomplish," "bring to pass," or the like.
